Ye Seamen of Columbia.

A NEW NATIONAL SONG,
Written by Wm. Maxwell, Esq. and set to Music by Mr. James Tomlins, is this day published and for sale by
NEAL, WILLS & COLE,
Price 25 Cents—(Copy-right secured.)

It is the opinion of competent judges that the brilliant music to which this song is set, is better calculated to become a popular national air than any one of the various attempts that have been made since the days of Hail Columbia.

Notice is hereby Given,

That agreeable to the Act of Congress, entitled "An Act to provide additional revenues "for defraying the expenses of Government "and maintaining the public credit, by laying "duties on Spirits distilled within the United "States and Territories thereof, and by amending the Act laying duties on Licenses to Distillers of Spirituous Liquors," passed December 21st, 1814—every person who shall, after the 1st day of February, 1815, distil spirits within the United States, is required, in addition to the duty on the License already taken, or hereafter to be taken by him, to pay Twenty Cents a gallon on all spirits distilled after that day, or subject to the limitations in the said act expressed, to pay Twenty five Cents a gallon on all such spirits; in which case no license is required to be taken, and that, agreeably to the said act, a bond is required previous to the said day to be given to the Collector, and other duties required to be performed under penalties therein prescribed.

That the Distiller may be correctly advised of the duties incumbent upon him to discharge, an Abstract of the several Acts of Congress subjecting Stills, and Boilers and Spirits to duty, has been prepared, a copy of which, with the annexed forms of statements required from a distiller, will be furnished to him by the Collector, on demand.

The Collector will also furnish on demand, Blank Bonds, and such other Blanks as will enable the distiller to comply with the several provisions of law.
