Hon. Reverdy Johnson on the Third Term.

A correspondent of the New York Herald, writing from Saratoga, at which place Hon. Reverdy Johnson, of Baltimore, has been sojourning, gives the following report of a conversation with that gentleman on political topics. The correspondent asked whether Mr. Johnson favored the "third term principle," to which Mr. Johnson replied:

"Principle! I see no principle in the idea whatever. The idea of putting any man in the presideatial chair for a third term ought to be abhorrent to every good citizen. Why, sir, I would not vote for Washington himself for a third term if he was living to-day.

"There are very many weighty reasons which could be urged against it. You see if we concede a third term to Gen. Grant or any other man we do away in a manner with what the people have ever looked upon as a sort of constitutional prohibition. There is nothing, it is true, in the constitution which prohibits a third term, but the idea has been so fixed in the people's minds against honoring any man beyond a second term that it has invested itself with all the force of law."

"Do you think Gen. Grant would take a third renomination?"

"I am positive he would and would work hard to secure his election. Grant is wonderfully fond of money, and so long as he can remain where he is the more easily is he able to gratify his avarice. I have it from very good authority that he would have vetoed the salary grab bill had he been assurred beforehand that his own salary would be increased; but, not getting that assurance, he was unwilling to let slip the only chance to have his pay doubled, and so signed the bill. The presidency to Grant is a sort of personal affair, and he has made it serve him well so far; and I doubt not but that, if he should be renominated, he will, as I said before, not only take the nomination, but use all the vast powers conferred upon him by Congress to help his election. But, of course, I do not believe that there would be any certainty about his election whatever; for I do not think that he could be re-elected even if renominated. He can, if he wants to, easily get renominated. The machinery is all in his hands, and what has been done before in the way of having a convention "all right" to order, can be done again. But I have great faith in the common good sense of the people. It is true that things are done now that receive their sanction which years ago would have been abhorrent to them; and we can hardly tell what changes may come over them between now and 1876. Still, as to this matter of putting a man in the presidential chair for a third term, I do not think the people will ever go astray. To be sure I can easily conceive how they might be justified in re-electing General Grant again, if between now and '76 we should have war with some foreign power; but without some extraordinary justification like this I do not think Gen. Grant's chances for a third term amount to much."

"Do you not think that if the republicans should favor a third term for Grant that the democratic party would be the gainer?"

"Of course the democratic party would be the gainer, and the administration republicans know it well. Do you not notice how their papers pooh-pooh the idea of Grant ever being renominated? If the officeholders and all the other supporters of the present administration should openly avow now their determination to renominate Gen. Grant the democrats would have reason to rejoice; for the very avowal would, I feel confident, drive thousands of good republicans into the opposition ranks. Yet I am of opinion that a great many republicans are looking forward to Grant's renominatton."

"Do you not believe, Mr. Johnson, that there are many prominent republicans who will try to prevent Grant's renomination at all hazards, in order to further their own chances?"

"Undoubtedly, there are many republicans who would secretly rejoice over Grant's discomfiture (if that were possible) in not securing a renomination; but they have not the courage openly to avow their sentiments. There are too many interests that bind them all together now to admit of their being too outspoken just yet. I think Mr. Blaine stands the best chance of getting the nomination in 1876—Grant being considered out of the race. He came out of the Credit Mobilier business well, and has a good record."

A HORSE WINNING A HEAT WITHOUT A DRIVER.—There was rather an unusual incident at the Steubenville race grounds last Saturday afternoon. It was in a pacing race for a purse of $300, free to all. There were five entries. The winning horse was Copperbottom. He took the first heat, and in the second heat the sulky of Copperbottom came into collision with another, and was instantly overturned. The driver of Copperbottom was of course thrown out, and it was expected that Copperbottom would run away. Contrary to expectations, however the horse never broke once, and came in amid the wildest cheers ahead, in as good style as if his driver had been behind him. The enthusiasim of the crowd was immense. They cheered and cheered the self-possessed horse which had declined to get frightened, like most of its kind when released from its driver's care.

The judges were at first going to give the heat to the horse which came in second, because Copperbottom came in without a driver. The crowd getting wind of the possible rulling against the gallant Copperbottom, gathered around the stand, while from every hand went up cries of "Copperbottom! Copperbottom!"

The judges saw if they should give the race to the second horse that the crowd were just in the mood to pull the stand down about their ears. They then retired, and after a consultation ruled the heat a dead heat. They would have been obliged to give the heat to Copperbottom, as he never broke once, had it not been for the claim of foul put in by the driver of the sulky with which Copperbottom collided.

As it was, it is one of the rare events of the turf where a horse has lost its driver, but yet has kept its place in the race as if nothing had happened.—Pittsburg Leader.

Excitement at Drug Stores.—There has been a general rush the last month at the Drug stores in Kent county for Dr. A. Boschee's German Syrup. It has been lately introduced in this country from Germany, and for any person suffering with a severe cough or heavy cold settled on the breast, consumption or any disease of the throat and lungs it has no equa in the world. Our regular size bottles are 75 cts. Two doses will relieve any case. Try it. Sample bottles free of charge. L. M. Green & Son, Proprietor, Woodbury, N. J. A RACE BETWEEN A MAN AND A HORSE.—For several days past it was understood that a race between Lipman Pike, a member of the Lord Baltimore Base Ball Club, and the trotting horse Clarance, owned by Peter Pollard, of this city, would take place yesterday afternoon at Newington Park. The novelty of the affair attracted about eight hundred persons to the park, a larger attendance being prevented by the threatening character of the weather. Pike was the favorite, the odds on him being two to one. The stipulations of the race were that Pike should run one hundred yards and the horse trot the same distance, Pike to start from the line at the word, and the horse to have a start of twenty-five yards in the rear of the line, the purse being $250.

At the word "go" the horse lead, but before he had traveled twenty yards of the track Pike made a spurt and passed his equine adversary and bounded to the score at a lively rate, and reaching the same about twelve feet in advance of the horse. Time, ten seconds, being one minute and a quarter of a second slower than made by Pike in his late race with Young Ebaugh. Pike was clad in flesh-colored tights, and was uniucumbered with either cap or shoes. After the race had been decided yesterday, the friends and backers of Pike were so overjoyed at the result that they wished to place him on their shoulders and parade him about the ball ground, but he modestly declined the honor.—Baltimore Sun, Thursday.

A YOUNG LADY SHOT BY HER LOVER.—The town of Lonaconing, Allegany county, Md., says the Cumberland (Md.) News, was shocked on Tuesday morning by the report that Miss Orpha Miller, a daughter of Mr. Henry Miller, residing three or four miles east of Lonaconing, had been murdered by John S. Coleman, her reputed lover, whom she had rejected. Coleman is the son of a farmer residing near Mr. Miller's house. He and Miss Miller have been intimate since their childhood, and for a period of three years prior to November, 1872, were engaged to be married. About this time Coleman, who was employed as a brakeman on freight trains on the Cumberland and Pennsylvania railroad, met with an accident which made him a cripple for life and lost him the object of his affections, for she, in the forcible language of her whilom fiancee, "went back on him" from the date of his misfortune. Since then they have met occasionally, and according to Ccleman's statement became engaged again, and fixed upon Thursday, August 28, as their wedding day. This arrangement, however, was broken off some time ago.

On Monday last Coleman met Miss Miller in the woods, while returning to her home, and after some conversation, he took out a pistol, telling her to shoot him or he would kill her. She said she could not do such a thing, when he pointed the pistol at her and fired, the ball taking effect in her right breast. Coleman then walked away. Miss Miller, though seriously wounded, was alive at last accounts. Coleman was arrested and committed to jail. Miss Miller is about nineteen years of age, and is described as being very attractive, having many admirers, of which Coleman was always jealous. The families of both are highly respectable and held in much esteem.

WILMINGTON, DELAWARE, CONFERENCE ACADEMY.—Work on the Wilmington Conference Academy at Dover was commenced last Monday week, and a large force of workmen are engaged in running up the walls, as fast as the state of the weather will admit. The building is to be completed by the first of August, 1874. The cost is to be $40,500. The entire cost of building, ground and incidental expenses will be about $55,000. Of this sum $51,201 29 has been donated or subscribed. It is proposed that $10,000 or $15,000 will be added to the subscription, which will be necessary to make it certain that no debt will remain upon the building or grounds of the academy. The academy is to be built of brick. The dimensions are 96 by 89 feet, and four stories high.—Smyrna (Del.) Times.

A DISTRESSING COUGH causes the friends of the sufferer almost as much pain as the sufferer himself, and should receive immediate attention. Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry speedily cures coughs, colds, influenza, sore throat, &c. It will always relieve Consumption, and in many well-attested cases it has effected a perfect cure.

The Wear and Tear of Life.

The cares, anxieties and misfortunes of life, have as much to do with shortening it as disease. They are in fact the source of many ailments and physical disabilities. Nervous weakness, dyspepsia, affections of the liver, disturbances of the bowels, headache, hypochondria and monomania are among these distressing fruits. It is, therefore, of great importance that persons whose minds are oppressed with heavy business reeponsibilities, or harrassed by family troubles, or excited by speculation, or perplexed by a multiplicity of enterprises, or in any way overtaxed or overworked, should keep up their stamina by the daily use of a wholesome tonic. Thousands of persons thus circumstanced are enabled to bear up against the difficulties in which they are involved, and to retain their strength, health and mental clearness, by regular use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Disease, which are prone to attack the body when debilitated and broken down by over-much brain work or exhausting physical labor, are kept at bay by the resistant power with which this incomparable tonic endows the nervous system and the vital organs. At this season, when the heat is evaporating the elements of strength from every pore, an invigorant is absolutely essential to the safety and comfort of the public, and is required even by the more robust if they desire to keep their athletic capabilities in status quo. Hence a course of Hostetter's Bitters is particularly useful at this period of the year as a defence against the invisible disease afloat in a sultry atmosphere. It is the most potent of all preventive medicines, and for all complaints which affect the stomach, the liver and the bowels, and interfere with the perfect digestion and assimilation of food, it is the standard remedy.

Notice to Tax-Payers

OF the FIFTH ELECTION DIST.

THE tax-payers of the 5th Election District are respectfully informed that I have received my books, and all taxes for the present year are now due. It is important that Tax-payers should be prompt in settling their taxes, as the demands upon me, and the present stringent tax laws positively prohibit my indulging were I ever so disposed. Delay in the payment of taxes is not only annoying to the collector, but against the interest of the tax-payer, and I hope none in my district will compel me to run them to cost by forcing payment.

For the accommodation of tax-payers I will be at Grey's Inn Wharf every WEDNESDAY morning, and at Edesville and Bees' Corner alternate Saturdays.

Read the following Testimonials:

CHESTERTOWN, May 12, 1873.
Mr. C. P. Knight, Baltimore, Md.—I bought your Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint of Messrs. C. F. Stam & Bro., Chestertown, and found it to be all you recommend.
Respectfully, CHAS. G. RICAUD,
School Examiner, Kent Co., Md.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 10th, 1872.
Mr. C. P. KNIGHT—Dear Sir:—It affords me much pleasure to say to you that the Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint far exceeds my expectations in economy, beauty, and I have every reason to believe, in durability.
More than twelve months since I painted the roof of my Hotel (Mansion House) with the Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint, and I was so well pleased with it I determined to paint the outside of the Hotel, and am most happy to say it gives me perfect satisfaction. In conclusion I will say if this testimonial will be any advantage to you, you are at liberty to use it. Yours, most respectfully,
ISAAC ALBERTSON,
Mansion House Hotel, corner Fayette and St. Paul streets, Baltimore.

FROM HON. JOHN WETHERED.

Mr. C. P. Knight:—At the recommendation of a friend, I was induced to apply your patent "Bradley's" paint to my house. I have pleasure in stating that it has proved highly satisfactory, covering more surface than you promised, is more economical, carries better gloss than any other paint and is freer from disagreeable odor. Yours, respectfully,
JOHN WETHERED.

THE PLAINS, Fauquier County, Va., February 6th, 1873.
C. P. KNIGHT—Dear Sir:—The Paint came safely to hand, as ordered, two kegs, five gallons each, and three buckets, one gallon each. As practice was slack I did the job myself.—Two weeks not constant work completed the house two coats, the last coat applied thick, and it is now generally conceded that for "Enamel" like hardness and body and harmony of colors there is not a handsomer job in the place. I saved sixty-five ($65) dollars by the operation, which is an item just now with Southern people." It should be generally adopted in this State; any country lad can apply it. I have never dabbled in such stock as Testimonials, but I feel so forcibly the great adaptability of your "Enamel Paint" to the wants of our people in excellency of material, in beauty of color, and the fact of its being "Ready Mixed," that I give you free permission (if it is desirable to you,) to make what use you think proper of this letter.
Very truly, S. McGILL, M. D.

Pleasantville, Harford Co., Md.
C. P. Knight—Dear Sir:—I am happy to inform you that your Patent Enamel Paint has given entire satisfaction. I prefer it to any paint I have ever seen used, and recommend it for durability and beauty as paramount to any other. Very respectfully,
R. DICKEY, M. D.

Belair, March 3d, 1873.
Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir:—I have been using, since last Spring, Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint, and am happy to say that it gives entire satisfaction wherever I have used it, and to parties to whom I have furnished it for other painters to use. Mr. John I. Street, who I furnished with the paint last Fall, says if his name is of any use you can use it with pleasure in recommending so good a paint. S. H. Montague, Painter, agrees with me as to the durability of your most excellent Paint. I hope that those who have painting to do, will look to their advantage and apply Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint, which is the most durable Paint now in use. It holds its gloss longer than any other Paint that I have ever used.
Yours truly, E. C. GARRETTSON,
Belair, Harford county, Md.

Baltimore, Sept. 30th, 1872.
C. P. KNIGHT, Esq.—Dear Sir:—I have had the Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint, which I purchased from you, used inside and outside both at my dwelling and store for two seasons. It gives me great pleasure to be able to say it comes fully up to your recommendations in facility of use, economy, durability and beauty.
Yours, truly, THOS. J. IRVING,
of T. J. Irving & Co.,
58 West Baltimore St.

Chambersburg, December 10th, 1872.
Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir:
The paints we received from you have been applied to several of our own buildings, and to those of our friends, and have given satisfaction in covering qualities, in gloss and in adaptability to all kinds of surface or material, and we cheerfully recommend it, especially to that class of consumers who have to depend upon unknown parties or painters to mix and furnish materials, wherein we have found the most deception.
Yours, truly,
JACOB STOUFFER & SON.

A CARD

To my Fellow-Citizens of Kent County:

I am induced by many considerations to announce myself to you as an INDEPENDENT CANDIDATE FOR THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES of Maryland. There is no reason why labor should not be represented in the State Legislature by one of her own sons and not always by a gentleman of property.—I am not ashamed to be the poor man's candidate. I am opposed to all cliques, rings and conventions, by means of which the few rule the many, taking care to provide office and emolument for themselves to the exclusion of the rank and file. I am against all party machinery and trickery, and am not a caucus candidate, but simply ask and hope for the support of all independent men.

I am your ob't servant,
ap12-6m* JAMES M. AYRES.

Iron in the Blood

PERUVIAN AN IRON TONIC SYRUP

MAKES THE WEAK STRONG.

The Peruvian Syrup, a Protected Solution of the Protoxide of Iron, is so combined as to have the character of an aliment, as easily digested and assimilated with the blood as the simplest food. It increases the quantity of Nature's Own Vitalizing Agent, Iron in the blood, and cures "a thousand ills," simply by Toning up, Invigorating and Vitalizing the System. The enriched and vitalized blood permeates every part of the body, repairing damages and waste, searching out morbid secretions, and leaving nothing for disease to feed upon.

This is the secret of the wonderful success of this remedy in curing Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Chronic Diarrhœa, Boils, Nervous Aff
