BODY SNATCHING AND EXCITEMENT IN SOUTH BALTIMORE—Arrest of Resurrectionists, &c.—There was a great deal of excitement in South Baltimore Monday growing out of the arrest of two men, charged with robbing a grave in the cemetery of Sharp street church, colored, on the Washington turnpike, beyond the city limits, and possessing themselves of the corpse of a colored woman, reputed to be 105 years of age, for dissection. The two men, who gave their names as Charles Ashley, colored, and Thos. Murray, were observed shortly before one o'clock yesterday morning by Sergeant Richardson and police officer Wirtz in the city on Columbia street, near Fremont, the colored man driving a horse and furniture wagon towards Green street, and Murray walking beside the vehicle. The men were hailed and questioned as to the contents of the wagon. Ashley, who was driving, said he had in a bag of corn, but the police officers examined the bundle and found it contained the corpse of a colored woman, which had just come from its grave. With this evidence revealed they could not but acknowledge the fact that a cemetery had been violated, and they also admitted that the body had come from the Sharp street burial ground. They were both taken into custody, and with the wagon and its contents conveyed to the southern police station house, where the prisoners were locked up for a hearing before Justice Jarden at 4 P. M. The corpse was recognized as that of Mary Smith, who had died Saturday night at the house of her daughter, May Anderson, No. 154 York street.

Justice Jarden committed Ashley to jail in default of $500 security to await the action of the authorities of Baltimore county.

Mary Smith, as before stated, died at the remarkable age of 105 years, having been born in Chestertown in 1768. Until the past year she retained a vivid remembrance of scenes and incidents in the revolutionary war. Her eyesight was good and she had never used spectacles, and never had a decayed tooth. Until three weeks ago she appeared regularly upon the streets in South Baltimore, weather permitting, and was regarded with some superstition by many people. On Monday last she was taken ill, and at a late hour on Saturday night died as calmly as though she had fallen into a natural sleep. After the examination the body was given in charge of her daughter, and will be buried to-day in Laurel Hill cemetery, colored, and a watch will be kept over the grave for several days in order to prevent a recurrence of the affair of Sunday night. While the examination was in progress fully one thousand colored men and women collected about the station house.

MORMONS IN ELKTON, MD.—The Cecil (Md.) Whig gives an account of a visit to Elkton recently of Mr. John Young (youngest son of Brigham Young) and his wife. The Whig says:

"Mrs. Young some seven years ago, when she was Miss Lizzie Canfield, lived in Elkton. A very pretty, cultivated girl was she in those days, and stood in the millinery store of Mrs. Brown. Miss Lizzie Cranfield was a second cousin of young Brigham, her mother and old Patriarch Brigham Young's first wife being first cousins. Miss Lizzie's parents resided in Philadelphia. What acquaintance existed between the young folks of the Young family of Salt Lake and the Canfields we do not know; but Miss Lizzie after leaving Elkton started on a trip, accompanied only by a younger sister, to visit the Youngs of Mormon notoriety, and also for the purpose of marrying John. This was a deliberate undertaking, which required no little nerve for a young, well-educated, accomplished Philadelphia-bred lady, but Miss Lizzie was equal to the adventure. Now this undertaking will appear the more risky and formidable when we take into the account that young Young had already two wives. What immediate family arrangement took place we are not advised, but the two first wives had to be discarded to satisfy the fastidiousness of the coming woman. One of the two, the first we believe was divorced, and the second was discarded, turned away, with the arrival, or previous to it, of the young queen.

"About four years ago a delegation of picked women was sent to Washington to intercede with the President in behalf of Mormonism, and Mrs. Young Jr., was among the number. But as Mr. Creswell, who it will be remembered resides at Elkton, was present, she was reconized, and she became suddenly sick and left. Mrs. Creswell, however, met her afterward, but failed to recognize her. The special object of Mrs. Young east was to meet her husband who has just returned from Europe; and nothing would satisfy her but for them to visit Elkton together. They did so and received a large number of the wife's former friends.

BLOODY DETAILS OF THE SANTIAGO MASSACRE.—The New York Herald learns the following details of the slaughter of November 5 from an eye witness: When they arrived at the place of execution the doomed men were placed in a line about four feet apart, with their faces to the wall. The marines formed a line, two deep, about ten feet from the men they were going to murder. The prisoners were then ordered to kneel. The signal being given to fire, a volley of two hundred rifles was fired at the thirty-seven men upon their knees, ten feet off. One man only lay dead; that was the Captain. The rest were wounded in the most horrid manner. Up to the time of the firing of the first volley I was not able to get nearer than 200 yards from the prisoners. The moment the volley was fired I jumped over the wall and ran along until I was abreast the prisoners and then mounted the wall and witnessed the most cruel murders. The marines had reloaded their rifles and were shooting the wounded men in the mouths, ears and eyes, placing the muzzle of the gun close up to the head and blowing it to atoms. One man was slightly wounded. Two men stepped up to him; one ran his gun into the man's mouth; the poor man grasped it with both hands. The other put his gun at the man's ear. This kind of work lasted for twenty minutes before the last man was dead.—Five dirt carts then came up with ten men from the chain gang, and the dead were thrown into these conveyances in all shapes. There was not a man in the thirty-six who were wounded, whose head was not blown off from the mouth up.—They were buried ten in a hole. The troops marched back to town to a lively air.

A LONDON FOG.—A cable dispatch from London dated Dec. 9. (Tuesday last) says:

A dense fog hangs over this city. At 2 P. M. it was as dark as night. Locomotion is slow and hazardous, and by half past three P. M. the fog increased to a density which is said to be almost without precedent. It is impossible to transact business, and all traffic has ceased.—The streets are filled with men and boys bearing torches to light pedestrains on their way.

WORTON AGRICULTURAL CLUB.

CLUB ROOM, Dec. 4th, 1873.

Messrs. Editors:—Although we had a good attendance at the Club to-day, yet our room was not crowded as it used to be when horse-racing was the absorbing theme, or as the little room on the corner used to be when sassafras bushes, locust trees and the goose were so ably discussed. Some who come from curiosity or novesty, not realizing the importance of sustaining the organization, have ceased coming, or only make a semi-occasional appearance. That any farmer shold fail to encourage an institution conducted entirely, as this has been, in the interest of farmers, seems passing strange.

No new business was submitted to-day. Action on the amendment to the constitution, changing the day of meeting, and the co-operative store, occupied all the time, but all the business was finished. The amendment was adopted unanimously, and members will please take notice that if their dues (due last January) are not paid by the first Thursday in January next, being the day of the yearly meeting, their names will be stricken from the roll of membership, and can only be reinstated by the payment of the initiation fee of two dollars. In view of members receiving a free ticket to the annual exhibition, having an interest in the property of the association, the privileges of the co-operative store, and the social and intellectual advantages of the Club, I can not think there are any who would wish their names removed, not to mention the duty that is upon every farmer to build up his calling by sustaining an institution devoted entirely to that purpose as this is.

The day of meeting was changed to Monday, the change to take effect the second Monday after the yearly meeting, so that after that time the club will be glad to see you, Messrs. Editors, on Monday afternoons instead of Thursdays. I wonder if it is generally understood that the club meetings are open to all; not only free, but the Club is always glad to have any farmer, or any friend of the farmer, attend the meetings.

The co-operative store received the most attention, various resolutions were offered, all while all confessed its necessity and importance, it was decided not to start on it at this time. This decision was caused by the very unsatisfactory financial condition of many agriculturists, brought out by the years' disasters. A resolution to appoint a committee of three was carried, said committee to have in charge everything in connection with a co-operative store and ware-house, and to report to the club once a month. The committee to be named by the President at the next meeting. Thus not only keeping the subject before the club, but preparing to take prompt and intelligent action as soon as the financial situation is more favorable.

Yours, &c., PARTICEPS.

Captain B's Last Letter to His Wife.

The following is the letter written by Capt. Fry of the Virginius, a few hours before he was shot. The allusion to family affairs is, of course, not reproduced:

On Board the Spanish Man-of-War La Tornado, S. Jago de Cuba, Nov. 6, 1873.

Dear, Dear Dita: When I left you I had no idea that we should never meet again in this world but it seems strange to me that I should to-night, and on Annie's birthday, healthy seated, on a beautiful moonlight night, in a most beautiful bay in Cuba, to take my last leave of you, my own dear, sweet wife, and with the thought of your bitter anguish my only regret at leaving. I have been tried to-day, and the president of the court-martial asked the favor of embracing me at parting, and clasped me to his heart. I have shaken hands with each of my judges, and the secretary of the court and interpreter have promised me special favor to attend my execution, which will, I am told, be in a very few hours after my sentence is pronounced, I am told my death will be painless; in short, I have had a very cheerful and pleasant chat about my funeral, to which I shall go in a few hours from now. How soon I cannot yet say. It is curious to see how I make friends. Poor Bambetta pronounced me a gentleman, and he was the brightest and bravest creature I ever saw.

Dear sweetheart, you will be able to bear it for my sake, for I will be with you if God permits. Although I know my hours are short and few, I am not sad.—I feel I shall always be with you right soon, dear Dita, and you will not be afraid of me. Pray for me and I will pray for you. There is to be a fearful sacrifice of life from the Virginius, and, as I think, a needless one, the poor people are unconscious of crime, and even of their fate up to now. I hope God will forgive if I am to blame for it. If you write to President Grant he will probably order my pay due when I resigned paid you after my death. Pope will be kinder to you now, dear Dita—at least I hope so. Do not dread death when it comes to you; it will be as God's angel of rest. Remember this. I hope my children will forget their father's sickness, and remember his love and anxiety for them. May they practice regularly their religion, and pray for him always. Tell —— that the last act of my life was the public profession of my faith and hope in Him of whom we need not be ashamed, and it is not honest to withhold that public acknowledgement from any false modesty or timidity. May God bless and save you all. Sweet, dear, dear Dita, we will soon meet again. Till then, adieu, for a blast time.

Your devoted husband, JOSEPH FRY.

It may be well state that the letter necessarily omitted reflections on the Spanish government but before his death Fry gave utterance very forcibly to opinions on that subject, his silence only coming with his death.

A Manual of Health.

An edition of between nine and ten millions of copies of a very valuable work is now ready for gratuitous distribution, and can be had for the asking at any drug store in the United States, the British Colonies, Spanish America or Brazil. The work referred to is Hostetter's Almanac for 1874. The medical proportion of it treats of the various ailments to which the human system is subject, and sets forth the peculiar proprieties of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters—the purest and best tonic at present known—as a preservative of health and strength, and as a remedy for debility and disease. The Almanac is printed in all the principal languages of the civilized world, and reaches a larger number of families and in more languages than any other medical treatise that emanates from the press. No man or women worth a due regard for their choicest of heavenly blessings, bodily vigor, should fail to read this plain, simple and convincing articles which this truly practical publication contains. The miscellaneous matter is varied, instructive and amusing, and the calendar department is ingenious and comprehensive. Hostetter's Almanac is, in short, a household convenience, adapted to the use of all classes and callings. The farmer, the planter, the miner, the merchant, the mechanic, the laborer, the professional man, all need it; and to invalids of both sexes it is literally an article of prime necessity. The medical technicalities which render so many medical treatises intended for popular use unintelligible to the general reader, have been carefully avoided in this pamphlet. All is plain, explicit, forcible, and reconcilable with common sense.

The proprietors, Messrs. Hostetters & Smith, Pittsburgh, Pa., on receipt of a two cent stamp, will forward a copy by mail to any person who cannot procure one in his neighborhood.

WHAT BROUGHT ON THE LATE CRISIS?—About nine out of every ten people believe the late financial crisis was brought about by the failure of Jay Cooke & Co.; whereas, the truth is, the crisis really broke those celebrated brokers; and the crisis itself is the result of our defective National banking system. The National banking law permits the national banks to pay 4 per cent, interest on deposits. This tempts depositors in the money centres to keep very large sums on deposit. At times, as much as $200,000,000 was on deposit in the New York city banks alone. The law also requires the city banks to keep on hand a reserve of 25 per cent of both deposits and circulation, to protect depositors, and country banks to keep a reserve of 15 per cent. on their circulation and deposits. At the time the panic commenced, the banks held a reserve of not less than $200,000,000, leaving only $156,000,000 greenbacks in circulation; and they could not draw on their reserve without violating the act of Congress. At the time of the greatest stringency there was only about $500,000,000 of currency in circulation, or $12.19 per capita. Every thing was screwed up to its utmost tension. No wonder that Jay Cooke failed; the wonder is that every one did not. And if this reserve, and interest on deposit business is not speedily corrected by Congress, we have not yet seen the worst of the crisis by a great deal.—Easton Star.

A WILD WOMAN IN PRINCE WILLIAM COUNTY, VA.—Mr. Roda Fewell and others report to the Manassas (Va.) Gazette that as they were hunting in the woods near Band's Ford bridge, Prince William county, Va., on Tuesday last, they discovered smoke arising from a thick grove a few hundred yards distant, which proved to come from the bivouac of a woman nearly nude, who was seated near the fire picking a large bird. Upon the approach of the huntsmen she grasped a bow and arrows and fled. They represent the woman about thirty years old, wearing undressed bearskin about the lions, her only covering. The Alexandria Gazette a few days ago reported a wild man in the woods of Prince William.

CRYSTAL WEDDING.—Our esteemed Secretary of the State, Hon. R. C. Hollyday, and his accomplished lady celebrated the fifteenth anniversary of their marriage by a Crystal Wedding at their residence near Easton, on Tuesday night last. There were present a large number of invited guests from this and the adjoining counties, and some from the Western Shore and Virginia. The entertainment was a most brilliant one, and all present passed an evening of unalloyed enjoyment and pleasure.—Easton Journal.

THE Czar of Russia is evidently on the war path. For some cause or other, he has determined to strengthen the army, and has issued an imperial ukase requiring that six men out of every thousand in the Empire, including the Polish provinces, shall be drafted for military purposes. Such a measure in times of profound peace seems altogether inexplicable, except upon the well-known principle that it is wise in time of peace to prepare for war.

MR. L. D. CESSNA, a farmer, living east of Cumberland, killed last week a two year old hog, which weighed 641½ pounds net. This is believed to be the champion mammoth porker of the State.

Bishop Becker, Catholic, confirmed 17 candidates in Easton and 58 in Chapel District, near Easton, last week.

OVER 200 hawks have been shot in Talbot Co. since the 50 cents hawk scalp law went into operation 18 months ago.

STRAYED, from the subscriber, at Chesterville, on or about the 20th October, a RED, BUFFALO COW, with Roan in both flanks, and hair worn off the neck with a yoke. A liberal reward will be paid for information that will lead to her recovery.

EUREKA
VINEGAR BITTERS
Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.
No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.
Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.
Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.
Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.
Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.
For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.
Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS occasionally.
For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.
Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelminities will free the system from worms like these Bitters.
For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.
Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

which can be cured by a timely resort to this standard preparation, as has been proved by the hundreds of testimonials received by the proprietors. It is acknowledged by many prominent physicians to be the most reliable preparation ever introduced for the relief and cure of all Lung complaints, and is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience of over forty years. When resorted to in season it seldom fails to effect a speedy cure in the most severe cases of Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Asthma, Colds, Sore Throat, Pains or Soreness in the Chest and Side, Liver Complaint, Bleeding at the Lungs, &c.
