PRESIDENT MAKING.

A correspondent of the Baltimore Sun writes the following political gossip from the Greenbrier White Sulpher Springs. It is interesting:

Whilst the younger portion are busily engaged in conversation in the parlor or dancing in the ball room, the elder and graver are discussing the condition of the country upon the porticos. Of course, the subject of the next Presidency is the most prominent topic, and if the sentiments of many of the prominent and knowing ones who have visited the Springs this season, and who represent all section of the country, can be taken as an index of public opinion then Governor Allen, of Ohio, will be the next choice of the democracy for the Presidency of the United States. The little excitement which existed for a very short period amongst our politicians of the South in favor of Grant for a third term has entirely subsided, and the adherents of that idea can now nowhere be found. There are, perhaps, one half of the States of the Union represented here, and never before has there been the same unanimity manifested in regard to the Democratic nominee as exists among these gentlemen. Governor Allen, of Ohio, seems, as I have said, to have been settled upon by these as the standard bearer.

He, they say, combines all the qualities which the Democratic party require and demand in the next campaign. A distinguished gentleman of the West furnishes me a short biography of him which I give you. Gov. Allen was born in North Carolina, A. D., 1805, emigrated in boyhood to Lynchburg, Virginia, where he learned the trade of saddler. When about eighteen years of age, with no wardrobe except what could be contained in a cotton handkerchief, and which embraced his whole worldly effects, he crossed the Allegbanies on foot, and settled in Chillicothe, Ohio, where he has since continued to reside. At the age of thirty he was elected to the house of Representatives in Congress over Gov. McArther, whose daughter he afterwards married. In 1826 he was elected Senator in Congress, and re-elected in 1842. He is the only member now living who was in the Senate on his entrance into that body. He belongs to that old school of Democrats that ever made principle their polar star

His senatorial record furnishes evidence of his integrity, reliability and statesmanship. After a retirement of twenty-five years, he is called to the highest office the people of Ohio could give him, overcoming a majority of twenty-five thousand votes. This gentleman, or some one like him, will be the only kind of a candidate that will satisfy the party in the next campaign, as they are tired and disgusted with experiments in so grave and important a matter. The Democracy require no other platform or planks with such a candidate, and if nominated, all Democrats and honest Republicans, who equally desire a change will rally around him.

A TERRIBLE SUICIDE.—The hearts of all who saw it were almost petrified by an awful suicide that took place yesterday afternoon almost in front of the Erie Railroad Depot, in Paterson. The wretched man was named Robert Podmore, 72 years of age. He lost his wife a few weeks ago, and has since been low spirited, which probably superinduced a temporary attack of insanity, during which he took his life. In the presence of a number of witnesses Podmore stepped upon the track immediately in front of an approaching freight train, which was running slowly at the time. The engineer vigorously applied the whistle signal of danger, and reversed his engine, but the man never stirred, except to plant himself more firmly in the centre of the track, his back toward the locomotive, and his head sufficiently turned so that he could note its approach over his shoulder When the engine was within ten or fifteen feet of him he suddenly stooped down in a crouching position, as close to the ground as possible, his back still toward the engine, but his face yet turned so that he could see it. In this position he remained, looking with steady eye upon the engine that was the next moment to crush his head and body and send his soul into eternity. The people about, agasht with horror, were powerless to move, even could they have done any good. The cowcatcher passed over the man and then he was caught by the ash pan and other gearing under the engine, and literally torn to pieces. He had scarcely a whole bone left in his body, and his intestines and vital organs were scattered about with horrible profousion. No inquest was considered necessary.—N. Y. Herald, Aug 28.

It is a singular fascination which causes deaf persons to walk on railroads. Every mouth or so, we read the result, of A. B. or C. has been run over and there is no one to blame. The engineer observed him walking on the track, and whistled. There is no notice taken of it, and the cars come on at full speed whistling and rattling with noise enough to wake the Seven Sleepers. Placidly and unconcernedly the doomed man on the track proceeds. He is as indifferent as if he was on a turupike. When a man disputes the right of way in that manner with a railroad train, he is apt to get the worst of it; accordingly he does. We repeat, why will deaf persons walk on the railroad?—It is dangerous at any time to walk where the cars run at thirty miles an hour without the utmost care. Those who cannot have their eyes and ears alert are in constant peril.—Balto. Gazette.

HOMICIDE AT CECILTON, MD.—On Saturday last a fight occurred at a drinking saloon in Cecilton, Md., between Richard Brown and Richard Piner, negroes. An old grudge had existed for a long time, and other fights had taken place On this occasion Piner attacked Brown, and the latter drew a knife and stabbed him in three places, wounding him so severely that he died on Monday morning. The impression in the town seems to be that Brown used the knife in self-defense, as, it is said, he was on the ground and that Piner was beating him while he was down.—Middletown Transcript.

A CASE OF BARBARITY.—Mr. Henry Seeny, who lives on a farm in the vicinity of Wye Mills, noticed that one of his horses was drooping and appeared unwilling and unable to eat and drink. Upon examination, it was found that the tongue of the horse had been slit open with a knife, and then a large portion of the tongue cut off. The poor beast was almost totally unable to swallow food or water. For such a monster as he who did this thing, there must certainly be a hell.—St. Michael's (Md) Comet.

SUICIDE BY HANGING.—Reese M. Spence, an old man, aged about 75 years, living with John P. Snode, near Cowantown, Cecil co., having no friends who seemed to care for him and no doubt tired of living committed suicide on Friday night of last week, by hanging himself to a tree in a corn field near the house in which he lived. He was of unsound mind.

THE PHILADELPHIA Ledger has collected and digested the brief items of crop intelligence transmitted from England, and has arrived at the conclusion—we hope it may prove true—that we will have a market this fall and next winter for all the wheat we can spare, and at rates which will be remunerative. It finds that this year's wheat crop in England, whilst somewhat below an average, is about one-fourth more than the crop of any of the last three years. The estimated yield is twenty-eight bushels to the acre, and the wheat area is usually three and a half million acres. In round numbers, the crop of 1874 may be estimated at one hundred million bushels, whilst the average consumption of wheat in England is one hundred and ninety million bushels. This excess of ninety million bushels she will have to import during the coming year. Shippers and grain dealers compute that we will have to make up at least one half of the deficiency. Russia, whence her supplies are also drawn, does not seem to be in a position to export more wheat than last year, so that everything favors an exportation from the United States fully as great as that of 1873, or about forty-five million bushels. The present low price of wheat will also stimulate exportation by bringing us customers, as well as by increasing consumption abroad. A demand has already sprung up for vessels in which to ship it, and the wheat for export to Europe will soon begin to come eastward. The shorter inland lines, lower port charges, and excellent terminal facilities provided at this port, entitle Baltimore—and she will doubtless receive it—to a fair proportion of this wheat exportation.—Sun

DELAWARE PEACHES.—It is stated that Mr. S. F. Shallcross, of Odessa, Delaware, is the largest peach grower in that State, and that he has already shipped to the New York market over twenty-five thousand baskets of that fruit, which will average a profit of not less than thirty-five thousand dollars, clear of all expenses.—He has also several thousand baskets yet to ship.

LYNCH LAW IN PENNSYLVANIA.—Albert Brown, negro, who outraged Cora Greenleaf, a girl five years old, near Canton, Pa., last week, and then cut her throat, was being taken to Towanda jail, when he was taken from the wagon by masked men and riddled with bullets. He was a bad character. He was liberated from the Eastern penitentiary at Philadelphia, May 15, 1873, having served a term of three years for attempted felonious assault in Bradford county.

The Cant of Imposters.

It is so obvious that physical and constitutional vigor is the best defense against disease, that even the vendors of drastic purgatives advertise them as tonics, stomachists and invigorants, in the hope of enlisting the confidence of the public in the devitalizing and pernicious potions. It is amusing to note how these imposters imitate and copy the language in which the medicinal properties of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are described. Although the effect of their rasping evacuants is to destroy the tone of the digestive organs and the bowels, and to rob the system of its vital strength, they are unscrupulously recommended to the weak and prostrate victims of disease as stimulants! It is time this humbug (not a very successful one it is true, thanks to the mature common sense of the American people) was stigmatized as it deserves. Such mischievous falsehoods should be exposed pro bono publico. Hostetter's Stomache Bitters, be it distinctly understood, is a stimulant. It has a spirituous basis, and that basis is the vehicle which diffuses its wonderful sanitary principles through every part of the system. The tonic, alterative and regulating ingredients of the Bitters would be comparatively inert if they were not, so to speak, carried to the localities where they are required by the stimulating agent. The cant which protests against the use of a pure alcoholic fluid, when employed as a means of giving full effect to medicinal extracts of the highest utility, is the cant of charlatanism. Every intelligent physician so characterizes it, and the sick who are griped, convulsed and debilitated by the nauseous and disgusting nostrums of the parties who put it forth, soon find to their sorrow that it is a delusion and a snare. Hostetter's Bitters, the great sanitary stimulant of the age, is, in the truest sense of the words, a wholesome, vitalizing, renovating preparation.

A Medicine Chest in Miniature.

Mishler's Herb Bitters is not a beverage, but a strictly medicinal preparation, more thoroughly adapted to the wants of the general public than any other in the market. Unlike all other so-called Remedies, it is prepared under the direct personal supervision of an eminent Physician. S. B. Hartman, M. D., the senior proprietor, is a regular graduate of the Jefferson Medical College of Philadelphia, and a practicing physician of large experience and extensive practice. In such hands the public may rest assured that Mishler's Herb Bitters is compounded in strict accordance with correct Pharmaceutical principles, and that none but the choicest ingredients enter into its composition.

Its immense sale alone is conclusive proof that it possesses merit of a high order. Merchants, bankers, clergymen, lawyers, clerks and others engaged in sedentary occupations, experience its wonderful effects in relieving the depression caused by severe mental labor; while the mechanic, farmer and laborer, find their bodily vigor restored like magic by its use.

At this season of the year, when DIARRHŒA, CHOLERA, COLICS and kindred disorders, caused by eating unripe fruits, imprudent indulgence in cold drinks, &c., are prevalent, a certain, speedy and effectual remedy will be found in Mishler's Herb Bitters.

The depressing feeling of Languor or Debility, incident to the "heated term," is at once removed, the energies restored, and new life and vigor imparted to the prostrated system, by its use.

IN DYSPEPSIA, LIVER COMPLAINT AND AFFECTIONS OF THE KIDNEYS, it invariably works like a charm. It is not a drastic purge nor heady stimulant, violent in its operations; but it is simply a natural remedy, thoroughly adapted to assist nature. It supplies tone to the stomach, reinvigorates the digestive organs, stimulates the secretions, and promoting a regular action of the bowels, enables every organ of the body to perform its allotted work regularly and without interruption.

It is the unerring certainty of desired results attendant on its use, coupled with the fact that it is prepared by a physician of eminence in his profession, that has rendered Mishler's Herb Bitters so popular, and as familiar as a household word. THOUSANDS OF MOTHERS all over the land have found it to be the safest and best remedy for use in their families; they not only give it with perfect safety to even the youngest child, but when used with caution find it the safest means of ensuring their own health and freedom from the weary aches and pains incident to their sex. Perfectly harmless, it is just the remedy needed by them to enable Nature to perform her functions naturally regularly and without inconvenience. NO LADY SHOULD BE WITHOUT IT if she would possess the clear, blooming complexion and cheerful spirits inseparable from sound health. It is sold by all Druggists and General Dealers; is neatly put up in square Glass Bottles, enclosed in a yellow wrapper. Is not sold on Draught, being strictly a medicinal preparation, and as such is endorsed by many of the most eminent physicians of the country.

THE Louisville Courier Journal gets off this joke: "The people of Delaware want to have a big race for Governor, but we can't see how they possibly can, unless they get permission to run in some other State."

WHANN'S Raw Bone Super Phosphate

IN the culture of WHEAT, true economy implies the use of such manures as produce the greatest yield, and at the same time leave the land in the best condition for grass.

WHANN'S RAW BONE SUPER PHOSPHATE is extensively used on this important crop, for the reason that it fulfills these conditions—the Grass often paying for the Fertilizers, leaving the increased yield of Wheat clear profit.

No Fertilizer has ever excelled it, combining the active qualities of the best Peruvian Guano with the more lasting properties of dissolved Bone, it is unexcelled as a manure for Wheat. Those Farmers who have used need no reminder as to its worth. Their continued use of it year after year is the strongest argument which can be brought to prove its merits.

The following testimonials from two well known Farmers will be appreciated:

HANESVILLE, KENT CO., MD., July 17th, 1874.

Messrs. Walton, Whann & Co.:

Gentlemen:—I have used Whann's Raw Bone Super Phosphate on my Wheat for the past two years. I am very much pleased with its action both on Wheat and Grass, and regard it as one of the best Fertilizers on the market, and a permanent improver of the land:

Yours, truly,
WILLIAM T. ANDERSON.

Gentlemen:—I have been using Whann's Raw Bone Super Phosphate on my farm near Chestertown nine or ten years. It has never failed to give me satisfaction both in its results on Wheat and the Grass following. I regard it as second to none, and expect to continue its use.

ORDER of PUBLICATION.

C. T. WESTCOTT
AND I. R. LEAVERTON,
Administrators of Curtis Cordray, dec'd, versus
CHAS. W. MURPHEY, et al.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR KENT COUNTY, IN EQUITY.

THE OBJECT of this suit is to procure a Decree for the sale of certain Real Estate in Kent County, Maryland, of which Thomas Murphey, late of St. George's Hundred in the County of New Castle and State of Delaware, died seized, for the purpose of paying the debts of said deceased, and of distributing any surplus to his heirs at law.

The Bill states that the said deceased was in his life time indebted to one Curtis Cordray, during his life time in the just and full sum of $1,351.41, on a certain promissory note made by the said deceased Thomas Murphey in his life time, to the order of the said Cordray, bearing date on or about January 23rd, 1867, and payable twelve months after date, with legal interest from date as is fully shown by complainant's Exhibit "A," filed as a part of said Bill; and that said Murphey during his life time was also indebted to said Cordray in his life time, on a certain open account for the purchase money of Five acres of land, with the interest thereon from July 27th, 1861, to the 27th of February, 1873, amounting to the full and just sum of $174.91, as by Complainant's Exhibit "B," filed as a part of the said Bill, will be fully shown.

And it also states that the said Thomas Murphey was in his life time seized and possessed of certain Real Estate lying and being in Kent County, Maryland, called the "Samuel Kennard" or "Churn Creek" Farm, lying in Worton, in said county, containing Two hundred and sixty-seven acres of land, more or less; and also the "Joseph" or "John Kennard" Farm, adjoining the aforesaid tract, containing Two hundred and four acres of land, more or less; both of which said tracts were acquired by deed from one John Reybold, et al, bearing date June 18th, 1858, and duly recorded among the Land Records of Kent county aforesaid. And also, all that tract or parcel of land, lying in said county, adjoining the aforenamed tracts, containing Ten acres, more or less, which was acquired by deed from one George W. Watts, bearing date June 5th, 1862, and duly recorded among the said Records, as on reference thereto will more fully appear.

And the Bill further states that the said Thomas Murphey, being so indebted as aforesaid, and also unto divers other persons in large sums of money, and having Real and Personal estate of considerable value, afterwards departed this life in the year 1872, leaving Elizabeth Murphey, Lydia R. Murphey, Mary Hall formerly Mary Murphey, Thomas C. Murphey and Matilda Murphey, his only children and heirs at law, all of whom your orators are informed are above the age of twenty-one years, and are non-residents of the State of Maryland; and also leaving a last Will and Testament in writing, in which, among other things he gave to his wife, one Susan Murphey, the sum of Twenty thousand dollars, with interest thereon from the time of his death, and also his household and kitchen furniture, two carriages and one horse, which bequests he made in lieu of his wife's dower in his estate; and, after devising a tract of land in Kent county, Maryland, lying near Massey's X Roads, to his half brother, Charles Wesley Murphey, for life, containing Forty acres, he gave and devised all the residue of his estate both real and personal, unto his children in equal shares and their heirs and assigns forever; and, finally, he appointed his son Thos C. Murphey, and his son-in-law, John Rankin Hall, executors of his said last Will and Testament, a certified copy of which was duly admitted to probate by the Orphans' Court for Kent county aforesaid, and filed and recorded in the office of the Register of Wills for said County, as by a certified copy thereof, marked Exhibit "C," filed as a part of the said Bill, will be fully shown.

And the Bill further states that your orators are advised that Letters Testamentary of all and singular the personalty of said Thomas Murphey, were granted unto the said executors, T. C. Murphey and J. R. Hall, of the State of Delaware, from the office of the Register of Wills of New Castle county, in the said State, who, in virtue thereof, have possessed themselves of said personalty of considerable value, but your orators are informed and believe that the same is not sufficient to discharge all the debts due and owing by the said Murphey at the time of his death. And your orators' bill further states that shortly afterwards, in the year 1873, the said Curtis Cordray departed this life intestate, leaving a personal estate of considerable value in Kent county aforesaid, and elsewhere, and that shortly after the death of the said Cordray, administration of all and singular his personalty was, by the Orphans' Court of said Kent county, in due form of law granted unto your orators, as appear by the certificate of the Register of Wills for said County, marked Exhibit "D," also filed as a part of the said Bill, will be fully shown; who, in virtue thereof, possessed themselves of all the personal estate which was in the possession of the said Cordray in the State of Maryland, at the time of his death, and thereby became possessed of the aforesaid claims against the said Thomas Murphey, hereinbefore mentioned and referred to as Exhibits "A" and "B."

And the Bill further states that as the said Thomas Murphey was at the time of his death possessed of no personal estate in this county, and that no letters testamentary or administration have been granted on his personal estate, as will be fully shown by a certificate of the Register of Wills of said county, marked, Exhibit "E," and filed as a part of this Bill,—your orators and his other proper creditors are entitled to have their claims paid out of the Real Estate of the said deceased, in the hands of his aforesaid devisees, and that the said Susan Murphey, widow of the said Thomas Murphey, J. Rankin Hall and Thomas C. Murphey, executors of the said Thomas Murphey, are also in conjunction to these hereinbefore named, non-residents of the said State of Maryland.

IT IS THEREUPON ADJUDGED AND ORDERED, that the complainants, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published at Chestertown, Maryland, once in each of four successive weeks before the third day of October next, give notice to the said absent Defendants of the object and substance of this Bill; and warn them to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor on or before the third day of December next, to answer the premises, and show cause, if any they have, why a Decree ought not to pass as prayed.
