The Kent News.

SATURDAY - - - - SEPT. 19, 1874.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

The contest in the Fourth Congressional District, in Baltimore, on Tuesday, between Messrs. Swann and McLane, for delegates to the nominating convention, resulted in favor of Swann, who carried every ward. The total vote in the district was 7,732, of which the Swann delegates received 5,290, and the McLane delegates 2,442. Majority for Swann, 2,848. In the Third Congressional District the delegates in favor of the renomination of Hon. William J. O'Brien were elected in every ward except the Sixth, which was carried by the friends of F. S. Hoblitzell, Esq.

The negroes in parts of the South seem certainly becoming murderous in their purposes. More trouble is reported from Alabama. Tuesday morning Dr. Minor, of Falkland, on visiting a plantation six miles from Demopolis, found a large body of negroes in arms and drilling. They stated that negro blood had been shed, and that they were determined to have white blood. Dr. Minor reported what he had seen, and the citizens sent two unarmed white men to pacify the negroes, and to let them know that the report that any negro had been killed was false.—When the two unarmed messengers approached the negroes they were fired upon, and both wounded, one seriously and the other mortally. The whites, to the number of thirty or forty, soon after went to the locality and dispersed the negroes, killing and wounding several of them.—They numbered two hundred, and are reported to have reassembled, and declare that no white man shall pass the road, on pain of death. The County Commissioners, all Republicans, set forth in a resolution that they know of no violence used toward any citizen or person on account of political opinions.

Moulton's second voluminous statement of the dreary and disgusting Beecher scandal has been published. According to his own showing, he allowed his friendship for Beecher to lead him to subterfuge and dissimulation. If Moulton's statement is true, Mr. Beecher is not only one of the most depraved, but silliest of men. It is not easy to decide whether the wickedness attributed to him is greater than the folly in his confession of it to Moulton. The New York papers of Tuesday say that Mr. Beecher is expected from the Twin Mountain House this week, for the purpose of taking immediate legal proceedings against Moulton for libel.

Saturday last, the sixtieth anniversary of the Battle of North Point, was observed in Baltimore in the usual manner. Flags were displayed from public buildings and the city offices were closed. The Association of Old Defenders spent the day at Hall's Springs, where there was a fine dinner, and Gen. R. H. Carr delivered an eloquent oration. There was a parade of the Baltimore City Fire Department and a review of the department by the Mayor and Board of Fire Commissioners. The monument in Ashland Square, erected over the remains of Wells and McComas, the two youths who are credited with having killed Gen. Ross and sacrificed their lives in the act, was handsomely decorated and visited by a large number of persons.

The crime of kidnapping is becoming alarmingly common. The sequel to a sad story of the stealing of a child by a discharged servant woman from a family in New York last week, is that it was found in a dying condition where the wretched woman had cast it away. Two more children have been carried off from their homes in New York, and in Quebec two Italians have been arrested for committing a similar crime with the intention of extorting money from the father of the boy.

The "oyster war" between Maryland and Virginia, that has been quiescent for several years past, has broken out again. The capture of two Maryland oystermen and the killing of one, who were dredging on Pocomoke Sound, by some of the Virginia police force, were among the events of last week. Their offense was in going after oysters south of the boundary line agreed upon by Davidson and Lovett three years ago.

Hon. Lloyd Lowndes, Jr., was renominated by the Republicans in the Sixth Congressional district, at Hagerstown, on Thursday of last week. He voted against the civil rights bill at the last session.

The tedium of railroad travel is now relieved by taking votes on the guilt or innocence of Beecher. No electioneering.

The Wilmington Board of Education propose to introduce telegraphy into the public schools of that city.

Patterson, Democrat, has been elected Congressman from Colorado.

PENINSULAR EDITORIAL CONVENTION.—At the request of many of the peninsular journals it has been determined upon by the press association of Salisbury, Wicomico county, Md., to call a convention, to be composed of the newspaper men and those persons connected with the improvement and development of the resources of the Delaware, Maryland and Virginia peninsula, to meet in Salisbury on the 20th day of October next. As regards the press itself, the Salisbury Advertiser says that among a variety of subjects to be considered is prominently the regulation of a scale of prices for publishing, &c.—The augmenting of the means of transportation, and devising some more effectual means of inducing immigration to this Shore will also be considered, with such other subjects as may present themselves.

THE "EASTON LEDGER."—J. A. Johnson, Esq., announces that, the old materials of the Easton Journal having been sold under a mortgage, he will furnish the subscribers of the late Journal with the Easton Ledger, printed on new type, and with new materials throughout, making a great improvement on the paper under its old name. The first number will be issued on Sept. 24th.

NOMINATION IN THE SECOND DISTRICT.—The Democratic Congressional Nominating Convention for the second district, composed of the counties of Cecil, Harford, Carroll and Baltimore (exclusive of the first and thirteenth districts), met at Towsontown on Thursday of last week. Hon. Stevenson Archer, of Harford, the present incumbent; Geo. W. Cruikshank, of Cecil; Chas. B. Roberts, of Carroll; and Judge Grason, George H. Carman, Hon. John Merryman, Capt. James Hall and Col. T. Sturgis Davis, of Baltimore county, were placed in nomination. On the 307th ballot a nomination was effected by the votes of Cecil and Carroll and one vote from Baltimore county for Roberts. His nomination was made unanimous, and Hon. Stevenson Archer addressed the convention, strongly endorsing him. Great interest was manifested in the result. Mr. Roberts is a lawyer of Westminster, aged 33 years, of fine ability and irreproachable character.

THE Democratic Convention of the Fifth District met at Annapolis on Wednesday and nominated Dr. Eli J. Henkle, of Anne Arundel county, for Congress. The contest was spirited and long continued, one hundred and four ballots being taken before Henkle reached a majority. His competitors were Baker A. Jamieson, of Baltimore county, Henry E. Wooten, of Howard county, Fendall Marbury, of Prince George's, Jas. J. Briscoe, of Calvert, and A. G. Chapman, of Charles co.

GRAND SUNDAY SCHOOL JUBILEE AND BASKET PICNIC.—A grand Sunday School Jubilee, in which all the schools in the county are invited to participate, will be held on Thursday next, September 24th, at the Fair Grounds of the Kent county Agricultural Association, at Worton Station. A large building has been erected capable of seating seven or eight hundred persons, and eminent Sunday School advocates from abroad are expected to be present and deliver short addresses. A special train will be run on the Kent Co. Railroad, leaving Chestertown at 7½ and Massey's at 8½ A. M., which will convey Sunday Schools to the grounds free of charge; parents and friends of the schools can purchase round trip tickets at any of the stations at the low price of 20 cents each. The committee of arrangements for the affair, appointed by the last Sunday School County Convention, consists of E. P. Janvier, R. S. Griffith and H. Meeks, Esqs., and they seem determined to leave nothing undone to render this the grandest affair of the kind ever held in the county.

THE CIRCUS.—Notwithstanding the general complaint of "hard times," the show which exhibited here on Friday of last week was well patronized. The "show" proper was a very tame affair, but the balloon attraction seemed to make up for other deficiencies. The ascent was made about two P. M. Having been inflated with hot air, the balloon rapidly flew to the height of about a-half mile, and as rapidly descended, giving the aeronaut a ducking in Chester river. The greatest excitement prevailed amongst the multitude that witnessed the ascension, and when the balloon was seen to be drifting in the direction of the river and rapidly descending, a general rush was made to see the result; the aeronaut leaped from the basket just before it touched the water and was picked up by persons in a small boat, and the balloon towed ashore.

There were some hard cases connected with the circus. Several articles were stolen at this place, though there was no outward disorder. At Massey's, where they exhibited the day previous, they behaved in the most disgraceful manner. The letter of our Chesterville correspondent gives an account of the riot at that place, in which one of our most quiet and inoffensive citizens was beaten in a most shocking manner. We agree with the writer that it is about time these traveling nuisances were prohibited by legislative enactment from coming into our midst.

OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS.—On our first page will be found an address delivered by E. F. Perkins, Esq., examiner of public schools for Kent county. Mr. P. seems to have entered upon the duties of his office with a determination to infuse new life into the cause of education, and we believe is succeeding. The primary schools in this town, heretofore apparently so lightly esteemed, have been greatly improved, and bid fair to rival the best in the State. Every friend of public education in the county, and especially school district trustees, should read the address above referred to.

REGISTRATION.—The Registrars for this county give notice that they will sit on Monday and Tuesday, the 5th and 6th days of October, for the final correction of the lists of voters. This is the last chance persons will have to get registered or transferred, and all who neglect to do so will lose their votes.

THE First Annual Exhibition of the Peninsula Agricultural and Pomological Association begins at Middletown, Del., next Wednesday and will continue three days. It is expected that some of our Kent horses will be entered in the "trials of speed." Read adv. in another column.

LAND SALES.—Chas. H. Baker, Esq., Esq., attorney for James C. Wilson, will offer at public sale this afternoon at Edesville several lots of land in Piney Neck.

On Wednesday, at the Voshell House, in Chestertown, R. Hynson, Esq., attorney for the mortgagee, will offer at public sale the farm called "Kennard's Point," on Chesapeake bay and Churn creek.

On Thursday, the same gentleman, as trustee, will offer, at the same place, the "Jas. Kennard" or "Stevenson Constable" farm, in Worton.

POSTPONED FESTIVAL.—The Festival of Fairlee Grange, which was to have been held on Thursday last at Rees' Corner, in consequence of inclement weather did not take place. It will be held on Tuesday next. See advertisement.

AUCTION to-night at Reiche's store, under the Voshell House.

REVOLUTION IN LOUISIANA.

The people of Louisiana, having endured the innumerable insults, burdens and wrongs of the Kellogg usurpation, until forbearance has, in their estimation, ceased to be a virtue, held a mass meeting in New Orleans on Monday, at which a committee was appointed to wait upon Kellogg, and request him to abdicate the gubernatorial chair. Kellogg refused to receive the committee. Lieutenant Governor Penn, who was elected on the McEnery ticket in 1872, (in the absence of Governor McEnery,) thereupon issued his proclamation, calling upon the militia of the State to arm and assemble under their respective officers, for the purpose of driving the usurpers from power. In a short time several thousand militia marched into Canal street, where they encountered a body of Kellogg's force. A fight ensued, in which about thirty persons were killed and one hundred wounded. Kellogg's forces fled in confusion, and the militia took possession of all the station houses. Finding resistance useless, the whole police force surrendered and were paroled. This ended Monday's work. On Tuesday morning Kellogg, apprehending violence, fled from the hotel temporarily occupied by the Executive Departments, and took refuge in the Custom House. At 7 A. M. the State House was surrendered to Governor Penn's militia without firing a gun, and the whole city of New Orleans passed into the hands of the legally elected authorities. The Kellogg Government was overthrown by the revolution, and New Orleans is in the hands of his opponents. Lieutenant Governor Penn sent a dispatch to President Grant, stating the assertion and recovery by the people of Louisiana of their rights, affirming their entire ability to maintain peace, and protect the life, liberty and equal rights of all classes of citizens; declaring loyalty and respect for the United States Government and its officers, and asking him to withhold any aid or protection from the enemies of republican rights, and of the peace and liberties of the people. General Ogden, commanding the Penn military, declared in a speech that the war was ended, and advised the people to go to their homes and resume their usual avocation. Lieutenant Governor Penn at once organized a police force, and Mayor Wiltz also acted as the emergency required. Kellogg made application to President Grant, and thereupon Grant issued a proclamation warning the armed organizations that had deposed Kellogg to desist from their unlawful proceedings, and to disperse within five days. From the tenor of this proclamation, it seems to apply to Penn and all others who have violently forced themselves into office, and it is believed that United States troops will be used to reinstate Kellogg to office. More trouble is apprehended.

ORPHANS' COURT, Tuesday, Sept. 15.—C. T. Westcott and I. R. Leaverton, administrators of Curtis Cordray, returned a list of desperate debts due said dec'd. On application of John W. Mann (minor) and Samuel Mann, his brother, it was ordered that the sum of one hundred and sixty-six dollars be taken from the income and principal of said minor's personal estate and applied to his education; and his guardian is directed to pay the same from time to time as it may be needed. The court resumed the consideration of making the appointment to fill the vacant beneficiary scholarship for Washington College, and proceeded to ballot for the same; whereupon twelve ballots were had without making a selection.

THE WEATHER, &c.—The long and severe drought which has prevailed in this section has been terminated. Rain commenced falling about seven o'clock Tuesday evening and continued with little intermission until Thursday noon, with occasional showers since. The ground is thoroughly saturated, and farmers who have been waiting for rain to finish breaking their fallow can now proceed to do so. A severe storm of wind Wednesday night blew down much of the corn.

THE VENDUE of the late H. Beck's personal estate, advertised for the 16th inst., because of inclement weather has been postponed until Monday next, 21st inst.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—An interesting letter from Chincoteague, crowded out of this issue, will appear next week. Also a second communication of "H." "from the Hills of York."

REVIVAL.—A letter from Rev. S. S. Baker, at Crumpton, states that "a powerful revival of religion" is in progress at the M. E. Church in that place.

TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.—The trustees and teachers of the public schools in the fourth election district, on invitation, met the county examiner at the school room, in Chestertown, on the 5th inst. The examiner stated the purpose of the meeting to be the formation of a Teachers' Association for the fourth district. The association was formed by the election of T. P. Dixon as chairman, Jos. Peterson as secretary, and by the signing of the following persons as members: E. F. Perkins, Dr. F. Worrell, Wm. Morris, J. F. Copper, Miss A. E. Leaverton, W. G. Trew, Robt. Nicholson, — Hynson, C. H. Baker, Miss Mollie Taylor, J. A. Greenwood, E J Watson, W. B. Usilton, Miss I. M. Comegys, T. P. Dixon, Jos. Peterson. A motion for a committee of three, on organization, having been carried, the chairman appointed Jos. Peterson, Dr. Worrell and J. F. Copper. Mr. E. F. Perkins delivered an address before the association upon educational matters, which is to be published in connection with these proceedings.

WM. A. G. HOBBS, Esq., Clerk of the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's county, died at his residence, near Queenstown, on Saturday afternoon last, of typhoid fever. Mr. Hobbs had been confined to his bed for some weeks past, and his demise was not unexpected. He was elected Clerk last fall, and was a gentleman of noble impulses, fine business qualification, and had called around him many warm friends who mourn his demise.—Observer.

The Constitution provides that the vacancy shall be filled by the Judges of the Circuit, until the next general election for county officers, when a Clerk shall be elected to serve for six years thereafter. It is supposed that Mr. Wooters, formerly Clerk, will be appointed to fill the vacancy.

A YOUNG man named Levier pointed a pistol, which he supposed was not loaded, at the head of Alexander Freeman, in Talbot county, and pulled the trigger, when it went off, the ball crushing through Freeman's jaw and lodging in his head. It is thought he may recover.

CHESTERVILLE AND VICINITY.

Messrs. Editors:—The third Quarterly Meeting for Galena Circuit will be held at Sassafras to-morrow morning, the 20th instant. Preaching at the usual hour by the Presiding Elder.

Last Sabbath morning Rev. Wesley Hammond, pastor of the M. E. Church South, of this place, preached a sermon to young men, from the text, "Be strong, therefore, and show thyself a man." Unfortunately there were but few young men out to hear it, the majority, we fear, deeming themselves such complete specimens of true manhood as to render useless any effort at their further elevation. However, we do not believe any one heard the sermon to no profit. Let all who did hear digest well its wholesome truths, that a more perfect type of manhood may be given to the world. On the evening of the same day the Sunday School held its missionary anniversary in the church. The exercises consisted of reports of classes of their missionary contributions, addresses, and vocal and instrumental music. Although but few present, the exercises were of a very pleasant character. We write it with shame, but it is nevertheless true, that there is not half the interest taken in the Sunday School cause in this vicinity that there should be.

Robert, son of Dr. E. F. Nowland, of Chesterville, who was accidentally shot while gunning, a short time since, is nearly "himself again." He has laid aside his green glasses, but his optics still show signs of very bad usage.

Several persons from this neighborhood attended the tournament at Elkton, on Tuesday last. They did not go as Knights, but returned be-nighted.

On the night of the 10th instant, Massey's seems to have been the scene of great excitement. As many of your readers are aware, the circus which is traveling down the shore, exhibited there that night. During the exhibition, we learn that some little difficulty sprang up between Mr. R. J. Boulden, residing near Kennedyville, and one of the attachees of the show. This was of little consequence, however, and it was supposed the matter had ended then and there. But about 11 o'clock, while Mr. Boulden was walking in the vicinity of McFord's Hotel, a cowardly and brutal assault was made upon him by a party of circus men. The man making the attack, remarked that he (Boulden) was the man they were looking for; they had him "spotted;" at the same time striking him with a billy, when two or three more pounced upon him with clubs. Unable to defend himself, he retreated to the hotel, pursued by the ruffians, who beat him until they left him for dead. Mr. Boulden was carried into the hotel, where he lay in a critical condition for several days, great gashes being cut all over his scalp, and his face mangled and bruised in a terrible manner. Mr. Boulden was unable to be conveyed home till Monday night last. His physician says his wounds are of a very dangerous nature, but pronounced his case improving on Tuesday last.

Another difficulty occurred between the showmen and some citizens. We hear that a man living at Massey's saw two of the ruffians beating his brother. It is said he got his gun and shot one of the roughs, and used the butt of the piece on the other. This put an end to their proceedings, but it is supposed they afterwards mistook Mr. Boulden for the man who did the shooting, and hence the severe and dangerous assault. The showman who was shot found his company the next night at Chestertown.

A prominent gentleman of this locality, who has a fine opportunity of ascertaining public sentiment, says: "It seems to be the settled opinion of the community that the Legislature should pass a law preventing such nuisances from coming into our midst." As we cannot ever elect a Legislature who will enact a law doing away entirely with the sale of whiskey, the prime cause of nine-tenths of all the evil in the country, perhaps it would be as well to do this, the next best thing.

There were several slight sprinkles of rain during the day on Tuesday. In the evening, about 7 o'clock, rain commenced falling and continued up to the time of this writing (Wednesday noon.) The drouth has seriously interfered, not only with the corn and potato crops, but with the fall seeding. Farmers will now be able to proceed with their work.

Peacock's store, at Galena, was broken into on Sunday night last, and robbed of some goods. The amount was not large, we learn. The entrance was effected by boring the door and slipping the fastenings. WALTER.

Patrons of Husbandry Entertainment.

Messrs. Editors:—According to public notice, Eureka Grange held a celebration on the evening of Wednesday the 9th instant, at their hall in Still Pond. It was an open public meeting, and at an early hour in the evening the beauty and fashion as well as the farmers of that portion of the country began to arrive, and soon the handsome hall was filled to overflowing. The exercises began with a prayer by the Chaplain of the Grange, which was followed by music on the organ and singing.

Mr. Robinson, Lecturer of the State Grange, was then introduced, who proceeded to deliver a most excellent address, and he entertained the audience for an hour with a real, sound, practical, farmers' discourse, which was listened to with attention and interest, and which was frequently applauded.

The next speaker was Mr. Joseph M. Barr, of your town, Overseer of the State Grange, who was, after more music, introduced by Worthy Master Hepbron, and awakened the enthusiasm of the audience by a very stirring patriotic agricultural speech, which was received with frequent applause, and seemed greatly to please the audience.

Mr. Jas. W. Hurtt was then called for, and came forward and delivered a short, common sense little speech, which was well received and thoroughly appreciated by those present, and which seemed to please the audience very much indeed.

The proceedings of the evening were enlivened from time to time by music on the organ and singing by ladies and gentlemen, and about ten o'clock the meeting broke up and all retired to their homes, apparently delighted with the entertainment, and hoping it could be repeated at an early day. GRANGER.

FIRST CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.—The republican convention to nominate a candidate for Congress in the first congressional district of Maryland met at Easton on Wednesday, and, without balloting, adjourned to meet at the same place on the 29th inst. On a motion to proceed to nominate a candidate for Congress, a discussion ensued, in which the opinion of the convention was elicited that it would be better to postpone the nomination until after the meeting of the democratic nominating convention at Salisbury, on the 23d inst. Neither Kent nor Wicomico counties were represented in the convention. Judge Spence declines to be a candidate.

THE Wilmington Conference Academy at Dover is to be dedicated next Wednesday. Distinguished ministers and others will participate in the exercises.
