SATURDAY - - - - SEPT. 26, 1874

INTERVIEW WITH GOVERNOR GROOME, OF MARYLAND.—An article in the New York Herald, dated Washington, Sept. 17, says:

Your correspondent, being at Annapolis this afternoon, called upon Governor Groome at the Executive Mansion. The Governor is a short, thick set man, with a very pleasing expression of countenance, and at the first glance gives one the impression rather of an easy-going country gentleman than of a shrewd and active politician and Chief Magistrate of one of the original thirteen States. In the course of a brief conversation I mentioned the difficulties in Louisiana, which he seemed to avoid, as it were. He said that the deposition of the Kellogg government and the substitution of that of McEnery had been so sudden, and the reports from the seat of the disturbance so meagre that he did not feel at liberty in his position to give an opinion which subsequent events might very materially modify or change altogether. He expressed himself guardedly upon the subject. He thought that Louisiana affairs were in a miserable muddle, and this had been brought about by the foolish action of President Grant and the criminal inaction of Congress at a time when the whole matter could have been adjusted with credit to themselves and unspeakable benefit to all classes in the State of Louisiana. There were few instances where oppression had been so bitter in its consequences as in that unfortunate State. The Kellogg government, aside from any question of its legality, had cruelly made use of the power it had been enabled to aggregate to itself through the overshadowing influence of the administration.—Business was at a standstill, taxes were so high as to amount to a practical confiscation of property, and through the machination of scalawags and carpet-baggers, stirring up strife among their neighbors, life had become almost a burden. Was it to be wondered at that people goaded by such oppression should rise up as one man and shake off the incubus that bore them down. The policy or the legality of their actions were questions upon which he did not offer an opinion. The action of President Grant, under the circumstances, he deem absolutely necessary to preserve his own consistency. He had again and again acknowledged the Kellogg Government, though apprised of its fraudulent character through the medium of a fraudulent committee, and Congress had refused to relieve the citizens, though they had pleaded piteously for intervention and rescue. Congress had thereby given a quasi recognition to the government, and it would be an unexampled exhibition of inconsistency and tergiversation in the administration to withold its support now that Kellogg and his minions were threatened with annihilation.

The Governor at times spoke with much feeling, but never seemed to forget the responsibility which devolved upon him as Governor of Maryland, and the importance which might be attached to his utterances while in that position. It was evident throughout the interview that his sympathies were with the oppressed people of Louisiana; and that only official position prevented him from characterising more strongly the role played by the Administration in the affairs of that State.

THE BEECHER-TILTON CASE.—The New York Tribune, referring to the fact that Miss Edna Dead Proctor, whose name has been so infamously used in the recent discussions of the Beecher case, has brought suit for damages, first against Mr. Francis D. Moulton, and secondly against the Graphic Company, says:

"Her resolution will be generally applauded. She has been most atrociously used in this matter, and we can conceive of no excuse for the cruel slander of which she has been made the victim. Damages in each case are laid at $100,000. Benj. F. Butler and B. G. Jayne are said to own two-thirds or three-fourths of the Graphic stock. When the enterprise was started they were interested to this extent, and are understood to be represented in the concern by the Goodsails. The suit, therefore, that is now brought against the Graphic is really a suit against Gen. Butler and Mr. Jayne."

EVEN BUTLER CONDEMS IT.—In a late interview with a New York Herald correspondent Gen Butler is reported to have made the significant admission that the Kellogg party in Louisiana "have no rights whatever by law, for we have no evidence that there has ever been an actual election according to the provissons of the constitution." He does not think that General Grant has any right to say "whether Kellogg or McEnery shall assume to be Governor." "The people," he says, "must sooner or later, decide in the manner of an election." This is a sharp criticism—unintended of course—upon the results of "reconstruction," and indicates that even General Butler, under the softening influences of a congressional campaign which is to determine his political fate, can be brought to remember and admit that "the people" have the right to decide as to the principles and personnel of their rulers.

THE ROSS ABDUCTION CASE.—It is now intimated, on the authority of the Germantown Telegraph and a Germantown correspondent of the Reading (Pa.) Eagle, that the long lost Charlie Ross was abducted, if abducted is the word, by friends of his own mother, who is said to be living in the West, having, it is alleged, been some time separated from her husband and ever since anxious to have her children with her. It is suspected that this is fully understood by the father, who did not realize that his original $300 reward for his stolen child was going to make such a fuss and bring about a municipal offer of $20,000. Whether true or not, the story is given with circumstantial plausibility.

CLAIMING AN ESTATE.—Some years ago a lady by the name of Hughey, formerly of Caroline county, Md., removed to Alabama, where she successively married two very rich men. She lately died, leaving an estate of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, without any near relatives. This estate is claimed by a family of Andrews, who reside in Caroline and Talbot counties. Mrs. Hughey was an aunt of the mother of the Andrews. Proceedings have been instituted to gain possession of the estate through Attorney King, of Tuscaloosa, Alabama.

THE UDDERZOOK CASE.—A dispatch from Harrisburg, Pa., says: "Papers favoring the pardon of Udderzook, at West Chester, continue to be received by the board of pardons. It is impossible at this time to say what disposition will be made of the case. No remonstrances against the pardon have been received. The board meets on the 6th proximo."

THE Registration lists in this and the other counties has so far as we know been published in strict conformity to law. The intimation in a certain quarter of too much space, is but the cry of a plunderer who finds the doors now fastened against him, and who is trying by some means to force them.—Denton Journal.

HON. WILLIAM WALSH, in accepting the nomination for Congress from the Democracy of the 6th Congressional District, uses the following patriotic language:

"To represent worthily the advanced and diversified intelligence of the people of this Congressional District, with their extensive and various pursuits of agriculture, mines, manufactures, railroads, canals and business callings of every description, greatly exceeds, I fear, my limited knowledge and abilities. But as the nomination has been tendered to me by the convention for the accomplishment of much desired objects of public good, I accept it with the earnest determination (if elected) to endeavor to raise to the height of the important duties belonging to the position. The evils of misgovernment are all around us. The principles with which the founders united and cemented together our august confederacy of States have been sadly departed from, and in consequence fraud, violence and injustice have lifted themselves up into the control of public affairs. Great States, once the home of culture, law, and fruitful industry, are broken down and disorganized. Industry and enterprise are everywhere oppressed and paralyzed, and labor, the source of all prosperity, goes without employment. Oppressive taxation is inadequate to the demands of public extravagance and official defalcations. It is to be hoped the time has come for thoughtful men to unite together in the great common cause of the public welfare, to correct public abuses and purify governmental action from frauds and wrongs that daily shock the moral sense of the people. I approve of the convention's resolutions, and if elected will not be silent in support of their principles."

THERE are about twenty thousand colored voters in the Empire State. Believing that so large an aggregate ought to be worth something in the approaching canvass, they have, through a convention at Utica, indicated to the republican managers that the civil rights bill must receive strong backing or the colored vote need not be counted upon with certainty.

THE Easton Journal was sold under a mortgage last week to Jonathan Leonard, mortgagee, for $900. Mr. Johnson, the late owner, announces his determination to start immediately a new paper under the title of the Easton Leader. Four papers in one small town! Of course some of them must die for want of support.

TRAPPE, Talbot county, Md., March 17th, 1874.

I take great pleasure in testifying to the merits claimed for "Hopkins' Antalgic Liniment." I have for a long time been severely afflicted with head-ache, and have never found a remedy that afforded so immediate and so certain a relief.—indeed it has never failed in a single instance. I have also used it for Lumbago, with the same happy result.

WM. C. MALOY,
Minister Meth. Episcopal Church South.

FRED. GRANT'S WEDDING.—The Chicago Tribune of Friday says: "The date of the great social event of the season in Chicago—an event which will be of interest not here merely, but in the country generally—has at last been definitely settled. The marriage of Fred. Grant, son of the President, and Miss Honore, the second daughter of H. H. Honore, Esq., of this city, will take place on the 20th of October, at Kenwood, at the house of Potter Palmer, the husband of the elder Miss Honore. The list of the bridesmaids has not yet been fully made out, but among them is Miss Dunlevy, of Chicago."

The Cant of Imposters.

It is so obvious that physical and constitutional vigor is the best defense against disease, that even the vendors of drastic purgatives advertise them as tonics, stomachists and invigorants, in the hope of enlisting the confidence of the public in the devitalizing and pernicious potions. It is amusing to note how these imposters imitate and copy the language in which the medicinal properties of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are described. Although the effect of their rasping evacuants is to destroy the tone of the digestive organs and the bowels, and to rob the system of its vital strength, they are unscrupulously recommended to the weak and prostrate victims of disease as stimulants! It is time this humbug (not a very successful one it is true, thanks to the mature common sense of the American people) was stigmatized as it deserves. Such mischievous falsehoods should be exposed pro bono publico. Hostetter's Stomache Bitters, be it distinctly understood, is a stimulant. It has a spirituous basis, and that basis is the vehicle which diffuses its wonderful sanitary principles through every part of the system. The tonic, alterative and regulating ingredients of the Bitters would be comparatively inert if they were not, so to speak, carried to the localities where they are required by the stimulating agent. The cant which protests against the use of a pure alcoholic fluid, when employed as a means of giving full effect to medicinal extracts of the highest utility, is the cant of charlatanism. Every intelligent physician so characterizes it, and the sick who are griped, convulsed and debilitated by the nauseous and disgusting nostrums of the parties who put it forth, soon find to their sorrow that it is a delusion and a snare. Hostetter's Bitters, the great sanitary stimulant of the age, is, in the truest sense of the words, a wholesome, vitalizing, renovating preparation.

A Medicine Chest in Miniature.

Mishler's Herb Bitters is not a beverage, but a strictly medicinal preparation, more thoroughly adapted to the wants of the general public than any other in the market. Unlike all other so-called Remedies, it is prepared under the direct personal supervision of an eminent Physician, S. B. Hartman, M. D., the senior proprietor, is a regular graduate of the Jefferson Medical College of Philadelphia, and a practicing physician of large experience and extensive practice. In such hands the public may rest assured that Mishler's Herb Bitters is compounded in strict accordance with correct Pharmaceutical principles, and that none but the choicest ingredients enter into its composition.

Its immense sale alone is conclusive proof that it possesses merit of a high order. Merchants, bankers, clergymen, lawyers, clerks and others engaged in sedentary occupations, experience its wonderful effects in relieving the depression caused by severe mental labor; while the mechanic, farmer and laborer, find their bodily vigor restored like magic by its use.

At this season of the year, when DIARRHŒA, CRAMPS, COLICS and kindred disorders, caused by eating unripe fruits, imprudent indulgence in cold drinks, &c., are prevalent, a certain, speedy and effectual remedy will be found in Mishler's Herb Bitters.

The depressing feeling of Languor or Debility, incident to the "heated term," is at once removed, the energies restored, and new life and vigor imparted to the prostrated system, by its use.

IN DYSPEPSIA, LIVER COMPLAINT AND AFFECTIONS OF THE KIDNEYS, it invariably works like a charm. It is not a drastic purge nor heady stimulant, violent in its operations; but it is simply a natural remedy, thoroughly adapted to assist nature. It supplies tone to the stomach, reinvigorates the digestive organs, stimulates the secretions, and promoting a regular action of the bowels, enables every organ of the body to perform its allotted work regularly and without interruption.

It is the unerring certainty of desired results attendant on its use, coupled with the fact that it is prepared by a physician of eminence in his profession, that has rendered Mishler's Herb Bitters so popular, and as familiar as a household word. THOUSANDS OF MOTHERS all over the land have found it to be the safest and best remedy for use in their families; they not only give it with perfect safety to even the youngest child, but when used with caution find it the safest means of ensuring their own health and freedom from the weary aches and pains incident to their sex. Perfectly harmless, it is just the remedy needed by them to enable Nature to perform her functions naturally, regularly and without inconvenience. NO LADY SHOULD BE WITHOUT IT if she would possess the clear, blooming complexion and cheerful spirits inseparable from sound health. It is sold by all Druggists and General Dealers; is neatly put up in square Glass Bottles, enclosed in a yellow wrapper. Is not sold on Draught, being strictly a medicinal preparation, and as such is endorsed by many of the most eminent physicians of the country.

THE GREAT NEURALGIA CURE.

HOPKINS' ANTALGIC LINIMENT,

After a test of Twenty years, is confidently offered to the public as the most powerful external remedy which has ever been discovered for the cure of NEURALGIA, RHEUMATISM, GOUT, TOOTHACHE, NERVOUS HEADACHE, STIFF NECK, LUMBAGO, SORE THROAT BRONCHITIS, and all pains of the joints and limbs.

Hundreds who have used it give it the strongest endorsement.

FACTS to be Remembered:

Texas Bone Meal

IT is now nearly three years since we first introduced our

in the Market. We sold the first ton, with the confident assurance that if strictly pure goods would establish reputation, we were sure to obtain it, and the result has confirmed our belief. Farmers who have used it, and dealers who have sold it, give it the preference, and heretofore we have been unable to meet the demand. C. C. Fulton, Esq., editor of the Baltimore American, recently visited Texas and was at our Factory, located at Fulton, Texas. In writing to his paper, under date February 24, 1874, and published in the American Weekly, March 14, he says of our Texas Bone Meal:

"After drying the residuum of Bones and Meat, it is ground to a fine powder, producing a fertilizing material but little inferior to Peruvian Guano. It smells very much like Guano, and if there is any virtue in bones, blood and animal matter, it ought to be a superior fertilizer. The material is too abundant to induce any temptation to give anything but the pure article, and as I witnessed the operation, I can vouch for its genuineness, that is to say, that it is all pulverized bone, flesh and blood."

This was testimony we had unsought and unknown, until we had several inquiries from the readers of the "Baltimore American."

We recommend the use of the TEXAS BONE MEAL to farmers, assuring them that it is strictly pure and will always be kept so.

The Analysis of Texas Bone Meal, made by Dr. T. R. Wolf, State Chemist, Newark, Del., July 17, 1874, is as follows:

Ammonia	4.55
Phosphoric Acid	24.25
Equal to Bone Phosphate of Lime	52.968

The most concentrated, universal and durable Fertilizer ever offered to the farmer—combining all the stimulating qualities of Peruvian Guano, and the ever durable fertilizing properties of Bones. In fine dry powder, prepared expressly for drilling, and can be applied in any quantity, however small, per acre. It is the opinion of many close calculating Farmers after SIXTEEN YEARS' experience in testing it side by side with other popular fertilizers, that an application of 100 pounds of Excelsior is equal to from 200 to 300 pounds of any other fertilizer or Guano, and therefore fully 100 to 200 per cent. cheaper.

UNIFORMITY OF QUALITY GUARANTEED BY THE MANUFACTURERS.

WHANN'S
Raw Bone Super Phosphate

IN the culture of WHEAT, true economy implies the use of such manures as produce the greatest yield, and at the same time leave the land in the best condition for grass.

WHANN'S RAW BONE SUPER PHOSPHATE is extensively used on this important crop, for the reason that it fulfills these conditions—the Grass often paying for the Fertilizers, leaving the increased yield of Wheat clear profit.

No Fertilizer has ever excelled it, combining the active qualities of the best Peruvian Guano with the more lasting properties of dissolved Bone, it is unexcelled as a manure for Wheat. Those Farmers who have used need no reminder as to its worth. Their continued use of it year after year is the strongest argument which can be brought to prove its merits.

The following testimonials from two well known Farmers will be appreciated:

HANESVILLE, KENT CO., MD., July 17th, 1874.

Messrs. Walton, Whann & Co.:

Gentlemen:—I have used Whann's Raw Bone Super Phosphate on my Wheat for the past two years. I am very much pleased with its action both on Wheat and GRASS, and regard it as one of the best Fertilizers on the market, and a permanent improver of the land.

Yours, truly,
WILLIAM T. ANDERSON.

Messrs. Walton, Whann & Co.:

Gentlemen:—I have been using Whann's Raw Bone Super Phosphate on my farm near Chestertown nine or ten years. It has never failed to give me satisfaction both in its results on Wheat and the Grass following. I regard it as second to none, and expect to continue its use.

Respectfully, yours,
S. LECATES.
