Appeal of the Prisoners' Aid Society.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 12, 1874.

The "Maryland Prisoners' Aid Society," which has been in active operation for nearly six years, has during that period distributed nearly fourteen thousand dollars in aiding discharged prisoners to get a fresh start in the world, and in removing them to other localities, where the stigma of having been imprisoned would not impede their commencing a new career. During all these years it has employed a minister of the gospel, Rev. Penfield Doll, and his wife, to devote their whole time and energies to the daily work of visiting the prison, penitentiary, and Bayview Asylum of Baltimore, to inquire into each case of commitment to jail by magistrate, and to procure a release whenever unjust commitment for the sake of obtaining magisterial fees have occurred; also in talking and preaching to those under sentence, striving to reform any unnecessary hardships in prison life, and buying comforts for the sick prisoners of which they would else be deprived. The amount of good thus done by the Society in the prisons of Maryland and to prisoners who have served out their sentences, cannot be computed by dollars and cents.

But the funds of the Association run low, which will compel us to curtail this great work of humanity, unless we receive more material aid from the warm-hearted and wealthy philanthropists of our State, who may desire that the means with which they are blessed shall be applied to this work of reforming and aiding those who by the commission of one repented act have been barred out from the sympathy and aid extended to the virtuous poor. For this class we earnestly plead. Give them one more chance to redeem a past error and crime after atoning for it in prison. And as we pray "Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us," let us so act towards our fellow man that our works may follow our words, and let them not be empty sounds. We ask of you, our Christian brothers, as you read this appeal, to send to any of us whatever sums you may wish to invest in this work of the good Samaritan, so that in the last day there can be no reproach brought against you that "I was sick in prison and ye visited me not," "for inasmuch as ye did it not unto the least of my brethren, ye do it not unto me."

A contribution of one hundred dollars will constitute a life directorship in the "Maryland Prisoners' Aid Society;" one of fifty dollars a life membership, and any sum will be duly acknowledged in our next printed annual report.

MR. LOWNDES AND THE COLORED VOTERS. The trouble between the Republican nominee in the Sixth District in this State and the colored voters still continues. The Cumberland Times of Monday says:

The committee of the Douglas Club appointed to lay the objections of that organization to Mr. Lowndes before the County Central Committee of the Republican party, called upon the chairman of said committee with a communication soliciting Mr. Lowndes' endorsement of the Civil Rights bill. After the matter was discussed for some time, Captain Griffith, chairman of the committee, asked if the club would support Mr. Lowndes if that gentleman would agree in writing to support the Civil Rights bill? The answer was that the Fred. Douglas Club would support Mr. Lowndes if he would give such a pledge. Captain Griffith then said he had no doubt such a letter could be obtained if the committee would promise to keep its existence a secret until after the election. This was declined, and the negotiations there ended.

The above interesting scrap of information was given us on Saturday by one of the members of the committee which waited on Captain Griffith, and we have no reason to doubt its correctness.

PENALTY OF NEGLIGENCE IN CONDUCTORS.—The Wilmington Commercial says: The Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad Company seem unfortunate in the Cecil County Court. Only a term or two ago it was compelled to pay damages in a considerable amount, and last week judgement was rendered against it again. This was in the case of Jessie A. Heaton, by her father and next friend—an action for damages alleged to have been sustained by the plaintiff, a little girl, in being carried past her destination by the cars of the Company, on the Port Deposit Branch Road. Her statement was that she got into the cars at Perryville, and when the conductor came around, handed him ten cents and said she wished to get off at Frenchtown, which he alleged he did not hear, and that she was carried to Port Deposit, and compelled to walk back. Tried before a jury and verdict for plaintiff for $350.

IN answer to the charge of President Grant some weeks ago that atrocities were being perpetrated in South Carolina that ought not to be tolerated in any civilized Government, the Committee of the State Tax Union, after a full investigation, have just issued a report. In that report they declare that they "have failled to ascertain a single case in the State of an injury, outrage or wrong committed during the present year by a white man upon a negro which was in the slightest degree attributable to the race, color or previous condition of servitude of the negro, or upon any Republican on account of his opinions." But as President Grant obtains his information from Attorney General Williams, it is not at all likely he will be disposed to retract his charge in consequence of the emphatic denial of its truth by reputable citizens of South Carolina.

☞ The second-best and the most striking building in Louisville, Ky., is that occupied by the Public Library. It was paid for by three Gift Concerts, managed by a board headed by Ex-Governor Thomas E. Bramlette. The Board is authorized by the Legislature of the State to give five of these Concerts. The fifth takes place in November next, and the profits, after distributing $1,500,000 to the ticket-holders, are to be used in perfecting the Library, and furnishing the blind of the State with books in raised letters. This is rather a large thing for Kentucky.—Governor Bramlette has given three years to this Library, and he is making it the best in the country. Books are bought for this Library in orders of $20,000 at a time, and an enormous amount of money has been paid for paintings, statuary, and other works of art. The next drawing in aid of the Library, in which the capital prize is $250,000, takes place, as we stated, in November next, positively.

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup has been before the public for years, and is pronounced by thousands superior to all other articles for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza and all Pulmonary Complaints.

A GLOOMY TRUTHFUL PICTURE.

The Cumberland Times draws a gloomy but truthful picture of the present condition of public affairs in our country. It observes that local issues may effect the present canvass to some extent, but there are grave questions of national importance that must not be overlooked. Above all it should not be forgotten that the Republican party has had absolute control of every department of the national government for the past twelve years. It came into power when the United States was at the zenith of its prosperity; when the demand for every description of skilled and unskilled labor attracted a constant stream of emigrants to our shores; when the miner, the carpenter, the shoemaker, the tailor, the blacksmith, the iron worker, the laborer, found all the employment at fair wages that his hands could do; when the merchant's counter was everywhere the scene of a prosperous trade; when the farmer could obtain ready sale at remunerative rates for all the produce he could raise; when property of every description was constantly increasing in value, and the rapid growth of cities and towns denoted that a wise administration of national affairs was having its legitimate result in the general prosperity of the people. How stands the case to-day? Why are our mines nearly idle, our iron works closed, the employees of our great corporations on half working time? Why do we hear on all sides an universal complaint of hard times? Why is the poor man unable to obtain work? Why is an armed guard necessary to-day around the mined institutions of New York city? Why do we speak of the approaching winter with fear and dread? Why is there no business, no work, no employment, no money? Why is the volume of emigrants returning to Europe greater than that seeking homes in the new world? Why are all our great industries prostrate?—Why is the only prosperous class to be found among the money-lenders, the banks, and bankers? Think over these things, business men, working and laboring men, and see if you cannot trace all the troubles which environ your efforts to obtain bread, directly to the miserable, shiftless, brainless, administration now in power in this country. Your only remedy is a change of rulers. No new era of prosperity will ever again dawn upon you until the whole policy of the government undergoes a change.

A NEW VEHICLE FOR PUBLIC TRAVEL.—A citizen of Cincinnati has put upon the streets of that town a vehicle intended and designed to supersede street cars. It is about the size of a common street car, and will seat sixteen passengers. The wheels are similar to those on carriages, but the axle is curved in such a manner as to allow the floor of the car to be on a level with the pavement. The driver sits in front, and uses an ordinary foot-brake in place of those common to street cars. The entrance for the passenger is peculiar.—The steps are parallel with the sides of the car, but the doorways, one on each side, are placed diagonally across the end. This arrangement is made to allow passengers to step directly into the car from the sidewalk. It is said that these cars cost less than others in use, require no track to be laid down, and owing to the double action of the wheels, run as lightly and easy as buggies of modern improved patterns and construction. These cars or vehicles may take the place of omnibuses. No doubt they will, if properly introduced, but they will not supersede passenger railway cars.

GEN. SHERIDAN AND THE PRESIDENCY.—About a week ago a representative of an Ohio paper interviewed Gen. Phil. Sheridan on the possibility of his receiving the nomination for the presidency. General Sheridan replied:

"I do not allow a thought on that subject to occupy my mind. I think many men have been ruined by thinking they ought to be President of the United States. All their actions, official and otherwise, have been controlled by that one idea. It becomes a disease with them. I am yet young enough to perform active duties, and I wish to labor, not to be led off by such an idea."

LARGE BELLS.—In Pekin, China, it is said, there are seven bells each weighing over 120,000 pounds. The largest of the great bells cast for the new English Parliament House weighs 15 tons. The Yorkminster bell, cast in 1845, weighs 27,000 pounds. The "Great Tom," of Oxford, England, weighs 17,000 pounds. The great bell of St. Paul's Cathedral, London, is nine feet in diameter, and weighs 11,500 pounds. The bell in the city hall, New York, is said to be the largest bell in the United States. It was cast in Boston, and weighed 23,000 pounds.

DECLINE IN THE BUILDING TRADE IN NEW YORK.—The decline of the building trade in this city during the year past is said to have been very great. The price of the best brick has fallen from $13 to $7 50 per thousand, and of Philadelphia pressed brick from $35 to $28, and lime can be bought for $1 20, a rate said to be below the cost of manufacture. Mechanics, masons and carpenters, belonging to trades unions, are reported to be willing to work for $2 50 per day, and laborers can readily be obtained at $1 25 and $1 50.—N. York Times.

IN answer to the charge of President Grant some weeks ago that atrocities were being perpetrated in South Carolina that ought not to be tolerated in any civilized Government, the Committee of the State Tax Union, after a full investigation, have just issued a report. In that report they declare that they "have failled to ascertain a single case in the State of an injury, outrage or wrong committed during the present year by a white man upon a negro which was in the slightest degree attributable to the race, color or previous condition of servitude of the negro, or upon any Republican on account of his opinions." But as President Grant obtains his information from Attorney General Williams, it is not at all likely he will be disposed to retract his charge in consequence of the emphatic denial of its truth by reputable citizens of South Carolina.

BERGH IN A CIDER MILL.—Henri Bergh, the President of the New York Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, caused the arrest on Thursday or C. W. Walker, proprietor of a one-dog power cider mill, in the upper part of New York city, for inhuman treatment of a large Newfoundland dog, employed to run the machine. The cruelty was of two kinds—the dog's neck was sore and his legs were tired. Mr. Walker was fined $25 and costs.

SOME CHEESE.—An estimate of the New York State cheese production gives a total of nearly half a million boxes of cheese for this year. This is an increase of four per cent. over the previous year, and shows a steady encroachment upon the English cheese trade. In fact, it is said that many of the English brands are really the produce of America dairies, shipped, repacked and sent back under new names.

GRANGE SHIPPERS.—The warehouses of San Francisco and the Pacific coast are said to be almost empty, while those inland are bursting with grain, and much is yet said to be left in the fields in stacks. The grangers control the matter, and charter vessels and ship the wheat to Europe on their own account.

THE Medical Register says there are 50,000 registered American physicians in the United States. O physic!

Dr. Boschee's German Syrup,

Cough no more! How much joy there is in every household to know that they can at last procure a remedy for any case of coughs, severe colds settled on the breast, Consumption, or any disease of the Throat and Lungs, that is certain to cure. It is a satisfaction to know that a person is safe from the dangers of this disease—all you need do, is to go to your Druggist, C. F. Stam & Bro., and get a bottle of Boschee's German Syrup; two or three doses will relieve you at once. If you doubt what we say in print get a sample bottle for 10 cents and try it, or a regular size for 75 cts.
