The News.

The decision of the Supreme Court of West Virginia, affirming the validity of the removal of the Capital from Charleston to Wheeling was announced on Monday, all the Judges concurring.

The Mexican Veterans celebrated the twenty-eighth anniversary of the capture of the City of Mexico in New York on Tuesday. About one hundred of the survivors and a number of prominent men took part in the celebration.

The trial of Westervelt, charged with complicity in the abduction of Charley Ross, in still progressing at Philadelphia. The testimony is conflicting, but the prisoner was evidently implicated in the transaction. Mr. Ross has recently received another letter offering to return his son for $20,000.

In the Brooklyn Supreme Court on Monday Judge Gilbert denied a motion for a writ of mandamus to compel the principal of one of the public schools to receive a colored boy as a pupil, instead of sending him to the school for colored children. The Judge held that the common schools are a public charity, and that the State had the right to prescribe in what manner and upon what terms the gift shall be enjoyed, but that the statute, while guaranteeing equal privileges, does not confer the right to enjoy them in common with any class of persons or any particular school.

The signatures of clergymen of all Protestant denominations in Baltimore are being obtained to the invitation extended to Messrs. Moody and Sankey, the revivalists, to visit that city. Much interest is being manifested in religious circles in reference to their visit, and although an equal effort is being made to induce them to visit Washington first, it seems probable that they will begin their labors in Baltimore.

The Democratic State Convention of Pennsylvania has nominated Judge Cyrus L. Pershing, of Schuylkill county, for Governor, and Victor E. Piolette for State Treasurer. Judge Pershing was elected President Judge of Schuylkill county in 1872 by the spontaneous action of the people, without regard to party, and his faithful administration of justice in that often lawless region has attracted the attention of the people of the State to his faithful attributes as a citizen and as a judge. He is a gentleman of most spotless life, and his integrity is beyond the assaults of even the most malicious.

The sculling race on the Alleghany river, near Pittsburg, Pa., last Saturday, for $500 and the American championship, between Evan Morris and Henry Coulter, five miles, was won by Morris by four lengths in 37 minutes 3 seconds. The contest was very exciting, Coulter having led the first half mile, when Morris shot ahead, keeping from two to five lengths ahead all the way. In the last half mile Coulter made a spurt, closing the gap to two lengths for a few moments. Twelve thousand persons were present.

About seventy-five sophomores at La Fayette College, Easton, Pa., one night last week turned out in masks and white gowns, paraded the streets, entered the college, captured several freshmen and subjected them to indignities. The faculty captured four of the hazers, and immediately suspended them. The whole sophomore class has since agreed to be suspended.

An experiment by the ærial ladder company in New York on Tuesday resulted in the death of three men and the injury of several others. A ladder was raised one hundred and twenty feet, and eight men mounted it, William H. Nash, chief of the battalion, being at the top. While the firemen were going through their evolutions the ladder suddenly broke off at the second section. Nash was instantly killed by the fall, and two of his companions were so terribly mangled that they died. Several others were more or less hurt.

Forest fires are raging furiously about one mile east of Masseno, New York.—The fires cover a tract a mile wide and five miles long, the wind blowing a gale from the south. The farmers are deserting their dwellings. Large tracts of timber are swept down, and the fire runs through the swamps and fields of standing grain with incredible rapidity. The season has been unusually dry. No rain has fallen during the past six weeks.—The water in the streams is very low, and the wells are all dried up.

ORPHANS' COURT, Tuesday, Sept. 14.—Present, Judges Beck, Scott and Hepbron. Mary M. Beck, adm'x of Horatio Beck, returned a list of sales of the personal estate of said deceased. S. A. Handy and Wm. B. Wilmer, adm'rs of Geo. D. S. Handy, returned an additional list of sales of personal estate of said deceased, and their first administration account. Louisa Collins, exec'x of John W. Collins, returned her first and final administration account. Araminta M. Gooding, guardian to Addison M. Gooding, returned her guardian account for the period from January 1, 1874 to Sept. 1, 1875. On application of George Vickers, exec'r of Wm. T. Spry, ordered, that notice be given that a dividend on the personal estate of said deceased will be made on Tuesday, October 11, 1875.

A CASE OF BURGLARY.—The dwelling of Mr. Wm. H. Stewart, about two miles from this town, was entered by burglars about three o'clock on Wednesday morning last, and his watch, a bunch of keys and a jar of preserves carried off. His desk was broken open, but it contained no money. The burglars then went up stairs, where they were heard by Mrs. Stewart, who gave an alarm to her husband in an adjoining room, when they fled. The entrance was effected through an unfastened window, and as it was the only window in the house that was not protected, it might be inferred that the burglars had some knowledge of the premises. Housekeepers should be careful, at this juncture particularly, to see that their doors and windows are properly secured before retiring for the night.

CHANGE OF CAR TIME—Detention of the Mails.—The change made on Thursday on the Kent County Railroad will greatly incommode our people in their postal facilities. There is now but one train a day, leaving Chestertown at 11 A. M. and returning with the mail at 10:30 P. M. If our postmaster should undertake to open it on arrival it would take him till after eleven o'clock, which is a very unseasonable hour to peruse the news of the day. We learn however that this arrangement is temporary, and that the former time will be resumed at the end of the peach season. In the meantime an effort will be made to have the Baltimore mail brought over by the steamer, which arrives at 8 P. M. Even this would be a great accommodation to our community.

ROBBERY OF A KENT COUNTIAN.—The Middletown Transcript of Saturday says: Before the circus had opened on Monday, Mr. James Hurtt, of Kent county, Md., was in the museum watching a game of cards. One of the men spoke to Mr. Hurtt concerning the game, when that gentleman remarked that it was a swindle, whereupon he was told that he had no money, or if he had he was afraid to show it. Mr. Hurtt felt indignant, and immediately drew from his pocket and counted out the sum of $200 and commenced exhibiting it to his challenged friend, when the money was snatched from his hand. All attempts to catch the thief were unsuccessful, and Mr. H. was obliged to return to his home with a lighter pocket book and a heavier heart.

CONCERTS.—A singing school concert, by the members of Prof. E. H. Bard's singing class of St. James' M. P. Church, will be given at the church on Wednesday evening next; and a complimentary concert to the same gentleman, by some of the best musical talent in Kent county, will be given on Friday evening next at Salem M. E. Church, Fairlee. Professor Bard resides in New York, where he is a professional teacher, and has been on a visit this summer to his daughter, Mrs. Thos. W. Skirven, of this county. He is said to possess musical talent of a high order, and these concerts will no doubt be of the most interesting and entertaining character.

THE FAIR.—All the arrangements for the approaching Agricultural Fair are being rapidly perfected, and it is expected that everything will be its place by the day of opening—the 28th inst. The managers are laboring to make this the most attractive exhibition the association has held, and if their efforts are seconded by the people to the extent they should be, the display will be creditable to our county. The premium lists have been extended and increased, and it is understood that a number of good horses have been entered to compete in the trials of speed. Let all help to make it a success.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE.—Harrison W. Vickers, Esq., as trustee, sold at the Voshell House on Tuesday, the farm known as "Tolchester," on the bay side, containing 1,040 acres, to Wm. N. Wilson, of Middletown, Del., at $22 25 per acre—aggregating $23,140 00.

"LAYMAN'S HISTORICAL CHART."—This is the title of a new and very valuable work just published by Jones Brothers & Co., Philadelphia. The scheme of this Chart is to present the history of the world by centuries, and also to bring the eye to the aid of the mind in locating facts and events. Time is presented as a stream, flowing a certain allotted space each century. The events are written down in the stream just where they took place, those most prominent in larger type. The date of the Century is given in large figures in the border at the top of each page, and the date in that century of each event recorded is placed just before the event.—Thus the reader has spread out under his eye the history of a century, and in such shape that at a glance the mind takes in the general aspect of the whole period, the relative importance of each nation, the history of each, and the cotemporaneous history of all, and the mind is compelled to imbibe and retain the facts which are given, both to the eye and the thought.

The Chart is really a successful effort at "Historical object teaching." As the mind retains the details of a picture upon which the eye has gazed, so does it retain the exact appearance of each page of the Chart, and thus the history of a given period is indelibly impressed upon it through that medium. The work can now be had of agents canvassing the county.

MASS MEETINGS.—The Democratic-Conservative State Central Committee have fixed upon the dates for holding mass meetings in the various counties of the State. That for Kent is announced to take place at Chestertown on Saturday, October 16. Mr. Carroll, our candidate for Governor, and other distinguished speakers, will be present and address the meeting.

NOMINATIONS IN TALBOT—The Democratic convention of Talbot county met at Easton on Tuesday and made the following nominations: State's Attorney, Chas. H. Gibson; House of Delegates, Wm. S. Denny and J. Addison Morgan; judges of Orphans' Court, T. H. Leonard, Wm. D. Roberts and Wm. H. Seth; county commissioners, S. B. Merrick, John C. Harper and John W. Catrup; county surveyor, John W. Gibson; sheriff, Francis G. Wrightson.

PEACHES.—The Middletown Transcript of last Saturday, noting the advance in the price of peaches, remarks:

A gentleman, who is well informed on this subject, gives his opinion that the crop will average from 30 to 40 cents per basket clear of freight and commission. This would put on the peninsula $2,200,000 if the estimated 8,000,000 baskets are shipped. However, should the prices reach an average of 25 cents, there would remain in the hands of growers and shippers a sufficient amount of money, even after costs for picking are deducted. So it will be seen that no great cause exists for the numerous and extended complaints that have been made. The late varieties will pay far better than the earlier ones, as is evidenced by the increase in prices in the New York and Western markets. "All's well that ends well."

POSTPONEMENT OF THE MASS MEETING.—The Baltimore Sun of Thursday says:

"The great Democratic mass meeting which was announced to take place in Monument Square last night was postponed until Friday evening on account of the rain, which, to the chagrin of thousands of people, fell in torrents at the hour the speaking was to begin. At dark crowds of people began to congregate in the square, and the streets leading to the centre of the city from all directions were densely thronged with those who were making their way to the meeting place. At seven o'clock there were probably five thousand people in the square, a considerable number being ladies, and the crowd was increasing every minute." It was clearly evident that but for the rain the demonstration would have been the most imposing ever held in the city. Senator Bayard was in the city for the purpose of addressing the meeting. Hon. Reverdy Johnson, who was to preside at the meeting, was at Mr. Carroll's room, at Barnum's, at an early hour, and remained some time.

SINGULAR REMEDY FOR A HURT.—Mention has been made of the case of A. R. Smoot, commission merchant, who was so seriously injured on the 8th inst. by jumping from some boxes on Light St. wharf on a nail two and a half inches in length, which passed nearly through his foot, firmly clinching him to the floor. Mr. Smoot subsequently received per mail a postal card from some kind-hearted person, which read as follows: "Reading of your painful accident in this morning's paper, (The Sun,) I take the liberty of sending you a remedy which is considered infallible. It is simply to smoke the wound or bruise that is inflamed with burning wool or woolen cloth twenty minutes. The smoke of wool will take the pain out of the wound. Repeat once or twice. It will allay the worst case of inflammation arising from a wound. I hope you will try the remedy and be benefitted.—Sympathizer."

Mr. Smoot lost no time in resorting to the remedy, though it was somewhat different from the hypodermical treatment administered by the physicians. An old iron pot, of extra dimensions, such as are used in the Old Dominion, Mr. Smoot's place of nativity, was immediately brought into requisition and filled with the remedial agents. A dense smoke was raised from the burning wool, enough to smoke out all the Macbeth witches in the cantation scene, and with perfect success. Mr. Smoot desires his most heartfelt thanks to be returned to the kind-hearted sympathizer, and is happy to say he experienced the greatest relief in the application of the remedy. New life, as it were, and motion was restored to the afflicted limb, and he enjoyed a delightful rest after the operation. The facts of the case are sent to the The Sun as of value to all who may be similarly wounded.—Balto. Sun.

LOSS OF LIFE AND PROPERTY.—At an early hour last Monday morning, while the family were still in bed, the house of Mrs. Sallie Whittington, near Marion Station, Somerset county, was burned to the ground. The inmates of the house at the time were Mrs. Whittington, a Miss Colbourne, a little boy of Mr. Stephen Whittington's, aged six years, and a colored girl, about sixteen. The colored girl, in attempting to save the life of the little boy, ascended to the room where he laid, but before she could reach a place of safety was enveloped by the flames, and the charred remains of the two were afterwards found, clasped in each other's embrace. Mrs. Whittington and Miss Colbourne escaped unhurt. The fire is supposed to be the work of an incendiary.—Newtown Record.

THE Seaford Citizen, reporting the effects of a late terrific thunder storm at Laurel, says: Near Laurel, the electric fluid passed down the chimney of a house demolishing a stove, and knocking a woman from off a chair. It descended into the mill pond of Mr. Jacob Williams, near this town, terrifying the fish and causing the water to form a column and to tower up many feet in the air. A gentleman who saw it says that many of the fish jumped out of the water on the shore.

A REGULATION WORTHY OF IMITATION.—The Town Commissioners of Easton have passed an ordinance prohibiting persons in Easton, under penalty of $2, from using refuse peaches or parings for hogs or for any other purpose, and requiring the canning houses to remove all such every twelve hours.

FREDERICK GRANT, the son of President Grant, during a recent visit to Leavenworth, Kansas, entered a barber's shop to get shaved, and during the operation was entertained by the barber, who did not know his customer's name, with a lively and pointed discourse on the evils of "Grantism."

I. C. GRUBB, Esq., of Wilmington, gave a basket of peaches, a few weeks ago, to the captain of the steamship Baltic, which the latter carried to Liverpool in the ship's refrigerator, and they arrived in good condition.—Middletown Transcript.

THE next shooting by the American rifle team will be in this country, and will be participated in by rifle associations of different nationalities. The prizes will amount to three thousand dollars.

LETTER FROM MILLINGTON.

Messrs. Editors:—The Sunday School Teachers' Institute will come off, as already announced, at the church in Millington on the 22d and 23d instant, and doubtless it will be an occasion of much interest and pleasure, as indicated by the programme of subjects and the number of prominent ministers and delegates expected to be present to participate in the exercises. Ample arrangements have been made by the citizens for the entertainment of ministers and delegates from a distance, and all will find a welcome reception by those whose pleasure it will be to render every comfort for their enjoyment during their stay amongst us. We would like to give the programme, but it would require too much space in your columns.

The Millington camp-meeting closed on Monday morning, when it was ascertained that fifteen persons professed conversion. The closing services were conducted by the Rev. Messrs. Torreyson and Watts, who spoke to the new converts in a very feeling manner, that will perhaps never be forgotten by many who were present. The spiritual result of the meeting has been a success, though not so great as might have been anticipated; good order prevailed during the continuance of the camp, and the stand was ably supplied on the first Sunday by the Presiding Elder, the Rev. Dr. Ball, Rev. T. T. Wysong, and Rev. F. C. Tibbs, of Harford circuit; also, on the second Sunday by the Rev. T. Sunrise Dana, Rev. Wesley Hammond, of Keyser, Va., and Rev. Dr. Spangler, of Baltimore. The Rev. Thomas Sunrise Dana is a native Indian missionary, of the Oneida tribe, from western New York, and at the present time on a tour amongst the native Indians in the Southwestern Territories. He is a plain, practical, forcible preacher, and his services at this camp were highly appreciated, as was evinced by the large concourse of people who assembled to hear him on several different occasions and the hospitality extended to assist him on his mission. The weather, with the exception of the storm on Friday, was perfectly pleasant, and the meetings were well attended, notwithstanding the busy time with peaches and fodder, and all seemed to enjoy the camp with pleasure and delight. Among other commendable features of the meeting, I noticed a union of feeling between that church and the members of other churches, many of whom took an active part in the services, and all appeared to be members of one and the same great family. God grant that this union may increase and prevail until all the branches of the Methodist church shall unite and each be glad to see, without a grudge, their neighbors' prosperity, is the prayer of your humble correspondent.

TRAVELER.

BEECHER VS. MOULTON—The Mutual Friend Refuses to Surrender.—District Attorney Britton, of Brooklyn, addressed letters to H. W. Beecher and F. D. Moulton suggesting that the public interests would be best served by entering a nolle prosequi in the case of H. W. Beecher against F. D. Moulton for libel. Mr. Beecher, in reply, concurs in the disposition of the case suggested by the District Attorney. Mr. Moulton says he cannot acquiesce in the action proposed, and concludes his letter as follows:

"I am indicted of libel in charging the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher with criminal intercourse with a female member of his congregation. The charge is true, he knows it to be true, and whatever the imperfections of man's tribunals, the Supreme Ruler will some day reveal the truth, and that too under challenge and in defense of my own character and the character of her whose good name is dearer to me than life itself. I have been arraigned as a criminal, compelled like a felon to plead with uplifted hands, subjected to the ignominy of bond against an escape from justice, loaded with obloquy by the public press, frowned upon and avoided by society, and now, after the indictment against me has served its purpose by discrediting in advance a witness of the Rev. Mr. Beecher's guilt, and it is apparent to you, as it is to the world, that I am innocent and must be acquitted, at this moment and under these circumstances I am requested to "acquiesce" in a nolle prosequi, and to suffer my accuser to escape the penalty of his perjured prosecution. Never, sir; never. I demand a trial, and shall be ready on any reasonable notice to make good my defense. Very respectfully,

FRANCIS D. MOULTON."

WOMAN SUFFRAGE has been fairly essayed in Wyoming Territory, and the result is not remarkably encouraging. The Rocky Mountain News says:

"As to the effects of suffrage on the ladies, there are almost as many opinions as there are people in Wyoming. The majority, however, declare themselves unable to see any change. As far as can be known, the ladies divide their vote between parties as much as men do—rather more, perhaps, voting for personal friends. To sum up, the opinion of the best informed is that woman suffrage in Wyoming has resulted in making everything just as it was before, only a little more so."

CALIFORNIA'S NEW GOVERNOR.—The newly elected Governor of California, Mr. Wm. Irwin, has been editor of a country paper in that State, the Yreka Union, since 1866. While he is a country editor, and perhaps because of that fact, he is said to be a man of sense and patriotism, as well as of sound principles. The New York Sun suggests that, as the editor of a country paper, his ambition to attain the office of Governor may be justified, but if he had been the conductor of a leading metropolitan journal of power and influence it would be a sacrifice for him to assume an administrative office. It is better to rule in the domain of ideas, rather than to bear sway in appointments to office, in pardons, and in vetoes.

MISS LUCK was pronounced the best and most expeditious cook at the late Cincinnati Fair. The facts upon which the award was made were as follows: In thirty minutes Miss Luck cooked, and cooked well, potatoes, chicken, porterhouse steak, tomatoes and corn, and made coffee, tea, pie and biscuit, and set the table in the neatest style.

MR. BATES and Mrs. Bates, of Whitesburg, Ky., are physically a very remarkable married couple. Both measure six feet eleven and a half inches in height. The husband is twenty-eight years of age, and weighs 478 pounds. The wife is twenty-seven years of age, and weighs 423 pounds.

WE are glad to announce that Colonel Lloyd Tilghman is up and about again. He made his appearance on the street for the first time since his accident last Monday. His shoulder proved to be hurt worse than any other part of his body.—Centreville Record.

GEORGE E. PUGH, of Ohio, announces that he is "so provoked" at the conduct of the republican orators that he has concluded to vote the democratic State and county ticket, although it will be "somewhat difficult" for him to do it.

MARRIED:

Aug. 19, 1875, by Rev. J. T. VanBurkalow, EDWARD SAULSBURY to Miss ANNIE E. WALKER, both of this county.

DIED:

In Chestertown, on Tuesday last, after a long illness of typhoid fever, SARAH REBECCA, aged 23 years and 6 months, youngest daughter of Mr. William Conyer.

In Chestertown, on Tuesday last, after a short illness, of typhoid fever, RICHARD ALONZO BISCOE, aged 15 years and 2 months.

In Memoriam.

In Baltimore, at the residence of her husband, 411 N. Central Avenue, on Monday, Sept. 13, Mrs. SALLIE F. NORRIS, wife of Robert W. Norris, sr., aged 40 years, 11 months and 1 day. Funeral services were held at the residence of Mrs. J. T. Dodd, in Chestertown, on Wednesday, and the remains interred in Chester Cemetery.

On the 27th of October, 1874, less than one year ago, the deceased was united in marriage to Mr. Norris, her second husband—her first being Jno. N. McDaniel, Esq., of this town. She was the youngest daughter of John and Sarah Usilton, who for many years owned and occupied the "cocoonery" farm, adjoining town.

It was during her wedding tour through some of the Northern States that she contracted a cold, which fell upon her lungs, and before she had fully entered upon the duties of her newly married life, she found herself a confirmed invalid. Her loving husband and friends did all in their power to relieve her—the best medical skill was employed, and every agency availed of to rebuke the disease—but all in vain; the dread monster had taken deep hold upon the naturally frail and delicate frame, and the worst fears of her dearest friends were soon realized.

The deceased had been for many years a member of the Methodist Protestant Church of this town, and was faithful in all her religious duties, attending punctually upon the means of grace and contributing liberally to the support of the denomination to which she was so devotedly attached. Her marriage and departure from among us was the source of regret as a loss to the Church and community.

Upon the death of a sister, some twelve years or more ago, three children, in tender years, were in a measure left to her care, and from that time to the day of her own death she devoted herself to their welfare—one of these, a nephew, died about three years since; tho' away from home in another State when stricken down, he found in this aunt a mother's hand and heart present to sympathize and comfort him in the dying hour. The other two, a niece and nephew, yet survive, and realize in her death the loss of a mother's watchful care and love; it is as the breaking of the tenderest cords that bind human hearts together. Loving and loved, their mutual affection was beautiful to behold, and the memory of dear Aunt Sallie will ever be enshrined in loving hearts.

In her death was exhibited the grandeur of a Christian's faith in the Lord Jesus. She saw the end approaching—knew when the shadows were gathering around—felt that earth with all it held dear was receding; but in the midst of it all she could rejoice, and welcome the summons home!

"——O lovely home!
Thy fragrant thornless flowers,
Droop not nor die. But everlasting bloom
Crowns all thy golden hours!"

During her last hours a favorite verse which she often requested to be sung was—

"SAFE in the arms of JESUS,
Safe on his gentle breast,
There by his love o'ershaded
Sweetly my soul shall rest!
Here let me wait with patience,
Wait till the night is o'er;
Wait till I see the morning
Break on the golden shore."

May the bereaved husband, loving relatives and kind friends, who spent so many sleepless nights and anxious days in watching over and caring for the dear one, now be comforted with the thought that, though much of earthly comfort and happiness seemed but a little while ago in prospect, she has gone "to be with Christ which is far better"—the night with her indeed is o'er, and the morning—blessed, ever enduring morning—has broken on the golden shore!

May we all meet in Heaven! W.
