T. Notitle Decr. 27th. 1797

And now here at this day to wit the first Monday in April in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety eight cometh the said John Nokes by James Winchester his attorney And now here cometh the said Edward Norwood by Walter Dorsey his attorney, and it is ordered by the court with the assent of James Winchester the plaintiffs attorney and Walter Dorsey the attorney of Edward Norwood, who claims the Title in question that the said Edward Norwood be admitted Defendant, and that he doth immediately appear by his attorney aforesaid who is to receive a Declaration and plead thereto the General issue this term and at the Trial thereupon to be had the said Edward Norwood shall appear in his proper person or by his counsel or attorney and confess lease, entry and actual ouster and expulsion of so much of the Tenements mentioned in the plaintiffs declaration, as is in the possession of the said Defendant or his Tenant or of any other person, claiming by or under his Title or in Default thereof, that Judgment be entered against the Defendant Timothy Notitle the casual Ejector but that prosecution be stayed against him until he makes default in any of the premises and by consent of Counsel, It is further ordered that if by reason of such default the plaintiff shall become non suit at the Trial the said Edward Norwood shall take no advantage thereof but shall pay to the plaintiff his costs &c.

Baltimore County ss. Edward Norwood late of Baltimore county yeoman was attached to answer John Nokes of a plea why with force and arms he entered upon the following tracts of land situate in Baltimore county that is to say all that tract of land called United Friendship, otherwise called The United Friendship containing seven hundred acres, also all that other Tract of land called Ludloes Lott containing two hundred acres, also all that other tract of land called Larkins Addition containing four hundred acres all that other tract of land called Lloyd & Ludloes Lott containing two hundred acres with the appurtenances to the said tracts of land belonging which Charles Ridgely and Ruth his wife based to the said John Nokes for a term which is not yet expired and ejected him the said John Nokes against the peace Government and Dignity of the State of Maryland &c. And whereupon the same John Nokes by James Winchester his attorney complains that whereas the said Charles Ridgely and Ruth his wife on the first day of January anno Domini seventeen hundred and ninety six at the county aforesaid had based to the said John Nokes the Tracts of land and premises aforesaid with the appurtenances, To have and to hold the same to the said John Nokes and his assigns to the full end and term of fifty years thence next ensuing and fully to be complete and ended: By virtue of which said lease he the said John Nokes entered into the tracts of land and premises aforesaid with the appurtenances, and was thereof possessed, and he the said John being so thereof possessed, he the said Timothy afterward to wit on the second day of January seventeen hundred and ninety six entered with force arms into the tenements and premises aforesaid with the appurtenances, which the said Charles Ridgely and wife had demised to the said John Nokes in the form aforesaid for the said term and which is not yet expired, and ejected him from his said farm, and did to him other wrongs, to the great damage of him the said John Nokes, and against the peace Government and the Dignity of the State of Maryland, wherefore he saith that he is injured and hath damage to the value of fifty pounds current money and thereupon he brings suit &c.
