THE MASS MEETING.

The mass meeting at the Court House last Saturday was one of the largest and most enthusiastic ever held in this county. The steamer Chester, which brought over the gentlemen who were announced to speak, did not arrive till near four o'clock, and the meeting was opened before their arrival by a speech from Col. P. M. Snowden, of Baltimore, who was on a visit to our town. We wish that every Democrat and Conservative in the county could have been present to hear the complete exposure of the gang of corrupt politicians and office-seekers who are striving to get control of our State by placing one or two Democrats at the head of their ticket and raising the delusive cry of "reform." The whole thing was shown to be a miserable sham and cheat, and, in the language of Mayor Vansant, of Baltimore, "its managers were not to be trusted in a warehouse of mill-stones!" The meeting was organized by the selection of the following officers:

President—Hon. George Vickers.

Vice-Presidents—Col. Geo. W. Spencer, Robert S. Griffith, D. J. Nowland, James W. Hurtt, Capt. Jno. T. Skirven, Dr. Samuel Beck, Geo. W. T. Perkins, James P. DeCorse, Wm. P. Francis and S. A. J. Wickes.

Secretaries—Marion deK. Smith, Geo. E. Leary and Sam'l Hurlock.

A representative of the Baltimore Gazette, who was present, gives the following synopses of the very able speeches delivered on the occasion, which is as full a report as our space will permit:

Col. P. M. Snowden, of Baltimore, was the first speaker. He exposed the purposes of the so-called Reform party, and warned the Democratic party against them.

Hon. John Lee Carroll was next introduced by Senator Vickers, and he received a most cheerful welcome.

Mr. Carroll said that as the candidate of the Democratic party they had commenced their Eastern Shore canvass under most favorable circumstances. This large meeting shows the deep interest the people take in sustaining their party. He then insisted that the issue was only between the Democratic and Republican parties; that Reform was a sham only, and he felt sure that after all we had passed through under Republican rule no right minded Democrat would be willing to return to that fold.

At some length he showed the condition of our State affairs, and contended that we had all the elements of good and honest government in our party. He predicted a great success for the cause, and spoke with admiration of the enthusiasm of the Democracy of Baltimore city.

At the conclusion of Mr. Carroll's address three hearty cheers were given for him by those present. The meeting then adjourned until 7.30 in the evening.

THE EVENING MEETING.

At 7.30 the large court room was again filled with the citizens of Kent county. Mr. Charles J. M. Gwinn, the Democratic Conservative nominee for Attorney General, was first introduced and met with an enthusiastic reception.

Mr. Gwinn said the question to be determined in this county is whether it will cast its lot with the Republican or with the Democratic party. To determine this a brief backward look will suffice. There was no need to refer to the events which occurred in this section during the war. They were familiar to the memory of all men. It was needful only to recall occurrences since the close of that struggle. If it could be said that the provision of the Constitution of 1864, which, by its retroactive action, excluded from the right of suffrage the great body of the people of this State, was a war measure, founded upon necessity, no such excuse could be made for the still harsher provisions of the Registration Act of 1865, by which the exclusion was stringently and permanently provided for. For peace was then practically restored. Except for the relief afforded us by these Union men who felt the injustice of those provisions, and fortunately happened to have the power and will to aid us, the State would have remained until to-day under the control of that Republican minority which had secured itself in power by these forms of law. It was for this reason, and because the National Republican party, pursuing in other States the same policy of political coercion, which it inaugurated here in 1864, is the real party in opposition to us, that we confidently expect to receive your support, and to obtain a large majority in this State.

Hon. Wm. Pinkney Whyte, United States Senator from Maryland, was next introduced, and was greeted with cheers and applause.

Mr. Whyte, after a few introductory remarks, spoke of the new party and its three elements of composition. It was a party without having any distinctive principles, but represented by its three candidates. He then proceeded to show that Mr. Harris represented the element of secret organization and hidden purpose. He portrayed the circumstances under which Mr. Harris held office from 1855 to 1861, and he claimed that he represented nothing else, for he had never openly advocated Democratic principles. He then showed that Mr. Wilkins was the type of military usurpation, interference at elections, and subordination of the civil power. He showed that the Reform movement was a Radical movement in disguise, that the ticket was made by confirmation and negotiation with the Radicals, and cited Mr. Reese's letter to prove it. He showed that in counties where Radical nominees only were in the field Mr. Harris associated with the Radicals and spoke from the stand, but when the county was close and independent men had been induced to run then he only had a sorry tone of independence. He showed the absurdity of expecting any improvement without a Legislature of the same views as the Governor, and said that Carroll and a Democratic Legislature would do the reforming. He laughed at the Radicals reforming the democratic party, and suggested that reform, like charity, had better begin with the Radicals at home. It would keep them busy reforming their own party.

At the conclusion of Mr. Whyte's address, the meeting adjourned with three cheers for the State and county tickets. During the meeting the Chestertown band was present and played at intervals. The best of feeling was evidenced, and it is beyond doubt that the ticket will receive the usual majority in this county.

THE MONGREL TICKET.

A few persons representing the opponents of the Democratic and Conservative party met at the Court House on Tuesday afternoon last, and, it is reported, "fixed up" the following ticket, but how many of them will consent to serve we are not prepared to say:

For Senator, R. T. Turner; House of Delegates, A. J. Rees, Wm. Hepbron; Orphans' Court, Geo. T. Moore, A. W. Melvin, T. A. Jacobs; County Commissioners, J. P. Anderson, Isaac Parsons, H. M. Thomas; Sheriff, H. M. Rollinson. (No nominations were made in opposition to Mr. Vickers for State's Attorney and Mr. Gresham for County Surveyor.)

By what name, if any, it is proposed to call this ticket, we are not informed, and are not curious to know. It is composed in part of persons who have heretofore acted with the Democratic and Conservative party, notably among whom is Mr. Rees, one of the candidates for the House of Delegates, who ran in our nomination for that position, and we have never heard him nor any one else intimate that he was not fairly and badly defeated. If he can so far compromise his political integrity as to permit himself to be run in opposition to the ticket upon which he desired to be placed, the consequences must rest solely upon himself. Mr. Hepbron, the other candidate for the House of Delegates, also took a very active part in our primaries, and a number of the gentlemen whom he supported received the nomination. By what motives he is actuated we are at a loss to conjecture, unless it be the defeat of his father-in-law, Mr. Roseberry, for the Orphans' Court, but that gentleman declares that he nor his sons will support him on this ticket.

Mr. Rollinson, the candidate for Sheriff, boasts that he has "voted the Democratic ticket for forty years," that he is still a Democrat, but that he has repeatedly "asked for something" and been refused, and will now accept office in any manner that he can get it. According to his own admission, then, it is office he wants without regard to other considerations, excepting always, we suppose, so much as may be included in the term "reform!" Who would have ever supposed that Henry M. (Mort.) Rollison and William Perkins, colored, would meet together in the Court House in Chestertown to fix up a ticket to be voted for by the people of Kent county? But the thing actually occurred last Saturday afternoon; and they, we understand, were the centre of attraction to the small company present. O tempora! O mores!

Mr. J. P. Anderson, one of the candidates for County Commissioner, has been living in the county but a short time, and if he pays any taxes his name does not appear on the tax books of the county!—We mention this not in any disparagement of Mr. Anderson personally; but the complaint has been made in certain quarters that some of our candidates for that position were small tax payers, when it is contended by some that none but those who pay heavy taxes should be in the court.

The ticket is considered a very weak one, and we predict its overwhelming defeat on the second day of November.

THE MARYLAND CONTEST ABROAD.—At a Republican meeting in Philadelphia, on Monday evening, Mr. Cooke, one of the speakers, alluding to the elections to be held next month, said "Maryland gives promise of Republican success." The contest is so regarded everywhere, and gentlemen should consider that voting for any candidate on the mongrel ticket is in effect the same as voting for the most ultra Republican in the State.

IT has been said that the Hon. Wm. T. Hamilton would not take stump for the Democratic State ticket. But he has taken the stump for it, and made a powerful speech at Frederick last week, urging the people to stand by the ticket and do all in their power to elect it. An abstract of it will be found in another column.

☞ The running of candidates for the various local offices in Kent is intended only as a help to the radical State ticket. If Democrats can be hoodwinked into the support of that model "reformer," J. M. Harris, who was elected to Congress by fraud, and held the position in violation of every principle of honesty and pocketed the pay for two successive terms—the first object is accomplished. "O don't I see Archie Sterling" manipulating these county "Reform" conventions, and controlling them so nicely in the interest of the Baltimore Custom House party!

WE learn that the mass meeting at Centreville on Monday was a great success. The town was full of people, and the greatest enthusiasm prevailed. Senator Whyte had a chill in the morning, and did not speak.

REMEMBER the Lecture at Fairlee by the converted Indian next Tuesday evening. Tickets only 25 cents.

FIRES.—A destructive fire occurred at Mr. P. T. Simmond's, in Quaker Neck, about 3 o'clock yesterday (Friday) morning, by which that gentlemen lost all his out-buildings, straw in the stack, 1,200 bushels of wheat, 20,000 pounds of corn blades, 10 head of horses, and all his farming implements. David S. Mills lost 5 head of horses, and Sam'l Willis, col'd, lost one horse. The origin of the fire is unknown, but must have been the act of an incendiary.

The barn of Mr. Joseph Catlin, residing in Queen Anne's county, about two miles from Chestertown, was destroyed by fire on Thursday afternoon last. It was set on fire by a little grandson of Mr. Catlin, who was playing in or near it with a lighted corn-stalk. The extent of the loss has not been ascertained.

THE Democrats and Conservatives will have an oyster roast at Rock Hall this afternoon and a pig-eating at Kennedyville to-night. Speaking at both places.

ORPHANS' COURT, Tuesday, Oct. 19.—S. Sparklin, adm'r of Wm. B. Sparklin, returned an inventory of the personal estate of said dec'd, and received an order for the sale thereof. Samuel Cacy, adm'r of Wm. E. Cacy, received an order for the sale of personal estate of said dec'd. A. S. Hurlock, adm'r of Thomas K. Stephens, returned a list of sales of the personal estate of said dec'd.

Thursday.—Tilghman Shafer, adm'r of Jacob Sutton, returned a list of debts due said dec'd. The release of Julia R. Sutton to Tilghman Shafer, acting guardian, was filed and ordered to be recorded. Tilghman Shafer, adm'r of Jacob Sutton, received an order for the sale of the personal estate of said dec'd.

COURT.—The October term of the Circuit Court for Kent county began last Monday. The Grand Jury was impanelled, with Sewell Hepbron, Esq., as foreman, and appropriately charged by his Honor Judge Wickes. In the course of his remarks the Court took occasion to refer to the report made by Mr. Griffith, of the Maryland Prisoners' Aid Association, as to the condition of our county jail, and charged the jury to investigate the matter particularly and make such recommendations as their judgment might dictate.—He also referred to the pernicious practice that has prevailed for some time past of the jury receiving and investigating charges contained in anonymous communications, and maintained that such a proceeding was wrong, and that none but charges made by known and responsible parties should be entertained. The various Acts of Assembly which it is made the duty of the Court to bring to the attention of the jury were also recited.—Judge Stump arrived on Monday and Chief Judge Robinson on Tuesday, and assumed their respective places on the bench. The following cases were tried:

D. Lemon and George Tideman vs. State, an appeal from a Justice of the Peace. Arrested and taken before Justice charged with vending goods without license. Tried before the Court. H. W. Vickers for appellant, Pearce for appellee. Judgment reversed.

R. Hynson and D. J. Nowland, adm'rs of Wm. Welch, vs. Wm. J. Wallace, an appeal from Justice of the Peace. Action for damages sustained by the loss for tillage for 2 years of the new ground of Wm. Welch. Tried before the Court. Hynson for appellants, Pearce for appellee. Judgment affirmed.

Jacob Highley, Garnishee of Kent Co. R. R. Co., vs. Harry E. Cooper, an appeal from Justice of the Peace. Attachment for wages as brakesman; attached credits in hands of appellant. Tried before the Court. Hynson for appellant, Vickers for appellee. Judgment reversed.

State vs. Thomas Taylor. Presentment for an assault with intent to kill Joshua Copper, at the Alms House. Tried before the Court. Vickers for defendant. Guilty of assault. Fined ten cents, and to undergo confinement in the county jail for thirty days, from Oct. 20, 1875. The defendant has been a pauper at the Alms House, and is very refractory.

State vs. J. N. Moffett. Indictment for procuring goods from L. M. Bean under false pretences. Trial by Jury. Vickers for defendant. Verdict—not guilty.

State vs. George M. Beasten. Presentment for furnishing liquor to minors. Tried before the Court. Hynson for defendant. Judgment—guilty. Fined $50 and costs, and oyster house license suppressed.

Robert Bramble having been committed to jail in default of bail to keep the peace, no witness appearing against him is ordered to be released.

In the cases of State vs. Benjamin Strauss, (eight in number) presentments for selling liquor at different times without license, a statement of facts having been submitted, the Court, with the approval of the State's Attorney, directed a stet to be entered in each, upon defendant paying costs.

Araminta Linda Ivens, by her next friend and husband, Jas. W. Ivens, vs. H. H. Simms. Action to eject defendant from the possession of house and lot of ground in Chestertown where he now resides, plaintiff claiming right to possession under Deed of Trust from said defendant to one John Greenwood. Tried before the Court. Judgment for the Plaintiff for property, &c. Vickers for Pl'ff, Pearce for Deft.

John Thomas Bowers et al. vs. R. R. L. Raymond et al. Bill in Equity to procure a decree compelling defendants to account for and pay into this Court to be paid to the complainants their respective legacies under the will of Ann E. Allen, dec'd, and interest thereon. Decree dismissing bill with costs to the defendants.—Vickers and Pearce for complainants, Hynson for defendants.

The Grand Jury concluded their labors and were discharged on Wednesday, after which they partook of a dinner at the Voshell House. They visited the jail on Tuesday and reported it "in as good and cleanly condition as could be expected." Court adjourned on Thursday. There was but one jury trial during the term.

A TERRIBLE CRIME.—One night last week some unknown person broke into the stable of Mr. Willard H. Scotten, at Dixon's Tavern, took his trotting horse out into a woods near by, tied him to a tree and shot him dead. Mr. Scotten cannot imegine who has so much ill-will against him, not supposing he had an enemy in the world so inhuman.—Observer.

Mr. R. A. Brainard, the popular and efficient agent of the Chester River Steamboat Company, was presented with a gold-headed cane one evening last week by the commission merchants and fruit packers, in appreciation of the satisfactory manner in which he had conducted the affairs of the company during the recently-closed peach season. The cane is suitably inscribed, and also bears the engraving of a miniature steamer. The presentation took place at the Green House, on Pratt street, after which the company sat down to an excellent supper.

The final unofficial returns from Ohio place the majority for Hayes, republican, for Governor, at 5,753, and give the republicans 17 majority in the House of Representatives, and three or four majority in the Senate.

The Secretaryship of the Interior, made vacant by the resignation of Mr. Delano, has been filled by the appointment to that place by the President of ex-Senator Zachariah Chandler, of Michigan.

Lulu trotted three heats in Rochester in 2:16¾, 2:14¾ and 2:16, being the fastest three heats on record.

REMEMBER what Senator Bayard tells the people of Maryland:

"I feel an unusual interest in your success in Maryland this fall. The organization of men into parties is essential for the accomplishment of any great public object, and in this country and at this time the Democratic party is the sole hope and bulwark of the Constitutional liberties of the people against the encroachments of centralized power, fanaticism, political and religious, and the combination of favored classes. In view of this how unworthy and dangerous is the factious opposition to candidates exhibited in Maryland, too often to gratify revenges for personal disappointments or personal dislikes. I do not believe the people of Maryland will suffer the true and substantial issue to be obscured, but that they will detect and avoid the possibility of negro domination, with all its attendant ruin and demoralization."

A somewhat alarming incident occurred on the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal about seven miles below Cumberland, on Monday afternoon. Paymaster Fawcett, accompanied by Superintendent Mulvaney, was proceeding up the canal paying off the hands. They were suddenly confronted on the tow-path by three masked men, who forthwith opened fire on them. They ran off and made their escape without receiving any wounds, although two bullets went through Mr. Mulvaney's clothing. Paymaster Fawcett had about $2,500 on his person, and no doubt the masked assailants contemplated robbery.

A mass meeting of merchants, manufacturers and business men of Baltimore was held Tuesday night at Masonic Temple, to protest against the action of the committee appointed at the first meeting of merchants held at that place in uniting with the opposition elements to nominate a State ticket. Speeches were made by James Hodges, John S. Reese, Col. John McNulty, and George N. Baer, vice president of the Corn Exchange. The Sun says "the meeting was large, and in its spirit was one of the most enthusiastic held since the campaign opened."

LAST week Fred. Gerker, lessee of the Kent County Railroad, presented Joseph Smithers, general depot agent at Clayton and Smyrna, with a valuable gold watch, in consideration of favors rendered during peach shipments.—Smyrna Times.

THE receipts from the late fair at Middletown reached in aggregate almost $7,000. Last year the receipts were about $5,000. A large portion of this money will be expended in improvements on the grounds.

TO THE PUBLIC.

I announce myself as an INDEPENDENT CANDIDATE FOR THE STATE SENATORSHIP of Kent county.

This is done at the instance of gentlemen of both political parties, and in accordance with the conviction that a more rigid care and economy in the levying and disbursement of Taxes and the funds arising therefrom, has become a necessity.

Fully identified with the material and social interests of the county, my fellow citizens may rest assured that no unnecessary burdens of any kind will ever be put on them with my consent. RICHARD T. TURNER. Oct. 9, 1875—tf.

To the Public.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—It is generally understood that I have been endorsed by the Independent movement for State's Attorney. At the solicitation of my friends, I take this method to announce my position to the public.

I made a contest for the nomination of State's Attorney, held on the 14th of August, and was honored by receiving flattering majorities.

The County Convention assembled on the following Monday to carry out the wishes of the people as expressed on the Saturday previous.

Since which time my name has appeared on the ticket at the head of your columns, as the regular nominee of the Democratic Conservative party of Kent County.

Now my endorsement on the Independent ticket was without solicitation on my part, and without having been solicited.

Every favorable manifestation of the people must be considered as an evidence of their confidence in my integrity and supposed ability to discharge the duties of the office fairly and impartially. The office I seek is removed from politics. It is in no manner a political one; and while I seek it as the regular nominee of the Democratic Conservative party, I do not wish to lay myself open, if elected, to the charge of being a partizan officer.

HARRISON W. VICKERS. Chestertown, Oct. 22, 1875.
