WHAT SHALL WE EAT?

In the "Philosophy of Eating," by Dr Bellows, the author gives the following clasification of food: "First, carbonates, that class which supplys the lungs with fuel, and furnishes heat to the system, and supplies fat or adipose matter. Second, nitrates, that class which supplies the waste of muscle. Third, phosphates, the class which supplies the bones, the brains and the nerves, and gives vital power, both muscular and mental.

Wheat-meal is far more nutritious and fitted to build up the system, than superfine flour, which is bereft of about one-half of the tissue-making elements. Dr. Samuel Jackson, Professor of the Institutes of medicine in the University of Pennsylvania, whose opinions as a physician and physiologist, are held in such high estimation in this and other countries says: "The phosphate of lime is an essential constituent of all grains. It is further an important nutritive principle, and recent experiments, have proved it to be an indispensable element in the construction, not of bones only, but of all the animal tissues. A deficiency of the phosphate of lime in food is a common cause of ill-health, of defective development, and retarded growth in children. In the conversion of wheat into flour, the phosphate of lime is rejected with the 'bran and middlings' and in consequence this necessary element of nutrition, contrary to the arrangement by nature, is not obtained from our fine wheat bread."

O. S. Hubbell, M. D., a distinguished pharmaceutist of Philadelphia, furnishes the following analysis of the flour and bran (or bolted part) which he receives from the mill, where he sends his wheat for grinding. From every 100 pounds of wheat, about 76 pounds of flour and 20 pounds of bran. The flour he adds, contains of tissue-making elements (gluten, albumen, &c) 1.65 of phosphates and other salines 0.70; total 2.35 per cent. The bran contains of tissue-making elements, 3.10, salines, phosphates, &c., 7.05; total 10 15 per cent. That is, for purposes of nutrition the bran (or bolted part) is nearly five-fold richer than the flour; or being one-fourth the weight of the flour it has as much nutritive value as flour itself, in every bushel.

Dr. Bellows states that "animals and persons have been fed on pure starch, or sugar, or fat alone, and they gradually pined away and died." He adds, "the nitrates in all the fine flour bread a person can eat, will not sustain life beyond fifty days. But those fed on unbolted flour, would constantly thrive and fatten and grow stout and strong for an indefinite period."

Of all grains wheat is considered "the staff of life." It is unquestionably true that God made wheat in the very best proportions, to build up and nourish the system, and man, in his pride and folly, has rejected that part which contains all the bone, muscle and, brain-making material, viz: the bran. The result is as clear as it is inevitable.

The absence of the most nourishing elements of the wheat and the retention of the carbonates (heaters) only, engenders fevers and very many of the diseases that now so grievously afflict the human race, and cause premature sickness and death. Avoid and reject starch bread. Nothing is more evident, than, that in using bolted starch flour, we sacrifice the most important elements of the wheat, merely to please the eye. Starch, though a valuable element in our food to supply animal heat, is destitute in itself of the essential elements to sustain life for any length of time. That the evil effects of using food, composed prinsipally of the carbonates (heaters) such as bread from white flour, butter, pastry confectionary, etc., are almost incalculable, is testified to by many of the most learned scientific and medical men of our times, who affirm, in the truth, that one-fourth of all our children die prior to the age of seven, and one-half prior to the age of seventeen! All for the lack of food containing phosphates and nitrogenous elements, and those who live to grow up to maturity their bones and brains and nerves are weak and subject to disease; while by over feeding with the carbarbonates, the system is heated and excited and ready to be inflamed by the first spark of artificial disease, and the inevitable results are inflammations, fevers, neuralgic pains, consumption, defective teeth, reactive exhaustion and ailments innumerable. White flour bread is a poor impoverished article of food, deprived of one-half of all its nutrition or tissue making elements, caused by rejecting the phosphates, nitrates and other salines contained in the bran. Graham—i. e., a wheaten meal bread is rich and highly nutritious, and contains a supply of all the needed elements in the human system. Our experience fully confirms these statements.

Let suicides eat white starch bread,
Let wise men shun the same;
For satan holds the winning cards,
At this sharp table game.
Deception is his keenest blade
He makes believe that white
Is much the nicest tint for bread,
And thus gets up a fight,
And kills off thousands every year:
Thrust through and slain, by this bread spear.

LOSS OF VALUABLE ANIMALS.—The giraffe, belonging to Forepaugh's menagerie died at Schenectady, N. Y., last week. It is supposed that the cause was the cold weather. It was valued at $7,000. During the progress of the show from Amsterdam, New York, the wagon containing the rhinoceros broke through a bridge, and the animal received injuries from the effects of which he will probably die. His back was severely injured. The animal was left there. He was valued at twenty thousand dollars.

Even if we are not smart we know what to do when troubled with a cough or cold. No doctor's bills for us. We take a 25 cent note, go to the nearest drug store and buy a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. One dose relieves us and one bottle cures us entirely.

THE Maryland State Sabbath School Union intends holding a convention in Oakland, Garrett county, on the 29th and 30th days of this month.

THE hard strata of circumstance through which one's life-rill must need filter and force its way, may make it purer and clearer, just as all hard strata are filtering-stones of water.

You Have no Excuse.

Have you any excuse for suffering with Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint? Is there any reason why you should go on from day to day complaining with Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Habitual Costiveness, palpitation of the Heart, Heart burn, Water-brash, Gnawing and burning pains at the pit of the Stomach, Yellow Skin, Coated Tongue and disagreeable taste in the mouth coming up of food after eating, Low spirits, &c. No! It is positively your own fault if you do. Go to your Druggist, C. F. Stam, Bro., and get a bottle of Green's August Flower for 75 cents, your cure is certain, but if you doubt this, get a Sample Bottle for 10 cents and try it. Two doses will relieve you.

NOTICE.

FINDING it impossible to continue the practice of Medicine in this county under the present mode of doing business, and not wishing to take my patrons by surprise, I take this plan to notify them that, after this date, I shall be compelled to issue my accounts half-yearly, at least until I pay my indebtedness; and if not settled satisfactorily in thirty days after presentation, to place them in the hands of a collector for settlement. I have been driven to this by the many losses I have sustained by allowing accounts to remain over from year to year for thirty years or more; and it is also a duty I owe to my creditors, my family and friends. Being dunned for money which I am unable to pay renders me unfit and unable to discharge my professional duty, as I am unable to procure the proper instruments necessary in so extensive a practice. I hope I shall not offend any of my old friends or deter any one from employing me, but I am determined to adhere to this plan until further notice. Wishing all a happy New Year, I remain
