PARTIES READY TO DESPOIL DOLLINGS COMPANIES SCORED—CALLED PLUNDERERS

Bushnell, Active In Protective Committee Of Stockholders, Says Dissolution Of Concerns Entangled In Crash Means Forced Sales At Bargain Counter Prices.

(Special to The Jeffersonian)

John A. Bushnell, of Columbus, Ohio, active in the Protective Committees of Dollings stockholders, issued a statement scoring the opponents of the United Stockholders Organization for alleged piratical motives, which will be of interest to hundreds in Baltimore county, who invested in the R. L. Dollings Company securities.

"The Dollings receiverships," said Mr. Bushnell, "involve properties and assets valued at some fifty millions of dollars. These assets offer a rich prize for the plunderers, vultures and other members of the wrecking crew interested in the tearing down, liquidation and dissolution of the Dollings Companies. These properties rightfully belong to the stockholders with whose money they were secured; and it is necessary for these stockholders to organize and cooperate as a unit in order to protect their properties."

"The dissolution of these concerns means the forced sales of such assets, under the hammer. It means the sales of valuable properties at bargain counter prices—perhaps at a few cents on the dollar of their real values—leaving little or nothing for preferred stockholders, after current debts are paid. In the face of these conditions it is certainly the sane and obviously business-like procedure for the real owners—the stockholders—to organize themselves for their own protection, with the purpose of holding these companies intact and rebuilding them on a basis which offers the chance of realizing substantial values for their investments."

"We hear the Teapot Dome scandal on every side," he continued. "In my opinion, a conspiracy is going to be uncovered in connection with the Dollings wreck that will make these stockholders boil with personal indignation, should it be allowed to succeed. I firmly believe that this conspiracy will involve certain well-known politicians, officials and financial figurees in both Ohio and Indiana."

"We always find," Bushnell added, "that those individuals who are active in opposing the organization and operation of the United Protective Committees, are doing so with a motive. That motive is usually not hard to determine. The stockholders' organization is a big obstacle to plunderers. Too many men of respectable appearances are only pirates at heart."

Mr. Bushnell refused to discuss the identity of the alleged spoilers. "If you want advance information along that line" Bushnell remarked, "watch the individuals fighting this Stockholders' Organization."

A Week Of Big Events In "Old Town"

BIG THINGS HAPPEN IN "OLD TOWN" EVERY WEEK!

AS for the moon, which got full this week, that is the least important of the big events of the week, for she does that once every month ust as regular as clock-work, and she never "lets up" until she has spent her last quarter. There are those profane enough to say "Bully for the Moon." Well, so says "Mose," for she's a good old girl for all that.

But the advent of Spring—the Vernal Equinox, as they call it—when the sun crosses the line and the days are equal—is a big event—and it means much to us—for it is the resurrection, the beginning of a new life, when Nature throws off her Winter trappings and comes out in her splendid robes of green.

But the biggest event of all is "Mose's" Sale of early Spring Suits and Trousers, which begins Monday. As the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher used to say, "It takes the rag right off the bush."

What With "St. Patrick's Day Last Monday, The Arrival of Spring And A Full Moon And The Big Sale 'Mose' Starts Monday, Surely This Is A Big Weew In 'Old Town'!"

"MOSES KAHN OF OLD TOWN"

"OLD TOWN" HAS A WAY OF DOING BIG THINGS!

YES, This is a big event, for "Mose" wants you to come over and get acquainted with him and see what a grand provision he has made for you this Spring—and to induce you to come he has made spepcial prices on several fine lots of Suits and Trousers, which cannot be duplicated in any good clothing store in the city for less than half as much again or double the money.

"Mose" picks these better Suits and Trousers for this sale(because Easter is coming along and he knows that you will want to look your best at that time, and these good suits that "Mose" is givink you, will certainly entitle you to the right-of-way in the parade.
