TILDEN CAMPAIGN SONG.

BY CARL BRENT.

Air—Dixie.

In the land of corn and the land of cotton
Radical rogues are ripe and rotten—
Look away! look away!
All too long have the rascals ruled us,
Gobbled our cash and tricked and fooled us—
Look away! look away!

CHORUS.—So I mean to vote for Tilden,
For Uncle Sammy Tilden!
On Tilden's side I'll stand with pride,
And work and vote for Tilden.

Honesty now is what's the matter;
All the thives we'll force to scatter—
Look away! look away!
Driving the rats from the Treasury buildin'
Clearing the track for our Sam Tilden—
Look away! look away!
CHO.—So I mean to vote for Tilden, etc.

Whiskey rings and revenue robbers;
Salary grabbers and railroad jobbers—
Look away! look away!
Leeches that stick to the public pockets,
All must go up and away like rockets—
Look away! look away!
CHO.—So I mean to vote for Tilden, etc.

North and South are again united,
Equal and free, and no one slighted—
Look away! look away!
Tuck in your shirt that's dirty and bloody;
Such a foul fraud can fool nobody—
Look away! look away!
CHO.—So I mean to vote for Tilden, etc.

Justice and truth have long been scanted,
Honesty now is the thing that's wanted—
Look away! look away!
Look alive, then, and be sure to remember;
Vote for reform, boys, next November—
Look away! look away!
CHO.—So I mean to vote for Tilden, etc.

FORCING A SALE.

It was a job to sell old Twister anything at a decent profit, and, indeed, to sell him anything at all half the time; he only hauled over the goods, asked the prices, said they were too high, and walked off. One day our head salesman saw him coming in, and told the boys to keep back, and he would certainly sell him something before he left the store, and so we stood back and waited.

"What's the price of these goods?" said Twister, taking hold of some that were laying in an open case.

"These, Mr. Twister, are twelve and one-half cents a yard," said the salesman naming half a cent under the price.

"Twelve and a-half! Too high. Now, at twelve we must trade."

"Well, we will say twelve to you," said the salesman.

"Well, I dunno as I want the goods enough," said Twister. "It ought to be made an object. Now at eleven and a-half I'd buy."

"Well, you shall have a case at eleven and a-half," said the salesman determined he should buy at some price.

"Well, I don't want but half a case," said Twister.

"Very well, we will divide the case for you."

"I s'pose," said the purchaser, "you'll throw in the case and won't charge for cartage?"

"Yes," said the salesman, "we'll take out half the case, charge you nothing for cartage, throw in the case, and sell you the goods for eleven and a-half cents."

Six months, I s'pose said the keen buyer.

"Yes, six months credit and privilege to return all you don't sell," said the persevering seller—"now I suppose I may ship them right up to your town."

"No, no; don't be too fast young man; I guess I won't take 'em; I don't like to have goods forced on me in that style."

In his recent speech Mr. Carl Schurz said: "I admit that corruption is to be found everywhere—in the cabinet of the President, in the Senate, in the House of Representatives, in the legislatures of the single States, and even among the judges." What stronger plea for a change of administration? Here is a converted champion of Grantism—an advocate of Hayes, who is the apostle of that odious ism—and he admits that there is corruption in the cabinet and in the Senate. With the sources of all federal patronage polluted how does Mr. Schurz hope for better things when he urges the people to bolster up the corruptionists and maintain them in power? We have never charged more than Mr. Schurz admits. He confesses judgment fully and freely; as the counsel and advocate of the party of corruption he enters a plea of guilty. What remains then for the people to do? They are the judges and it is within their power to sentence the perjurers and thieves and bribe-takers to the retirement of private life. The sentence will be delivered next November.

BREAKING COLTS FOR THE HARNESS.—Colts may be taught to walk fast or slow in breaking them for the harness, and fast walking horses are much more valuable than slow ones. For instance, suppose you have a fast walking team, which will plow a half acre of land more in a day than ordinary horses can do. Then suppose that your fast walking team will go ten miles to market with a load, and get there an hour sooner than common walkers, you see the difference in dollars and cents readily, as "time is money." Now, to teach a colt to walk fast, you hitch him at the side of a horse of good walking gait, and if he lags behind you must urge him on, and make him keep up. It will take some time to teach your colt to become a fast walker, but he can be made to contract that habit, which he will retain for life, if you do not work him with a slow walking animal. If you have no fast walker to hitch your colt beside, he can be made to acquire the habit of walking fast, by leading him daily for a few weeks, and with a whip gently urging him to keep up a lively walk. This training should be persisted in till your colt will walk four miles in an hour.

THE FATHER OF PEDDLERS.—The New York State boasts of a sprightly old essence peddler, who once cured President James Monroe of the stomach-ache. This pain soother, Garrett D. Prentice, is alive and kicking at the age of 82 years. For sixty-two years he has peddled essence, carrying it in two trunks, and has traveled on foot over one hundred thousand miles, and carried and distributed by hand to customers upwards of one hundred tons of essences. President Monroe's bad case of stomach-ache was cured by the use of one bottle of Prentice's essence of peppermint, for which the President gave this peppermint peddler a public reception, and bought a large supply of the essence. To-day the old essence peddler is as lively as a cricket—so says the Roundout (N. Y.) Freeman.

WHAT THE CENTENNIAL SHOW IS WORTH! The Philadelphia Times, in an elaborate statistical article, puts down the worth of the centennial show as follows: Buildings $5,949,000, contents $97,342,350; total $104,820,350. A large proportion of the exhibits are articles which, while having little or no intrinsic value, could not be purchased probably for all that the rest of the exhibition is worth, they being regarded as invaluable for their antiquity, the remembrances which they recall, or the rare occurrence of their kind. Such exhibits the above figures do not take into account.

HE WANTED ADVICE.

Raleigh Sentinel: An exemplary minister of the Gospel, residing in Raleigh, was busy at his sermon the other evening when a caller came to disturb him. It was a stranger and he said his name was Dolsocker. He extended his hand for a shake, sat down as if in his own house, and presently began:

"I called to see if you would give me a little spiritual advice."

"Certainly, I will, and be glad to," was the reply. "Are you a professor?"

"No."

"Then you are thinking of turning your feet into good paths, I hope?"

"Well, perhaps," was the hesitating reply.

"Don't you want to be a Christain?" asked the good man.

"I'll tell you how it is," said the stranger, after quite a lengthy interval. "I've got a ticket in a lottery, and I wanted to ask you if you thought it would stand any better chance of striking the big prize if I was sort o'good than it would if I kept on being sort o'bad?"

The clergyman didn't labor with Mr. Dolsocker very long.

THOSE who look upon the present presidential contest as a mere choice of men do not justly appreciate the situation.—It is not so much a political canvass as a revolution. It is a raising of the people against the iniquities, robberies and tyrannies of their chosen rulers and against the frauds and crimes by which those rulers seek to maintain themselves in power. Our national government has now reached the condition which in a monarchy would call for a revolution. It has many of the features that distinguish the corruptest days of the worst governments of Europe. The only reason why our excitable people do not blaze up into open rebellion and put the Grant administration out of power by the strong hand is because a peaceful way is provided by the Constitution to do this very thing. If it were a kingdom or empire we would be obliged to revolt against Grantism with force of arms. It is our good fortune to be able to do so by the ballot.—Baltimore Gazette.

GOVERNOR TILDEN is not one of those peculiar statesmen who consider that the burden of an enormous debt is of advantage to the nation which has it to sustain, and in his Letter of Acceptance he shows how the massive load under which we are staggering may be removed, without entailing any expenditure of force greater than is now necessary to hold it on our shoulders. By simply obtaining a reduction of one per cent. on most of our loans (an operation which it ought not to be difficult to accomplish), we could, in less than thirty-eight years, pay off the whole of our funded debt. This plan our present rulers had not even the brains to devise, and how to set about its execution they have no idea. Surely if no other good were to result, the inauguration of a system by which we can rid ourselves of this incumbus, at the rate of $17,000,000 a year, would render the election of Tilden to the Presidency a blessing to the country.

ECONOMY IN GOVERNMENT.—An Eastern paper kindly reminds the people that the popular branch of Congress, which is democratic by a overwhelming majority, and gave much attention to retrenchment and reform, somehow forgot to cut down the pay of members of Congress. This is hardly correct. The House made its hottest fight with the Senate on cutting down the salaries of Senators and members of the House from $5,000 to $4,500 each, and the salary of the President from $50,000 to $25,000. The republican Senate would not consent on any terms. Ten per centum reduction on members' pay was what the committee on appropriations and the House asked, but they were overruled, as they were in ten millions of other proposed reductions.

THE LATE SESSION.—The New York Tribune, rep., in an article on the late session of Congress, says necessarily it could do little in the way of positive legislation, since the republican Senate and the Democratic House on the eve of a presidential election were even more than usually sure to work at cross purposes, and adds: "But it has made a success in three directions. It exposed a corrupt Secretary of War, and drove him from office. It investigated an unscrupulous minister to England, and scourged him home. It reduced appropriations—sometimes wisely, often unwisely; but at all events it reduced them, and so, for the present, checked the enormous expenditures of public money. For these let this Congress have all thanks; and let us frankly say, too, that the whole credit of them is due to the democratic House."

The Machine Was Worn Out.

Why? Not because it was not well built, but was wrongly run. Thousands of men who have run down long before their threescore and ten years are accomplished, might have been renewed into sprightliness and vim if they had tried the well known PERUVIAN SYRUP, which contains among its compounds the Protoxide of Iron, so combined that it assimilates with the blood and invigorates the whole system. This syrup has proved efficacious in thousands of cases, and will do everybody good who uses it.

AMONG the many reasons why the Republicans intend to use the bayonet in the southern elections is the determination to resort to the most desperate expedients to preserve their majority in the Senate.—There are ten seats to be filled in eight States, where, on some manufactured and lying pretext, troops may be used. The States to which we refer are Arkansas, Louisiana, South Carolina and Texas, the four present senators being republicans, and there being one vacancy in Louisiana; and Georgia, Tennessee, Virgina and West Virginia, the four senators being democrats, and there being one vacancy in West Virginia.—New York Sun.

An exchange says: "We have found that hog's lard is the best thing to mix with the dough to give hens to make them lay. One out of this fat, as large as a walnut, will set a hen to lay immediately after she has been broken up from setting, and by feeding them with the fat occasionally the hens continue to lay through the winter."

"MY bark is on the sea," as the cur said when the captain threw him overboard.

THE AMERICAN PEOPLE.

No people in the world suffer as much with dyspepsia as Americans. Although years of experience in medicine had failed to accomplish a certain and sure remedy for this disease and its effects, such as Sour Stomach, Heart-burn, Water-brash, Sick Headache, Costiveness, palpitation of the Heart, Liver Complaint, coming up of the food, low spirits general debility, etc., yet since the introduction of GERER'S AUGUST FLOWER we believe there is no case of Dyspepsia that cannot be immediately relieved. 130,000 dozen sold last year without one case of failure reported. Go to your Druggists, Stam & Bro., Chestertown, or R. B. Britton, Millington, and get a sample Bottle for 10 cts., and try it. Two doses will relieve you. Regular size 75 cts.

JUST published by the PEABODY MEDICAL INSTITUTE, a new edition of the celebrated medical work entitled the 'SCIENCE OF LIFE; or, SELF-PRESERVATION.' It treats upon MANHOOD, how lost, how regained and how perpetuated; cause and cure of Exhausted Vitality, Impotency, Premature Decline in Man, Spermatorrhœa, or Seminal Losses (nocturnal and diurnal,) Nervous and Physical Debility, Hypochondria, Gloomy Forebodings, Mental Depression, Loss of Energy, Haggard Countenance, Confusion of Mind and Loss of Memory, Impure State of the Blood, and all diseases arising from the ERRORS OF YOUTH, or the indiscretions or excesses of maturer years.

It tells you all about the Morale of Generative Physiology, the Physiology of Marriage, of Wedlock and Offspring, Physical Contrasts, True Morality, Empiricism, Perversion of Marriage, Conjugal Precept and Friendly Counsel, Physical Infirmity, its Causes and Cure, Relations Between the Sexes, Proofs of the Expansion of Vice, The Miseries of Imprudence, Ancient Ignorance and Errors, MEANS OF CURE, Cure of Body and Mind. TRUE PRINCIPLES OF TREATMENT, Address to Patients and Invalid Readers, The Author's Principles. The price of this book is only $1.00.

This Book also contains MORE Than FIFTY PRESCRIPTIONS for the above named and other diseases, each one worth more than the price of the book.

Also, another valuable medical work treating exclusively on MENTAL AND NERVOUS DISEASES; more than 200 royal octavo pages, twenty elegant engravings, bound in substantial muslin. Price only $2.00. Barely enough to pay for printing.

"The Book for young and middle-aged men to read just now, is the Science of Life, or Self Preservation. The author has returned from Europe in excellent health, and is again the Chief Consulting Physician of the Peabody Medical Institute, No. 4 Bulfinch St., Boston, Mass."—Republican Journal.

"The Science of Life is beyond all comparison the most extraordinary work on Physiology ever published."—Boston Herald.

"Hope nestled in the bottom of Pandora's box, and hope plumes her wings anew, since the issuing of these valuable works, published by the Peabody Medical Institute, which are teaching thousands how to avoid the maladies that sap the citadel of life."—Philadelphia Enquirer.

"It should be read by the young, the middle aged and even the old."—N. Y. Tribune.

The first and only Medal ever conferred upon any Medical Man in this country, as a recognition of skill and professional services, was presented to the author of these works, March 31st, 1876. The presentation was noticed at the time of its occurrence by the Boston Press and the leading journals throughout the country. This magnificent Medal is of solid gold, set with more than one hundred India diamonds of rare brilliancy.

"Altogether, in its execution and the richness of its materials, and size, this is decidedly the most noticeable medal ever struck in this country for any purpose whatever. It is well worth the inspection of numismatists. It was fairly won and worthily bestowed."—Massachusetts Ploughman, June 3d, 1876.

Catalogue sent on receipt of 6 cents for postage.

Either of the above works sent by mail on receipt of price. Address PEABODY MEDICAL INSTITUTE, (or W. H. PARKER, M. D., Consulting Physician,) No. 4 Bulfinch St., Boston, Mass., opp. Revere House.

PROCLAMATION

WORTH READING!

I DESIRE all consumers of Goods in my line to know that I have declared war on high prices, and shall continue to assault all goods sold at big profits until I shall have defeated all competition and proven to all my customers that they can buy of me the MOST, the BEST, and the CHEAPEST HARNESS for the money that can be had in this county.

I have Harness for $11.

THAT CAN'T BE BEAT.

COPPER has arrived from the city with every thing that is kept in a Harness Shop He has got all kinds of COLLARS that he is selling very cheap for the cash.

Plow Bridles, Carriage Bridles,
Riding Bridles, Halters,
Martingales, round and flat,
Reines, double & single.
Whips, Carriage Saddles, Cart Saddles and Breeching, Breast Straps,

Don't forget the stand, one door below Burchinal's Corner, adjoining the stand formerly kept by J. M. Vandyke.

REPAIRING done 25 cts. less in a dollar than ever has been done before. Let the Farmers of Kent remember that COPPER is the cause of harness work being done so cheap. Do not forget that Copper makes harness by hand for $18, and guarantees them to give satisfaction. Give me a call and be convinced of the fact.
