

Pipeman EUGENE SHORT, No. 15 Engine Company, and horse "GOLIATH," which was injured in the Great Baltimore Fire of February 7 and 8, 1904, in getting Water Tower No. 2 out of the way after explosion in building of John E. Hurst Co., German and Liberty Streets. Horse was in Department Hospital six months before recovery.