The Kent News.

SATURDAY - - - - JUNE 16, 1877.

A DISASTROUS COLLISION occurred on Tuesday morning on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, near Point of Rocks. An excursion train of thirteen coaches from Frederick City, Md., bound to Washington city, with excursionists for Mount Vernon, having on board over six hundred passengers, collided with the Winchester accomodation train due in Baltimore at 10.50 A. M. The two engines were wrecked, some of the forward cars were telescoped, and the track was for a time blockaded. Five persons were killed outright, and eighteen or twenty were wounded. The killed and wounded were all on the excursion train, except one lady on the Winchester train, one of whose shoulders was injured. The names of the killed are as follows: Dorsey Walker, thirty-five years old, a resident of Mount Carmel, Frederick county. Richard Dutrow, forty years old, a resident of Adamstown, Frederick county. Charles H. Keefer, senior editor and proprietor of the Frederick Examiner. Louis Schley, aged twenty-three, an unmarried man. He was a son of Dr. Fairfax Schley, of Frederick. Howard Dixon, aged twenty-three, his neck was broken, his skull fractured and his legs mashed. There were twenty-four persons injured, a number of them seriously. Hon. G. R. Dennis, U. S. Senator, and his son, were on the train; the latter had his arm broken, but the Senator escaped unhurt.

FULLER accounts from the great earthquake on the South American western coast describe one of the most appalling disasters in history. First came the earthquake shocks, very violent and repeated, shaking the whole Andes backbone from Chili to the Isthmus, and sending shivers even as far north as California. These shook down buildings, caved in mines filled with workmen, and by breaking lamps set fire to ruins of dwellings. Then the sea retired from the shore, leaving great tracks of the bottom bare, and then returning in a wall of water from fifteen to sixty feet high rushed upon the land, sweeping everything away, and by the undertow dragging the wrecks back into the sea. Earth, fire and water all spent their fury upon the seaports. It lasted only a few moments, but in those few moments a number of towns were either almost or entirely destroyed, about six hundred lives lost, and the damage to shipping is almost incalculable.

AT a banquet and serenade given to Governor Robinson in New York on Monday night speeches were made by Augustus Schell, Governor Robinson and Lieutenant Governor Dorsheimer. Governor Robinson in the course of his speech said: "I recognize with sorrow the light regard for the most solemn obligations of the constitution, which has become the curse of American politics. I cannot ignore the fraud and corruption of the hour, which passing from the circle of small things has at last laid hold upon the highest place in the nation. We must recognize and meet this evil. The pathway of fraudulent elections is the highway to national death. If the republic is to endure we have looked for the last time upon the inauguration of a national executive who was never elected."

AN intelligent correspondent of the New York Tribune writes from Savannah that there is no prospect of "breaking the solid white vote in Georgia, and giving a fragment of it to the Republican party, or to a resurrected Whig party, or to any new organization formed for the purpose of reciprocating the services of President Hayes to the South." There is no reason why the democrats of Georgia or of any other State should flop over to a Hayes' party because the President has done what the constitution required him to do. A strong, healthy, robust opposition, keeping a keen and watchful eye on the President and his party, was never more needed than now. The democracy has the organization, fully equipped, and there is no prospect of it going out of business.

MARYLAND HORSES WIN.—At the Jerome Park races, New York, on Friday of last week, the mile and a half dash was won in handsome style by Oriole, owned by ex-Gov. Bowie, of Maryland. This was supplemented on Saturday by another victory for a Maryland horse, Mr. E. A. Clabaugh's fine three year-old colt Cloverbrook, winning the Belmont stakes, the richest prize of the spring racing. The New York Times says the struggle for the Belmont stakes usually goes a long way toward solving the interesting question as to which is the greatest three-year-old colt of the year, and in recording Cloverbrook's victory the Times says "it was 'bottom' that did the business this time."

UNITED STATES MARSHAL FOR MARYLAND.—President Hayes has appointed Mr. John M. McClintock, of Baltimore, United States Marshal for Maryland, vice Major E. Y. Goldsborough of Frederick county. Mr. McClintock is a native of Baltimore, about fifty-five years of age, and has for twenty years been the Baltimore baggage express agent of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, and the proprietor of McClintock'e baggage express.

TWEED has been driven to the wall by the refusal of the Attorney General of New York to accept his proposal to tell all he knows about the Tammany thefts on condition of release from prison and immunity from further prosecution. The ex-magnate now desires to confess judgment in all the suits brought against him. This looks like a last attempt to make the best terms for himself that he can.

NEW CROP WHEAT.—The Baltimore American of Thursday says: "The first sale of new crop wheat was made at 'Change yesterday, being 15,000 bushels No. 2 Western red winter wheat, for August delivery, at 150 cents per bushel. This transaction indicates that very full prices are anticipated for the new crop wheat, soon to be harvested.

GOVERNOR HENDRICKS.—It was the highest compliment that could be paid to a public man when democratic delegations from all parts of the State of Indiana assembled on Friday of last week at Indianapolis to bid farewell to ex-Gov. Hendricks on the occasion of his departure for a three months sojourn in Europe. He left that city the same evening for New York, and on Tuesday night was entertained by the Manhattan Club. On Wednesday he left that port on the Scythia, of the Cunard line, bound for Liverpool. The good wishes not only of the people of Indiana, but of those of the country generally, will go with him. At Indianapolis, before leaving, Mr. Hendricks received his friends in Masonic Hall, where speeches complimentary to him were made by Governor Williams, Senator McDonald, Congressmen and ex-Congressmen Voorhees, Holman and Goodman, and others. To these Mr. Hendricks replied. Toward the close of his address he said:

"As I make my journey, I turn my back for a short time upon my home and fellow-citizens and expect to look upon the institutions that govern other people than those with whom I have always been associated, it is a pleasing reflection that I leave behind me the good feeling of the men who know me. And, indeed, as a man stands upon the summit of the hill of life and looks behind and downward somewhat, there is not much else to contemplate with pleasure. He cannot carry much of the goods of this world with him, but as he goes onward and onward toward the close of life the richest thing that he can carry with him and down to the very verge of the grave is the respect and esteem of his fellow-citizens."

THE PEACH GROWERS' CONVENTION.—At the second meeting of the peach growers, held at Middletown, on Friday of last week, the question of chartering cars for the present season was extensively discussed by the growers from the peach districts of Delaware and Maryland and the railroad officials. A committee recently appointed to interview President Hinckley, of the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore railroad, reported that he had made a proposition to reduce the rates of freight seven dollars per car to Jersey City and Boston and twenty-five per cent. to all western points if they would abolish the present system of chartering cars. Should the present system be abandoned the return of empty baskets would be stopped, unless growers consented to pay two cents per basket from Jersey City, or four cents for every five hundred miles. After the reading of the proposition of President Hinckley, Gov. Cochran moved that it be unanimously rejected. It was said that enough baskets could not be manufactured to ship the fruit. A basket could be furnished at five cents strong enough for one shipment, which could be sold with the fruit. The proposition was rejected after a discussion of three hours, and the committee was continued, with instructions to seek further reductions and other propositions more beneficial. The meeting adjourned to meet again June 22 at Middletown.

THE BALTIMORE COLLECTORSHIP.—The Baltimore Sun of Wednesday says:

The friends of Col. Wilkins, collector of the port, have for several days expressed confidence that he will not be relieved. Yesterday the adherents of Mr. Jno. L. Thomas, Jr., who has been named in connection with the collectorship, publicly stated that the President had decided to retain Collector Wilkins, who was appointed for four years and has served about a year. For a successor to be appointed the incumbent would have to be removed for cause; and under the tenure of office act the matter would be reviewed by the Senate in executive session when it again meets.

ORPHANS' COURT, Tuesday, June 12.—Present, Judges Nicholson, Shallcross and Willson. Letters of administration on the personal estate of William H. Lecompte, were granted unto Samuel C. Lecompte, who filed his bond in the penalty of one thousand dollars. E. S. Clothier and J. C. Wheatley were appointed to appraise the said estate, and the usual notice to creditors was ordered. Richard C. Smyth was appointed guardian to the minor children of Jefferson L. Smyth, deceased.

FIRE IN QUEEN ANNE'S.—A fire occurred on Wednesday night on the farm of Mr. J. E. Weatherby, near Church Hill, which destroyed all his out-buildings, which were nearly new, three mules, a horse, and another horse was seriously burned. Mr. W. resides in Baltimore, and it is probable the buildings were insured in that city. The fire was discovered shortly before midnight, and its origin is unknown.

SALES OF REAL ESTATE.—The real estate of Wm. Lamb was sold by late Sheriff Plummer on Tuesday to R. Hynson, Esq., for $2,000. R. Hynson, trustee, sold at Edesville on Wednesday the real estate of the late Jos. R. Apsley—32 acres, more or less, to J. W. Crouch for $1,003 25, and the store house and dwelling to T. R. Strong & Bro. for $202 50.

THE STRAWBERRY SEASON is about over and the growers are discouraged. There is plenty of small fruit yet on the vines, but it won't pay to ship it, as it only brings about 4 cts. per qt. The price has averaged from 7 to 8 cts. for the season, against 10 to 12 heretofore. It is the most discouraging season the berry men have had for several years.

HARVEST.—Some of our farmers will commence cutting wheat next Thursday, and general harvest will probably be upon them by Monday week. The weather has continued favorable for maturing the crop, and the grain will be of fine quality.

PRESIDENT GILMAN, of Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, was married at Newport, R. I., on Wednesday afternoon, to Lilly Woolsey, niece of ex-President Woolsey, of Yale College.

GOV. BLUE JEANS WILLIAMS has just appeared with great effect at an Indiana log-rolling. Several thousand spectators watched him as he hurled the logs about and shouted to his oxen.

AT Felton, Del., on Wednesday, Rev. S. S. Sturgis, Presbyterian clergyman of that town, fell dead from heart disease while conversing with Dr. Hargadine at the latter's office.

THE season at Ocean City, the Maryland seaside resort near Berlin, will be inaugurated on the 20th inst. Six hotels will be open for the accommodation of visitors this season.

FAREWELL TO HENDRICKS.

Mr. Tilden on the Presidential Election.

The reception given to Governor Hendricks by the Manhattan Club, in New York on Tuesday night, on the eve of his departure for Europe, was a brilliant affair, and was the occasion for a large gathering of the best known democrats of the city. The events of the occasion were the speeches of Governor Tilden and Governor Hendricks. Their expressions on the presidential question were clear and unmistakable. Gov. Tilden, after alluding to the departure of Gov. Hendricks with the best wishes for a prosperous voyage and safe return, said:

"Everybody knows that after the recent election the men who were elected by the people President and Vice-President of the United States were 'counted out,' and men who were not elected were 'counted in' and seated. I disclaim any thought of the personal wrong involved in this transaction. Not by any act or word of mine shall that be dwarfed or degraded into a personal grievance which is in truth the greatest wrong that has stained our national annals. To every man of the four and a quarter millions who were defrauded of the fruits of their elective franchise it is as great a wrong as it is to me. And no less to every man of the minority will the ultimate consequences extend.

"Evils in government grow by success and by impunity. They do not arrest their own progress. They can never be limited except by external forces. If the men in possession of the government can in one instance maintain themselves in power against an adverse decision at the election such an example will be imitated. Temptations exist always. Devices to give the color of law, and false pretenses on which to found fraudulent decisions, will not be wanting. The wrong will grow into a practice if once condoned.

"In the world's history changes in the succession of governments have usually been the result of fraud or force. It has been our faith and our pride that we had established a mode of peaceful change to be worked out by the agency of the ballot-box. The question now is whether an elective system in its substance as well as in its form is to be maintained. This is the question of questions. Until it is finally settled there can be no politics founded on an inferior question of administrative policy. It involves the fundamental right of the people. It involves the elective principle. It involves the whole system of popular government.

"The people must signally condemn the great wrong which has been done to them. They must strip the example of everything that can attract imitators.—They must refuse a prosperous immunity to crime. This is not all. The people will not be able to trust the authors or beneficiaries of the wrong to devise remedies. But when those who condemn wrong shall have the power they must devise a measure which shall render a repetition of the wrong forever impossible. If my voice could reach throughout our country and be heard in its remotest hamlets, I would say, 'Be of good cheer, the republic will live. The institutions of our fathers are not to expire in shame. The sovereignty of the people shall be rescused from this peril and be re-established.'

"Successful wrong never appears so triumphant as on the very eve of its fall. Seven years ago a corrupt dynasty culminated in its power over the million of people who live in the city of New York. It had conquered or bribed or flattered and won almost everybody into acquiescence. It appeared to be invincible. A year or two latter its members were in the penitentiaries or in exile. History abounds in similar examples. We must believe in the right and in the future. A great and noble nation will not sever its political from its moral life."

Speeches were also made by Gov. Robinson, Lieut. Gov. Dorsheimer, and Gov. Hendricks. The speech of the latter will be published next week.

QUEEN ANNE'S ITEMS—from Tuesday's Observer:

Mrs. Daniel McKee, residing near Church Hill, met with a painful accident on Friday, being tossed in the air and gored by a cow which she was trying to milk. Dr. Newman was sent for and attended to her injuries.

R. E. C. Downes, A. M., of Church Hill, announces himself as a candidate for Register of Wills. In his card he says that he has been a taxpayer for 46 years and a voter for 35 years, and has never held an office from the people. [He has certainly "waited long and patiently."]

The cutting match, near Centreville, between the Buckeye and the Champion reapers, will not take place, the agent of the Champion having declined. A challenge, however, from the Wheeler No. 6 has been accepted by the Buckeye, which will probably bring on a match.

A great many strangers are now visiting our county, the majority of them being brought here by Mancha & Gibson to look at our farms. Last week the firm were pressed for teams to accommodate all the visitors who had come at their invitation to look around for new homes.

Capt. Smith commenced last week with the work of building the new walls for the court house. The house is to be enlarged by the addition of 26 feet to the main building and some 14 feet to the Register's office. The front will be about the same as now—a great mistake, by the way

A large and very valuable dark bay mare, belonging to Mr. Chas. W. Clements, of Rich Neck, was found in the field on the 6th inst., with her left front leg broken, caused by a kick from a neighbor's horse, which was found in the field that morning with shoes on. This is the fourth horse that Mr. Clements has recently lost from unavoidable accidents.

Centreville is now honored with two brass bands, one composed of white men and the other of colored men. They occasionally treat the citizens to free concerts.

The election of Town Commissioners for Church Hill was held on Monday, and the following gentlemen were selected: W. D. Taylor, Dr. J. T. Tucker and Dr. Thos. H. Green. The board met and appointed W. D. Gould clerk and John Carter bailiff.

BRITISH TOADYISM TO GRANT.—In view of the little public attention paid to our former ex-Presidents, Van Buren and Fillmore, when they visited England, ought Americans to be proud of the fetes now given by the British people to Ex-President Grant? Why is he honored more than they? Because he is a great general, some will say. But was not his success achieved at the cost of three lives to one, and in a struggle against an enemy whose cause was upheld or favored by these very English aristocrats, who are now toadying to him? What other merits has he? Before the Republican party selected as their candidate, in 1868 (as Charles O'Conor expressed it,) "a drunken democrat from the Galena gutters,"—Benjamin F. Butler wrote this as his opinion of the successful general: "A man without head or heart, callous to human suffering, and impotent to govern."—Washington Correspondent Balto. Gazette.

LIVING FIFTY-THREE DAYS ON WATER.—Ezra Newcomer, an insane man confined in York County (Pa.) Hospital since the 20th of April, has refused to take any nourishment whatever but water, and then he would only drink when he could take it from the spiggot himself. During this entire time he has also refused to enter into conversation with any one, and his answers were few and made in a rough manner. He has, however, smoked quite a number of cigars. Up to a day or two ago he was able to move about, but now he is so weak that he cannot walk, and since he cannot go to the spiggot for water he even refuses to drink. He has been reduced in weight nearly one hundred pounds, and is indeed a pitiable object to behold—being in the last stages of starvation.

JUDGE BLACK AND THE ELECTORAL COMMISSION.—A Washington dispatch gives currency to a statement that Judge Jere Black is engaged in preparing a severe review of the electoral commission and of the Supreme Court judges who decided in favor of Mr. Hayes the cases for the commission. The article, which is designed for one of the magazines, is said to have been revised by Justice Field one day last week at Judge Black's residence, at York, Pa.

A HORSE MAKES A FAMOUS JUMP.—At the last meeting of the Riding Club, at Warrenton, Va., Mr. Ludlam's horse Murad, in clearing one of the hurdles, made the almost unparalleled jump of thirty-six feet from where his hind feet left the ground to where they again reached ground. The distance cleared from the point where the hind feet left ground to where the front feet touched ground was forty-two feet.

THE single scull race for $2,000 and the championship of America, five miles, between William Scharff, of Birmingham, Pa., and Evan Morris, of Pittsburg, was won at the latter place Saturday by Morris by five or six lengths, in 36 minutes and 45 seconds. The race was very fine, and was witnessed by thousands of persons. Last year Scharff won by a length.
