Letter from Chesterville.

Messrs. Editors:—Your correspondent "Mack" from Chesterville, in last week's issue of your paper, has brought such an uncharitable and serious charge against a large number of our young members of society here, and the assertions of idleness, loafing and intemperance are so sweeping and broadcast, that we are constrained to say in reply that we have been a resident of this locality for a number of years, indeed so long that we are classed among the oldest inhabitants, and have such ample opportunities for knowing and finding out the facts, that we can safely say, without the least stretch of the truth, that a more peaceable, quiet, law-abiding, God-serving community does not exist in any section of this county. We have here two churches of the Methodist denomination of Christians, and it is often a subject of remark that at all times when services are held, the congregation is largely made up of the young men. Indeed, evening lectures and prayer meetings during the week are well attended by them—an unusual thing for the young. Your scribblers, Messrs. Editors, are not acquainted with this class of our people, or they or he or she have certainly strayed a great ways from the plain naked truth. I have yet to see idleness, loafing and drunkenness here; and a man or woman who would so far forget themselves as to deliberately set down and publish false acquisations against a whole community, certainly lacks one great element of a good citizen, "the milk of human kindness."

One who would wilfully injure the good name of another, in the eyes of a just, good and true man, is much more to be dreaded and shunned as a dangerous element in any community than many other things we consider bad enough.—There are, Messrs. Editors, weapons more dangerous even than intemperance, though we know this is bad enough, and the worst of all is the deliberate attempt with the venemous tongue of slander to injure the good name or character of any one. "He that steals my purse steals trash, but he who pilfers from me my good name, takes from me that which does not enrich him, and makes me poor indeed." Let no such man or woman be trusted. There are, Messrs. Editors, certain restrictions and protections thrown by the laws of our country around society, protecting it from the nefarious acts of the thief, the robber and murderer; but from the calumniator, the slanderer, whose deadly stabs are more hurtful than the midnight assassin or the open highwayman, we have no legal protection, in many instances no redress; and even sometimes the simple whisper of calumny will launch a pure and noble heart into dissolution and ruin. In small communities I know many are prone to the besetting sin of backbiting, and it is certainly a great misfortune that there is no such protection from these characters, who are of the baser sort. We are afraid of them—shun them and despise them as much as the creeping, crawling viper that runs across the path. The strictures of your correspondent, Messrs. Editors, upon our church warden or sexton, and the gentleman who vends the ardent in this village, are unjust and unkind. They are each of them most estimable and esteemed citizens. One is a long-standing, hard-working, representative man in the church, the other a gentleman well known in this community for his moral, temperate, religious views, and who has, I do not doubt, through the confidence of his fellow citizens in times gone by, assisted in making and framing some of these very laws and restrictions we are living under, and which have been thrown around the vending of ardent spirits, when one of the State representatives; and it is not very reasonable to suppose, and he is too well known in this community, that he would for one moment be among the first to break them. Ah! sirs, if we would but attend to our own business and let our neighbors alone; if we would but first put our own house on a surer foundation than glass, how much the more happy moments time would bring us in our lives; how much the more profitable would it be spent; all would be happy, all would be wise, and much confusion and bitterness of feeling in communities would we escape. None of us are perfect; I know no section is without its petty gossipers. They can, by silent contempt, be hushed into nothingness; but may a kind God save us from the bitter, scathing, blighting, ravenous, lying, viperous tongue of the slanderer. I hope your correspondent will make it his business to become a little better acquainted with the manners, customs and habits of our young members of society before he or they again tempt you to publish an article like the one I have before me.

AN OLD RESIDENTER.

Chestervill, June 19, 1877.

Chesterville and Vicinity.

Messrs. Editors:—Wheat harvest commenced in this neighborhood on Wednesday last, and will be in full blast by the first of next week. As yet there has been nothing to seriously interfere with this crop, in this neighborhood, and there is promise of an abundant harvest. A great deal of hay has also been cut this week. The yield seems to be excellent.

A fine spring colt belonging to Mr. S. W. Aldridge, of this place, run a fork in its stomach several days since, from the effects of which it died.

Our public school, Miss Ella R. Day, teacher, will close, on Monday next, until the Fall. While speaking of the school, there is one matter about which a little information is desired. The old wooden desks have been taken out and substituted by the more modern iron-back seat. That is all right. But a farmer trustee and heavy taxpayer thinks that the old desks are far too good to be left out in the weather and broken and used up in various ways.

Perry Brown, Jr., colored, employed by Mr. D. K. Price, met with a serious accident last Saturday. In jumping out of the barn door, he lighted on a large stone, which being unbalanced, threw him with his back on the stone and his head against the door sill. For awhile he was unconscious, and has not been able to do any work since. Harry, son of Mr. Price, also fell from the hay mow to the manger, on Wednesday last, but was not, we hear, badly hurt.

The Hibernian school picnic was well attended, and passed off very pleasantly last Saturday.

"Mack" threw a bombshell into our camp last week with terrible effect. Its fragments flew all around, and were even picked up by parties entirely out of range, we think. Some of his statements may have been a little strong, but we shall not attempt to castigate him for telling so near the truth.

And now I must stop, for Fennimore, the prompt mail carrier, is here, and of course will not wait for me. WALTER.

A MACON, Georgia, dispatch says that peaches are going forward freely from that State. Three carloads from the Southwest were shipped to Northern and Western cities on Tuesday.

A FORMIDABLE gang of horse thieves has just been broken up in Missouri, whose organization was very far-reaching and active. Horses stolen were passed on rapidly from point to point, and all attempts to trace them were hedged about with difficulties. But the most remarkable feature of it is the respectability of the members of the gang. One of them was a preacher named Lowe, who held revival meetings, and thus gathered the country people around him and subjected their horses to the operations of his confederates. Alas! poor human nature.

THE one hundred and second anniversary of the battle of Bunker Hill was celebrated at Boston on Monday. Wendell Phillips delivered an oration and Oliver Wendell Holmes a poem.

Delays are Dangerous.—If this axiom is true respecting the ordinary affairs of life, still more obviously so as regards the exigencies o approaching disease. Unquestionably! Yet how many neglect to practically recognize this plain truth when health is in the balance. Of the many premonitory symptoms of disease a hacking cough is the most prophetic of peril. Arrest it at the outset with Dr. WISHART'S PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL, and so avoid Consumption. Bronchitis, Inflammation of the Lungs, Coughs, Colds, and, indeed, all Affections of the Respiratory Organs, are entirely cured by this sovereign remedy, which also eradicates Dyspepsia, Piles, Gravel, Nervous Debility, Torpidity of the Liver, Urinary Difficulties, Constipation, Palpitation of the Heart, Scrofulous Affections, and the infirmities peculiar to the gentler sex. This Cordial derives its virtues from the vegetable kingdom, and is infinitely to be preferred, both on account of its superior efficacy and freedom from nauseous and injurious properties to the officinal drugs so often administered with no other effect than to offend the palate and disorder the stomach. The Pine Tree Cordial can always be relied on to do what is claimed for it. Sold by all Druggists. Principal Depot, 916 Filbert street, Philadelphia. mr24-3m.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

BY virtue of a writ of the State of Maryland of Fieri Facias, issued out of the Circuit Court for Kent county, and to me directed, against Alexander Scott, John Wesley Tilghman and others, at suit of George Vickers, adm'r of John K. Willis, I have levied upon, seized and taken all that being part of lot No. 59, beginning on the northwest side of Kent Street, at the point of intersection between Kent and Calvert Streets, and running with Kent Street forty-five feet six inches to J. Bordley's lot, thence at right angles and parallel with Calvert Street by and with J. Bordley's line forty feet to H. Earnest's line, thence at right angles or nearly so and by and with Earnest's line to Calvert Street, thereby and with Calvert Street to the point of beginning.

PART OF A LOT OF LAND,

IN CHESTERTOWN,

And I hereby give notice, that in pursuance of said writ of Fieri Facias, I will expose to Public Sale to the highest bidder, on TUESDAY, 10th Day of July Next, near and opposite the Court House Door, in Chestertown, at Eleven o'clock A. M., the said Part of a Lot of Land, with the Buildings and Improvements thereon, to satisfy the said writ, debt, interest and costs.

P. S.—The property is sold with the consent of the membership of the Bethel Church. PHILIP MEDDERS,

THESE celebrated and highly popular Cultivators are now being manufactured by the above firm, and are guaranteed not to choke in grass or corn stubs. The attention of farmers generally is invited to the following recommendations:

Near Hynson's Chapel, Apr. 28, 1877.

Messrs. Chapman & Lambert—Dear Sirs: The Climax Iron Frame Cultivator that I bought of you last year gave entire satisfaction and will not choke. You will please make me another one. I would not take $25 for the one you made me if I could not get another like it.

Respectfully, &c., A. J. HYNSON.

Near Chestertown, Apr. 28, 1877.

Messrs. Chapman & Lambert—Sirs: The Climax Iron Cultivator which I purchased from you last fall gave me entire satisfaction, and I shall want another. I broke up my corn ground for wheat with it and used no plow. I have never seen its equal and it is everything you claim for it.

Yours, &c., WM. MORRIS.

Near Fairlee, April 30, 1877.

Messrs. Chapman & Lambert—Sirs: Your newly invented Cultivator is a big thing for farmers, and I advise all in want of Cultivators to give them a trial. Last fall I put my corn ground in order for wheat with it, and it never choked once. You will please make me another.

Yours, &c., B. F. JOINER.

Rich Neck, near Rolph's Wharf, April 30, 1877.

Messrs. Chapman & Lambert—Dear Sirs: The newly invented Iron Frame Cultivator I bought of you gave entire satisfaction, and I think they are the very thing for farmers. Your Steel Cultivator Teeth, that I have been using for years, have no equal, and I can recommend them to all farmers. Yours, &c.,

GALENA MACHINE SHOPS!

Wm. A. Hyland & Co.

WE beg leave to call the attention of the Farmers of Kent and the adjoining counties to our new and the many IMPROVEMENTS we have made this year. Our Self-Oiling PITMAN Box, which will run two hours without stopping to oil; also, case hardened Journals, which we think is a great advantage, preventing the wearing of the Journals, a trouble that all other machines have to contend with. We are now using a Guard with concaved centre, which will PREVENT CHOKING and always present a Sharp Cutting Edge, a thing that must present itself to the farmer at once. Also, a Knife with Steel Back, thereby adding Strength, Lightness and Elasticity; and our PATENT STEEL WIRE DROP, that overcomes all objections to a Dropper, working as well in light as heavy grain, a thing that has been long needed and found at last by us.

We make the Reapers of two sizes, for two and four horses. The four-horse Reaper cuts a Swath of six feet, and will cut from twenty-five to thirty acres of grain per day, and will not work the horses as hard as ordinary farm work. The five foot machine is intended for two horses, and is handled very easily. Farmers, call and see, or write to us and learn what we have for sale.

They are the proprietors of a Corn Sheller with Fan attachment, which with their one and two horse power, will shell and clean seventy-five bushels in one hour, of which fact good reference can be given.

REPAIRING

they do neatly, and all their work is done at reasonable prices, and say to all, encourage home manufacture, or at all events give them a trial.

THE CRAWFORD MOWER

so justly celebrated for its light draft, and good work done by it, they also keep for sale.

Also, the Celebrated Taylor Rake

☞WE GUARANTEE every Machine that leaves our Works.

WM. A. HYLAND & CO.

We are also selling the Celebrated

Hubbard Self-Raking Reaper

AND MOWER COMBINED.

☞Farmers will please give us a call before purchasing elsewhere.

NOTICE

To Fruit Growers

☞SHIP nothing but your BEST, and dry your Cullings.☜

I WOULD respectfully call the attention of Fruit Growers to my Improved Fruit Evaporator.

My Evaporator has 2,000 square feet of drying surface, and will dry from 200 to 300 baskets of peaches per day, at a cost not exceeding 1½ cents per pound for preparing and drying the fruit. Fruit dried by this process commands double the price of Sun dried fruit. I have samples of fruit dried by this dryer last year, which can be seen, with a model of the dryer, by calling on me.
