MOTOR COMMISSIONER LIKELY TO WIN RE-APPOINTMENT—ONE OTHER BEING CONSIDERED

Law Requires Submission Of Name Of Nominee To Senate On Or Before February 20th. Delegation Of Business Men Call On Governor In Baughman's Behalf.

From the Annapolis Correspondent of The Jefferrsonian.)

Col. E. Austin Baughman will in all probability be reappointed Commissioner of Motor Vehicles, it became known this week.

A "still hunt" conducted by Governor Ritchie to find an outstanding man whose appointment in place of Baughman would commend itself to the people of the State has met with failure.

Only one such man, it develops, has been under serious consideration to supplant Baughman. A resident of Baltimore City, he is considered as possessing many of the qualifications considered requisite by the Governor, but certain obstacles stand in the way of his appointment.

It now has been decided that obstacles are insurmountable, and he has been dropped from consideration. Reappointment of Baughman as a consequence, is considered certain. The law requires the Governor to submit the name of his nominee to the State Senate on or before February 20.

Colonel Baughman has been Motor Vehicle Commissioner since the organization of the department.

A delegation of business men called on the Governor at Annapolis about ten days ago to urge Mr. Baughman's reappointment. There was some suggestion that the demonstration was inspired by special deputies given badges by Baughman, but friends of the Commissioner claim that there is much spontaneous approval of his regime.

The Governor is understood to have taken the attitude consistently that he would supplant Baughman if a man of undoubted genius for the work could be found. If such a man was not unearthed, Baughman would be reappointed.

ELMER BECK SEEKS PARTIAL DIVORCE FROM WIFE.

A bill was filed in the Circuit Court at Towson by Elmer Beck for a partial divorce from his wife, Mrs. Amelia Agnes Beck. The plaintiff states that he was married at Sweet Air in 1911, and that he has since April 26, 1923, been compelled to live apart from his wife on account of her harsh and cruel treatment of him, and he now lives at Towson. He states that Mrs. Beck would at times go into a rage from no cause apparently at all, and while in such rage, she would smack and hit the plaintiff. There were no children born of the marriage.

"JEFF'S" PRINTER'S DEVIL PLAYS PRANK ON JOHNNY DONOVAN.

Johnny Donovan, foreman at The Jeffersonian's plant, worked all day Thursday and did not realize he was passing his 30th milestone until he was advised by his brother, Eddy, who is the pressman, at 4.30.

Luke Pearson, the Printers' Devil, who hails from up around Butler, that quiet little village nestling among the hills on the Western Run, overheard the conversation between John and his brother, slipped out and in a short while returned with a neatly wrapped box, about the size of a shoe container and handed it to "Fritz" Weimaster, the linotype operator.

In a jiffy "Fritz" was up on a chair delivering a birthday oration, which ended in the presentation of the package to John, while "Commodore" Flayhart and the rest of the gang of ink slingers and space grabbers crowded around and anxiously awaited the opening of the package.

John managed, although a bit nervous, to get the outer wrapper off, then a layer of tissue paper, another, still another, then some more an dfinally got down to a neat little bundle which he cautiously opened, his eyes fairly popping with wonderment, and then the great surprise—a soup bone.

Just at the moment that John's eyes focused on the novel birthday present Luke edged away and began to say: "Jo-hh-h-hn, I wish yo-u-u-u many hap-p-py re-tu-u-rns of th-h-hhe d-d-d-day," and with this a printer's mallet followed Luke closely as he vanished through the door.
