SATURDAY - - - - - SEPT. 15, 1877.

Notice of Democratic Conservative Primary Meetings.

The Democratic Conservative voters of Kent county are requested to assemble at the usual places of meeting in their respective Election Districts, on at 2 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of selecting Five Delegates from their respective districts, who shall meet in County Convention at the Court House in Chestertown, on Tuesday, the 18th day of September, 1877, at 11 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of nominating two candidates for the House of Delegates of Maryland, from Kent county; five candidates for County Commissioners; one candidate for Sheriff; and one candidate for County Surveyor; to be voted for at the ensuing election. Also, to appoint Three Delegates to represent Kent county in the State Convention to be held in Baltimore on the 27th day of September, to nominate a candidate for the office of Comptroller of the Treasury of Maryland.

SATURDAY, Sept. 15, 1877,

JAMES A. PEARCE,
R. C. JOHNSON,
R. W. JONES,
State Central Com. for Kent Co.

THE New York Sun of Wednesday predicts a general European war.

IT is predicted that the wheat crop to be sown on the Peninsula this fall will be the largest for many years.

E. R. COCHRAN, Esq., of Middletown, was awarded the first premium, $20, for the largest and best display of peaches at the Permanent Exhibition last week.

THE railroad rioters recently convicted at Harrisburg have been sentenced to imprisonment ranging from two to eight months, and imposing fines from twenty to five hundred and ten dollars.

THE Mormon apostles havechosen Senior Apostle Jno. Taylor president in place of Brigham Young, to be assisted by Jno. W. Young, Daniel H. Wells and George Q. Cannon.

IT has been determined by the President to apppoint new officers for the New York custom-house, and in this the cabinet sustains him. The removals will not be made, however, until after the meeting of Congress.

THE Port Tobacco Times having mentioned the name of Hon. Levin Woolford in connection with the candidacy for Comptroller, that gentleman has addressed a letter to the editor of that paper declining to be a candidate for renomination to that position.

THE yellow fever is prevailing at Fernandina, Florida. Medical aid from Savannah has been asked for. The physicians have advised the people to leave the place. Much excitement prevails.

THE workingmen's party of Baltimore has nominated Jos. Thompson, of the firm of Thompson Brothers, blacksmiths and wheelwrights, as a candidate for mayor of the city, making four Richmonds in the field—Kane, Warfield, Thompson and Griffith.

THE grain crops of England have to a very great extent proved a failure. As a consequence the demand for our breadstuffs is likely to continue very lively. Evidence that such a result is anticipated is to be found in the fact that ocean freights have advanced almost forty per cent., with a demand for vessels greater than is likely to be supplied.

THE MARYLAND SENATORSHIP.—The rumor which has been current in Washington and elsewhere to the effect that Mr. A. P. Gorman will be a candidate for the United States Senate for Maryland in place of Mr. Dennis proves to be erroneous. It is learned that he is in favor of adhering to custom and giving the succession to the Eastern Shore. We were satisfied of this when the rumor was first put in circulation.

STEALING NEWSPAPERS.—There are frequent complaints on the part of newspaper subscribers of their papers being stolen from yards and front porches. In Atlanta, Ga., George Wilson was arrested on a similar charge, found guilty, and sentenced by the court to the chain gang for twelve months. The punishment is none too severe for the offense, of which there are many aggravated instances in every community where newspapers are served by the carrier system.

THE latest election returns of California indicate that the Democrats have elected ten Senators and fifty-seven Assemblymen and the Republicans ten Senators and twenty-three Assemblymen. Including the Democratic Senators holding over, the Democrats will have thirty-eight majority on joint ballot, securing the election of a Democratic United States Senator in the place of Sargeant, republican.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.—Col. P. M. Snowden was on Tuesday nominated by the democratic convention as the candidate of that party for Sheriff of Baltimore, and Simon J. Martenet for city surveyor. Col. Snowden carried seventeen of the twenty wards. Mr. Alfred E. Smyrk was his only opponent.

The Cecil county Democratic Convention met in Elkton on Tuesday and made the following nominations: State Senator, John M. Miller; House of Delegates, Wm. M. Knight, James M. Touchstone, Dr. Joseph Turner; County Commissioners, Benj. M. Crawford, David P. Cameron and Richard Caruthers; Sheriff, Wm. T. Boulden.

The Democrats of Dorchester county have nominated the following ticket: For State Senator, Col. Clement Sulivane; for House of Delegates, Sam'l M. Traverse, Jos. H. Johnson, J. H. Houston. Col. Sulivane is the law partner of Hon. Daniel M. Henry and editor of the Cambridge Chronicle, while Mr. Johnson, one of the candidates for the House, is editor of the Dorchester News. The more editors they get in the Legislature the better and more perfect the laws that will be passed.

ORPHANS' COURT, Tuesday, Sept. 11.—Present, Judges Nicholson, Shallcross and Willson. Letters of administration on the personal estate of Wm. N. C. Anderson were granted unto George E. Harrison; Alday Clements and J. W. Jarman were appointed to appraise said estate, the usual notice to creditors ordered. Sophia H. Betton was appointed guardian to Eleanor L. Betton. T. W. Eliason, Jr., adm'r of James H. Smith, returned an inventory of the personal estate of said deceased, and received an order for the sale thereof. S. C. Lecompt, adm'r of William H. Lecompt, received an order for the sale of the personal estate of said deceased. Joseph P. Ireland and F. H. Taylor were appointed to appraise the annual value of the real estate of A. M. Gooding. G. Vickers, adm'r of John K. Willis, was authorized to have repaired certain property of his intestate.

ROBBERY.—On Saturday or Sunday night of last week the station-house at Lambson's, on the Kent Railroad, was broken open and a lot of boots and shoes belonging to H. C. Layman were stolen, besides a few other goods. The agent reports one entire case of boots carried off, together with five more pairs taken from the other cases. Whether any of the shoes out of the other boxes were taken, we could not learn. One box of glassware was carried up the track a short distance and then dropped, where it was found and afterwards returned. The station was entered by the slipping back of a bolt from the outside. The loss will be about $60, which, of course, the railroad company will have to bear.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—A most distressing and painful accident occurred to Mr. Samuel Fisher, an old gentleman of this town, last Sunday afternoon. Mr. Fisher had been visiting with his son a relative in Queen Anne's county. Upon his return he had occasion to lead a horse, which gave no trouble until he reached Chestertown, when suddenly, in consequence of a fright, the horse jerked back, snatching the rope in such a manner as to entangle Mr. Fisher's left hand. Before he could extricate it from the rope it had torn and lacerated his hand in such a manner that it was found necessary to amputate his index finger at the hand joint. Two tendons, 10 and 12 inches long, were snapped at the elbow and drawn with the finger. The operation was performed by Drs. Holton and Hines, at the drug store of T. W. Wickes, where he had been taken immediately after the accident. Mr. Fisher, though aged, bore the pain with remarkable fortitude, and is doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

RUNAWAY.—The horse of Mr. William Crew, of Chesterville, took fright on Sunday night last while passing along the camp-meeting woods, near that village, and ran away, throwing out the occupants and demolishing the buggy. There were three in the vehicle—Mr. Crew, his little son, and his nephew, Wm. Crew, the latter of whom was driving. The wheels passed over Mr. Crew, and the driver was thrown out on his head and face, both sustaining slight injuries, while the little boy escaped unhurt.

HEAVY RAIN.—After a season of protracted drought we had a heavy rain last week, commencing Wednesday night and continuing until Saturday, and also another heavy rain fall on Wednesday last. Farmers are taking every opportunity to finish turning their fallow. The season for saving blades has been very unpropitious, and much of the crop has been badly damaged.

THE CATHOLIC FAIR at the Town Hall is progressing quite satisfactorily, and will be continued until Tuesday evening. Elegant suppers served every day. Several handsome articles are to be disposed of, including a new top buggy and beautiful afghan, the chances for which are not yet all taken.

POCKET-BOOK LOST.—Mr. W. E. Jarrell, residing near Chesterville, while riding from his home to Pond Farm, Queen Anne's, one day last week, lost his pocket-book containing, in money and checks, about $300. He has heard nothing of it since.

ATTEMPT TO BREAK JAIL.—Captains Dugan and Scott, imprisoned in our county jail on the charge of unlawful dredging, made an unsuccessful attempt to escape therefrom on Thursday night by forcing the bars of their cell.

MR. LEWIN USILTON, whose name has been mentioned in connection with the nominations for the House of Delegates, informs us that he is not a candidate, and desires that his name shall not appear on any of the tickets at the primary election.

PEACHES.—This week will about close the peach season. It has been a profitable one to those who had good crops, but unfortunately these were very few.

JURORS.—His Honor Judge Wickes on Wednesday drew the following jurors to serve at the October term of our Circuit Court:

Grand Jurors.—Edw. Wilkins, David Clements, David Jones, Jos. E. Gilpin, Rich'd T. Turner, Jas. S. Harris, Benj. F. Sappington, Geo. S. Diehl, Thos. R. Quimby, John L. Bowers, J. W. Corey, S. A. J. Wickes, William A. Hyland, F. H. Harper, J. M. J. Byron, Richard W. Jones, Jas. Shuster, Jacob Highley, Jas. Brice, B. F. H. Caulk, Jere Peacock, Francis Baker, Comegys Cosden.

Petit Jurors.—Chas. H. Wickes, Wm. B. Usilton, J. H. Hossinger, Robert J. Lusby, R. J. Boulden, Rd. F. Moffett, W. H. Coleman, Wm. Boyer, James A. Shaw, Jas. J. Spear, Benj. F. Beck, Wm. Ford, Frisby H. Boulden, Lawrence A. Thomas, W. J. Griffith, John C. Sutton, Rich'd C. Smyth, Owen Connolly, Sam'l Merritt, Lewis H. Hepbron, Jos. Clinton, John N. Dodd, Nath'l T. Hynson, Levi Fiddis, John R. Gray.

The members of the Petit Jury will not be required to attend until Tuesday, October 16, the second day of the term.

D. C. BLACKISTON, Clerk.

THE Centreville bank has also reduced its rate of discount to six per cent.

CRAWFORD'S HOAX.—As we predicted last week the story about Osman Pasha being R. Clay Crawford proves a hoax. The Turkish Minister says that Osman Pasha "was born in Asia Minor of Mussulman parents." Crawford was engaged in lecturing on chemistry in some of the small towns of Ohio in 1873, at the very time that he has been reported as being in the employ of the Khedive of Egypt. Crawford's family, consisting of his wife and three children, reside in Newfield, N. J. His wife knows nothing of his whereabouts, as Crawford left her about a year since, on pretense of going to Mexico, since which time she has heard nothing from him.

☞ T. Benton Sutton signs his name to his last article, thus relieving us of the duty of exposing it. His effusions, which otherwise might have had a certain value, are now practically worthless, and it is not at all necessary to give them further attention. He is to be congratulated on having found a receptacle for his windy produce, but the "dear Colonel" deserves commiseration in the infliction, and much more the individual who undertakes to read and understand his nonsensical verbiage. We have several times refused his articles because of their worthlessness, and unless he improves more rapidly than his last production gives promise, he will have to "tarry at Jericho" a long while before he "troubles us any more with communications of any character." He is at perfect liberty to say what he pleases either about us or anybody else—whenever and wherever he pleases—outside of our columns. If he will but continue to sign his name we are content!

It is gratifying to learn that, according to his own statement, since his removal to Locust Grove he has become somewhat industrious, and now may occasionally, at least, be found "shoving the jack-plane or some other implement." We are pleased to hear it, and who knows that our friend may not yet live to become an industrious and respected citizen, and all little differences become settled! Miracles might happen, even in this stage of the world's history.

☞ IT is hardly necessary to say anything by way of urging the Democratic Conservative voters to turn out at the primary meetings this afternoon. We hope that all will attend and vote for the candidates of their choice.

A LARGE EGG.—Mr. Joseph Morris, residing at Morris' Station, sends us the dimensions of a goose egg laid by one of his flock, which measures 5¾ inches in length, 8½ inches in circumference, and weighs 11 ounces.

STATE CONVENTIONS.—The republican State convention meets on the 20th of September. Thos. E. Norris, John W. Parsons, and Isaac Anderson, col'd, have been elected delegates from this county.

DROWNED.—Wm. Foxwell, clerk of the steamer Mystic, stepped off the gangboard at Corsica Wharf near Centreville, on Saturday night, and was drowned.

Kent Co. Agricultural Association.

CLUB ROOM, Sept. 10, 1877.

The request made last week for a good turnout was answered by quite a large number, and the object of the call was met. Our tickets are now ready and the members will please come or send, pay their dues and get their tickets. Some have not been getting tickets, but we hope all will do so this time, and get them before the fair commences. The season tickets are also ready, and those who want them can get a ticket for one dollar for the three days.

We hope the people will not forget that at 1 P. M. on the second day they will have a chance to hear one of the first men of the day speak on a question which interests us all. Persons bringing cattle to the fair will please halter them before leaving home, and leave the halter on them. M.

A DOUBLE MURDER IN TALBOT COUNTY.—James Fitzjarrell and his wife, an aged couple, living in Chapel district, Talbot county, were brutally murdered in bed sometime during Friday night of last week. The instrument used was a blacksmith's chisel-hammer, belonging to the house, the handle bearing stains of blood. Mr. Fitzjarrell received nine blows with the chisel-edge of the hammer. Three wounds are on his head; one penetrates the throat, two are on the left jaw, one on the left side of his nose, one on the same cheek and one on his right collar-bone. The blow on his head and eye split the skull. His wife received three blows, one terrible blow over the right eye that brained her, another severe blow over the left eye, and a slight blow on the right hand, as if she had held it up for protection. The husband was found on his back unable to move, and the wife in her bed on her right side. The night of the murder was very dark, and it was raining hard.

Mr. F. was the father of N. C. Fitzjarrell, Esq., of Talbot county, and a member of the last legislature. It appears that Mrs. Fitzjarrell has a son in California who was in the habit of sending her quite large remittances of money, and it is known that she had several hundred dollars in the house when the murder was committed, which afterwards could not be found. A jury of inquest has been investigating the affair, and a married woman named Waddell, who lives near and frequently assisted in the house, has been arrested and committed to jail on the charge of participating in and having knowledge of the crime, but there is no positive proof against her.

THE SENATE.—The United States Senate now stands thirty-nine republicans, thirty-three democrats and three vacancies, which will undoubtedly be filled by the seating of democrats. This will give the republicans but a narrow technical majority of three, counting all the disaffected republican Senators as republicans. It is easy to see that the democrats will soon have control of the Senate, as the republican Senators from South Carolina, Alabama, Arkansas and Florida will be succeeded by democrats.—N. Y. World.

RE-OPENING.—On Sunday morning last the M. E. Church of Easton, which had been closed for several weeks for the purpose of making alterations and putting in a new pipe organ, was re-opened for divine service. There was a large congregation present. Rev. Mr. Clemm, of Baltimore, assisted by Rev. Mr. Tompkinson, the pastor of the church, officiating. The expense of the improvement was about $2,000.

FOR U. S. SENATOR.—The Journal, of Prince Frederick, Md., favors the election of ex-Governor James B. Groome to the United States Senate. It says:

When we consider the merit of the several Eastern Shoremen, whose names will likely be prominently used in connection with this office, we heartily favor the election of Hon. James B. Groome. As a member of the Legislature, and as Governor of the State, he has proven himself a faithful and efficient public servant. He is a gentleman of high social position, of acknowledged abilities, of great honesty and integrity, zealous in the discharge of his duties, popular with all who know him, and a firm and well tried Democrat. We feel sure that the State could not secure from the Eastern Shore a more excellent Representative in the United States Senate.

THE SCHOOL opened in the new building of the Wilmington Conference Academy at Dover on the 3d ult. The opening was good, with a prospect for a constant increase. It is no doubt destined to become the central school of the peninsula. See adv. in another column.

HAYES thinks the editors of newspapers "do not always represent the popular general feeling of the people." Perhaps not, but those editors who stigmatize Hayes as a Fraud and a silly failure represent the feeling of the great majority of the country, and perform a duty which the truth imposes on them.

THE rumor gains ground in sporting circles that General Howard will enter in a running match against Sitting Bull for the championship of the world, when he gets through with his present engagement with Chief Joseph.

WHO CAN BEAT IT?—Mr. Charley W. Rose raised on his farm near Wye Landing, from two bushels of wheat seeded, eighty-three and a half bushels of good sound wheat—seeded early in November and on corn ground.—Easton Star.

A SOUND mind in a sound body is a prime essential to all intellectual and material success, and the close sympathy between the mind and the body should compel us to keep the one pure and tranquil, as well as to maintain the other active and healthy. Perverted functional efforts injure the body and react upon the mind, blunting its faculties and feelings; especially does constipation produce most dangerous effects, bodily and mentally, and this harsh, exacting habit of body should be broken by the judicious and continued use of Keller's Vegetable Life Drops. Sold by all Druggists.

Those who are visiting the city should bear this in mind and profit by the arrangement. 2m.

DIED:

On the 4th inst., JOHN, son of Isaac and Mary Jane Gale, in his 18th year.

In Back River Neck, Balt. county, on Sept. 8, EDWARD MILLER, aged 79 years and 10 months.

At her residence in Galena, Aug. 4, 1877, Mrs. A. M. GOODING, in the 61st year of her age. Can more than this be said of our sweet mother, She was a Christian.

At his residence in the Forest, near Millington, on the 3rd instant, VINCENT HADLEY, aged about 64 years. Mr. Hadley went home from Millington about 3, P. M., in apparent good health, and after eating a hearty meal he had occasion to run after and catch a pig which was in his lot of corn, after which he went into the house and was smoking a pipe which soon dropped from his mouth, and he fell out of his chair and died without a struggle, it is thought of heart disease.

OBITUARY.—MRS. OLIVIA C., wife of Mr. Jas. M. Vandyke, was born April 29th, 1833, in New Castle, Del., and died in Chestertown, Md., Aug. 31st, 1877.

Her early life was passed in a Christian home, her parents setting the examples of consistent godliness before their children. The mother remains to weep for her daughter, but the father died some years since, leaving a shining testimony that the faith which he professed sustained and rendered him victorious.

With her brothers and sisters the subject of this sketch lived in happy association until her marriage, Feb. 24th 1857, to the husband who now mourns in his sore bereavement. In her married life she was eminently domestic, and as children gathered about her feet she found her chief duty and comfort in watching and caring for them and teaching them to honor the man upon whose heart she leaned in confidence and trust. Her neighbors have had but one voice in speaking of her, and that the voice of praise. Ever ready to assist them in the hour of their need, her own bedside in her last illness was surrounded by their ever sympathizing attentions.

A strongly marked morality characterized her entire life, but she was a stranger to experimental religion until a short time before her decease.

During her illness which lasted about five weeks she was much concerned in regard to her spiritual condition. She was very penitent and very prayerful, but found no relief until on Friday morning about two o'clock. She had sent for the Pastor of the M. E. Church, whose administrations she had been accustomed to attend, and when he came she expressed herself as hopeless in view of eternity. After some conversation and in the midst of earnest, importunate, agonizing prayer, she suddenly declared that her sins were pardoned and then uttered praise to her Redeemer and sung her thanksgiving and rapture with wonderful sweetness and power. Her exhortations to the members of her family as she kissed them and bade them meet her in heaven were full of earnest faith and love. At 10.15 on Friday night she gently passed away from the group which knelt around her bedside.

"Are we not tending upward too,
As fast as time can move?
Nor should we wish the hours more slow,
To keep us from our love." H.
