OAKEY HALL AS A LECTURER.—Ex-Mayor Hall, who seems ill at ease unless he is being talked about, has again come before the public, this time as a lecturer, Messrs. Jarrett and Palmer having contracted with him for an extended tour. Mr. Tooker, agent for Jarrett and Palmer, was interviewed last evening in the Fifth Avenue Hotel on the subject. He said: "We believe Oakey Hall will draw more people and make more money than any other lecturer. In the clubs and hotels of Boston the subject of his appearance is discussed with interest, and at all events he will have a tremendous audience to hear him. Music Hall has held 4,000 people, and we took it for this occasion because we believe it will be packed from footlight, to chandelier."

"How does Mr. Hall feel about it?"

"He's delighted. He feels like a bird. He says he has a lecture that will make the people howl with delight, so he has."

"Where will you go next?"

"We go first to Boston, then Philadelphia, then Brooklyn, then New York, then to the West, Chicago and all that."

"Rather an erratic route."

"Yes; like lecturer like route; but it's all the same so long as we make a fortune. Jarrett & Palmer understand their business, and Oakey isn't precisely what might be called a babe in arms. Mark my words, this idea is the best of the year. It's worth $100,000 at the lowest calculation."

THE life-saving stations of our coasts have been opened, and the crews have entered upon their duties. Their watch is kept up on the more dangerous portions of the coast until April 15 or May 1. The stations are 108 in number, manned each by a keeper and six surfmen. Last year there were 198 disasters to vessels within their limits, and 751 lives imperiled, of which only 22 were lost, and shelter and comfort given to the rescued. More than half the endangered was saved. The whole cost of the service during the year did not amount to one-eighth the value of the property saved.

OUTRAGE.—On Monday morning, the 12th, an outrage was committed upon Miss Sarah Young, the daughter of Sam'l Young, aged about twenty years, in Somerset county, near Princess Anne. She was walking along the road and met a white man, near the almshouse, who made improper proposals to her. She started to retreat, when he cut at her twice, the blade of the knife taking effect upon her left arm, causing the blood to flow freely. The villian then seized her, took her in the woods and accomplished his designs. He then escaped.

HON. CHARLES FRANCIS ADAMS has written a letter, addressed to Lieut. Gov. Dorsheimer, of New York, in which he reiterate his assertion that President Hayes was elected by fraud, and declares that "it does no credit to the republican party that it has not instituted an honest investigation of the facts of the case last year." Mr. Adams says it seems to him that it is "the duty of all honest men to uphold the great maxim of law, as well as of morals, that fraud spoils everything that it touches."

WM. E. CHANDLER, of New Hampshire, he who managed the electoral theft of Florida, has been heard from. He thinks "the sooner Hayes goes over to the democracy the better. He is only an embarrassment to the Republican party." He thinks moreover, that "every man who went down to Louisiana to secure the vote of that State for Hayes, and then sanctioned the abandonment of Packard, is politically damned."

IN 1861 the exportation of American fruit amounted to $269,000. In 1862 there was a slight falling off; a decided one in 1863, when only $61,000 was sent away, but since then there has been a gradual advance, until now, in 1877, we have dispatched $2,831,000 worth of domestic fruit. This year's exports promise to be 75 per cent. greater than that of any previous year. In 1865 they reached $1,001,000, and in 1875—the greatest year but this—$1,623,000.

A MEDICINE, like a man, is judged by the good it accomplishes. The widespread testimony as to the efficacy of Keller's Vegetable Life Drops, and its continuous use wherever introduced constitute a reason sufficiently strong for the indorsement of so valuable a preparation; since no inferior compound, however well managed, could meet with the remotest degree of favor compared with that with which the Life Drops were received.

THE Pope comes of a long-lived race. His two brothers were monagenarians, one dying at the age of 95 and the other at the age of 96. During the last twenty years of their lives their death was expected at any moment. It is the same with the Pope. His doctors assert that should he endure the early cold of winter towards Christmas, like his brothers, he may live ten years. He is now in his 86th year.

DR. REDFIELD, the Southern correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial, after taking a long survey, reports that "there are no signs of a break in the Democratic party in any Southern State sufficient to give that State to an opposition party. In 1880 you will see the solid South in solid array for the national democratic nominee."

ON account of the continuance of the mild weather many farmers have this week seeded fields to wheat that otherwise would have been left vacant until spring, and then seeded in oats.—Cam. News.

THE Confederate monument at Chattanooga, Tenn., completed and ready for erection, was defaced beyond repair on Saturday night by unknown persons.

Delays are Dangerous.—If this axiom is true respecting the ordinary affairs of life, still more obviously so as regards the exigencies o approaching disease. Unquestionably! Yet how many neglect to practically recognize this plain truth when health is in the balance. Of the many premonitory symptoms of disease a hacking cough is the most prophetic of peril. Arrest it at the outset with Dr. WISHART'S PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL, and so avoid Consumption. Bronchitis, Inflammation of the Lungs, Coughs, Colds, and, indeed, all Affections of the Respiratory Organs, are entirely cured by this sovereign remedy, which also eradicates Dyspepsia, Piles, Gravel, Nervous Debility, Torpidity of the Liver, Urinary Difficulties, Constipation, Palpitation of the Heart, Scrofulous Affections, and the infirmities peculiar to the gentler sex. This Cordial derives its virtues from the vegetable kingdom, and is infinitely to be preferred, both on account of its superior efficacy and freedom from nauseous and injurious properties to the officinal drugs so often administered with no other effect than to offend the palate and disorder the stomach. The Pine Tree Cordial can always be relied on to do what is claimed for it. Sold by all Druggists. Principal Depot, 916 Filbert street, Philadelphia. mr24.

MR. JOHN WELSH, the newly-appointed minister to Great Britain, who sails on Thursday, the 29th inst., will be tendered a farewell banquet by one hundred of the leading bankers, merchants and other business men of Philadelphia. The testimonial will probably be one of the finest affairs ever seen in Philadelphia.

THE debt of this country is exceedingly small compared to the average capacity of the American citizen to owe money. It only amounts in round numbers, including the railroad, canal, cities, town, counties and States debt to the small sum of five billion, eight hundred and ninety-five million dollars.

GOV. VANCE, in a recent address at a fair in North Carolina, spoke of the large number of fairs that used to be held in the State, as compared with the present, and gave his opinion very decidedly that horse-racing, three-card monte, and prize candy were the three things that have killed them.

DAVID PALMER, a republican candidate for commission of Cecil county at the late election, died at Chesapeake City on the 14th instant. He was master carpenter of the Chesrpeak and Delaware canal, and was held in great esteem by all who knew him.

GRANT impresses the Parisians by his goodness. A Paris telegram to the London News says: The marshall offered his box at the Auteuil races to General Grant on Sunday, but forgot that the day was incompatible with his acceptance.

THE grandfather of Howell Cobb, of Georgia, was born near Sheppardsville, "Worcester," now Wicomico county, Maryland, and was a blacksmith at a place called Cobb Hill, twelve miles east northeast of Salisbury.

THE Cincinnati Enquirer is already figuring upon the result in 1880, and at the lowest possible calculation puts the democratic maj. in the electoral college at 93.
