SATURDAY - - - - - - DEC. 22, 1877

WEDDING PRESENTS belong to the wife, and not to the husband and wife jointly, according to the verdict of a N. Y. jury.

THE death of Bishop Marvin, of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, will require the election of three bishops by the General Conference which meets at Atlanta, Ga., next May.

GEO. WASHINGTON PETER, one of the oldest and most respected citizens of Howard county, died on the 10th inst. His mother was Martha Curtis, one of the four grandchildren of Mrs. Gen. Washington.

THE strawberry mark on the arm of Mr. Blaine, which enable Mr. Conkling to recognize him as a long-lost brother, was not a strawberry mark at all, but the place where his right arm cleaved to the roof of his mouth.—Balto. Gazette.

TAXATION ON MORTGAGES.—At the meeting of the Maryland State Grange in Baltimore last week a resolution was adopted recommending the taxing of mortgages, and the executive committee was instructed to memoralize the General Assembly to pass a law to that effect.

PINCHBACK declines to sink back into utter obscurity. He is already trying to get elected to the Louisiana Senate, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Eustis, to take the seat in the United States Senate which Pinchback has been so long seeking.

THE Hon. J. C. Blackburn, of Kentucky, is to be presented in a few days with a handsome ebony gold-headed cane by the Eighteenth-ward democratic club of Baltimore. The gift is a recognition of Mr. Blackburn's valuable services in the late campaign in that city.

THE Worcester Press notices that the baby shows have fixed the line that separates the ordinary father from the extraordinary one. The mother always accompanies the cherub, whether there be one or more of him; but nothing short of triplets brings out the fond father for exhibition.

THE Oswego (N. Y.,) Daily Times mentions a reception given by Jacob M. Jacobs, of that city, on his one hundredth birthday, on the fourth instant. His parlors were tastefully decorated, and over three hundred persons called upon him, among whom were many aged people. He was born in Baltimore.

A MONUMENT is now being erected over the remains of ex-President Johnson, at Greenville, Tenn., at the expense of his children, the cost of which will be about $8,000. The general design is an arch spanning the late ex-President and his wife, surmounted by a shaft. The height will be about twenty-eight feet, and the weight about twenty-seven tons.

WM. H. S. MERRILL, postmaster at Newtown, Worcester county, met with a sad death at his residence there on Wednesday night last. In going up stairs with a pitcher of water he fell down the steps and broke his neck. He was a brother of A. J. Merrill, editor of the Newtown Record and Gazette, and of Capt. Geo. Merrill, of New York.—Shield.

THE NEW SENATOR FROM SOUTH CAROLINA.—Gen. Matthew Calbraith Butler, Senator from South Carolina for six years from March 4, 1877, is the son of the Hon. Wm. Butler, who was a Congressman from South Carolina, and is the nephew of Gen. Pierce M. Butler, who fell at Cherubusco, at the head of the Palmetto regiment. On his mother's side he is a nephew of Com. Oliver H. Perry.

A Stoic.

There is a degree of stoicism exhibited by many people in the endurance of pain; without flinching they bear up admirably until assailed by Tooth-ache, Neuralgia, Ear-ache and Head-ache, when they are completely "undone," and anxiously look to poltices, Hartshorn and other useless agents for relief. One word to such sufferers: procure and use Keller's Roman Liniment, the best remedy known for Tooth-ache, Ear-ache, etc.

FATAL ACCIDENTS IN DELAWARE.—Mr. J. Jerome, a farmer, near Felton, Del., was thrown from a wagon and run over on Monday, receiving fatal injuries. On the same day Mark Clymer, boss of the shifting gang at the Delaware Junction, was caught and crushed while coupling cars, causing his death in a few hours. Near Townsend, Saturday night, Isaac Hopkins was shot and killed in the house of Wm. Harris. Both colored men, and the homicide was caused by Harris's jealousy of his wife.

CALIFORNIA AND THE PARIS EXHIBITION.—California is preparing to make a splendid display at the Paris exposition. The aggregate space asked for is over thirty thousand square feet, and the estimated weight of the exhibit is five hundred tons. The exhibition of minerals will be the finest the world has ever seen. A pyramid, twenty feet square at the base and nearly seventy feet high, will represent the seven millions of cubic inches of gold which have been produced on the Pacific coast.

THE Courier-Journal is severe upon the democratic senators who aided Conkling to defeat the New York nominations and says of the New York Senator: "Mr. Roscoe Conkling is a base demagogue. Disguised as a gentleman, he has been all his life a low political trickster. The companion of gentlemen, he has been the champion and confederate of thieves. Last winter he was ready to sell his party. This winter he is for crushing the man whom his cowardice and treachery were not able to keep out of the presidency."

MORE SHOWS.—The "great national cat show" opened in New York on Monday, with three hundred entries. The animals are caged in spacious boxes with wire fronts, giving the spectator full opportunity for investigation. The cat that chews tobacco was there, and the cat that has crossed the ocean three times, as well as the one that saved a house from being burned. The colored baby show also opened in New York on Monday, with over one hundred entries. The city itself sends the main portion of the babies, but the States of Illinois, Maryland, Tennessee, South Carolina, North Carolina, Virginia and Georgia are all represented.

LADIES and Gentlemen will please take notice that JOS. H. THOMPSON, has for sale Boots and Shoes, and nothing else, as he makes the above business a specialty.

JAMES WOOD, Up Town.

Dec. 15—3m.

THE court of Judge Dean, at Hot Sulphur Springs, Colorado, was broken up by a mob, led by a deputy sheriff, last week. The parties quietly entered the court-room and at a certain moment the ringleader read a pretended warrant commanding the judge to disperse his "so-called court" and deliver up the records and seal. The judge ordered the ringleader to sit down on penalty of arrest, and as he placed his hand upon the latter's shoulder he was struck back of the ear and the pretended officer shot at him, the ball passing close to his head. A general rush upon the judge followed. He succeeded in locking up the seal and records, though revolvers were pointed at his head, and escaped. He has gone to Denver to ask the Governor to aid him in restoring order.

EDWARD KIMBALL, the church debt raiser, undertook a stupenduous job last Sunday in the Episcopal Church of the Holy Trinity, at Madison avenue and Forty-second street, New York, of which the Rev. Dr. Stephen H. Tyng, Jr., is pastor. The church is weighted with a debt of over $236,000, and it has been a heavy burden to carry. The effort was commenced at half past ten, when the pastor announced that, instead of the usual services, an endeavor would be made to free the church from its indebtedness. He introduced Mr. Kimball, who in the course of an hour or so succeeded in raising about $150,000 of the debt, and it was determined to continue the effort until the whole amount is provided for.

A DUAL WEDDING.—On Tuesday afternoon, December 11th, quite an interesting event took place at the Methodist Protestant Church, of this city, in the presence of a large concourse of friends, the attraction being the uncommon celebration of a double wedding. The contracting parties were Miss Mary M. Ward, daughter of Rev. J. T. Ward, President of Western Maryland College, and Rev. T. H. Louis, of St. John's Independent Church, Baltimore; Miss Lizzie E. Englar and Mr. Evan McKinstry, of Carroll county. Long before the appointed hour the church was uncomfortably crowded. The marriage ceremony in both cases was performed by Rev. J. T. Ward. Both brides were attired in myrtle green bournette cloth traveling suitts, with bonnet and gloves to match. The bridal party left on the afternoon train for a short trip north, followed by the congratulations of many friends.—Westminster Adv.

It is therefore recommended for use in the Laundry, Kitchen and Bath room and for general household purposes; also, for Printers, Painters, Engineers and Machinists,

As it Will Remove Stains

OF INK, GREASE, TAR, OIL AND PAINT from the hands.

The Huntington (Pa.) Monitor of April 5, 1877, pronounces this Soap the best in the market, as follows:

"Reader, we don't want you to suppose that this is an advertisement, and pass it over unheeded. Read it. We want to direct your attention to the advertisement of 'Crampton's Imperial Soap.' Having used it in our office for the past year, we can recommend it as the best in use. It is a rare thing to get a Soap that will thoroughly cleanse printing ink from the hands or from linen, but Crampton's laundry soap will do it, and we know whereof we speak. It is especially adapted for printers, painters, engineers and machinists, as it will remove grease of all descriptions from hands or clothes with little labor. For general household purposes it cannot be excelled.
