SATURDAY - - - - - JAN. 25, 1879.

AN OLD STATE PAPER.—Very few have heard of the joint resolution of the General Assembly of Maryland which taxed all lawyers in the State for the support of the great Luther Martin. That moral hero and prominent Christian jurist, Roger B. Taney, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, said "in the enumeration of the great men of the bar, I have placed Luther Martin first. He was the acknowledged and undisputed head of the profession in Maryland. In 1821 Luther Martin was a wreck; his vast learning was hidden in the oblivious darkness of an extinguished intellect, and so generous, and withal so improvident had been this celebrated lawyer, that after all the great professional harvests he had reaped, the Legislature of Maryland in February, 1821, passed the following joint resolution:

Resolved, That each and every practitioner of law in this State shall be and he is hereby compelled, from and after the passage of this resolution, to obtain from the clerk of the county court in which he may practice, a license to authorise him so to practice, for which he shall pay annually the sum of five dollars; such sum to be deposited to the order of Thomas Hall and William H. Winder, Esqr's, who are hereby appointed trustees for the application of the proceeds raised by virtue of this act to the use of Luther Martin;

Provided, That nothing herein contained shall be taken to compel a practitioner of law to obtain a license in more than one court, to be annually renewed, under penalty of being suspended from the bar at which he may practice: and provided, that this resolution shall cease to be valid at the death of said Luther Martin.

USES OF THE TELEPHONE.—Mention has been made heretofore of the growing use of the telephone in Baltimore and the establishment of an exchange somewhat on the principle of the district telegraph system, connecting various distant points, dwellings, counting houses, newspaper offices, police stations, physicians' offices, druggists, commercial exchanges, &c., for the rapid exchange of messages in the transaction of all the various business affairs of life. An instance of the use of the telephone in sickness is mentioned, which shows one of the striking advantages of the system. A physician's advice was needed in a remote section of the city late at night. Dr. Alan P. Smith's bed-chamber telephone called him up, and he was placed in communication with the patient by the exchange without leaving his room. He questioned the patient directly, and then placed himself in communication with a druggist and telephoned the prescription, which was sent to the patient within fifteen minutes; all without anyone going out of doors except the messenger from the neighboring drug store with the prescription filled. This is only one of the many thousands of domestic and business uses to which the great invention might be put.—Sun.

A. T. STEWART'S BODY FOUND—A Reward of $50,000 Paid for the Recovery.—It is stated on good authority that A. T. Stewart's body has been recovered for $50,000, and that it had been placed in a secure vault, well guarded, there to remain until the completion of the crypt in the Stewart Memorial Cathedral in Garden City. Judge Hilton was approached some weeks ago by the representative of a well-known firm of lawyers in New York city in reference to the restoration of the body. This, the lawyer said, could be effected upon certain conditions—first, that $100,000 in cash should be paid down when the body was produced; second, that no questions whatever should be asked further than was necessary for the absolute identification of the body; third, that a pledge of honor should be given that no attempt should be made to trace or arrest the robbers.

Negotiations upon this basis were begun and concluded ten days ago; $50,000 in cash, instead of the $100,000 first asked, was paid. The identification of the remains was entirely satisfactory.

A CHARLEY ROSS CASE.—A dispatch dated New York, Jan. 22, says: Charley May, the crippled boy who was sent to the Newark jail on Friday, by his own request, because he was friendless and had no home, has been identified by Josiah Arkins, of 20 Gold street, this city. He strayed from home when he was four years old, and has been missing fourteen years. He was known as Charley Smith when he was a child. On Monday Doorman Austin received a letter from Josiah Arkins, 20 Gold street, this city, who wrote that his sister had lost a boy fourteen years ago, and that she would like a description of Charley May. Late on Monday night Mr. Arkins and his sister called at the Newark jail, and, after a long talk with Charley May, identified him fully as the child Charley Smith, who was lost fourteen years ago while his father was in the army. He was brought to this city by his mother and uncle.

AN IMPENDING SUIT AGAINST REV. HENRY WARD BEECHER.—The Agricultural Society of Alleghany county, threaten, if an amicable settlement is not arrived at, to enter suit for ten thousand dollars damages against Rev. H. Ward Beecher for cancelling an engagement to make an address in Cumberland on October 23d last. The Agricultural Society was to pay him three hundred dollars, and expected to realize about ten thousand dollars by his presence at the fair. Mr. Beecher alleges that when he made the engagement he expected to have engagements in Baltimore and Washington, which he could fill on the same trip, and thus make the journey profitable, but failing to secure these other engagements he could not afford to take a three days' trip for three hundred dollars. This explanation was not satisfactory, and the society, if Mr. Beecher fails to satisfactorily arrange the difficulty, will enter suit for damages, as above stated.

Ex-Gov. WM. H. ROSS, of Delaware, who had his leg broken last summer at Saratoga Springs, and who has ever since been confined at the residence of his son-in-law, in Philadelphia, was carried to his old home, near Seaford, last week. His condition is greatly improved, but is still unable to walk about.

Various Causes—

Advancing years, care, sickness, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition—all operate to turn the hair gray, and either of them inclines it to shed prematurely. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR will restore faded or gray, light and red hair to a rich brown or deep black, as may be desired. It softens and cleanses the scalp, giving it a healthy action, and removes and cures dandruff and humors. By its use falling hair is checked, and a new growth will be produced in all cases where the follicles are not destroyed or glands decayed. Its effects are beautifully shown on brashy, weak, or sickly hair, to which a few applications will produce the gloss and freshness of youth. Harmless and sure in its operation, it is incomparable as a dressing, and is especially valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts. It contains neither oil nor dye, and will not soil or color white cambric; yet it lasts long on the hair, and keeps it fresh and vigorous.

FOR SALE BY ALL DEALERS. 3

BAYARD THE COMING MAN.—Twitting some of the old Republican leaders, I told them that they ought all to become Democrats for the time and turn in and push Bayard to the front. "Well," replied one of them, and he, too, the son of the most noted Abolitionists of anti-war times, "I should rather see Bayard President than some Republicans I know." And this seems to be the general sentiment. Unquestionably, not only has State pride been aroused, but the Senator has a strong hold upon all parties and all classes. Another leading Republican and ex-candidate for Congress said: "Bayard is undoubted the strongest man in his party to-day, and, if nominated, I think there is scarcely a doubt of his election."—Philadelphia Record.

THE NEXT SENATE.—In the Forty-sixth Congress the republican side of the Senate will be mentally and morally, as well as numerically, weaker than it has been for a number of years, while the democratic side will be stronger in the same proportion than it has been since the day that democracy fell into the arms of secession. Thurman, Bayard, Wallace, Kernan, Pendleton, Voorhees, McDonald, Hampton, Hill, Gordon, Vance, will find only an Edmunds, as the peer of any of them in the heavy artillery of debate, and Blaine about the only foeman fit to cope with them in the use of the lighter and keener weapons of parliamentary warfare.—Philadelphia Times

IN New York, at least, the millionaires do not pay the taxes. Mr. Wm. H. Vanderbilt, whose heritage is thought to amount to amount to about $80,000,000, being called upon to pay taxes upon his personal property, made affidavit that the value of such property, subject to taxation did not exceed $0. No one imagines that Mr. Vanderbuilt has perjured himself, but there are so many loop holes in the law that it is easy to excape the payment of taxes in personalty in New York as elsewhere. Mr. Vanderbuilt, it is said, is only one out of many rich men in New York who manage to escape the payment of taxes on their personal property.

COL. GEORGE G. VEST, the democratic caucus nominee for the long term in the United States Senate from Missouri, is a Kentuckian by birth, forty-seven years of age, and a lawyer by profession. He is a brilliant orator, and has long occupied a leading position at the bar in Central Missouri. At the breaking out of the war he was a member of the Missouri Legislature, and went into Confederate service as colonel of a regiment. Subsequently he was elected to the Confederate Congress and afterwards transferred to the Senate, where he remained until the close of the war. He then returned to his home in Missouri and resumed the practice of his profession with eminent success.

A PECULIAR CASE.—The case of the death and burial in New York Potter's field of a young man named Helmeister, and the subsequent recovery and identification of the body and its transportation to Germany, presents one very peculiar feature. It appears that although the body lay in the morgue for several days, nobody came forward to identify it, and yet now Helmeister's friends admit that they had seen the body and recognized it as his, but were afraid to publicly identify it for fear that they might be suspected of being implicated in his death.

A STATEMENT from the Baltimore American to the effect that "there are more election frauds in Pittsburgh and more political jobbery to the square foot than any other city in the country," is copied into the New York World as something decidedly surprising. When the American was anxious to be known as a Stalwart Republican organ it was in the habit of awarding Baltimore the palm for corruption and election frauds. Its conservatism is beginning to show on the surface.—Balto. Gazette.

THREE HOURS IN THE WATER.—Paul Boyton on Wednesday fullfilled his promise to the members of the New York Amateur Life-Saving Association to swim to Hunter's Point. After securing to his waist an ugly-looking knife he always carries, and arranging a bottle of French brandy within convenient reach, he gracefully let himself into the water, and after planting a small American flag in the fixtures attached to his right foot, he seized his paddle and commenced the voyage. He was three hours in the icy water, but came out quite fresh.

DIED AT PRAYER.—Mary Lally, a young woman, aged twenty-eight years, while attending mass at St. James's Church, Boston, Sunday morning, had advanced to the chancel rail and partaken of the sacrament, and kneeling longer than usual, was touched by a lady, who discovered that she was dead. She was apparently well until the moment of going to the chancel, and the cause of her death is a mystery.

BEN. BUTLER writes to a man in Minnesota that he voted in the Charleston Democratic Convention in 1860 fifty-seven times for Jefferson Davis for president, and he still believes that if Davis had been elected president war would have been averted, as the North "always got more consideration on questions of human liberty from a Southern statesman as president before the war than it did from a Northern doughface."

ANOTHER TEMPERANCE SERMON.—A sad case occurred in Brookly, N. Y., Saturday night, when a poor intemperate woman was found lying in the snow, with no shoes or stockings on, and so benumbed with cold that she could not speak. The unfortunate creature was on the way to a wake, and was carried to the door almost a corpse herself. She died in the hospital, and was buried in Potter's field.

TEXAS ranks third among the wool-producing States, having 3,674,000 sheep, and so treading closely on the heels of Ohio. California leads, of course. Nueces county, Texas, has more sheep in its limits than any other county in the Union—656,000.

AN OPULENT TRAMP, named Thomas Cramm, who was found nearly frozen in a barn in Bedford county, Pennsylvania, some days since with $5,500 in his pocket in the shape of a genuine bank certificate of deposit, will lose his legs if not his life from his penuriousness.

Oliver Cromwell, one of England's most illustrious sons, died from Intermittent Fever, and this distressing disease was at that time the means by which some of the greatest persons perished.

Since the discovery of Quinine and its employment in the treatment of Fever and Ague the fatality has been reduced to a very low point.

Arsenic was also employed with some success, but these remedies are injurious to the constitution of the patient, so much so that scientific men have been for years endeavoring to discover a remedy that did NOT possess the injurious qualities of Quinine or Arsenic. Many remedies have been put forth claiming to possess no injurious materials, but have only proved to be impositions and frauds. This useful and humane discovery has at last been made in the form of BRITTON'S AGUE PILLS. These pills do not contain Quinine or Arsenic in any form, yet are capable of neutralizing the malarial poison in the system, and effect a cure without subjecting the patient to the unpleasant and hurtful effects of Quinine and Arsenic. BRITTON'S PILLS may be taken under any circumstances without the slightest danger to the patient. Where the directions are followed a cure is certain. Price 25c. For sale by all dealers. F. M. A STIRRING INCIDENT.—A prisoner named Bruce, while in charge of an officer, near Norwich, Ohio, Monday, jumped from a Baltimore and Ohio train while moving at the rate of 35 miles an hour, and alighting safely in a snow bank took to his heels. The officer, however, jumped after him into another snow bank, and after a lively chase across the country recaptured his man.

EDITORS and publishers were made a special subject of prayer during prayer week. The country papers are expressing the hope that something was said for delinquent subscribers, as they needed it more.

FRANK MOSSOP went to sleep on the railroad track near the round-house in Harrisburg, and was dreaming of home, when an engine unceremoniously rolled him into the centre of the track and passed over him. But he wasn't seriously injured.

THE annual report of the Permanent Exhibition at Philadelphia shows that the receipts of last year were $42,246, and the expenses $45,872. The liabilities of the concern are $380,907, and the assets are set down at about $430,000.

ONLY AN APPETIZER.—John Sherman's book of speeches on finance contains only 640 pages, just enough to sharpen the appetite of the voracious populace and set them to howling for another volume.—Washington Post.

NEW JERSEY enjoys the blessing of a surplus in her treasury, and a reduction in her tax-rate, as a result of her continuous Democratic administration for the past six or eight years.

A CONSTABLE at Westernport has been convicted for refusing to serve a summons, because he supposed he would receive no pay. He was let off with fifteen cents fine.

A LECTURE to YOUNG MEN,
Just Published in a Sealed Envelope. Price Six Cents.

A LECTURE on the Nature, Treatment, and radical cure of Seminal Weakness or Spermatorrhœa, induced by Self Abuse, Involuntary Emissions, Impotency, Nervous Debility, and Impediments to Marriage generally; Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits, Mental and Physical Incapacity, &c.; by ROB'T J. CULVERWELL, M. D., author of the "Green Book," &c.

The world renowned author, in this admirable Lecture, clearly proves from his experience that the awful consequences of self-abuse may be effectually removed without medicine and without dangerous surgical operations, bougies, instruments, rings, or cordials; pointing out a mode of cure at once certain and effectual, by which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

☞ This Lecture will prove a boon to thousands and thousands.

Sent under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, post-paid, on receipt of six cents, or two postage stamps.

GALENA
MACHINE SHOPS!
ATTENTION FARMERS!

WM. A. HYLAND & CO., have now completed their arrangements to meet the demand of farmers for implements, &c., for the present and approaching season. Our stock of material is large and of the best character, while our workmen are excelled by none.

We call special attention to our

Celebrated "CHAMPION"
CORN SHELLER,

with Fan attachment, which with one and two-horse power, will shell and clean 75 bushels in one hour, of which fact good reference can be given. The improvements added this year make them far superior to last year.

☞ Send in orders early, as last year we were unable to fill orders in consequence of not receiving them in time.

☞ We guarantee every Machine that leaves our works.

Plows, Plow Castings,
HARROWS, CULTIVATORS,
and Cultivator Teeth, can now be had at Galena or the Foundry in Chestertown. Our Castings are the best we have ever offered.
