SATURDAY - - - - APRIL 26, 1879.

THE COURTS.

ORPHANS' COURT, Tuesday, April 22, 1879.—Present, Judges Nicholson, Shallcross and Willson. John W. Morgan, adm r John W. Morgan, Jr., filed an inventory of the goods, chattels and personal property of said deceased, and received an order to sell calves, lambs, &c., at private sale. Thomas Neal, colored, adm'r of Frederick Neal, returned an inventory of the personal estate of deceased, and received an order to sell the same for cash. Joshua Vansant and Wm. Vansant, guardians to Vansant minors, returned separate guardian accounts for the year 1878, which were passed and ordered to be recorded.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The April term of the Circuit Court for Kent county commenced on Monday, his Honor Judge Wickes presiding. Geo. W. T. Perkins, Esq., was selected as foreman of the grand jury and the remainder were drawn by ballot as follows: Robt. H. Loud, N. W. Comegys, Bartus Trew, Samuel Burgess, S. Lecates, E. J. Watson, J. W. Loud, Wm. H. Stewart, R. S. Emory, Wm. Thomas of Wm., R. C. Johnson, J. F. M. Woodall, Henry Bramble, H. J. Gray, R. W. Jones, R. H. Corbaley, S. A. Merritt, D. U. Dewees, J. H. Gale, Wm. S. Thompson, R. L. Nicols, L. M. Bean.

This drawing left the following to constitute the Petit Jury: George E. Leary, John S. Hurlock, Isaiah C. Taylor, Samuel Merritt, James A. Shaw, John K. Aldridge, John W. Morgan, Andrew Woodall, Alfred Chrisfield, Stephen Boyer, John Brice, Samuel Vannort, William S. Walker, James Rankin, Jeremiah Peacock, Samuel J. Hill, William V. Lucas, Thomas A. Jacobs, Samuel W. Aldridge, Thomas B. Hynson, David Jones, James J. Spear, Vachel Burgess, Francis A. Wallis, George R. Stephens.

State vs. Paulin Ascher, indicted at the October term, 1878, for selling intoxicating liquors, familiarly known as "Ascher's Stomach Bitters," as a beverage, under the name of bitters. Case stetted.

J. W. Shreck, presented on a charge similar to the above, was admitted not guilty by the State. Pearce for the defence.

Noble T. Biddle and G. W. Hume Craig, Esqs., members of the bar of Cecil county, were formally admitted to the bar of this court.

On Tuesday Judge Stump occupied a seat on the Bench.

C. M. Harper vs. James H. Edes—appeal from the decision of Justice R. W. Calder, on action to recover a horse and cow, valued at eighty dollars. It appears that Edes sold the property to Geo. T. Holliday, and the sale-money not having been paid, he afterwards replevied the property from appellant, who claimed right of ownership under a bill-of-sale: The Justice rendered a decision in favor of Edes. Tried before the Court—judgment reversed and judgment for appellant for property replevied, with cost above and below. Pearce for appellant, Baker for appellee.

William M. Slay, garnishee of John Goodman vs. Thomas B. Willson: appeal from the decision of Justice J. Evan Thomas, on action to recover by attachment and judgment of condemnation a specified sum of money. Appeal taken on the ground that the one hundred dollars allowed by law as an exemption had not been regarded. Tried before the court and held sub curia. Slay for appellant, Hynson for appellee.

Mary Magill, administratrix of Wm. Magill, vs. William Armstrong. Transcript of record from the Circuit Court for Cecil county. Action to decide the question of law and right relative to a distraint made and executed. Tried before the Court and argued on demurrer. Continued at the cost of defendant. A. Constable and Noble T. Biddle, of the Elkton bar, for plaintiff; A. Evans, of same bar, and J. A. Pearce, for defendant.

State vs. John S. Letts, indicted at Oct. term, 1878, for dredging for oysters on Swan Point bar. Plea of guilty admitted by the defense. Fined $10 and costs. Hynson for defense.

The trial of the case of the State of Maryland for the use of Harry P. Grice, Jos. P. Grice and Ella E. Grice vs. The County Commissioners of Cecil County, was begun on Wednesday morning with Albert Constable and G. W. Hume Craig Esqs., appearing for plaintiffs and Hon. Hiram McCullough, Jas. A. Pearce and Noble T. Biddle Esqs., for defendants. This suit was instituted to recover fifty thousand dollars damages for the life of Dr. Joseph P. Grice, who was drowned on the night of the 6th of August last, while attempting to cross a temporary bridge over Back Creek, at Chesapeake City, while the permanent bridge was being repaired. The following jury was empaneled: John S. Hurlock, foreman, J. K. Aldridge, Thomas B. Hynson, J. J. Spear, Thomas A. Jacobs, James A. Shaw, Vachel Burgess, Geo. E. Leary, Samuel Merritt, Samuel J. Hill, James Rankin and Jeremiah Peacock. Mr. Constable made the opening statement to the jury for the plaintiffs, and explained to jury a plat of the bridge and surroundings. He stated that the plaintiff would show that the bridge was erected with at least the tacit consent of the President of the County Commissioners, by the employees of the Commissioners; that that bridge was wholly unsafe; that within forty-eight hours it fell precipitating a dozen or more persons into the creek, that another was then erected requiring a more circuitous route to pass from one side of the town to the other, the latter way was over a raft of logs, gang-planks to the deck of a steamer tied to a narrow wharf on the other side, thence around the narrow wharf to the public way; that on the night of August 6th last, Dr. Grice, with his little daughter Evelyn left his office on South side of Creek to go to the canal steamer, to take passage for Baltimore; that while passing around the said narrow wharf himself and daughter were precipitated into the old canal and drowned.

Hon. Hiram McCullough made the opening statement on the part of the defense; they would show that the Commissioners had given due notice that the county bridge at Chesapeake City would be closed against public travel and for repairs on and after Monday August 5th, 1879. That when sought, the President of said Commissioners positively declined to erect any temporary bridge for pedestrians during the time the permanent bridge was being repaired. The first witness called was Thomas B. Hopper. He said he was President of the Town Commissioners of Chesapeake City; was informed by Lindsey that the bridge was to be taken down; spoke of necessity of having some temporary way for pedestrians; after consultation with other members of the Board, told Lindsey to erect a temporary way; that if County Commissioners did not pay for it, they would; Lindsey and others made it; saw them also working on county bridge; was not the duty of town Commissioners to keep up this bridge; this temporary bridge fell down on Monday evening; when he saw it again the bridge and route had been changed; went over this route the night Dr. Grice was drowned; very dark and rainy; felt his way along the wharf with umbrella; there was a lamp at the permanent bridge, but none on opposite wharf; trees and a small house shade the wharf where Dr. Grice walked overboard; saw Crawford, President of County Commissioners at the permanent bridge Monday and possibly every day during week; lamp at bridge abutment was erected by Town Commissioners to make travel over temporary bridge as safe as possible. The defense elicited nothing new from this witness.

Dr. Joseph V. Wallace was called.—Is a member of Town Commissioners of Chesapeake City, also, Inspector of public roads and bridges in Cecil, with power to order the erection of any bridges exceeding four feet in length; told Lindsey the Town Commissioners did not intend to erect any temporary bridge, subsequently ordered him to erect the bridge; did not think Lindsey understood him to order it as Inspector; saw temporary bridge fall Monday evening; assisted in getting persons out of water; does not know who erected second bridge, but did pass over it several times during Tuesday—last time just before Dr. G. was drowned—was a very dark night; thought it very unsafe without lantern; wharf was a narrow and dangerous route; saw no local notice that the bridge would be closed for repairs; county commissioners finally put up a very substantial temporary bridge. At request of defense the witness explained to jury the plat of the route, to show that Dr. G. had left the public way for more than fifty yards when he walked overboard.

Thirty-five witnesses were summoned in this case, twenty-four for the plaintiffs and eleven for the defendants. They are all residents of Chesapeake City except Judge McCauley. The trial will probably be concluded to-day.

[The balance of the evidence in this case will be published next week.]

The grand jury inspected the jail on Thursday and reported it in a cleanly condition.

The session of court is expected to continue the whole of next week.

The duties incumbent on Chief Judge Robinson, as one of the Court of Appeals, now in daily session, prevented him from presiding at this term.

JUST RECEIVED and FOR SALE

A large assortment of

Ladies', Misses' and Children's

FINE GAITERS AND SLIPPERS,

at a very small advance.

Men's and Boys' Shoes and Gaiters, in great variety, and at very low prices.

feb22. JAMES A. SHAW, Court Street.

JUDGE DAVIS, of Illinois, delivered an able speech in the Senate on Tuesday on the Army Appropriation bill. He sustained the Democratic programme for the repeal of the law permitting troops at the polls. There was no reason, he said, why all the war measures should not be wiped out, and insisted that the section prohibiting the use of troops at the polls, so far from being revolutionary, was proper and germane to the bill.

SAMBO SWINDLED AGAIN.—Two thousand colored people are camped out near Wyandotte, Kansas, dying at the rate of one in thirty, while waiting for the Government to present them with 160 acres of land, carriages, horses, clothes and cigars, as promised by the agents of the Republican party in Mississippi and Louisiana. The negro doubless thinks he has been drawn into another Freedmen's bank swindle by his Republican friends.

ONE good result of the movement to give Grant a reception when he returns to this country will be to bring prominently before the people again—the men who are engineering it. Unless we are very much mistaken they will be found to be the very men who brought Grant and his administration into so much disrepute. One glance at them will be sufficient to awaken the country from any delusion into which it may have fallen with regard to a "change of heart" in Grant.

A SMALL but smart boy has at last been found with the ability to set a river on fire. On Sunday last a large pipe at the bottom of East river, which carries petroleum from the Hudson-River railroad depot, in New York, to Hunter's Point, burst and the surface of the river was covered with oil. Such a glorious opportunity for fun was not to be neglected and lighting a match the urchin threw it into the stream. The result was that the whole river-front, for a mile, was soon ablaze, the flames subsiding only when the oil in the pipe was exhausted.

THE WONDERFUL EXCURSION.—The New York Times says the General Werder is a capacious steamship, but if she were to carry all the individuals who have offered to exchange their services for a ticket "around the world," there would be very little room left for students and tourists. The managers of the Woodruff expedition have received application by letter and in person as follows: Sea captains, 10; professors of learning, (one of whom writes that he is expert in the teaching of "boxing, dancing, and arithmetic.") 90; waiters—Irish, American, English, German and African—370; barbers—black and white—200; engineers and able-bodied seamen, about 250; photographers, 1.

REPUBLICANS NERVOUS.—The Washington correspondent of the Herald says "the republicans are very nervous about a veto. They fear that the President will sign the Army bill, and the speeches made last week by the republican Senators were levelled at him rather than at the Senate or the country It should be understood that there are other interests besides those merely political which desire a veto. The Army bill, as it now stands and as it will probably go to the President, has an amendment to the political rider intended to obviate the fault which Mr. Garfield found in it, that it disabled the President from using troops even on the constitutional call of a Legislature or Governor. As the rider now stands it simply prohibits the stationing of troops at the polls antecedent to a riot or disturbance, and what troubles the republicans is that they do not like to go before the people in the attitude of asserting that troops ought to be so stationed at election places on election day when no disturbance or riot is going on."

MR. PIERRE LORILLARD has won the New Market handicap race with his famous American horse Parole. On Tuesday he won a second victory in England, gaining the 'city and suburban handicap.'

A MOVEMENT has already commenced for the importation of Chinese into Louisiana and Mississippi to take the place of the emigrating negroes. This is one of the most sinister features of the exodus.

THE Missouri Legislature has a novel proposition before it to punish voters who stay away from the polls three elections in succession with forfeiture of their right to hold any office in the State.

W. N. B. COSTON, of Dublin district, Somerset county, is the largest landholder in that county. He owns 4,489 acres, all in Dublin district.

EDWARD S. STOKES, the slayer of Fiske, has taken up his abode in San Francisco. He is now chief owner of a valuable Nevada mine.

Carrollton, Carroll Co., Md., Feb. 11, 1879.

JOHN S. KNAPP—Sir: Having used the London Horse and Cattle Food on both my horses and cows, I cheerfully recommend it to the public as a good condition food for the horse and a profitable condiment for cattle, as it will cause cows to give more milk and make at least 25 per cent. more butter than any condition powders I ever used. Hoping this will induce my friends to try it, after which I am convinced they will bear the same testimony as to its merits as I do.

Yours, respectfully,
mh8-tf. JACOB M. HOFF.
