The Kent News.

SATURDAY.....DEC. 20, 1879.

GEORGE H. HOSKINS, the republican candidate for Lieutenant-Governor of New York, has been finally declared elected.

THE readjusters in the Virginia Legislature have nominated Gen. Mahone for United States Senator, which is equivalent to his election.

THE value of the life-saving service was strikingly illustrated at Long Branch last Sunday morning when seven men clinging to the masts of a wrecked schooner were rescued by the crews of stations Nos. 4 and 5. The skill and heroism displayed by the brave fellows is worthy of recognition.

THE Fitz-John Porter case has been formerly brought before Congress by a bill, introduced into the House on Monday, to annul and revoke the findings of the court-martial by which that officer was tried and cashiered in 1862, and to reinstate him in his full rank in the army. The bill was offered by General Bragg, one of the representatives from Wisconsin. It is to be hoped that it will be passed, and justice done at last to a brave and deserving officer.

PRESIDENT HAYES, after carefully examining the evidence in the case against Postmaster Tyler, of Baltimore, has expressed himself as satisfied that there are not sufficient reasons for his removal on account of his conduct, official or personal. It will be remembered that about three months ago charges of the gravest nature, involving his personal and official character, were preferred against Postmaster Tyler by Captain B. F. Matthews, a former employee of the postoffice, who had been removed by Gen. Tyler. The nature of the charges, which included allegations of immorality and official incapacity, excited great surprise among the friends of Gen. Tyler, who always asserted that he would be honorably acquitted. Tyler has dismissed Miss Mary A. [illegible]ay, clerk in the postoffice, who was the chief witness for the prosecution in the recent investigation of charges made against him.

[illegible]RRESPONDENT of the New York [illegible]riting from Washington, states [illegible]tor Kellogg, of Louisiana, will, [illegible] be unseated and Mr. Spofford [illegible] seat in the Senate to which he [illegible] and from which he was ex[illegible] Mr. Kellogg was admitted. [illegible]f the committee are agreed [illegible]owing points, which in sub[illegible]e embodied in the majority [illegible]ubmitted to the Senate:—[illegible] Mr. Kellogg used his office [illegible] the State of Louisiana to [illegible]ature Republican which [illegible]ade Democratic; second, [illegible]ersons to go into the so[illegible]egislature for the pur[illegible] a quorum; third, that [illegible]o the fraud by which [illegible]esented as being present [illegible] on the day of the elec[illegible] were in fact not pre[illegible] falsely claimed that [illegible]f that so-called Leg[illegible] bribed members of [illegible] for him; and sixth, [illegible]ere summoned to [illegible] them almost at the [illegible]mber." It is said [illegible]of to sustain all

THE THIRD TERM.—The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore American writes: "Those who are in a position to know assert that the question of Gen. Grant's candidacy for the presidential nomination will be definitely determined during his present sojourn in Philadelphia. From this same source it is ascertained that the General will be influenced a great deal in his decision by the advice of his friends in that city, who are the most intimate that he has, and that they will advise against his acceptance of any political office. His connection with the Nicaragua inter-oceanic canal project will depend entirely upon his conclusion touching the presidency. The result is looked for with anxious solicitude by leading men of both parties."

NEW BUSINESS ENTERPRISE.—A corporation has been formed, entitled the Chesapeake Steam Navigation and Hotel Company of Baltimore City, for the purpose of carrying passengers and freight on the Chesapeake bay and it tributaries, with the right to build, charter or employ vessels, to buy, lease, rent and hold land, wharves and other property necessary to the carrying on of the business; to establish a ferry to and from such points as may be selected on the bay and its tributaries. Also to buy or lease and to erect and carry on hotels for a summer resort for the entertainment of excursionists and others. The capital stock is $50,000, in 1,000 shares of $50 each. The directors are Jas. B. Andrews, Henry D. Schmidt, of Baltimore; James H. Vansant, of Annapolis; Hamilton Disston and Frederick Gerker, of Philadelphia.

GOV. BLACKBURN, of Kentucky, has made up his mind to decline the present of "a pair of blue-grass horses and a carriage," which certain gentlemen, said to belong to the sporting fraternity of Louisville, proposed to tender him. "A pair of blue-grass horses and a carriage" are a prize that few Kentuckians could resist. With an eye possibly to a renomination the Governor adds pathetically: "My old sorrel horse and carriage, which I used in visiting patients, is good enough for me."

THE editor of the Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle, clerk of the Kellogg-Spofford subcommittee which recently visited New Orleans, reaches the following conclusions: 1. That the pretended legislature which elected Kellogg to the United States Senate did not have a legal quorum, and that Kellogg resorted to open and indiscriminate corruption to secure the votes of this illegal body; and 2, that Judge Spofford himself was not legally chosen United States Senator from Louisiana. Therefore, the Senate should declare the seat vacant.

MRS. SPRAGUE has authorized her attorney to draw up papers for a divorce from Governor Sprague, and the case is to be brought before the courts as soon as possible. She is to take up her residence in Washington.

THE result of the Boston municipal election gives Ben Butler another mortgage on the Hub. Mr. Prince, who is re-elected Mayor, is better known as the late secretary of the national Democratic committee, but ingrained Democrat as he is, General Butler counts him as one of his most faithful henchmen, and so does Massachusetts. It is queer to read of the old cradle of Republicanism going Democratic year after year, and it must stir the blue blood of Beacon street to more than fever heat. Prince's majority last year was about fifteen hundred and now it is close to twenty-five hundred. It is to be said of him that although a Butlerite, he is honest and has made a pretty fair record in office. Outside of the Boston Mayoralty the feature of the Massachusetts elections was the voting of the women who had chosen to register, and it is thought worthwhile to report that they were treated politely. Their voting was confined to a voice in the selection of School Directors.

REBURIAL OF JOHN RANDOLPH'S REMAINS.—On Saturday last the remains of the celebrated John Randolph, of Roanoke, Virginia, "great commoner," were interred in Hollywood Cemetery, Richmond. Randolph died in Philadelphia at the old City Hotel, June 24, 1833. He was there on his way to England where he sought to be cured of a chronic bronchitis, but was, in fact, a dying man when he started on his journey. He was taken ill on the way from Frenchtown to Philadelphia, and was attended there at the hotel all by the late Dr. J. W. Dunbar, of Baltimore, who wrote a very interesting account of the dying man's last days. Mr. Randolph's remains were taken to Roanoke and buried near the front door of his dwelling, under a favorite pine tree, nothing but a simple stone marking the grave.

THE POPE CATLIN-PLANTER COLLISION.—United States Steamboat Inspectors Lowry and Sadle on Monday rendered a report in the case of the collision of the steamers Plant and Pope Catlin in North Point on Saturday week. The inspectors suspended Capt. Geo. Jones of the Planter and John Jones, pilot of the Pope Catlin, who were in charge of their respective steamers at the time of the collision, for fifteen days, for assuming the risk of running their steamers in a fog. The report states that while every precaution is shown to have been taken by those on board the steamers, the fog horns and bells being sounded according to law, the officers in charge of the steamers should not have run thro' the heavy fog prevailing, hence the suspension.

THE WILL of the late John S. Gittings was filed for probate in the Orphans' Court of Baltimore county on Tuesday. The executors are George Hawkins Williams, son-in-law of Mr. Gittings, and the widow, Mrs. Charlotte Carter Gittings. The large estate, estimated at several million dollars, is left to the widow and the nine grandchildren, who are the children of Mr. H. Williams and Mrs. Gittings. Mrs. Gittings receives about one-third of the estate, and the other two-thirds to the grandchildren mainly. None of the grandchildren are mentioned individually by name.

THE GRANT TIDE seems to be ebbing in Ohio. A republican paper at Marietta publishes interviews with twenty-six influential republicans of the neighborhood, only two of whom are for Grant; all the rest are opposed to him, and a part declare that they will never vote for him if nominated. One man ranks himself with 20,000 republicans in Ohio who will not support Grant.

THE trial at Wilmington, Del., of Thomas Dugan, for the alleged shooting of Richard H. Rowe, a member of the city council of Wilmington, on the 3d of last May, was concluded at New Castle last week by a verdict of guilty of manslaughter. At the time of the shooting Dugan fired at another party, but the bullet struck Rowe and killed him.

THE document accompanying the report of the Postmaster General shows that there are only nine States in which the postal service is self-sustaining. These are the New England and part of the Middle States. The greatest deficiency is in Texas and Mo. This seems to be a little rough on the intellectual state of Ohio.

SENATOR CAMERON, (rep., Wis.,) when asked lately about his experience with witnesses in Louisiana and what one has to be done with them said that he loved in an old-fashion Scotch Presbyterian hell, and he did think even it should do justice to some of the people he saw down there.

THEY talk of mining this winter in Washington, D. C., a congress of lies, of which all the lies of Senators, members of the House and other dignitaries will be members. They will discuss grave and disputed questions of etiquette and fix the rank of the different states.

THE jury in the case of Frank E. Hayden, tried at Worcester, Mass., for the murder of his sister by poison, returned a verdict of not guilty, after being out twenty hours. The verdict was received with loud applause, and the prisoner wept like a child.

BISHOP HAVEN of the M. E. Church is very ill, and his physicians express little hope of his recovery.

The introduction of the English Condition Powders,

In our American market, exempt from duty, freight, &c., has proved to the thousands who are daily using them that they have been a long felt want.

For the past half century they have grown in public favor and general use in all quarters of the Globe, until their name and fame is world-wide.

There is not an ailment (known in Veterinary practice) of the Horse, Cow, Sheep or Pig, but yield to their miraculous influence.

Their rare balsamic properties are conveyed to every part of the brute creation, and immediate relief is given.

They heal Internal Ulcerations, banish all derangements, and give the stomach proper tone.

No Stock-owner need despair a cure, whilst this never-failing remedy can be obtained; and the reputation, they bear from all quarters of the Globe is fully borne out by the success they have attained—corroborated by testimonials of all classes and countries.

They have cured Thousands of Cases conceded Incurable.

The many ailments of each class of animals and their various forms are too extended to discuss. But we guarantee in each case a tenfold remuneration for the small investment that places them within reach of the most humble who often have to rely on their stock for support.

The majority are more directly interested in Horses, and to them we say one trial will convince you that they work wonders; and no matter how doubtful the case is, you will invariably be benefitted, & your animals made & kept healthy by their use.

English Condition Powders

are a certain and speedy remedy, no matter what the disease is, or how complicated. They are not a temporary, but have invariably proved to be a radical cure.

They restore health and produce flesh, milk and butter. They aid digestion and assimilation, and thoroughly renovate the system, and will be found invaluable and remunerative to every stock-owner.

TO CONSUMERS.—They are only one-third the price of all others, and are as superior in quality as quantity.

The following TESTIMONIALS speak of their merits:

Baltimore, June 17, 1879.

Mr. P. Warren—Sir: We have been handling your English Condition Powders for some time past, and find that their merits as compared with similar compounds, meet a want seldom (if at all) found in goods of a similar class. With Patrons of Husbandry they are growing into favor rapidly. Signed: H. O. DEVRIES, Ag't Maryland State Grange.

Ashland House, 24th St. & 4th Avenue, New York City, Mar. 10, 1879.

I have used the English Condition Powders and can recommend them to the turf profession as being pure and similar to the imported, and would use no other.—For purity and quality they are unequalled and invaluable to horsemen.

Signed, HARRY HARTMAN,
Late manager Budd Doble's Turf Stock.

Baltimore, Md., Aug. 6, 1879.

P. Warren, Esq.—Sir: The English Condition Powders are conceded by all my patrons to be the purest, cheapest and best on the market; and have worked wonders where used. I sell five times as many of them as all others combined.

Copy of Original Testimonials.

Baltimore, Jan. 31, 1879.

MR. J. S. KNAPP—Sir: I have made a thorought est of the London Food and recommend it to the public as a good Improvement Food for Horses. I will use it in preference to any condition powders I know of. [They have 300 horses.]

Respectfully, R. PRICE,
Sup't Citizens Line Street R. R.

Carrollton, Carroll Co., Md., Feb. 11, 1879.

JOHN S. KNAPP—Sir: Having used the London Horse and Cattle Food on both my horses and cows, I cheerfully recommend it to the public as a good condition food for the horse and a profitable condiment for cattle, as it will cause cows to give more milk and make at least 25 per cent. more butter than any condition powders I ever used. Hoping this will induce my friends to try it, after which I am convinced they will bear the same testimony as to its merits as I do.

Yours, respectfully,
mh8-tf. JACOB M. HOFF.
