HORSES AND MULES FOR SALE.

Mr. Luther W. Covey has just returned from Louisville, Kentucky, with a large lot of Kentucky Horses and Mules, which he will offer at public Auction, in front of his Stable, on Railroad Avenue, next Tuesday, the 27th inst. In the mean time he will dispose of any of them at private sales. Good judges pronounce them a very superior lot of horses and mules.

☞ I. L. Steiman, the ready-made clothe dealer, on Dover street, has just returned from the city with a very large and very cheap stock of overcoats, dress coats, business coats, boys' coats, pants, vests, and under clothing. His long experience and thorough knowledge of the clothing trade, enables him to buy where the best bargains are to be had, and his large business has been built up by selling at a very small profit. He offers now greater bargains than ever before. In fine coats, vests and pants, he defies competition, and earnestly invites those wanting new suits to call and see for themselves.

FEED STORE.

The flour, meal, and feed store of Parker & Brother, between the Brick hotel and Post office, Easton, is just such an establishment as the town wants. They grind their stock at their own mill, use only the best grain, and sell at mill prices. Their store is central, they fill orders and deliver goods anywhere in town, and invite the public to call and examine their stock and prices. They sell by the barrel, bushel, or in smaller quantities, to suit customers, and keep a full stock of feed for both man and beast. Give them a call.

From the Troy Times, March 18, 1875.

PERUVIAN SYRUP is a standard remedy for building up and renewing broken-down or nervous constitutions. For Dyspepsia, Debility, Liver Complaint, Kidney and Bladder Diseases, or part of the many irregularities of the various organs of the human frame, it is a sovereign remedy. It is a tonic without alcohol. This medicine is too well known already to require any commendation from us. It is only necessary for us to say to those who have never given it a trial that it will accomplish all that is claimed for it. Now is the time to tone up the system before the hot months of summer fairly sets in. Sold by all druggists.
