

Doughoregan Manor
near Ellicott City, Maryland

Built in 1717 by the first Charles Carroll on a land grant from Lord Baltimore, later the home of his grandson, Charles Carroll of Carrollton, signer of the Declaration of Independence, this gracious estate remains the possession and home of his descendants.

pub. by David E. Traub, 2313 South Road, Baltimore 9, Md.

POST CARD

Address

94480