The Kent News.

SATURDAY ..... DEC. 4, 1880.

Ohio is said to be an Indian word, meaning "O, how beautiful!" An Ohio man tells this.

The Grant pension fund does not seem to work well; and the General himself comes forward to say that he is able to take care of himself.

Queen Victoria has made the President of the United States a present of a writing desk, weighing 1,300 pounds. It is of live oak and elaborately carved.

Ex-Gov. Sprague and his son Willie are in Washington and rumor says he goes there to file a bill for divorce. He left his shotgun at Canonchet.

The Rev. Dr. Newnam says that Evangelist Harrison, the so-called "boy preacher," is "the Lord's ram's horn, at whose blasts the walls of Jericho topple to their fall."

A gentleman who ought to be posted says that the Secretary of the Treasury in his forthcoming message will recommend the recoinage of the standard silver dollar on a gold basis.

Col. Fain, of Pacific coast fame, had a narrow escape from death a few days ago. He was inspecting a drift when the earth caved, fatally injuring a miner who accompanied him on the trip of inspection.

Five tramps, nearly dead from cold and hunger, were found in a box car that arrived at Dallas, Texas, on Wednesday. They had been locked up since the car left Kansas City, and had been deprived of food for five days.

Every one of the Republican candidates at the late election in South Carolina has filed notice of contest. There is a pretty fair indication at present that the next Congress will have time for nothing but deciding disputes about seats.

President-elect Garfield, who is in a receptive state just now, says he thinks he will wait until February before making up a list of his constitutional advisers. The quid nunes, however, go right on making up the cabinet slate just as usual.

A fire at West Point, Va., Sunday night, destroyed the wharves and sheds of the Richmond, York River and Chesapeake Railroad Company, the steamer Shirley, the telegraph and freight offices and all the freight on the wharves, including 2,600 bales of cotton. Loss $250,000.

A desperate fight took place Sunday between two gangs of railroad laborers near Tottston Station, Ind. The battle was purely on account of race, one party being Irish and the other Germans. All were badly hurt and many seriously wounded.

It seems that the last Legislature of Maryland passed a law which is not generally understood, to the effect that all church doors must open outwardly. In Frederick, complaint has been made and the church authorities have been compelled to conform to the law.

George Toadvine, son of S. P. Toadvine, of Salisbury, Wicomico county, broke through the ice on Wednesday near the railroad bridge. The water was very deep, and he would have drowned but for the assistance rendered by Ernest Ellis, who drew him out of his perilous position.

The Chicago Tribune furnishes the following statement of majorities taken from the official returns from every State in the Union of the late Presidential election: Garfield, 4,439,415; Hancock, 4,436,014; Weaver, 305,729; Dow, 9,644; scattering, 1,793. Total, 9,192,595.

An invitation to all our friends and customers is hereby given to call on us and see the enormous Stock of Clothing on sale. It is rarely you find such a variety and small prices. Now go direct to the New York One-Price, Cash Clothing House, 184 W. Balto St., opposite Light, and do not hesitate, for you do find the very best there.

Libel Suits.—It is announced that Mr. Josh. Hart, publisher of the Truth, has commenced a civil suit for $50,000 damages against Mr. Geo. Jones, of the New York Times, the Times having stated that Hart was a forger. It is also rumored that Mr. Hart has sworn out a warrant for the arrest of Mr. George Alfred Townsend, on a charge of criminal and malicious libel.

A correspondent from Washington says: None of these people who are talking so sentimentally about Whittaker have extended any social courtesies to Bruce and his wife or Fred Douglass. I have asked more than one high official, and not one of them has cited a single instance of Bruce being entertained at a private dinner party here or at any other purely social gathering in a private house to which special invitations were issued.

Speculation is rampant in New York once more and the prices of all kinds of stocks and bonds have advanced with amazing rapidity. The "craze" is very similar to that of one year ago and may precipitate a crash. It is doubtful however, whether the general business of the country can any longer be seriously affected by a disaster of this kind, for it seems to be established on too solid a basis now to be disturbed by the manipulation of stock speculators, as was the case in the feverish and uncertain period which preceded the revival of prosperity.

An effort is now on foot in Queen Anne's county to procure the release from the penitentiary of James C. McGinnis, who on the 15th of June, 1867, was sentenced to that institution for the period of eighteen years, for the murder of J. Edwin Roberts, of Church Hill. The Observer argues against his pardon and says the people of that county, where he was so well known and where he did so much damage, will insist that his pardon, if granted by Gov. Hamilton, shall at least be a conditional one, forfeitable upon his ever returning to Queen Anne's county or the State of Maryland. The people might be reconciled to such a pardon, but to nothing short of it.

Pocomoke City has a bonded indebtedness, and is in trouble about it. The town authorities, it seems, refuse to pay or neglect to provide for the payment of either principal or interest, and the bondholders have obtained judgment against the corporation. By litigation and by refusing to accept a proposition of the bondholders to take eighty cents in a dollar, the city has spent and lost nearly half as much as the debt amounts to. We believe Pocomoke is the first Eastern Shore town to propose the iniquity of repudiation. We hope Pocomoke is as much ashamed of herself as her neighbors are ashamed of her.—St. Michaels (Md.) Comet.

The Philadelphia Times has a strong article in favor of Gen. Hancock for 1884, and says: "One thing is evident to all. Gen. Hancock has emerged from a desperate and disastrous national contest without a stain upon his skirts. He is one of the few men who has never lowered his standard to promote his ambition and he is to-day more esteemed as a hero, statesman and patriot than ever before. His unblemished purity of character that has even brightened in lustre while passing the severe ordeal of a Presidential struggle, is cherished with pride by his countrymen of all parties, and his defeat by the loss of a single State leaves him among the most, if not exceptionally the most available candidate of his faith for the future."

A Breakfast on Carp.—Last week Mr. Richard Holliday, desiring to taste the quality of carp fish, drew from his pond two fish, one 15½ inches long and weighing 1 pound 14 ounces, and the other 15½ inches long and weighing 1 pound 11 ounces, and invited Hon. James T. Earle, Dr. John T. Earle, Richard T. Earle and Samuel T. Earle to take breakfast with him. After giving the new fish a fair trial they all pronounced them equal to almost any and superior to many of our saltwater fish, having none of the flavor of the mullet or sucker fish, and equal to rock or perch. These fish were obtained from Fish Commissioner Hughlett, just about one year from the day the breakfast was given. They were then only about two inches long, and have made their great growth since that time.—Centreville Observer.

Judge Richard I. Bowie, in his recent charge to the grand jury of Montgomery county, Md., condemned in strong language the two cases of lynching which have occurred in that county within the past year, declaring that in the last case "the power of the State had been usurped, the province of the grand jury and the court violently invaded and a citizen forejudged of life without authority of law." Judge Bowie says if the victim was guilty his blood was not enough to expiate his foul offense, but at the same time he says "the State cannot suffer its citizens to be hanged by the wayside upon the hue and cry of a rabid assembly." The judge adjured the grand jury to prosecute the most searching inquiries into these 'outrages' without fear, favor or affection, with a view of bringing the participants to punishment.

Progress of the Census—How to Expedite the Reports.—Gen. Walker, superintendent of the census, in his regular annual report, just submitted to Secretary Schurz, says that it will be two or three weeks yet before he can return a complete exhibition of the population of the country, and he will defer until that time any remarks which he may have to make about our system of enumeration and its results. The facts revealed by the census, he says, are valuable in proportion to the promptness with which they are laid before the authorities and the people. He urges Congress, therefore, to provide for the quick publication of the reports—of which several will be ready in December—as soon as they are completed. In order to effect this he advises that the reports be given out to private contract printers, with time made one of the elements of the contract, instead of waiting the necessarily slow operations of the government printing office, which is already loaded down with a mass of work that must be done in connection with the present session of Congress. By this means the bureau will not only secure expeditious work, but will promote economy also.

Baltimore Grain Market.—The Baltimore papers of Thursday quote:—Fulty Wheat at 1.11@$1,19 and longberry at $1.25@1.28. Corn—yellow 53@55, white 53@55. Oats 40@40½.

Frightful Plunge of a Night-Express Train—It Leaps the Track and Rolls Down a Declivity One Hundred and Fifty Feet.—A dispatch from Cumberland, Md., dated Nov. 27, says:

A frightful accident occurred this morning a few minutes after one o'clock on the Pittsburgh division of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, about thirty miles west of Cumberland. The night express from Pittsburgh left that city at ten minutes past 8 P. M., and was due in Cumberland at 1.30 this morning, it arriving at Sand Patch tunnel twenty-four minutes late, but had so far gone without accident. When three miles this side of the tunnel and while rounding the precipitous curve known as Baughman's bend or Smoky Hollow, from a broken rail, as is asserted, the entire train, consisting of engine, tender, baggage, express and four passenger cars, including a smoking and sleeping car, were thrown down the embankment, a distance of eighty or ninety feet. When the obstruction was met with the smoking car telescoped and went entirely over the engine, reversing the position of the two, placing the rear of the smoking car at the front of the engine. The smoking car was occupied by Wm. Brace, Jr., a prominent lawyer of this city, who escaped uninjured, along with George F. Pitts, of Pittsburgh; a newsboy from Braddock, Pa., named Wm. McBrian, together with a few other persons. Pitts was badly cut and bruised about the head, and McBrian was badly scalded. Six revolutions were made by the car before it became stationary at the foot of the hill. The fireman, Jacob Rowth, was caught under the engine, and after suffering indescribable torture from scalding for the space of three hours, in which his cries and groans were heartrending, finally died, the passengers, although willing, being unable to relieve him from his terrible fate. The engineer, Peter Brincy, was badly and, it is feared, fatally scalded by the escaping steam, and now lies at the Queen City Hotel in this city in a critical condition. He will hardly recover. An infant was found lying in the snow unhurt. There were several Baltimoreans on the train, including Oscar W. Rhodes, of Armstrong, Cator & Co., and Mrs. E. B. Steele. Mrs. Rev. Baumgardner, accompanied by her husband, from Washington, and her friend, a married lady from Baltimore, were also on the train. The two latter ladies being in a delicate condition, were removed to a farm-house, where they were attended by two physicians, and gave birth each to a boy. They were doing well at last accounts.

State School Commissioner.—The annual meeting of the State Board of School Commissioners was held in Baltimore on Tuesday and Wednesday of last week. Kent county was represented by examiner E. F. Perkins, and by school commissioner C. J. Scott. Prof. Newell, from the Committee on Business, submitted a statement showing the condition and progress of the Public Schools. There has been an increase in the number of schools, teachers and pupils. In the expenditures there has been a small decrease, principally in the items of building, books, stationery, supervision and incidentals. A resolution was adopted asking an expression of opinion from the State Board of Education on the following points: First—Does it require thirty days' notice to discharge an assistant teacher? Second—Is the day of holding general election a legal school holiday? The consideration of the amount due the Free School Fund was postponed until next annual meeting. The report of the Discretionary Committee in regard to over $300,000 due the Schools of the State, and for which a judgment was entered against Comptroller Woolford some time ago, was considered and the subject dropped. On Wednesday the State Board of Education answered the above questions, deciding that election day was only a legal holiday in discretion of County Boards, and that permanent or regular assistant teachers must be given the same notice of dismissal as principals, but not when employed by special contract, and that it would be well for Commissioners, when an assistant teacher is only required for a short term, to make a special contract.

James W. Thompson, of Queen Anne's county, was elected president for the ensuing year.

Vennor's Predictions for December.—Vennor sends to the Albany Argus his weather predictions for December, as follows:

"December will, in all probability, open with little snow, but the weather will be cloudy, threatening snow falls. There will probably be some snow from about the 4th of the month. With the second quarter of the month colder weather will probably set in with falls of snow, but good sleighing need not be expected until after the middle of the month. There will be a spell of mild weather about the 13th and 14th. After a brief interval of mild weather, during which more snow will fall, the third quarter of the month will probably see blustering and cold weather. The last quarter of the month will bring milder weather, but will terminate probably with heavy snow falls and stormy weather; in fact the heaviest snow falls will be toward the end of the month, and snow blockades may be looked for, the snow falls extending far to the southward, possibly as far as Washington, with very stormy weather around New York and Boston."

A rare chance is offered the readers of this paper to buy Clothing in all grades for Men, Boys and Children at prices that will be satisfactory. The house of C. N. Oehm & Son, 230 W. Pratt St., extending through to 55 Hanover St., is well known in this community for fair dealing—a house that will give you value for your money. They offer new, fashionably cut clothes. They carry over no old stock, and to accomplish this they have marked down their whole line, therefore you may expect bargains when you call. Don't put off buying; remember the choicest styles sell first.

The Improved WATER Elevator AND Purifier!
AS A WATER ELEVATOR it has these merits: 1st—it is the Simplest Structure for raising water, on the American market. 2, it is easily adjusted to any well or cistern. 3, it is very durable. 4, it works easily. 5, it will NEVER freeze. 6, it is always ready for use and always at its best. 7, it has none of the objections common to pumps. 8, it will make warm water cold.
All who examine this invention admit the above claims, but ask
How Does it Purify Water?
As the inverted cups pass around the Terra Cotta wheel suspended in the chain at the bottom of the Well or Cistern, they are constantly discharging air through the water from the bottom to the top.
This elevator will destroy Wiggles, Water Bugs and Water Lice, will make foul or stagnant water pure, and will remove all color, bad taste and smell. In short, it will make bad water good, and good water better.
The undersigned have secured the exclusive right to sell this really valuable Pump in Kent county and they earnestly ask for it a candid and fair examination, confident of its intrinsic merit. One can be seen on exhibition in Chestertown at any time. For circulars address
