THE EASTON STAR

EASTON, MD.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1880

T. K. ROBSON, Editor.

THE Northern Pacific Railroad Company has offered a mile of $40,000,000 of its bonds, which assures the completion of the road at an early day. Work on the road is being rapidly pushed, and it will soon be through to Oregon.

FROM all parts of the South intelligence is received, that the are going hereafter to pay more attention to business, and less to politics. Let the South put her surplus capital in railroads and factories, and she cannot fail to go ahead.

GEN'L GRANT'S friends are making up a purse of $250,000, to make him comfortable for life. $100,000 has been raised in Philadelphia, $50,000 in Boston, and a large sum in New York. It is said the success of the project is assured.

THE electors for the several states met on Wednesday to cast their votes for President, except the State of Georgia, which meets to-morrow, following the Georgia law instead of the Act of Congress. When Congress counts the vote it will have to determine if that can be done.

Fearful Fight Between a Dog and an Eagle.

A terrific encounter between a dog and an eagle recently occurred on Roanoke Island, N. C. Roanoke Island is twelve miles long and two wide, and is inhabited by some seven hundred persons. Regarding the fight, the Elizabeth City Economist, thus describes the savage affair:

On Friday, a soaring eagle, lowering in his pride of might, turned his far-seeing eye from gazing at the sun, upon the quiet yard of Walter Dough. A flock of fat geese invited his sight and tempted his taste. The glance was father to the thought—and down he pounced. The feathers flew, the geese squawked, and there was a sensation in that farm yard—and there was a dog there, too. A goose is put down as a fool, but it is a vulgar error. A goose is a particular smart fellow. And so was this one the eagle struck in Walter Dough's yard. As soon as the eagle struck, the goose ran under the house, which was some two feet above ground, with the eagle fastened to its back, and the rest of the flock in hot pursuit. And there the fight grew fast and furious. Forty biting and flopping geese on one side, and the King of Birds on the other. Although outnumbered the eagle maintained the fight and clung to his victim.

But soon another enemy presented. An enemy more terrible than an army of geese—a bull-terrier dog—little, but full of fight. It wasn't fair; and the dog had no natural belligerent rights in a combat between birds, but he came with a bound, and the eagle had no time to settle questions of military ethics; so he threw himself on his back, (eagle fashion) to do his best in this hard fight between tooth and toenail. The dog made a lunge at the eagle's breast and the eagle stuck his claws deep into the dog's forehoulder.

The blow was simultaneous on either side. Both blows told. But a terrier never, and an eagle, hardly ever, says die. The only witnesses of the fearful combat were the geese who now stood off and looked on, and Miss Martha Brothers, who was singing to her spinning jennie, in the house alone, when the fight began, and who in the end was to be the conquering heroine, crowned with the laurels of victory. The battle raged. Teeth gnashed. Claws slaved. Eyes flashed. But eagles, like men, contend against odds when fighting against fate, and so this eagle's great heart sank within him, and turning tail upon his foe he sought safety in flight. But his retreat was slow and full of difficulty—for he had fifteen pounds of bull terrier swinging behind him. He reached the yard fence. With one desperate effort he sought to scale it. He reached the topmost round. He bore a weight he could not further carry. There they stood, victor and vanquished. Then it was that Miss Martha Brothers, the true hero of the fight, came to the front, and won the palm of victory. Seizing a rail, with one fell sweep, she came down with a crash upon the eagle's head, and left him prostrate, struggling in the agonies of death; the victim of a combination too powerful to be resisted. Alas, poor eagle! He measured nine feet between the tips of his outstretched wings.

Executor's Sale

OF VALUABLE

Real Estate

The time having arrived when the undersigned is, under the terms and provisions of the Will of the late Hon. E. F. Chambers, fully authorized to sell the Farm he lately owned in Queen Anne's county, state of Maryland; as Executor he will offer the same at Public Auction at the dwelling on the premises, on Wednesday, the 22nd day of December, 1880, at 11 o'clock A. M.

This estate is most eligibly located on Chester River, not far from Chestertown and Washington College, and convenient to Churches, Schools, &c. It contains

618 Acres and 34 Perches of Land,

more or less, of which about

117 Acres in Wood & valuable Timber

The residue is mostly arable. The natural soil is of the best quality, has been highly improved, and is well adapted to vegetables, fruits, and cereals. Its location embraces all the advantages of our most desirable water situations, having cheap, frequent and convenient access to the best Fruit and Grain markets; and also, to the best Ducking Points, Fishing Grounds and Oyster Beds on and in Chester river.

To any one on the alert for a remunerative investment, in connection with a healthy, convenient and agreeable residence, this estate offers rare inducements to become its proprietor. The undersigned has had the Estate carefully surveyed and plotted by Mr. B. S. Elliott, whose work shows him to be a painstaking and accurate surveyor. By this survey the Farm has been laid off into three divisions, which are respectively designated on the plot by Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

takes all the land lying on the right or South side of the present road leading from the river out to the public road from Chester River Bridge to Church Hill; and the Woodland on said road lying at the North end of the farm. Its contents are nearly 192 ACRES, 29 being in wood.

No. 2

lies along the aforesaid public road, includes the Woodland on the East side thereof, and contains 222 ACRES, 2 ROODS AND 17 PERCHES, of which 63 acres, 1 rood and 28 perches are in wood.

No. 3

lies on Chester River and West of No. 2. It contains 204 ACRES, 2 ROODS AND 11 PERCHES, about 25 acres being in wood.

The improvements on the whole estate are a Frame

DWELLING,

a large and conveniently arranged Barn, and other necessary outbuildings, all in fair order, and a

Young and Thrifty Peach Orchard of about 5,000 trees in bearing, and a larger Orchard of older trees. The fruit is of the best market varieties, having been selected by the late Col. E. Wilkins, after a matured and varied experience in peach culture, who also had a valuable Wharf constructed at the landing, to facilitate the shipment of fruit and produce.

As divided, the Dwelling is on No. 1, and the Outbuildings on No. 3. No. 2 is without improvements, except a Peach Orchard.

Mr. Elliott's plot will be exhibited at the sale, showing the several divisions and the rights-of-way appurtenant to each.

Each division will be first offered, and then the estate as a whole; the undersigned reserving the right to finally accept the bid or bids he may consider most beneficial.

Terms of Sale

are as follows:—$6,000 cash on the day of sale, or on the final ratification thereof, at the seller's option: the residue or balance in 6, 18 and 30 months from the day of sale. Payment to be secured by bond or notes of the purchaser, bearing interest from the day of sale; with sureties or indorsers approved by the undersigned; all interest upon instalments not due to be paid semi-annually. These terms may be modified, if found desirable to effect an advantageous sale.

GEORGE W. T. PERKINS,
Executor of E. F. Chambers, dec'd.
R. HYMSON, Attorney.

N. B.—Mr. G. H. Leaverton, tenant in possession, will with pleasure show the premises to any one desiring to examine them.

G. W. T. PERKINS,
Executor.

THE N. Y. SUN FOR 1881.

Everybody reads The Sun. In the editions of this newspaper throughout the year to come everybody will find:

I. All the world's news, so presented that the reader will get the greatest amount of information with the least unprofitable expenditure of time and eyesight. The SUN four ago discovered the golden mean between redundant fulness and unsatisfactory brevity.

II. Much of that sort of news which depends less upon its recognized importance than upon its interest to mankind. From morning to morning the SUN prints a continued story of the lives of real men and women, and of their deeds, plans, loves, hates, and troubles. This story is more varied and more interesting than any romance that was ever devised.

III. Good writing in every column, and freshness, originality, accuracy, and decorum in the treatment of every subject.

IV. Honest comment. The SUN's habit is to speak out fearlessly about men and things.

V. Equal candor in dealing with each political party, and equal readiness to commend what is praiseworthy or to rebuke what is blamable in Democrat or Republican.

VI. Absolute independence of partisan organizations, but unwavering loyalty to true democratic principles. The SUN believes that the Government which the Constitution gives us is a good one to keep. Its notion of duty is to resist to utmost the efforts of men in the Republican party to set up another form of government in place of that which exists. The year 1881 and the years immediately following will probably decide this supremely important contest. The SUN believes that the victory will be with the people as against the Rings for monopoly, the Rings for plunder, and the Rings for imperial power.

Our terms are as follows:

For the Daily SUN, a four-page sheet of twenty-eight columns, the price by mail, post-paid, is 55 cents a month, or $6.50 a year; or, including the Sunday paper, an eight-page sheet of fifty-six column, the price is 65 cents a month, or $7.70 a year, postage paid.

The Sunday edition of the SUN is also furnished separately at $1.20 a year, postage paid.

The price of the Weekly SUN, 8 pages, 56 columns, is $1 a year, postage paid. For clubs of ten sending $10 we will send an extra copy free. Address

I. W. ENGLAND,
Publisher of the SUN, New York city.

To the Farmers.

THE TALBOT COUNTY PAPER MILLS COMPANY will now contract for WHEAT STRAW, to be delivered at a convenient time hereafter. A little more care in stacking and picking, will insure so much better keeping as to enable farmers to spare at least half of their straw, the cash for which would nearly pay for their phosphates. SHANNAHAN & WRIGHTSON.

Stoves!! Stoves!!

1880. 1880.

Why Is It

THAT some people will buy their Stoves and Tinware where they can get them cheapest, with no regard to quality?

There is as much reason in going to a buyer to buy your dry goods and groceries, as there is buying your Stoves and tinware of any one else than a practical stove dealer. It is a mechanical business, requiring years of labor and experience to master. The practical stove man knows how to select his stock; he knows when he examines a stove how it is constructed, and whether it is good or bad. The greenhorn most cases buying from parties who contract for unskilled conflict short.

If you want an 8 in cook stove, be sure you get it; the oven should measure 22 inches, if not, it is not a No. 8. There are No. 8 stoves sold in this town with No. 8 tops on them. They are sold for No. 8 cook stoves, and you think they are cheap when they are not. Look to your interests, examine thoroughly before you buy.

I am selling the IMPROVED EXCELSIOR, comprising 14 styles and varieties. This stove has been sold in this community for ten successive years, and has given entire satisfaction, which is more than can be said of any other cook stove in the market.

The MINERVA RANGE, First-Class in every respect.
The BOYNTON, a Handsome and Powerful Fire-Place Heater.
The ELEGANT, a very nice Parlor Heater.
The NEAT LITTLE FAIRY, just the stove for small rooms.
Portable and Brick Set EXCELSIOR HOT AIR FURNACES.

STOVES TO SUIT UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES.

Also a Complete Stock of PLAIN, STAMPED and JAPANED TINWARE, SHEET-IRON WARE, and a Full Line of Miscellaneous Goods.

Roofing, Spouting & Repairing.

I have removed my place of business to the large brick building on Dover Street, next to R. B. Dixon's office. It has been fitted up expressly for the purpose, and is the most complete Stove House on the Shore.

Be sure and call. I will give you a good article, and good work, with promptness, at moderate prices.
