TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.—The Kent County Teachers' Association met at the school room in Chestertown on the 22d instant, at 10 o'clock A. M. The association was opened with prayer by Mr. I. R. Starkey. The roll-call showed forty-eight present out of the fifty-six teachers in the county.

Under unfinished business, the question of the parsing of the word virtue was discussed, in the sentence, "Forbearance sometimes ceases to be a virtue." The question was discussed by Messrs. Meeks, Starkey, Topping and Crosby. The question, "How to teach pupils to retain pronunciation of a word?" was discussed by Miss Comegys, Mr. Meier, Miss Gooding, Mr. Long, Miss Bramble, Mr. Melvin, Miss Owens, Mr. Pinkind and Rev. Mr. Haynes.

At 12 o'clock Mr. Meier delivered the address, subject being "The Progress of Education."

The following officers were elected for the next school year: President, Mr. E. F. Perkins; Vice-President, Mr. Crosby; Recording Secretary, Mr. Pinkind; Corresponding Secretary, Miss A. E. Leaverton

The second question, "What are the best kind of reading as helps to teachers in their work of training the young?" was discussed by Mr. Copper, Mr. McNeal, Mr. Jarman, Mr. H. C. Wallis, Miss Janvier, Miss Crane, Miss Clift, Mr. Topping, Miss Kendall, Miss M. A. Downs, Miss Strong, Mr. Fallowfield, Mr. Crosby, Miss Comegys and the Examiner.

A motion passed that the Examiner should prepare examination questions for promotion in the schools, at the close of the school year.

The Literary Committee for the ensuing year are Miss Crane, Miss Hazzard, Mr. Melvin and Mr. Topping.

Committee on Teachers' Salary: Mr. Pinkind, Mr. McNeal, Miss Leaverton.

The Music Committee: Mr. Pinkind, Mr. Starkey, Mrs. Stephens, Miss Hazzard and Mr. Fallowfield.

ELOPING WITH A $500,000 BRIDE.—Miss Jessie Kimball, daughter of Sarah M. Kimball, a wealthy widow residing in Cleveland, Ohio, was married in Detroit on Saturday last to Will H. Hayes. The bride is 18 years of age on Saturday (to-day), and this day comes into possession of $500,000 left her by her father. The mother is in Europe, and, Miss Jessie has been keeping house with only servants for companions. Some days ago she went to Detroit to visit friends. On Thursday of last week Mr. Hayes followed. Saturday forenoon the young couple started out from her friends' residence ostensibly for a ride. Before they returned, however, they visited the Rev. Mr. Bayley's residence, taking advantage of the Michigan marriage laws, which require no license, and were married. They returned in time for dinner, and later in the day left for Cleveland, saying nothing about what had occurred. Mr. Hayes had been paying attention to Miss Kimball for a year past, but the marriage was decided upon the impulse of the moment. The bride has spent several years in Paris and London, and has acquired by her travel and study a variety of accomplishments that have made her a leader in society. The groom, who is also a minor, is a popular young gentleman, and is holding a good position in his father's employ.

MR. JORGENSEN, the only Republican elected to Congress from Virginia, complains bitterly of the misrepresentations of Gorham, and of the fact that he is denied a hearing in the Republican papers of Washington. The proposition that the Republicans should fuse with the Readjusters strikes him as dishonest, impolitic and absurd. He claims that there are 85,000 Republicans and only 35,000 Readjusters, and does not see why so small a tail should wag the dog. But Mr. Jorgensen might have put the case on higher ground. He might have said that the Republican party claimed great credit to itself for the financial prosperity and honor of the country, and that to buy out a repudiator who was elected to the Senate as a Democrat, and pay his price by giving him the executive patronage, so as to make repudiation victorious in Virginia, is a dirty bargain that will bring well-merited disgrace and defeat upon that party. If one man in a hundred who voted for Garfied in New York, Ohio and Illinois had voted the other way he would have been crushingly defeated. This Mahone-Riddleberger-Garfield compact is the very thing to make that one man in a hundred vote on the other side at the next election. It is, however, none the less the duty of every Democrat in the Senate to resist to the last this dirty Republican trade.—Balto. Gaz.

ANOTHER ONE.—The St. Michaels Comet is constantly telling stories on Queen Anne's county, and here is its latest: "Years ago, when constables were compelled not only to serve writs but to bring the prisoner with them, a certain dignitary of Queen Anne's county was ordered to serve a summons on a debtor. The debtor, seeing the constable approaching, sought to evade the summons by taking to his heels; the constable, however, was not to be thus baffled and struck out after him. The debtor ran across a field until he came to a ditch, when, seeing a plank, he quickly spanned the ditch with it and over this impromptu bridge he fled and on into a marsh. The constable could not follow and of course the writ had to be returned. He returned it with this remarkable endorsement: Ditchum, plankum, mashum; non-come-at-able."

CUT THIS OUT.—It is presumed that barely one-fourth of purchasers of Clothing are fair judges of their purchases; and it is therefore important to know where you can buy with confidence that you will get your money's worth. C. N. Oehm & Son, 230 W. Pratt St., through to 55 Hanover St., have been in the business in Baltimore for over a quarter of a century; they manufacture every garment sold by them. Their experience enables them to give satisfaction in quality, prices, material and workmanship. No one in need of Clothing should neglect to call upon them. It will pay you.

ACCORDING to the recent census, the production of the iron and steel works of the United States for the census year closing May 31, 1880, was ninety-nine per cent. greater than during the preceding census year.

AN order has been issued by the Post Office Department declaring postal cards unmailable when anything except the direction is written on the address side of the card.

Kent Co. Agricultural Association.

CLUB ROOM, April 25, 1881.

Messrs. Editors:—The executive committee reported that the agricultural fair would be held September 13th, 14th and 15th, and an oration was decided upon, the Hon. George Colton to be the orator, if his services can be had. The premium list is to be carefully revised, and the committee was instructed to consider the propriety of having a plowing-match. If the committee decide favorably, we shall have the oration and plowing in addition to the programme of last year; and the position will be taken, and I hope strengthened each year, that the farmers of the county can comprehend and enjoy something besides horse-racing.

A resolution of thanks was moved to the Captain and proprietors of the steamboats of the Sassafras river line for their honorable and manly act in refusing to allow the sale of liquor on their boats; but was withdrawn, as several of the members thought it would be better that the paper should be signed by individuals, as a larger number could be represented than were present to-day. If the ladies sign, it will take considerable paper to contain the names. We are to be congratulated in having a temperance line of boats running to Baltimore, and the captain and owners are deserving of the highest commendation for their righteous action.

The strawberry festival did not succeed, chiefly because a few were compelled to do most of the work; but if the motion had prevailed, far better arrangements in that direction could have been devised. A ladies' day was appointed and a committee named to prepare a programme and arrange the proceedings, and it was decided that, if it was a success, there would be "more to follow." "Success here, as in everything else, depends on the means used to insure it. That our wives and daughters feel a deep and abiding interest, not only in agriculture, but in the association, is evident in the numerous and beautiful contributions to the annual fair prepared by them; and if the committee will give us a bright and attractive programme and the members will work up to it faithfully, we may have a most enjoyable time.

The regular question, in substance, "The use of agricultural books and newspapers to farmers," was extensively discussed, the relative value of the two considered, and, as usual, both had their advocates. While very much in the agricultural papers was approved, especially articles written by earnest and practical farmers, the useless trash with which so many of them are about half full, and which seem to be used only as a sort of make-weight, was severely commented upon and justly, too. One member took pleasure in and was instructed by the advertisements, especially those of implements and machinery. While the value of both books and papers was admitted, the larger number of speakers claimed far the greater value for agricultural papers.

Question for next Monday, "Evaporation of Fruit."

Essayist, J. W. Corey, Esq. PARTICEPS.

THE lawyers of Princess Anne file so many demurrers that one of the judges the other day remarked that "Princess Anne beats any place for demurrers and dogs that he had ever seen, read or heard of."

THE Methodist Conference at Bradford, Vt., has unanimously adopted a resolution whereby members of the conference agree not to marry divorced parties except the innocent one, where the cause of divorce is adultery.

SIXTY-TWO years ago last Tuesday Thomas Wildey and four others instituted Washington Lodge, No. 1, Independent Order of Odd-Fellows, in Baltimore. This was the beginning of Odd-Fellowship in this country.

THE President looks "worn and jaded." And no wonder. It is enough to wear out an iron man, this regular quadrennial effort to make forty thousand offices go around four hundred thousand applicants.—Burlington Hawkeye.

THE largest vessel ever built for Lake navigation is the schooner David Dows, recently launched at Toledo, Ohio. Her extreme length is 278 feet, and her carrying capacity is 140,000 bushels of grain. She has five masts and has cost $100,000.

A FRIEND, en route for Europe, told Conkling of it the other day and wanted to know if he could do anything for the distinguished senator. "There is a favor," said Conkling, "that I would like to have you do for me." "What is that?" eagerly asked the friend. "Take Garfield with you," said Conkling snappishly.

LAST Sunday was the first in many years on which no theatrical performances were given in Cincinnati. A few of the resorts gave free instrumental concerts. All the theatrical managers late last week agreed to acquiesce in Mayor Means' order to close on Sunday.

SIXTY-EIGHT millions of dollars have been invested in railroads and mining enterprises in Mexico within the last seven months by the capitalists of the United States, and yet the press and people of Mexico are jealous of the encroachments of the Americans.

IT is pointed out as a singular coincidence that four men and one woman were hanged for the assassination of the Czar just as there were for the assassination of President Lincoln, and the Czar's assassins suffered death on the 16th anniversary of the assault upon the President.

MRS. BELVA A. LOCKWOOD, of Washington, D. C., who has applied for the position of minister to Brazil, is acquainted with international law, speaks French fluently, has a fair knowledge of Spanish, and is not afraid of "snaix." Being a lady, she cannot, of course, ever be afflicted with "snaix in her boot."

THE NEW JAIL AT EASTON.—The Star of Tuesday says: Gov. Thomas, counsel of the Board of County Commissioners, gave his legal opinion that under the law the commissioners possessed no authority to expend more than $12,000, the amount limited by the Act of 1880, chapter 165. All bids being largely in excess of that amount, the commissioners decided to take no further action in the matter for the present.

IT is announced that the Monetary Conference at Paris is a failure, owing to the irreconciliability of the views of the Powers concerning the expediency of bi-metallism, and that the conference may come to an end at any moment. Great preparations were made for this grand pow-wow, although it was not expected that much would come of it. Secretary Evarts and his associates, the representatives of the United States at the conference, will have a delightful sea voyage at a pleasant season of the year for their pains.

MAYOR MEANS of Cincinnati, has dismissed the entire detective force of the city, and will make no appointments to the vacancies thus created. The detectives had become shamefully inefficient and corrupt. During the past year they have done no work that could not have been better performed by the most ordinary patrolman, and the belief has become general that thieves were being protected by them instead of brought to justice. The work heretofore left to the detectives will now be assigned to lieutenants on duty in the districts in which robberies and other misdemanors occur.

AT a land-league meeting in Brooklyn (N. Y.) last Saturday Patrick Rodgers, who is recently from Ireland, and well acquainted with the affairs of the league in that country, said that the league is flourishing in Ireland and the people are United in the determination to resist all exorbitant demands for rent. If they can obtain moral and material assistance from America—and that is the land they mainly rely upon—they will succeed. Mr. Rodgers further said that Irishmen had been largely instrumental in bringing the liberal ministry into power, and yet that ministry, which had been so deeply trusted, brought in a coercion bill. He argued that it was useless for Irish to attempt violence, as there were 45,000 soldiers, not to mention police, in various parts of the island, all well organized.

HOW THEY HOLD POWER.—The Republican party has succeeded in the past twenty years in gerrymandering the Northern States so that they may hold a majority in Congress by means of a minority of voters. This is very plainly shown by the following statement made by Mr. Ryon, of Pennsylvania:

In the Senate of Pennsylvania, where we have 407,428 Democrats, it takes 50,928 to send a Representative to this House. These 407,000 electors in Pennsylvania are represented by eight men upon this floor. The Republican vote in 1880 was 444,704. It takes 23,450 Republicans to elect a Representative to Congress. These 444,000 Republicans in the State of Pennsylvania are represented by nineteen men in this House. The city of Philadelphia has five Representatives on this floor. One is a Democrat and four Republicans. It takes 75,000 Democrats in that city to elect one Democrat, and 94,000 Republicans to elect four Republicans. * * *

In the State of New York, in the State of Ohio and in the State of Pennsylvania by this process of gerrymanding more white men are practically disfranchised than there are negroes in the South.
