Agricultural.

Hyacinths.

A correspondent of the Housekeeper gives some simple rules for growing hyacinths, from which it is evident that every house may easily be beautified with some of these brilliant flowers:

"The great desire of all true flower-lovers is to have some tragrant, beautiful blooms in the depth of winter, and there is nothing more certain to give us flowers then, if properly attended to, than the hyacinth. Here is one method: Take a five-inch pot, which fill with soil composed of equal parts of sand, cow manure and good garden soil. Make a space in the soil for the bulb, so that it will be about half below the earth; then press it down so that only its upper surface appears above the soil; then water, giving all the earth will hold. The pots must now be set away for several weeks, where they will fill with roots, but there will be little or no top-growth. Keep them moist at all times, however. By bringing the pots into the light at different times, a continuous bloom may be enjoyed the entire winter. It is necessary to keep them cool and well watered while growing.

"Another way to grow hyacinths in the house is in glasses of water. The glasses which florists sell for the purpose are best adapted to this mode of culture. The glasses being filled with pure soft water, the bulbs are to be placed in them during October and November so that the base of the bulbs may just touch the water; in time, the water will evaporate, and once a week or so it must be replenished, being careful not to disturb the roots in refilling the glasses. Set them away in a cool, dark place, as recommended for growing in pots; then, when the roots have filled the glass, exposure to the sun will be in order. To have them grow well, sprinkle the leaves, and give them fresh air whenever practicable. To keep the water sweet, put a piece of charco l in the glass.

"Peter Henderson says that hyacinths grow better in moss than in pots or glasses. The moss is sponge-like and the roots of hyacinths grow luxuriantly. A wire basket, in which four or five different kinds of hyacinths are planted, presents an attractive appearance when suspended in a window or other part of the room. The moss should be pressed moderately firm into the pot, box or basket, and the hyacinths planted with one-third of their thickness above the surface. After planting, the moss should be watered sufficiently to thoroughly saturate it, and then put the basket or other receptacles away in some dark, cool place, the object being to induce root growth, and to that end the moss must be kept moist at all times. To brighten the colors of the flowers give we k guano water once a week—say one pound of guano to fifteen or twenty gallons of water."

Storing Potatoes.

A chemic l analysis of the pota to reveals to us the fact that in 100 pounds of potatoes there are 75 pounds of water. If in storing this valuable root we keep this fact in view, and act intelligently upon it we shall probably avoid some blunders. The potato as soon as it is raised throws off a small portion of its moisture by a kind of fermentation. The steam or vapor thus generated should be allowed to pass freely into the air, or heating followed by rot, will probably result from inattention. The potato should be raised in as dry a condition as possible, and protected from wet in its subsequent stages. Whether placed in houses or pits, it should have that amount of ventilation necessary to carry away the moist vapor which it generates for the first few weeks after it is raised; but beyond this both light and air should be excluded. If placed in pits, select sandy or peaty soil if possible. Such soils will absorb moisture and hold the water derived from rain by the force of molecular attraction till it is evaporated into the air again. This is the reason why potatoes are kept dry by a covering of such soil. In all other kinds of mould a covering of straw should be placed so as to ward off excessive rain. The covering in all cases should be sufficient to resist frost. If these few hints are carefully attended to, and supplemented by the sagacity of the farmer himself, many a ton of potatoes will be saved from rot.—Irish Paper.

Fall Planting of Small Fruits.

It is urged by the Fruit Recorder that those contemplating setting out small fruits should give one trial at least to fall setting. All that is necessary is to either back up over the roots with earth, or throw a forkfull of litter over each plant, before the ground freezes up, and in the spring haul this away. First, because they get settled in their places, and getting the benefit of early spring rains, start early, and make a full growth next season, while if set next spring, it cannot be done properly until the ground is settled and the heavy spring rains have ceased. Second, all fruit growers know how pressed they are for a time in the spring. Third, raspberries and blackberries have very tender germs that start very early in the spring, and these are likely to be broken off if set then, while if set in the fall they have not started enough to damage them in transplanting. And fourth, but not least, a much larger proportion of them live when set in the fall—a fact abundant in itself to show the superior merits of fall planting, especially of blackberries, raspberries, currants, grapes, and such sorts.

Value of Leaves.

Leaves from the woods make the very best of litter; they absorb a great amount of liquid fertilizers, and furnish in themselves a large per cent. of potash and other valuable manurial constituents. Fallen leaves, when burned give four or five times the amount of ashes as the hard wood which bore them. To this must be added the nitrogen compounds that are not burned away when the leaves are used as a litter. The richness of the surface soil in the woods is due to the accumulation of leaves from year to year, which there decay and leave the fertilizing elements that the leaves contained. A good gardener knows the virtues of woods' earth and uses it largely in his work. Gather the forest leaves and use them as a litter, and gain a double end—a neat absorbent, and a valuable fertilizer.

Farmers as well as doctors sometimes disagree. A correspondent of one agricultural paper writes: "There is no plant that is superior to the buckwheat as a wide, close feeder upon poor soil, and on this account it helps to build up a poor soil and fit it for other crops. The roots run far and wide and tend to loosen the soil, and especially is this of importance upon newly cleared and heavy land." Another correspondent writes: "Your correspondent who spoke of buckwheat being such a good preparation for other crops must be insane, for there is certainly no crop grown which so destroys the vitality of the soil for some years as buckwheat."

The test of time and the experience of thousands have proven it the best, safest and speediest remedy for all diseases of the Liver Stomach and Spleen. As a remedy in

MALARIOUS FEVERS,

Dyspepsia, Mental Depression, Sick Headache, Jaundice, Colic, Constipation and Biliousness.

IT HAS NO EQUAL!

We could fill a good sized volume with such like distinguished testimonials as the following:

"I have used Simmons Liver Regulator for constipation of my bowels, caused by a temporary derangement of the liver, for the last three or four years, and always when used according to the directions with decided benefit.
"HIRAM WARNER,
"late Chief Justice of Ga."

"I occasionally use, when my condition requires it, Dr. Simmons Liver Regulator, with good effect.
"Hon. ALEXANDER H. STEPHENS."

The Baltimore Episcopal Methodist says: "Simmons Liver Regulator is acknowledged to have so equal as a liver medicine, containing those Southern roots and herbs which an all-wise Providence has placed in countries where liver diseases prevail."

The CENTURY MAGAZINE,
(SCRIBNER'S MONTHLY,)
FOR THE COMING YEAR.

With the November number began the new series under the title of THE CENTURY MAGAZINE, which will be, in fact, a new, enlarged, and improved "SCRIBNER." The page is somewhat longer and broader, enabling pictures of a larger size, and INCREASING THE READING MATTER ABOUT Fourteen Additional Pages.

The following is a summary of the leading features of the new series for the year:

A NEW NOVEL, BY MRS. BURNETT (author of "That Lass o' Lowrie's," etc.), entitled "Through One Administration," a story of Washington life.

STUDIES OF THE LOUISIANA CREOLES, by Geo. W. Cable, author of "The Grandissimes," etc. A series of illustrated papers, on the traditions and romance of Creole life in Louisiana.

A NOVEL BY W. D. HOWELLS (author of "A Chance Acquaintance," etc.), dealing with characteristic features of American life.

ANCIENT AND MODERN SCULPTURE. A "HISTORY OF ANCIENT SCULPTURE," by Mrs. Lucy M. Mitchell, to contain the finest series of engravings yet published of the masterpieces of sculpture. There will also be papers on "LIVING ENGLISH SCULPTORS," and on the "YOUNGER SCULPTORS OF AMERICA," fully illustrated.

THE OPERA IN NEW-YORK, by Richard Grant White. A popular and valuable series, to be illustrated with wonderful completeness and beauty.

ARCHITECTURE AND DECORATION IN AMERICA will be treated in a way to interest each householder and housewife, with many practical as well as beautiful illustrations from recent designs.

REPRESENTATIVE MEN AND WOMEN OF THE 19TH CENTURY. Biographical sketches, accompanied by portraits, of George Eliot, Robert Browning, Rev. Frederick Robertson (by the late Dean Stanley), Matthew Arnold, Christina Rossetti, and Cardinal Newman, and of the younger American authors, Wm. D. Howells, Henry James, Jr., and George W. Cable.

SCENES OF THACKERAY'S, HAWTHORN'S AND GEORGE ELIOT'S NOVELS. Succeeding the illustrated series on the scenes of Dickens's novels.

THE REFORM OF THE CIVIL SERVICE. Arrangements have been made for a series of able papers on this pressing political question.

POETRY AND POETS IN AMERICA. There will be studies of Longfellow, Whittier, Emerson, Lowell, and others, by E. C. Stedman.

STORIES, SKETCHES AND ESSAYS may be expected from Charles Dudley Warner, W. D. Howells, "Mark Twain," Edward Eggleston, Henry James, Jr., John Muir, Miss Gordon Cummine, "H. H.," Geo. W. Cable, Joel Chandler Harris, A. C. Redwood, F. B. Millet, Noah Brooks, Frank R. Stockton, Constance F. Woolson, H. H. Boyesen, Albert Stickney, Washington Gladden, Joan Burroughs Paxe Godwin, Tommaso Salvini, Henry King, Ernest Ingersoll, E. L. Godkin, E. B. Washburne, and many others.

One or two papers on "The Adventures of the Tile Club," and an original life of Bewick, the engraver, by Austin Dobson, are among other features to be later announced.

THE EDITORIAL DEPARTMENTS throughout will be unusually complete, and "The World's Work" will be considerably enlarged.

The price of THE CENTURY MAGAZINE will remain as $4 00 per year (35 cents a number). The portrait (size 21x27) of the late Dr. Holland, issued just before his death, photographed from a life-size drawing by Wyatt Eaton, will possess a new interest to the readers of this magazine. It is offered at $5.00 retail, or together with THE CENTURY MAGAZINE for $6 50. Subscriptions are taken by the publishers, and by book-sellers and news-dealers everywhere.

"The Children's Magazine of America."

ST, NICHOLAS.

The illustrated magazine for young folks has now attained a circulation larger, probably, than that of any other monthly magazine of its class. It has been called "a marvel of perfection, both as regards its literary excellence and its artistic merit." It was the first to give to boys and girls the very best illustrations that could be had, and has earned the name of

"The Children's Art Magazine."

The greatest living writers of Europe and America are among its Distinguished Contributors:

Charles Dudley Warner, Henry W. Longfellow, John G. Whittier, H. H. Boyesen, Bret Harte, Gail Hamilton, Thomas Hughes, Louisa M. Alcott, Donald G. Mitchell, Harriet Prescott Spofford, Elizabeth Stuart Phelps, George MacDonald, Washington Gladden, The Goodale Sisters, Alfred Tennyson, John Hay, Clarence Cook, Rossiter Johnson, Susan Coolidge, Edward Eggleston, Prof. R. A. Proctor, Christina G. Rossetti, Mrs. A. D. T. Whitney, Frances Hodgson Burnett, Celia Thaxter, Marion Harland, T. W. Higginson, Lucy Larcom, Noah Brooks, Author of "Alice in Wonderland," Mrs. Oliphant, T. B. Aldrich, and hundreds of others.

What England Says of It.

London Daily News: "We wish we could point out its equal in our own periodical literature."

The Spectator: "It is the best of all children's magazines."

Literary World: "There is no magazine for the young that can be said to equal it," etc.

Brilliant Features of The Coming Year.

The ninth volume, which begins with the November, 1881, number, will contain a new

Serial Story,

By Mrs. Mary Mapes Dodge,

editor of ST. NICHOLAS, author of "Hans Brinker, or the Silver Skates," etc., etc. A second serial story, full of lively incident,

"The Hoosier School-Boy,"

By Edward Eggleston,

author of "The Hoosier School-master," etc. A single article of universal interest:

"How Children Should Learn Music,"

By Richard Wagner,

the eminent composer. Two other serials, one dealing with campaign life in the late war, and the other with Girl and Boy Life in the 18th Century. Plays for Home and School, Embroidery for Girls, Amateur Newspapers, Illustrated Practical and Descriptive Papers, Articles on Sports, and The Treasure-box of Literature will be among the features of this great volume.

An immense edition will be printed of the Christmas Number,

which will be ready about December 1st.

Price, $3.00 a year; 25 cents a number. Subscriptions taken and magazines sold by booksellers and news-dealers everywhere, or the publishers.

THE GOLDEN SHEAF.

A Fertilizer specially adapted to the Soil of the Eastern Shore of Maryland.

$20 PER TON.

Sold at a very small profit on cost of production and clear of Agents' commissions.

THE COMPOSITION NO SECRET.

Made Without Sand or Dirt.

FOR SALE BY
THE OXFORD GUANO CO., Oxford, Md.
W. H. SETH, Secretary.

The attention of Farmers who desire to secure a good fertilizer at a reasonable price, is respectfully called to the above named brand.

The object of the manufacturers has been to originate a compound of plant foods directly adapted to the soil of the Eastern Shore of Maryland, and to fix the price therefor at the lowest possible figures; cutting off all agents fees of $5 and $6 per ton and adding to the actual cost only a very small profit. We think this fertilizer has as much intrinsic value as most of the high price manures, and feel confident that farmers who may think proper to use it will say, that in its effects upon the soil, it will equal them.

The analysis, as made by Prof. G. A. Liebig, shows it to contain:—

Ammonia, from	.75 to 1.25	per cent.
Phosphoric Lime, from	5.00 to 7.00	"
Lime	33.10	"
Carbonic Acid	28.07	"

The lime and carbon, which are essential to plant growth, are obtained from oyster shells ground to powder, instead of being burnt. This combination not only dispenses with the necessity for dirt or sand to hold the chemicals, but is a most valuable assistant to their action.

We are also manufacturing ground lime, which we propose to put upon the market at a low price.

JOHN B. THOMPSON, Wheelwright, near the Gas Works, Easton respectfully informs the farmers and others, that he has on hand a quantity of the very best timber, thoroughly seasoned, and has determined to reduce the price of work to BOTTOM FIGURES. He is manufacturing and repairing Carts, Wagons, Wheels, Agricultural Implements, Cradles, Ox Yokes, and other work in his line, at prices which cannot fail to give satisfaction. All his work is done in the strongest manner, and warranted to give satisfaction. He respectfully invites farmers and others to give him a call, examine his work, and compare prices and quality with the work of other wheelwrights. He returns thanks for past favors and solicits a continuance of the public patronage.

For Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Bilious Attacks, Headache, Costiveness, and all Diseases of the Liver and Stomach.

ARE DECIDEDLY THE MOST POTENT REMEDY THAT CAN BE USED.

It is not an intoxicating beverage, and certainly would never be used as a pleasant substitute for alcoholic stimulants, but it is truly a valuable Family Medicine, which has been used for many years by large numbers of our citizens with the most gratifying success in all the above complaints. Try it.

25 Cents a Paper, or $1.00 a Bottle.

BEGS to announce that he has received another invoice of the celebrated Waltham Watches, all sizes and grades. These watches are now used on the principal railroads in England in preference to any other make, being more reliable time keepers. They are the most popular watch in the market. Two years guaranty with each watch. Fashionable home-made watches, they are both better and cheaper than foreign make. Repairing to order.
