Medical.

SENSIBLE MEN and women know see this and demonstrate for themselves that of the many diseases and disorders with which humanity is afflicted, the main root cause or fountain head of all, is the stomach! Remove the cause, and a moment's reflection must convince that any of the quack nostrums foisted upon the public claiming to cure all of a number of chronically different diseases must prove failures, even if we do not call them humbugs.

POOR PEOPLE and people of moderate well-to-do or wealthy find that the enormous charges of practising physicians are a serious burden to them, and also find that after paying themselves poor that no benefit has accrued to them, that in fact they have thrown their money away. To overcome these evils, we offer Wheeler's No. 96 Rheumatic Remedy, for all suffering, varying in duration from a month to a lifetime, and in severity from a mere twinge to the most agonizing pain, that the ingenuity of man has yet been able to cure, and we guarantee that in every instance where it is not positively effective, the money paid for the treatment, and if your sufferings are not positively stopped for all time you have not thrown your money away as you would on any other; than these guaranteed remedies. The price of Wheeler's No. 96 Rheumatic Remedy is only 50 cents, obtainable from druggists or sent free by mail on receipt of price, stamps taken.

SUFFERING WOMEN. Many a lady endowed by nature with a pretty face, beautiful figure, faultless complexion, as well as the sweetest of tempers and faultless mental qualities grows prematurely old, gray and wrinkled, her form loses its perfect contour, the complexion becomes sallow, the brightness leaves the eye, a feeling of languor takes the place of the once buoyant spirits, an irritable nervous fretfulness makes life a burden, things that once were trifles worry her till life becomes unbearable. All this being caused by the physical derangements so common to women, which the innate modesty of feminine nature prevents their making known, and of which the ignorance of the medical profession prevents a cure. Lady Reader, pause and consider, 'tis a duty you owe yourself, your family and your God, that you should cure yourself of these troubles and once more feel the glow of perfect health and spirits that nature intended for you. Wheeler's No. 36 Prescriptions are pleasant and palatable to take, contain nothing of an injurious nature, and may be taken by children of all ages and in all conditions without possibility of ill effects, and will positively cure any of the peculiar diseases to which females are subject. Failing to produce a perfect cure the manufacturers will refund the money paid for the treatment. If you have a sallow complexion, constant or intermittent headaches, backache, restlessness, loss of appetite, suppression of monthly flow, or irregularities thereof accompanied by headaches, nervousness, hysterics and similar symptoms, Wheeler's No. 36 Prescription "B" will positively restore you to health. If you have a sensation of heat and throbbing in the back, frequent fainting spells, Leucorrhea or white discharge, painful or scalding sensation in urinating, reddish or white deposit in urine, hot and dry skin, Wheeler's No. 36 Prescription "C" will give the desired Soothing Relief. The price of Wheeler's No. 96 Prescriptions "B" and "C" are 50 cents each, obtainable from druggists or sent by mail secure from observation, postpaid, on receipt of price. Postage stamps taken.

CATARRH. It is needless to describe the symptoms of this nauseous disease that is sapping the life and strength of only too many of the fairest and best of both sexes, old and young, suffering alike from the poisonous dropping in the throat, the poisonous nasal discharges, the fetid breath and general weakness, debility and languor, aside from the acute sufferings of this disease, which if not checked can only end in loss of palate, hoarseness, weakness of sight, loss of memory, insanity and premature death if not checked before it is too late. Labor, study and research in America, Europe and Eastern lands have resulted in Wheeler's No. 96 Instant Relief and Sure Cure for Catarrh, a remedy which contains no harmful ingredients, and that is guaranteed to cure every case of acute or chronic catarrh, or money refunded. Wheeler's No. 96 Instant Relief and Sure Cure for Catarrh will cure every case of catarrh, hay fever or asthma, price $1.00 per package, from druggists or sent by mail postpaid on receipt of price.

Wheeler's No. 96 Sure Cure for Kidney and Liver Troubles cures all weakness and soreness of kidneys, inflammation of kidneys or liver, price $1.00.

Wheeler's Vegetable Pills are the only remedy that cure constipation, giving natural action of the bowels without physicing, purging, griping or pain. Price 25 cents, of druggists or by mail.

Wheeler's Nervine Tonic for mental depression, loss of manhood, nervous weakness or over taxation of the brain is invaluable, price 25 cents.

WE GUARANTEE Cures in every case or we will refund money paid. We place our price for these remedies at less than one-twentieth of the price asked by others for remedies upon which you take all the chances, and we specially invite the patronage of the many persons who have tried other remedies without effect or depleted their purses by paying doctor bills that benefitted them not.

HOW TO OBTAIN these remedies. Go to your druggist and ask for them. If they have not got them, write at once to the proprietors, enclosing the price in money or stamps, and they will be sent you at once by mail, postpaid. Correspondence solicited. Address plainly

POETRY.

THE RECOGNITION.

Adapted from the German.

A wanderer with a staff in his hand,
Returned to his home from a foreign land,
His hair full of dust, his countenance brown;
By whom will the youth first be known in the town?

He entered the town right through the old gate;
Against it the keeper leaned up quite sedate;
The keeper, his friend, was jolly and round,
And often the goblet their friendship had bound;
But see, the old keeper did not guess the truth,
Too hard had the sun burned the face of the youth.

And farther he wandered, now shortly to greet
Some old friend. He shook the gray dust from his feet.
There leaned from the window his sweetheart devout:
"Thou blooming young virgin!" his welcoming shout.
Yet see, the young maiden did not know the truth,
Too hard had the sun burned the face of the youth.

Still farther he went through a street of the town;
A tear-drop hung down from his eyelid so brown;
There tottered his mother from meeting-house door,
"God bless you!" he cried, and yet nothing more.
But see, now the mother was sobbing for joy;
"My son!" and she sank on the breast of her boy.
No matter how deep the sun had left its trace,
The mother-eye instantly knew the young face.

AGRICULTURAL.

HOUSE-CLEANING.

A subject of engrossing interest once or twice a year is that of cleaning the house. A few practical remarks by one who herself engages in it from time to time, may be of help to some one whose experience is limited.

I overheard two elderly gentlemen talking last spring. "Don't you always dread house cleaning time?" said one. "I scarcely ever know when house-cleaning is going on," was the astound ing reply. It was a fact, too, so quietly and with so little bustle is this stupendous thing got along with in that happy man's household. In the first place, it is the part of wisdom to clean one room at a time, and put it in perfect order before disturbing another room. Have the curtains washed and ironed, if they need it, before cleaning the room. It will rest you to know that there is one room settled, and the work there ended. Not to make home hideous, and herself unattractive, should be the cleaner's aim, and it will be a praiseworthy achievement if, in addition to putting the house in good order, she has also been able to live, and let the family live cheerfully and even comfortably, during this period of hard work.

Some weary woman with aching head, with hands burned, scratched and bruised, may think it is asking a great deal of her to expect that she shall pursue the even tenor of her way while she is working twice as hard as usual, and she is working twice as hard as usual, and she is subjected to the many annoyances unavoidable at this time. But it is simply asking her to hoard her strength. It uses up a great deal of vital force to fret and scold while engaged in any hard under taking, and if she feels uncomfortable, or a little ill-natured, let her express herself through the broom and scrubbing-brush.

Do not try to do anything else on the day set apart to clean closets; it is very fatiguing to take out, deliberate over, and put back the usual belongings of a closet. Everything should be thoroughly aired. Have just as few things as possible in the closets opening out of sleeping-rooms; old shoes and soiled clothes poison the air. When the bedrooms are aired each morning, the closet door should be left open, that it may have its supply of fresh air.

If new paper is to be put on the wall, and you have any doubts as to the healthfulness of its coloring, take a piece to a chemist; he can at once, by a simple test, determine if it is wholesome or loaded with arsenic.

After washing woodwork, always wipe it with a soft cloth; this prevents drops of water being left to dry on and to dis color the paint. A danger which all ambitious but delicate women should avoid is trying to accomplish too much in one day. The temptation to do just one thing more, and then another thing, is so great that much firmness is needed to resist it, but we must not yield.

House work rarely hills, but imprudence frequently does. Running out doors with sleeves rolled up and head unprotected when you are heated are needless exposures, certain to be followed by more or less suffering. Every one ought to feel that she is of too much consequence in her family to be laid aside for a day, and she owes it to those who love her, even if they do not say much about it, to take the best possible care of herself.

Sulphuric acid, it is claimed, is a simple but certain test for adulterated butter. Fresh, pure, yellow butter, by the slightest contact with sulphuric acid, turns almost a pure white, while oleomargarine made from tallow changes to a deep crimson red. When lard or other oils are used, the colors are diversified—showing all the colors of the rainbow

The Culture of Beauty.

Although nature alone can produce perfect beauty, art may in a great measure supply nature's deficiencies. We see this instanced in the clearness and lustre imparted to even a sallow skin by GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP. The lady of forty, who uses this beautifier, drops at least ten years of her age. Unlike the dangerous cosmetics which obstruct the pores, it is entirely harmless. See that "C. N. Crittenton, Proprietor," is printed on each packet, without which none is genuine. Sold by druggists and fancy goods dealers.
