CHESTERTOWN:
SATURDAY MORNING.....JULY 8, 1882.

Letter from Millington.

Messrs. Editors:—According to announcement there was a meeting held on Saturday last on the Millington camp ground for the distribution of privileges and the selection of sites for tents, at which a good deal of harmony and enthusiasm prevailed, indicating a large and successful camp. The privilege of the bread stand was awarded to Mr. C. Cummings and the two public boarding tents to Mrs. Martha C. Quimby and Mrs. Julia Mallalieu; the horse pound to Mr. J. H. Hurtt. All the sites for tents on the front row and a number on the avenues, making about forty, were taken. The bread stand will be restricted on Sunday to nothing but the sale of the actual necessaries of life. We deem it useless to comment on the character of the supervisors of the two boarding tents, as their reputation has long been established as caterers of the first rank. The Rev. J. O. Sypherd and Rev. Newton McQuay will tent on the ground with the Rev. R. H. Adams, preacher in charge, which will make a very advantageous and desirable element of the meeting. The grove has improved by the growth and increase of shade trees since the last camp was held there, which, with the addition of four pumps of excellent water, will make it a very pleasant place of worship.

Blackiston's chapel on Millington circuit has recently been repaired and painted, at a cost of $310, and was opened on the 18th of June, at which time $350 were subscribed, leaving in hand a surplus of $40 over and above paying for the improvements. A donation was also made by Miss Annie E. Blackiston of a piece of land adjoining the church, 56 by 250 feet, for horses and carriages. TRAVELER.

REV. DR. SMITH'S EXPERIENCE IN ALEXANDRIA.—Rev. Dr. Smith, pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church, of Baltimore, gives his experiences in connection with the late outbreak in Alexandria, Egypt, in a letter to Mr. W. H. Cole, of that city, a member of his church, under date of Rome, June 22d, as follows: "We were in Alexandria the day of the massacre. It was a bright, beautiful Sabbath morning. Everything was quiet in the city. We went to the mission church, enjoyed the services greatly, and saw no appearance of trouble on the streets. About 3 P. M. the massacre commenced. We looked out on the mob from our windows. The doors of our hotel was fastened and nailed, and all the doors and windows were shut, and the yelling mob had complete possession of the city. No European's life was safe. Houses and shops were broken into and rifled. We saw wild, half-naked Arabs filling the streets, armed with clubs, many loaded with plunder. Hundreds were killed—many shockingly mangled. On Monday morning we made our way to the Galena—American man-of-war—which arrived in Alexandria the same day we did. We were received and treated with the greatest possible kindness, the captain taking me into his cabin, and the officers taking Ritchie into their wardroom. We remained on the Galena from Monday until Saturday before we could get off. We found a place on the deck of an Italian steamer crowded beyond measure, slept on a coil of rope in a corner of the deck, ate what and when we could, and on Wednesday reached Naples in health and safety. Never did the ninety-first Psalm seem so sweet as we read it on the terrible Sunday night in Alexandria, and never was the one hundred and third Psalm read with such emotion as the first night we spent in Naples."

BICYCLE RACE IN THE PARK—Fifty Miles in Less than Four Hours.—A fifty-mile bicycle race for the road championship of the United States took place last Saturday at Druid Hill Park, Baltimore. There were eleven entries from various cities, but only six started. They were Messrs. Chas. H. Jenkins, of Louisville, Ky., and R. H. Foster, S. H. Shiver, Frank Fisher, Chas. Evans and E. W. Williams, of Baltimore. The start was made at 8 o'clock, and for the first fifteen miles the running was very even, Jenkins being in the rear and Foster leading, finishing the fifteen miles in 58 minutes. Shiver, who was suffering from a bruised knee, withdrew at the end of the fifteenth mile, as did Wilcox also. Evans withdrew after the fortieth mile, and Foster after the forty-fifth. Jenkins finished the fifty miles, in 3 hours, 35 minutes and 34½ seconds; Williams in 4 hours, 8 minutes and 27 seconds; Fisher in 4 hours, 24 minutes and 20 seconds. The riding of Jenkins after the fifteenth mile was extremely rapid, easy and graceful. He received a $50 medal; Williams received a $30 medal, and Fisher a silver medal. The presentations were by Mr. B. Howard Haman. The race was under the auspices of the Badgeless Brotherhood, who offered the medals and conferred the championship on Mr. Jenkins.

WHEN a married man dies intestate, his widow has a life estate in one-third of his real property, whether he leaves children or not. There must be an entire failure of heirs on the side of the husband, through all the degrees of inheritance recognized by the laws of Maryland, before the widow can inherit the real property of the husband absolutely, and there must be the same failure on the side of the deceased wife before her real property goes absolutely to her husband. With regard to personal property the law is different. If the deceased husband leaves no child, parent, grandchild, brother, sister, or the child of a brother or sister, his widow gets the whole of his personal estate; if he leaves a child or children, or a descendant or descendants of a child, his widow gets only one-third of his personal estate; if he leaves no children or grandchildren, but leaves a father or mother, brother or sister, the widow gets one-half of the personal estate. When a married woman dies intestate, leaving children, her husband has a life estate in property, real and personal; if there be no children the husband has a life estate in the real and the personal property becomes absolutely his.—Baltimore Sun.

PRESIDENT ARTHUR is a man who appreciates a frank and candid utterance, though it convey an unpleasant truth. It is therefore to be hoped that he receives in good part some of the advice tendered him in regard to the filling of the vacancy caused by Internal Revenue Collector Proud's resignation. There is a story in circulation that a self-appointed delegate called on the President a few days ago, and after stating that his object was to have a good man appointed as internal revenue collector, said: "Mr. President you have given the collectorship of the Port to Mr. Creswell, the naval office to Mr. Garey, the surveyorship and the sub-treasuryship to Congressman Urner—now please do give one office to the Republican party of Maryland." It is said that the President enjoyed this sally of wit very much, but whether he did or did not, it is to be hoped that the President in making the appointment will be impressed with the moral of that brief speech.—American.

INCREASE OF CALIFORNIA FACTORIES.—From all parts come tidings of the erection of new factories, mills and refineries, showing that we need have no fear for the progress of our industries even if the harvest of 1882 be not a very bounteous one. We are depending less every year on the wheat crop and more on general products, new industries and orchards. A number of paying mines have been developed this year which are in private hands and not thrown on to the stock-gambling market. Numbers of new oil wells have been discovered, and the increase in refining petroleum is probably greater proportionately than that of any other branch of commerce.—San Francisco Alta.

THE COMING GLOVE MATCH.—John L. Sullivan has made his final deposit of $750 in the glove match with "Tug" Wilson. The conditions of the fight are that the men shall wear ordinary soft gloves and spar four three-minute rounds, one minute rest between each, under ring rules, at Madison Square Garden, New York, Monday evening, July 17. Sullivan expects to knock Wilson out of time before the four rounds are finished, and if he does so Wilson gets nothing; if the latter succeeds in fighting out the fourth round then he receives the stake, $1,000, and one half the receipts for admission.

MR. BLAINE'S new house in Washington, now nearing completion, will be one of the most imposing private residences in that city. It will receive light through seventy large plate-glass windows. On the first floor are two halls, respectively fifteen and twenty feet wide, running through the house at right angles with each other, and five rooms, about twenty by twenty-five feet in size, all of which, by sliding doors, can be thrown into a single suite. The interior woodwork of the house is of walnut, mahogany, poplar and oak.

"AS a sign of the coming adjournment, writes a Washington correspondent of the New York World, I may without violating confidence tell you that a hunting party for the Yellowstone country is getting up by Senator Bayard and Mr. Perry Belmont, who are going off as soon as Congress rises to join Lieutenant Commander Gorringe for a six week's airing in that magnificent region.

DON CAMERON is said to have made up his mind to take the independent bull by the horns and to reject all propositions for the retirement of General Beaver from the head of his ticket. He is willing to drop some of the lesser candidates, but he will sink or swim with Beaver. It looks just now very much as though Mr. Cameron had tied a stone to his neck.

SENATOR BAYARD has been presented by a new England friend of Webster with one of that statesman's autograph letters.

S. M. SHOEMAKER, of Baltimore county, refused $1,000 for a heifer calf dropped last week from his celebrated cow "Queen of the Farm."

GEO. W. AMESBURG, part proprietor of extensive machine works in Philadelphia, was drowned at Atlantic City, Monday morning, while bathing.

GEORGE E. EATON, democratic candidate for Governor of Vermont, is a practical printer, and is said by his opponents to be "a steady, solid, sensible man."

THE Salisbury Advertiser states that Paul Krantz, assistant cook at the Atlantic Hotel, Ocean City, Md., on Friday night jumped from his window of the hotel, a distance of fifty feet, breaking both legs. It is expected it will be necessary to amputate both limbs. No cause is assigned for the desperate leap.

"HOW DO YOU MANAGE," said a lady to her friend, "to appear so happy all the time?" "I always have Parker's Ginger Tonic handy," was the reply, "and thus keep myself and family in good health and spirits.—See adv.
