

Baltimore Hospital Aug. 28. 1814

The Undersigned Occupiers of the Baltimore Hospital having been called upon by a Deputation of the Committee ^{of Vigilance} & Safety, in pursuance of a letter received from Miss Gen Smith, suggesting the "absolute necessity there is of procuring for the "use of the sick. Empty houses (or in preference
"the public Hospital) in the neighborhood of "Chinquapin Hill" — do take pleasure in consequence of the present exigencies, to tender to the Committee of Vigilance & Safety, to hereby inform them, that they hold in readiness at a moments call, Comfortable House room in their Hospital, for perhaps One thousand persons.
Leaving any compensation to be received hereafter for the same, to be such sum only as the Committee of Vigilance & Safety, appointed by our fellow Citizens, shall say.

Respectfully,

To the Committee of Vigilance & Safety
Balt^a.

Colin Mackenzie for self &
James Smyth