The Republican Citizen.

THE SPIRIT OF THE DEMOCRACY.—Not since the days of Silas Wright has such a degree of enthusiasm been awakened in the Democratic ranks of the State of New York as that which saluted the renomination of Gov. Hoffman at Rochester on Wednesday last. Not only were a hundred guns fired in the place of his nativity—New York city—but all over the State the thunder of artilery and glow of fireworks proclaimed the endorsement of the people. Gov. Hoffman has, therefore, a splendid "send-off." It is somewhat different with the Republican candidate for Governor, Gen. Woodford, who heads a ticket that is received with icicle coolness by even its own supporters in the interior of the State. Hoffman has the inside track, and we have no reason as yet to change the opinion we expressed some time ago—namely that he will be re-elected by 70,000 majority.—N. Y. Herald.
