SATURDAY MORNING.....JUNE 23, 1883.

Never Call Your Father "the Old Man."

BY H. C. CUSHMAN.

'Tis best to always call a spade a spade:
Call things by the right name whene'er you can,
Give man a title according to grade,
But never call your father "the old man."

'Tis best to always call a spoon a spoon;
Though avoid giving offense when you can;
'Tis wrong to call a negro boy a "coon,"
And worse to call your father "the old man."

Oh! never call your sister Mary, "Mollie;"
Give to all their right names whene'er you can;
Mary! blessed name—Oh! don't call it "Polly;"
And never call your father "the old man."

Pray, never call your mother "the old gal;"
Just call her by the dearest name you can;
Now, do not call your sister Sarah, "Sal;"
Never call your dear papa "the old man."

"The old man, the old lady;" oh! 'tis sad
Not to call them by their right names when you can;
Call mother "mam," or call your father "dad,"
But never, never call him "the old man."

Honor father and mother, is God's law;
We all should keep as perfect as we can;
Call your father "paw" and your mother "maw;"
And never call your father "the old man."

HOME REMEDIES.

Mustard is a very valuable remedy. No family should be without it. Two or three teaspoonfuls of ground mustard stirred into half pint of water acts as an emetic very promptly, and is milder and easier to take than salt and water. Equal parts of ground mustard and flour or meal, made into a paste with warm water, and spread on a thin piece of muslin, with another piece of muslin laid over it, forms the often indispensable "mustard plaster." It is almost a specific for colic, when applied for a few minutes over the "pit of the stomach." For all internal pains and congestions there is no remedy of such general utility. It acts as a counter-irritant, by drawing the blood to the surface, hence in severe cases of croup a small mustard plaster should be applied to the back of the child's neck. The same treatment will relieve almost any case of headache. A mustard plaster should be moved about over the spot to be acted upon, for if left too long in one place it is liable to blister. A mustard plaster acts as well when at considerable distance from the affected part. An excellent substitute for mustard plasters is what is known as "Mustard Leaves." They come a dozen in a box and are about four or five inches in size; they are perfectly dry and will keep for a long time. For use it is only necessary to dip one in a dish of water for a minute and then apply it.

A CURE FOR GAPES IN CHICKENS.

A writer in the Country Gentleman gives the following as a reliable remedy for gapes in chickens:

"Take a ripe timothy head (I gather a big handful after harvest, when they are fully ripe, and put them away for use the following summer, but sometimes I can select some out of the timothy hay that has been dry when cut,) then carefully strip off the fuzz, which leaves it looking like a broom splint, except that it is rough. Be careful not to break the point. Then take up the chick, pull out its tongue, and at the root of it you will see the opening of the windpipe, hold the tongue out firmly with the third finger, while you insert the instrument with the same hand, holding the head with the left. Put it down the windpipe straight and carefully until you touch the bottom; then, as you draw it up, turn or twist it all the time, and you will find it filled with small red worms. The chick will soon show signs of relief. A second application is not often necessary. Sometimes, instead of the worms twisting around the stick, it simply loosens them, and the chickens immediately sneeze them out."

"Last summer I cured over one hundred, and I seldom lose one under the operation, except when too far gone at the time I begin."

PROSPEROUS CALIFORNIA.—The San Francisco Bulletin gives the following estimate of the value of the various products of California for the present year: "Wheat, of course, comes first, and its yield is put at 1,200,000 tons, which will be worth $36,000,000. The mines come next with $20,000,000. The wool clip is next in rank, its amount being estimated at 42,000,000 pounds, worth at least $10,200,000. The fruit and vine interest ranks fourth, with a production of $10,000,000. Cattle for market show $4,000,000, and sheep $1,200,000. Dairy products are estimated at $700,000, and flax, silk, cotton, etc., at $200,000. Unclassified products, such as cashmere goat hair, chicory, garden truck, etc., are estimated at $100,000. This makes a total of $82,600,000, or $62,600,000 for agriculture and kindred pursuits. It is estimated that only 150,000 people are engaged in agriculture, and it is asked if any other State can make as good a showing with a similar agricultural population. Vineyard and orchard lands here yield $100 per acre. The prosperous condition of the State is further shown by the fact that, notwithstanding low interest has caused the withdrawal of many deposits from banks, there were January 1, 1883, deposits amounting to $93,042,343.39, against $86,391,519.90 at the corresponding date last year.

THERE is perhaps nothing more deceptive to the imagination than the capacity of a large box—a hollow cube. For instance, ask a friend whether a box containing a cubic mile would hold all the buildings in Philadelphia. Without serious thought or any calculation he would be almost certain to ridicule the idea of putting all of this great city of houses, spread over an area of 129.4 square miles, into a hole a mile square and a mile deep. However, a calculation will show that not only would a cube of the given dimensions contain all of Philadelphia's buildings, but those of nearly a score of cities of the same size. Philadelphia contains upward of 146,000 dwelling-houses, besides nearly 20,000 buildings occupied as churches, banks, manufacturing establishments, etc. Taking the average of all these edifices as 30x50 feet and 30 feet high (45,000 cubic feet, which is a liberal estimate,) we find it would take nineteen Philadelphias, a New York and a Washington to fill this monstrous receptacle.—Philadelphia News.

INTERESTING FIGURES.—Now that the tobacco tax has been cut down one-half, it may be very interesting to know what sum of money this tax has brought the government up to the present time. The figures for this year are not to be had with exactness, but up to May 1st, at which date the reduction took effect, the amount is probably about $35,000,000. From 1862 to 1872 the amount collected on tobacco was $194,000,000; in 1873 it was $34,000,000; the next year, $33,000,000; the next $38,000,000; the next, $39,000,000, and the next (1879), $47,000,000. Since that time it has but once fallen below $40,000,000, and even with this great reduction it will probably reach $40,000,000. In 1878 and 1879 it was $40,000,000; in 1880, after the reduction of the tax, $38,000,000; in 1881, $42,000,000, and in 1882, $47,000,000. The total amount of tax paid on tobacco, up to the beginning of the fiscal year, was $589,477.04, and up to the date at which, the reduction took place was probably about $625,000,000.

AGES OF SOVEREIGNS.—The completion of Queen Victoria's sixty-fourth birthday has led some one in England to compile a statement of the ages of various sovereigns now reigning. From this it appears that the Emperor of Germany is the oldest, being 86, and that the King of the Netherlands ranks next in age, being 66. Then come: The King of Denmark, aged 65; Queen Victoria, 64; the King of Wurtemburg, 60; the Emperor of Brazil, 57; the King of Saxony, 55; the King of Sweden and Norway, 54; the Emperor of Austria, 52; the King of the Belgians, 48; the King of Portugal, 44; the King of Roumania, 44; the Sultan of Turkey, 40; the King of Italy, 39; the Emperor of Russia 38, the King of Bavaria, 37; the King of Servia, 28, and the King of Spain, 25.

A FAMOUS North Carolina clergyman preaching a few Sundays ago from the text, "He giveth His beloved sleep," stopped in the middle of his discourse, gazed upon his slumbering congregation and said: "Brethren, it is hard to realize the unbounded love which the Lord appears to have for a large portion of my auditory."

A MAN RAN advertised a sure cure for drunkenness." He forwarded the necessary dollar, and received by return mail, written on a valuable postal card, in violet ink, the magic words, "Don't drink!"

The New "Economist" Oil Stove,

SOLD BY
HINES & CLEMENTS,

Is the most elegantly finished and thoroughly practical OIL STOVE on the market. The ovens are so constructed that no odor or smoke, which may arise from flame, can affect the Bread, Cake, Poultry, &c., while baking.

The oil tank can be filled while baking or broiling without any interruption. The construction of the ovens, and filling arrangement as well as finish makes the "Economist" superior to any other.

Every family should have one. Call and examine stoves and get prices.

And is a sure cure for DEBILITY resulting from any cause, thinness or sluggishness of the blood, derangement of the Digestive Organs, Diseases of the Nervous System, Typhus, Typhoid and Intermittent Fevers, Ague and Fever, and is the very best counteracter of malarial influences and cure for malarial diseases, and as a nervine and sedative, quieting the nervous system, and inducing Refreshing Sleep, it has no equal. It is endorsed by medical practitioners here and is frequently prescribed by them in their practice, and is considered one of the very best remedial agents known for the diseases for which we recommend it. We challenge the closest scrutiny into its composition and virtues. Read the following:

EXPLANATION OF THE ABOVE MEDICINE.

PHOSPHORUS—Means light, and medically imparts strength and vigor to the system, as the rays of the sun do to animal and vegetable life.

IRON—Is a purifier and enricher of the blood, the most important of the constituents of the human body.

QUININE—Is the Tonic of Tonics, and exercises a powerful and healthful influence upon the digestive organs, and finally STRYCHNIA—In very small proportions (as in this combination) is a most excellent nervine, acting upon and regulating the entire nervous system. Ask your physician about the above formula, and he will say it is good.

Price in large bottles $1; Trial bottles 35c. Pills in boxes $1 per box, or six boxes for $5. Sent by mail to any point, free of charge, upon receipt of price. Prepared and sold by
DAVIS & MILLER,

All sizes of the best grades White Ash Anthracite COAL, and best George's Creek Bituminous Coal that can be purchased. I have made special arrangements for delivery of Coal in cars to any station on the Kent Co. R. R. in quantities to suit the purchaser, at short notice. Will also keep a full supply on hand in my yard, where I will be pleased to see my friends and the public generally.

All orders left at the yard or at Adams' Express office, Chestertown, will receive prompt and careful attention.

Thankful for past favors, hope to merit a large percentage of public patronage.
