

Michael Fry, being called upon ^{as an evidence} and first ¹⁷⁸⁵⁻⁴ duly sworn, did depose and declare that he was employed by Enoch Larrison and Andrew Barge, to frame a wharf for them at the Head of the Basin, from Letters No. 066 & 065, agreeable to the Permission granted them by the Board of Wardens - that the said Larrison and Barge gave this Dependent, positive orders not to exceed the Limits, in the Permission or to ~~the~~ ^{lay down} the said wharf further East, than the Permission specified - that this Dependent hath not, at any time, received instructions, to the contrary from the said Barge and Larrison, or either of them - That he intended, when he laid down the said wharf, to fix it - agreeable to the Permission of the said Board, but that in fixing it, ~~of~~ the said wharf was thrown out, a little Eastward of the Permission - That ^{the wharf was} when he first fixt, the ~~the~~ ^{place} ~~structure~~ ^{where} ~~for~~ ^{suppose} the said wharf -
