MARION deK. SMITH,
DAVID JONES,
JOHN F. BEEKS,
Democratic-Conservative State Central
Aug. 25, 1883. Committee for Kent Co.

THE Kentucky legislature will be composed of thirty-two Democrats and five Republicans in the Senate, eighty-six Democrats and eleven Republicans and two Independents in the House, which gives a pretty safe working majority.

HON. JOEL PARKER, known as the war Governor of New Jersey, has consented to be a candidate for that position again, provided the democrats unanimously tender him the nomination. Mr. Parker is considered the strongest man in his party in that State, and he will doubtless be chosen as the democratic standard-bearer.

MR. T. THOMAS FORTUNE, colored, in a letter to the New York Times, bitterly complains of the bad treatment which his race has received at the hands of white Republicans and says: "I long to see the day when a man's politics cannot be inferred from the color of his skin."

A COUNTERFEIT five dollar gold piece has been submitted to the United States Mint officials at Washington for their inspection. It contains $4.63 worth of gold and is said to be the best piece of work of that character that has ever come before expert notice.

LAST Tuesday was a gala day at St. Michaels, the fete champetre bringing together about 3,500 persons in carriages from all parts of the country, in steamboats from Baltimore, and in sail boats from the country around. The sports comprised a walking match, boat race, potato race, sack race, running race for boys, swimming match, base ball, and shooting match. A handsome prize was awarded the winner in each.

CAPT. RHODES, of Buffalo, N. Y., says he will swim the rapids at Niagara, but stated that no one except his wife and brother should know the date when the attempt would be made. He stated that his main object waould be to obtain the government prize of $50,000, and that if he were successful in the attempt he would build a monument to Captain Webb's memory to cost $5,000, and that the widow of Capt. Webb should have an equal amount.

The Baltimore American on Monday celebrated its one hundred and tenth anniversary by an extra sheet, containing portraits of Wm. Goddard, founder of the Maryland Journal, from which the American sprang, and of Mr. C. C. Fulton, late proprietor of the American. Colonel J. Thomas Scharf also contributes a very interesting history of the paper, which marks the progress of events in Baltimore for over a century. The American is an excellent newspaper, and if its political department was less sensational and conducted with some regard for truth and fairness, it would command more general respect.

THE design for the monument to the memory of Major-General the Baron DeKalb, to be erected in Annapolis, has been approved by the Secretary of State, who, by the act of February 19, 1883, making an appropriation of $10,000, is given the management and control of the monument. The model represents the General in the act of encouraging the troops under his command to greater deeds of valor at the moment he was killed. On one side of the base is to be inscribed the resolution adopted by Congress in 1780 expressing the gratitude of the United States to DeKalb.

ABOUT five hundred persons assembled near Boonsboro', Washington county, Md., last Saturday to participate in the dedication of a handsome monument to the memory of Washington. Prominent among those present were Governor Hamilton, Hon. Lewis Cass Smith, ex-Attorney General Syester, Hon. Buchanan Schley, Hon. Frederick J. Nelson, of Frederick City, the orator of the occasion, and others. The monument is situated on the very apex of South mountain, near the delightful summer residence of Mrs. Admiral Dahlgren, and over-looking the great battle-field of Antietam. It is thirty-five feet high, of native granite, and is surmounted by a lookout which commands a magnificent view of parts of Virginia, West Virginia, Pennsylvania and Maryland. It was projected and built in 1827, but becoming dilapidated by the action of time and vandalism of the soldiers during the war, it was recently rebuilt under the auspices of the Order of Odd-Fellows.

THERE was a trotting race on Tuesday at Bishop's Herring Run course, Baltimore, between Israel Rosenfeld's chestnut gelding Stonewall and J. H. Gheen's gray gelding Douglass, of Washington. The race was for a purse of $1,000, best three in five to harness, mile heats. Stonewall was driven by J. H. Phillips, of Philadelphia, and Douglass by C. B. Coffin, of Washington, both well known jockeys. Over a thousand persons were presents, among whom were a number of ladies, and several well known sporting men from Washington, Annapolis and Philadelphia. The first heat was won by Douglass in 2.25¼, and the next three by Stonewall in 2.26, 2.27¼ and 2.26. Stonewall has a record of 2.24¼.

In the race at Bishop's Herring Run trotting course on Monday between Emory's Cyclops and Nelson's John F., Cyclops won in three straight heats; time 2.29, 2.30 and 2.27.

GET REGISTERED.

We desire to earnestly impress upon Democratic voters the great importance of being promptly and properly registered. The officers in charge of this important matter give due notice of times and places of registration, through our columns today, and it behooves every Democrat, who becomes of age before the November election, as well as those who are of age and have neglected to register heretofore, to go and get their names placed upon the lists. And we sincerely trust that at the conclusion of the present registry there will not be a Democratic voter in Kent county whose name is not found duly and properly placed on the books of registration.

SERIOUS INJURY.—Walter, aged about eleven years, son of Mr. H. H. Corson, of this town, was kicked on the head by a horse at Mr. G. W. Skirven's on Friday of last week. The cork of the shoe penetrated the skull just behind the ear, causing an ugly wound from which the blood flowed copiously. Dr. Merritt was summoned and dressed the wound. The child was somewhat better yesterday, and hope is entertained of his recovery.

TO THE "Zoo."—One of the most attractive excursions of the season is that for the benefit of the Galena circuit Sunday Schools to Philadelphia and the Zoological Gardens, to take place next Thursday. Children, as well as most grown persons, have a particular fondness for rare animals, and the Zoo contains perhaps the most varied collection to be seen in the United States. Let all the parents go along, and take their children with them. It will be something for them to think and talk about in after life.

LARGELY ATTENDED.—The festival and supper at Mr. J. H. Raymond's on Tuesday evening is said to have been the most numerously attended of any held in the county this year and was a decided success, nearly two hundred dollars having been realized. It was a highly joyous occasion—a bounteous supper was served, and the company engaged in dancing and boating.

RUNAWAY.—The horses attached to Mr. Thomas Massey's peach wagon became frightened on Tuesday, ran down High street, turned into East Front and took up at the river. No person was hurt, but the wagon was somewhat damaged.

LARGE SALE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY.—Mr. Wm. Ford, intending to abridge his farming operations, will sell on Friday, September 21, a large number of horses, mules, oxen, cows, calves, hogs, shotes, pigs, &c. Adv. next week. *

IT is the duty of the people of our county to support their county fair and thus make it a success. Each one should contribute his or her mite, as only by this means can the fair be made a success.

THE new postal notes, for transmission through the mails in sums less than five dollars, will be ready September first. They will cost three cents and will be found very convenient for the purpose for which they are designed.

A TERRIBLE CYCLONE in Minnesota Tuesday wrecked the town of Rochester, killing and wounding a large number of persons. Between Rochester and Zumbrota a train was blown from the track, many passengers killed and all more less injured.

THE convention of Peninsular Bankers, in session last week at Ocean City, adopted a resolution forming a permanent organization known as the Peninsular Bankers' Association. J. J. Hall, cashier of the Centreville bank, addressed the convention. Discussions took place upon the best methods of conducting the banking business. It was resolved to hold the next meeting at Wilmington, Del., on the 2d Thursday in next May.

POLITICAL MEMORANDA.

The Dorchester Democratic convention on Tuesday nominated the following ticket: House of Delegates, Dr. J. H. Houston, W. T. Staplefot, Zora H. Brinsfield; State's Attorney, D. M. Henry, Jr.; Orphans' Court, S. S. Ewell, Col. F. Kirwan and Thomas Lecompte; county commissioners, Thomas A. Trice, Edw. P. Smith, A. H. Skinner, Jeremiah Linthicum, C. C. Fallin; county treasurer, Wm. T. Johnson; surveyor, Thos. F. Thomas. The following were elected delegates to the State convention: Hon. Henry Lloyd, Col. Clement Sulivane, Dr. George P. Jones, Capt. Samuel M. Travers. The delegates are anti-Hamilton. The county convention declared for E. W. Lecompte, of Dorchester, for comptroller.

The Democrats of Somerset county on Tuesday made the following nominations: For the Senate, Dr. Geo. Paul Jones; House of Delegates, Col. Henry Page, John H. Miles and H. Frank Chelton; clerk of the Circuit Court, William S. McMaster; State's Attorney, Joshua W. Miles; sheriff, Alfred B. Turpin; county commissioners, W. W. Walter, Fred. A. Gunby and George A. Bounds; judges of the Orphans' Court, Wm. M. P. Long, John S. Langford and L. D. Lawson; surveyor, Thos. Williams. The following delegates were elected to the State Convention: Jno. Miles, John S. Sudler, Rufus W. Dashiell and Thomas Dixon, Jr. They are for Dr. Gale for comptroller and anti-Hamilton.

The primaries in Talbot and Caroline will be held today and the county conventions Tuesday.

The Hagerstown Weekly News says: The fact is, the opposition to Governor Hamilton, which, recent developments show is general throughout the State, arises not so much from disagreement with him as to measures of reform as to those things which ought to be done. It is founded upon his peculiar methods of doing things, his dictatorial manner, his intolerance of the honest opinions of others, his political proscription of those who venture to hold views in any degree antagonistic to his own either upon questions of party policy or party management, and the arrogant assumption, on the part of himself and his friends, that he and they are the only honest and fair-minded Democrats in the party.

The Baltimore Sun has the following in regard to Democratic politics: "In view of the warm struggle upon which the party is preparing to enter it is not probable that many Maryland Democrats will fail to have their names placed among the registered voters. The Democrats in their canvass expect to do a good deal of the work which usually falls to the presidential year. The candidates on the State ticket will be men of ability which is recognized beyond the borders of their State. Strong men, both at home and from abroad will enlist in the campaign, and the fight will be to have Maryland in line for the contest of next year, when the Democrats expect to win a national victory."

The Easton Ledger says: The Republican papers are trying to get much comfort from Gov. Hamilton's letter. They think it will bring grist to their mill. There is one assertion that Gov. Hamilton made though, that no Republican paper reproduces. He said that the greatest possible evil that could happen to the State of Maryland would be to have the political power pass into the hands of the republicans; and that if ever they get a chance to put into effect their corrupt political practices in the counties of the State they will fasten like leaches upon the State's material prosperity. If once they get the power in the State, said the Governor, they will hold it by colonizing in both the Eastern and Western shore counties, negroes enough to carry every election for years to come. When the Governor criticises his own party, the republican press magnifies what he says. When he rasps the republicans, the republican editors are as dumb as oysters.

LARGE PEACH RECEIPTS.—The Baltimore Morning Herald of Wednesday says:

Yesterday was a red-letter day, so to speak, on Light-street wharf. Twenty-seven thousand boxes of peaches were received, and at the early morning opening of traffic a slight indication of depression was noticed in the market, but by noon the wharves were pretty well cleaned up, packers and shippers absorbing the bulk of the stock. White varieties sold for 60 cents to $1.25, yellows $1.40 to $1.65. Though some few lots of choice fruit from noted orchards were received yesterday, the better quality of fruit will not come in until next week. Smocks are expected in a week or ten days, when the packers will commence on the standard brands for which this market is so well known. A prominent packer stated to a reporter that he would duplicate his purchases of yesterday at an advance of ten per cent. He considered the crop about half an average one. Comparing the receipts this year with other years, he mentioned the glut of 1875—for one week the daily receipts averaging 110,000 boxes when the packers bought as low as ten cents per box, and in 1879, when another glut occurred, the average daily receipts for one week being 55,600 boxes.

REV. DR. SAMUEL R. GORDON, rector of St. Thomas' Episcopal Church, Prince George's co., Md., died Sunday night, aged about 70 years.

Mr. T. W. Wickes has come home after a sojourn of more than three weeks at Saratoga and other resorts, improved in weight and appearance.

John F. Beeks, Esq., and family, of Still Pond, have returned from Atlantic City.

Mr. Geo. W. Rodenhizer, and family, of Still Pond, have been enjoying the attractions of Ocean City.

M. deK. Smith, Esq., wife and children, Mrs. J. W. Hines and daughter Lucy, and the Misses Power of Millington, are at Cape May.

Mr. Frank Hodgkins is spending a week at Penmar.

Mrs. W. Hudgins, wife of our well known Cross street baker and confectioner, has been in Ohio a month past, visiting relatives and friends.

Rev. F. T. Little, the former popular pastor of St. James, now of Easton, was in town last Tuesday. He has been spending some time, with his wife and child, in visiting members of his old charge in Worton.

Misses E. R., Matilda and Laura Rasin, left for Emmitsburg on Monday morning last, where they will spend the remainder of the summer.

Mrs. M. H. Meeteer and daughter Madge are at Emmitsburg in Western Maryland.

Mrs. Dr. Geo. Perkins and children, are spending the summer in Virginia.

Mrs. E. B. Highley, of Port Kennedy, Pa., is visiting relatives and friends in Kent.

Rev. F. S. Houston, Rev. Benj. Elliott and Rev. Mr. Estlim are spending some time with Mr. Lucas Aldrich at Great Oak Manor farm, also the Misses Bird and Samson, of Wilmington, Del.

The many friends of Miss Nannie Bordley and her sister Delmar, will be glad to learn that they are now convalescing from their long and serious illness of typhoid fever. They were both taken about the same time with this dread disease and for a time there was apprehensions of serious consequences. They will both go to the seaside or the mountains as soon as in condition to travel.

Rev. E. P. Aldred and wife left here on Tuesday morning for a two weeks' vacation at Ocean Grove and other places.

Miss Lula Harris is fast improving from her late sickness, and will leave in a few days for the Blue Ridge Mountains.

Judge Wickes has gone to the Virginia White Sulphur Springs, where he proposes to spend a month.

Mr. C. G. Woodall, editor of the Transcript, has been away this week on the excursion of the Peninsular Press Association. No doubt a good time was enjoyed. We regret that pressing engagements prevented us from meeting our brethren of the fraternity on this occasion.

Mr. A. W. Hawks, the gentlemanly manager of R. F. Briggs & Co.'s Baltimore carriage bazar, was in Chestertown on Tuesday and made a social call. He says advertising in the NEWS pays well, as he has been doing a thriving business with our county people.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE TO BE SOLD.—On Tuesday next at the Voshell House, in Chestertown, R. Hynson, as trustee, will offer the "Green Point" farm on Worton creek.

On the same day and at the same place, C. T. Westcott, as attorney, will offer the farms of J. J. Hurlock and Mrs. Annie E. Wallis, both finely located in the second election district.

C. H. Baker, as trustee, will offer at the same place and on the same day several valuable building lots situate on Mill and Cannon streets, Chestertown.

On Tuesday, Sept. 11, C. T. Westcott, as trustee, will offer at the Voshell House a farm on Lankford's bay, in Broad Neck.

Jas. T. Lamb, adm'r, will offer at Fairlee on Sept. 5th a house and lot near that village. See advertisements.

THE GOOD PRICES realized in the cities now for peaches proves the shortness of the crop. The market was a little demoralized in Baltimore on Monday morning, as also in the Northern cities, but recovered promptly upon the receipt of fresh fruit and better qualities. Prices in Baltimore during the week ruled about as follows: Red, best, from $1 to $1.50 per box; medium to poor 50c. to $1. Yellow, best, from $1.25 to $1.70; medium $1.25. There will not be enough of the late varieties to supply the demand—the crops in Kent being particularly short—and prices must consequently keep up. The comparatively few of our growers who have a full crop this year are certainly fortunate.

THE PEACH GROWERS along the Chester river and tributaries are efficiently served this season by the boats of the Chester River and Enterprise lines. Besides the regular steamers of the two lines other well equipped boats have been put on by them, and the fruit is put in market promptly. The Enterprise line has admirable wharf facilities in Baltimore. The same may be said of the Sassafras river line, Worton creek and Tolchester. Kent county is certainly blessed in her transportation facilities.

TWO VENDUES in Kent this week were noted for the large attendance of people and fine prices realized for stock.

At Mr. Wm. H. Pennell's one of his black mares was purchased by Mr. Ed. Crew at $252, and the other by Mr. Wm. Duyer for $201. A pair of mules was bought by Mr. Walter Sutton, of Gresham Hall for $377.

At Mr. H. C. Hendrickson's some very fine cattle was sold. Two Hereford cows brought $100 each, purchased by Mr. J. P. Hendrickson; another was purchased by J. N. Usilton, Esq., at $97; a calf five months and eleven days old, sold for $47 to Mr. J. F. Whittington, and another a year old brought $75.

PHOSPHATES.—Mr. Hickman, the agent for the I. P. Thomas Fertilizers, is again in Kent. His advertisement in this issue should be read by every farmer in the county. Read it carefully before closing your order for fertilizers elsewhere.

Connelly & DeFord advertise in this issue their well known "Imperial" phosphate.

THE prospect for a good corn crop in Kent is very promising. The late rain and warm weather was just the thing needed to give big ears to already well-developed stalks, and we are much mistaken if the general yield this season is not exceptionally large.

AQUILLA FOGWELL, an employee of the railroad, of this town, had his right arm badly crushed at Black's station, on Saturday last. While changing the link of the coupling the car came back and caught his arm just below the elbow. He is out again at this writing.

ANOTHER of those delightful lessee's family excursions to Cape May will take place next Wednesday.

MR. F. B. ARNOLD advertises for peaches and apples delivered at his new drying factory at the depot.

DIED:

In Chestertown on the 9th inst., MARY J. S., wife of George W. Johnson, aged 20 years.

Her death was just what every one who knew her expected it would be, and what every one wants his or her's to be, peaceful and triumphant, her sun going down in the midst of a cloudless sky, one of the clearest tests of the blessedness of those "who die in the Lord."
