In the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's County in Equity. Chancery No. 1615

The object of the Bill is to procure a sale of certain real estate particularly mentioned in the Bill, being the real estate comprising the trust estate created under the will of Elizabeth J. Keating late of Queen Anne's County, deceased, for the purpose of partition and to sell the same free of the liens thereon and to distribute the proceeds of sale among the parties interested therein both as co-parceners and lieners according to their respective rights therein.

Paragraph 1 of the Bill states that Elizabeth J. Keating, late of Queen Anne's County, deceased, died in the year Eighteen hundred and sixty-two, leaving a last will and testament duly admitted to probate by the Orphans' Court of Queen Anne's County and recorded in Liber S. T. H. No. 1 folio 233, a will Record Book for Queen Anne's County.

Paragraph 2 of the Bill states that by Item 6 of said will said Elizabeth J. Keating disposed of the residue of her estate including the real estate mentioned in this cause to her son, Thomas James Keating, in trust for certain purposes mentioned in said Item 6.

Paragraph 3 of the Bill states that said Elizabeth J. Keating died, seized and possessed of said real estate and described same as two parcels: a lot of land on the southeast corner of Commerce Street and Railroad Avenue in Centreville, improved by a combined store property and dwelling and lot; and a lot of land on the north side of Water Street in Centreville improved by three store houses.

Paragraph 4 states that said Thomas J. Keating took possession of said real estate and continued to administer the trust until his death in the year Eighteen hundred and ninety-eight and subsequent to his death the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's County, in Equity, took jurisdiction of the trust and appointed J. Fletcher Rolph and Thomas J. Keating, II, Trustees to carry out the trust in a proceeding entitled "In the Matter of the Trust Estate under the Will of Elizabeth J. Keating, late of Queen Anne's County, deceased" No. 1615 on the Chancery docket of said Court.

Paragraph 5 of the Bill states that the Testatrix' three daughters all survived her but the daughter Mary Ellen, who married one Chambers, died about the year 1909, without ever having had issue and therefore without issue surviving her and the daughter Margaret Ann never married and died about the year 1912 and left no issue surviving her.

Paragraph 6 states that the last surviving daughter, Martha Johanna Weedon (nee Keating) died on February 27, nineteen hundred and thirty-six leaving as her only issue surviving her a daughter, Ada R. Rolph, a daughter, Mary W. Dulany, a daughter, Lena W. Turner, and a son, William K. Weedon; that said Martha Johanna Weedon was twice married and had other children but none of said other children survived her nor did any of said other children leave issue surviving them.

Paragraph 7 states that the trustees, J. Fletcher Rolph and Thomas J. Keating, II, continued to conduct the aforesaid trust estate from May 30, 1903, to February 1, 1932, when said Thomas J. Keating, II, resigned and the aforesaid court appointed Thomas J. Keating, III, (herein called Thomas J. Keating, Jr.) co-trustee with J. Fletcher Rolph and said J. Fletcher Rolph and Thomas J. Keating, Jr., have continued to conduct said trust estate up to the present time.

Paragraph 8 states that on December 4, 1922, the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's County, in Equity, authorized J. Fletcher Rolph and Thomas J. Keating II, Trustees to borrow Four thousand and six hundred dollars ($4,600.00) by the way of mortgage on certain of the real estate belonging to the trust estate, the loan to be used to pay off a previous mortgage on the property and to make certain improvements to the property.

Paragraph 9 states that said Trustees borrowed Four thousand and six hundred and fifty dollars ($4,650.00) from Alfred M. Green and executed to him a mortgage for said sum on certain of the aforesaid real estate and said mortgage is now held by A. Marion Green and M. Isabel Green by assignment, and a certified copy of the mortgage and assignments is filed and that although the interest has been regularly paid on said mortgage there has been no payment on account of the prineipal.

Paragraph 10 states that said Martha Johanna Weedon and her children, who were then living, on the 19th day of September, Nineteen hundred and twenty-four joined in a mortgage of their respective interests in said real estate to the Centreville National Bank of Maryland and said mortgage is now held by assignment by William R. Horney, Robert E. C. Lowe, and David D. Taylor, Trustees, and that there has been no payment made on account of the principal mortgage debt and the interest is in arrears.

Paragraph 11 states that by reason of the death of said Martha Joanna Weedon the said Ada R. Rolph, Mary W. Dulany, Lena W. Turner and William K. Weedon are seized and possessed of the aforesaid real estate, as tenants in common subject to the two aforesaid mortgages.

Paragraph 12 states that the defendant, William T. Bishop, is the holder of a certain judgment against Ada R. Rolph in the amount of Three thousand and three dollars and thirty-nine cents ($3,003.39) with interest from February 28, Nineteen hundred and thirty-one and costs and commissions of One hundred and fifty dollars and seventeen cents ($150.17), said judgment being No. 20 Appearances, January term, 1931, in the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's county.

Paragraph 13 states that the real estate cannot be divided among the parties entitled thereto without loss or injury to the parties owning interests therein and that it will be to the interest and advantage of the parties owning the same or interested therein either as co-parceners or lienors, to have said real estate sold and the proceeds arising therefrom divided among the parties interested therein according to their respective rights therein, the sale or sales thereof to be made free, clear, and discharged of the liens of the two aforesaid mortgages and said judgment, said liens to be preserved as against the proceeds arising from said sales.

Paragraph 14 states that Ada R. Rolph is an adult and is married to J. Fletcher Rolph, that Mary W. Dulany is an adult and a widow, and that Lena W. Turner, is an adult and a widow.

Paragraph 15 states that all of the defendants are adults and reside in Queen Anne's County except William K. Weedon and Lillian K. Weedon ,his wife, who are non-residents of the State of Maryland, residing in Wilmington, Delaware.

The bill prays:

1. That the aforesaid real estate may be sold and a division of the proceeds arising from the sale or sales may be had among the parties owning same or interested therein, both as co-parceners and as mortgage and judgment lienors, as hereinbefore set forth, according to their respective rights therein.

2. That the plaintiffs may have such other and further relief as their case may require.

It is thereupon this 29th day of April, Nineteen hundred and thirty-six, ordered by the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's County, in Equity, that the plaintiffs by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper printed and published in Queen Anne's County, Maryland, once in each of four successive weeks before the 30th day of May in the year Nineteen hundred and thirty-six, give notice to the said non-residents defendants of the object and substance of this bill warning them to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor on or before the 15th day of June, next, to show cause if any they have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
