ORDER of PUBLICATION

HAMPTON E. BROWN, et al vs.
EDITH C. BROWN, et al

In the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's County, in Equity. No. 3081

The object of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of certain property in Queen Anne's County, in this State, which was devised by Margaret W. Wright, late of said county, deceased, unto Edith C. Brown for and during the term of her natural life and then to the heirs at law of said Margaret W. Wright, said heirs at law to be ascertained at the time of the death of her, said Margaret W. Wright.

The bill states that the said Margaret W. Wright died testate in the year 1911, seized and possessed of a tract of land consisting of two farms situated in the Sixth Election District of Queen Anne's County aforesaid containing 557 acres, 2 roods and 13 perches of land, more or less, and which is particularly described in said bill.

That said Edith C. Brown has been adjudged non composementis and is confined in Springfield State Hospital, and that Madison Brown and Edwin H. Brown, Jr., have been appointed her Committee and Trustees for the management of her property.

That said Margaret W. Wright was a widow at the time of her death and left no descendants but was survived by a brother, Wilmer Emory, who has since died leaving surviving him three children, Ida E. Hurst, a widow, who resides in Baltimore, Maryland, Wilmer Emory, who resides in Washington, D. C., and who is a non-resident of this State, and Margaret W. Bridgeman, intermarried with Victor H. Bridgeman, who reside in New Haven, in the State of Connecticut, and who are non-residents of this State; C. J. B. Mitchell, Edith C. Jones and M. Ella Mitchell, since deceased, H. B. W. Mitchell, M. Madeleine Davidson, F. D. Lee Mitchell and R. Mildred Mitchell, children of a deceased sister of said Margaret W. Wright, and Edith C. Jones, a daughter and only surviving descendent of the aforesaid Edith C. Jones, deceased; Hampton E. Brown, intermarried with Eliza F. Brown, who reside in Queen Anne's County, Maryland, the said Edith C. Brown, Marian W. Wright and Howard McL. Brown, children of a deceased sister, and Adelaide Brown, widow, and Margaret Roberts, intermarried with Franklin Roberts, Madison Brown and Charles W. Brown, children of Joel Brown, a son of a deceased sister who died intestate.

That the buildings on said land are in a dilapidated condition, the dwelling on the main tract has been destroyed by fire and not replaced and the land is in a very poor state of cultivation and there is no money in hand to improve said land or pay State and County taxes which are due and in arrear and that it is to the advantage of all parties concerned that the said real estate be sold, and the procedes of sale invested under the direction of the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's County, in Equity to enure to the same parties and in like manner as by the said last will and testament is provided.

IT IS THEREUPON, this 20th day of May, 1936, ordered by the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's County, in Equity, that the plaintiffs, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper, published in said Queen Anne's County, once in each of four successive weeks before the 22nd day of June, 1936, give notice to said absent defendants of the object and substance of this bill, warning them to appear in this Court in person or by Solicitor, on or before the 10th day of July, next, to show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

Resolution Of Respect

Whereas it has pleased Almighty God, in His wisdom, to call from our midst Clayton Wright, who, for many years served The Good Will Fire Company as President.

And whereas, by his untimely demise, the said Good Will Fire Company has been deprived of the wise counsel, unerring devotion to duty, and able leadership of its late President, who was so largely responsible for the efficient conduct of the Company.

Now therefore, be it resolved by The Good Will Fire Company, that the membership of said Company is deeply grieved at the loss of Mr. Wright and that as a mark of respect and esteem, this resolution shall be spread upon the minutes of the Company and a copy thereof shall be sent to his family.
