SATURDAY MORNING.....Oct. 6, 1883.

THE MACLIN CASE.

A Little Bit of Pertinent History.

It was in 1864, at a time when a majority of the best citizens of Maryland were disfranchised and when bayonets bristled around the polls, when this Mr. Hart B. Holton, now the republican candidate for Governor, was a candidate for the State Senate from Howard county. His opponent was Dr. Littleton Maclin, an honored citizen of the county, who, despite the fact that a reign of terror prevailed at the polls, was elected by a majority of 136 votes. Instead of submitting to the will of a majority of the people as expressed at the polls, Mr. Holton appealed to the Senate for admission, not because he believed that he had been elected, but simply because he knew the power of his party and how utterly unscrupulous the men were who sat in the Senate of Maryland. He preferred charges against Dr. Maclin of being a secessionist and sympathizer with the rebellion, and claimed in consequence that he was ineligible to his seat in the Senate. The sequel is generally known, but it is well at this time to recall the fact that Dr. Maclin was expelled from his seat, and on Februrary 16, 1865, Hart B. Holton was, through force and fraud, given his seat. Mr. Holton drew Dr. Maclin's pay for two years, amounting to $1,000. There are few such evidences of a deplorable disregard for honor and principle to be found on record. Mr. Holton's late canvass in the Fifth district was in keeping with the senatorial record. As everybody knows, his nomination at the primaries was secured by the boldest and most unblushing frauds which were denounced at the time and since by members of the Republican party.

A REPUBLICAN'S OPINION

OF THE REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR.

Col. C. Irving Ditty, a prominent republican of Baltimore county, and recently collector of internal revenue, expresses himself as follows concerning the republican nominee for Governor:

"I most unhesitatingly say it is the weakest ticket as a whole the republican party has ever put up. Mr. Holton's nomination is a party indorsement of fraud. He is a man who had no previous political record that was at all creditable, and was entirely unknown prior to his nomination last fall, except as Mr. Gary's brother-in-law and as having been seated in the State Senate, not because he was elected by the popular vote, but because of the alleged disloyalty of his successful competitor, Dr. Maclin. Holton's nomination last fall was procured by open outrageous fraud and violence, and his election was due, not to his popularity or strength, but to that of other candidates on the ticket, and to the further fact that there was great dissatisfaction in the democratic ranks in the fifth district. There is nothing in Mr. Holton's past record or personal character that will give him strength with the people.

"Mr. Holton will spend a good deal of money to secure his election. At a party meeting held at the Carrollton Hotel on September 16, 1883, Mr. Gary stated that if Mr. Holton was nominated the party fund would not be called upon to conduct the campaign, as he would furnish all the money necessary.

"I do not think the republican ticket will get any of the democratic vote which belongs to the reform element of that party, for Holton is confessedly and plainly the equal in wrong doing to the very worst member of the democratic ring. I think there will be a great deal of money spent in the campaign, but that neither party will cast its full strength even for an off-year vote. The reform element of the republican party will largely stay at home. In fact, a great many have told me so, and a number have said they will cut their tickets."

The Maclin case to which Col. Ditty refers relates to the State election of 1864, when Holton was candidate for election to the State Senate from Howard county, and was defeated by the democratic candidate, Littleton B. Maclin. Holton contested the election, and on February 3, 1865, the State Senate, by a strict party vote, placed Holton in Maclin's seat, on the ground "that Littleton Maclin was not duly elected as Senator for Howard county, being disqualified by the 4th section of artice 1 of the constitution of 1864, (for alleged 'disloyalty,') and is therefore not entitled to a seat in this body."

SOMETHING FOR THE COLORED MAN TO THINK ABOUT.

The Baltimore Vindicator, edited by a colored man and published in the interests of the colored race, comments as follows upon the recent action of the Republican State Convention:

"The Baltimore city primaries and the State Convention have been held, the State Central Committee has been elected, and the State ticket has been nominated, also all the county tickets. The battle has been fought; now we come to consider the out-come so far as the negro is concerned in the matter—his love for the party has been so great that he, as usual, has given all the positions of worth to our absorbing white brothers.

Dr. Brown, Isaac Myers, and others of the leaders of the race have been left out and made to stand aside. This time all the unimportant offices have been given the race as usual, such as one president of one of the wards, few vice presidents and treasurers of wards, while the great demands of the race have been spurned.—Now can such actions on the part of our white brethren be longer continued and they retain the influence that they desire over the colored vote—Never. "Those whom the gods would destroy they first make mad," and the political wrangle now going on between the white bosses of the post office and custom house, as to who shall have the best right to pull the negro about and control his vote, is only the beginning of the great fight of the future when the true friends of our race will come in between the two factions; and while they are fighting, a negro that the negro race delights to honor, will sound the alarm and with the music of liberty direct the future of the race in Maryland.

The sum total of the primaries has been given and it is White Man all; Negro Nothing; White Man Smart; Negro fool; White Man as usual; Negro as usual. Our white republican brethren, after the adjournment of the several conventions, met and after prayer by their "Friday," they delightfully sang in full chorus the following:

A charge to keep I have,
A Negro to Maintain,
A never dying thirst for power,
To bind him with a chain.

To serve the present age,
Our pockets we must fill,
We'll make them work for wages,
And never pay the bill.

Arm me with jealous care,
To make him know his place,
And now the "Fridays" all prepare,
To rule the negro race.

Help us to rob and cheat
The "Niggers" on the sly,
Assured if they don't vote for us,
They shall have no fish to fry.

Of course the singing of these beautiful stanzas effected Henry Stockbridge, so that he will retire from the State Central Committee. Lingenfield wept bitterly, and says he shall never be comforted, too much "Chalk" for him in his ward. Cresswell will have many "claims" in Washington to attend to, so many that even he will forget to say Holton; and it will continue to be a "protracted meeting" of factions, and the end will finally be reached to which your attention, reader, will be called in the future; it behooves you in the meantime, to stand across the street and shout, "Hurrah for the Custom House!" "Hurrah for the Post-Office!"

The Cambridge Chronicle, published at the home of the republican candidate for Comptroller, gives the following facts for the consideration of colored voters:

1st: That while the Republican party was in power in Maryland it gave to the colored schools their pittance of taxes paid by colored people, and that alone, not sufficient to run for three months in the year one fourth of the number of schools now run (and ever since the Democracy came in power) from six to eight months.

2d: That the Democracy gave them not only their taxes but $100,000 per annum in addition, and they retain the same to this day.

3d: That Dr. W. A. Smith, the Republican candidate for Comptroller, opposed with all his might and voted against in the legislature this munificent aid to colored education.

VIEWS OF "A YOUNG DEMOCRAT."

Messrs. Editors:—The time draws near when we will be called upon to elect State and county officers, and to the laboring classes, who are always in the majority, will rest the responsibility of putting those in office—that is if such an unfortunate result should ensue as the election of the republican ticket—who notoriously ignore the laboring man's every interest. It is the republican party which contrives to make the poor classes pay taxes on every dollar which they are worth, while the rich, with half their possessions in bonds and other non-taxable property, grow rich in wealth and power with unexampled and dangerous rapidity.

Such a state of affairs cannot, and I am sure will not continue to be borne with meekness and indifference by the poorer classes. There has not been a single case in past history where such a state of affairs did not force upon the poorer classes the necessity for the assertion of their rights, as a majority, in the making and the administration of the laws of their country. And woe be to that country if the rich, grown indifferent by unlimited and despotic power, disregarded the repeated evidences of discontent and disaffection among the people. Every act of the Republican party has been in favor of the rich, in favor of powerful railroad magnates, who rejoice in the sobriquet of king—and as far as their wealth is concerned are justified in the title. In favor of vast manufacturing monopolies, who are able by a discriminating and unjust legislation to force those poorer and less favored out of competition. In favor of a hungry horde of land-grabbers, whose sole aim is to possess the entire area of public lands owned by the people. In favor by its declarations and actions of a centralization of power and a curtailment of the rights and powers of the States, granted by the constitution and laws of the country. In favor of a timid and wavering foreign policy, that causes our most humble requests to be treated with marked indifference and contempt. A party who by its legislation fosters foreign shipping at the expense of our own, where we once did, and there is no reason why we should not now, lead the world with the number of our vessels and tonnage. We are forced by an unjust protective tariff, in favor of half a dozen ship builders to take the second or third place, where we should lead.

There is hardly a crime or misdemeanor on the statute books of which it is not guilty, yet year after year they come before you seeking your suffrage, with civil service reform and political purity hoisted to the masthead. This party with the persistence of a confirmed toper annually declares its purpose to abstain from past errors, and with all the venom of an apostate inveighs against those who would doubt their sincerity, but, alas! for their declarations, for—

"Like the snow falls in the river;
A moment white, then melts forever."

Let ye in your hands whether you will place this party, your inveterate and persistent enemy in power, or, rally to the support of that grand old party that has bravely withstood for nearly a century the evil breath of calumny and detraction. Whose every act has been the mitigation and advancement of the laboring classes. A party who has always consulted the best interests and welfare of the whole country, and not of a single class. Whose fearless foreign policy commanded for us the respect due a country of our size and importance. Whose commercial policy placed us in the van as a maritime power, and whose simple and inexpensive administration of the affairs of government brought peace and prosperity to the whole nation. Can you hesitate as to which of these parties you owe your suffrage? No; and when the time comes we will score another victory for democracy and honest government. "A YOUNG DEMOCRAT."

QUEEN ANNE'S DEMOCRATIC TICKET.—The delegates selected under the "jury plan" assembled in Centreville on Tuesday and nominated the following ticket:

Senate—Wm. T. P. Turpin, present incumbent. House of Delegates—Wm. H. Legg, A. J. Gadd, Wm. E. Barton. County Commissioners James Denny, John F. Godwin and W. H. Cecil. Judges of Orphans' Court—Wm. H. Newnam, Samuel T. Earle, John Dodd. Sheriff—Thomas Sudler. Register of Wills—T. Alfred Bryan. State's Attorney—P. B. Hopper. County Surveyor—L. L. Beatty.

The first ballot for Senator stood—Turpin 14, Finley 14, Legg, 6, and on the fourth ballot Mr. Turpin was nominated. For House Delegate the first ballat stood—Gadd 14, Dudley 14, Busteed 17, Roberts 4, Sudler 8, Legg 33, Barton 16. For Register of Wills, first ballot—Temble 10, Green 7, Bryan 12, Nickerson 6. Mr. Hopper was nominated for State's Attorney by acclamation. The Observer thus speaks of the new plan:

The people of this county have just had their first experience with the new system of drawing delegates to the nominating convention, and with the exception of a few persons, the plan gives satisfaction. It contains all the essential elements of fairness, and although in the wheel of fortune those names may not come out that we hope to see come, yet no man can say that he has not had an equal chance with every other man to secure a delegation favorable to him. With an impartial central committee, bent only upon doing its duty as it understood it, and with an executive committe determined to do the same, the lists have been carefully scrutinized, and the names of delegates and alternates fairly and honestly drawn. The result is that a fairly representative convention has been called together to put forth a ticket. All the aspirants and others have submitted their chances to the new plan and all have been fairly dealt with. All have fared alike, and a delegation has been drawn from each district as good as delegations usually are and without any of the antagonisms and heart burnings incident to a primary contest. The thing has worked smoothly thus far, and people have had no occasion to become excited and bitter or to proclaim unfairness and fraud. All agree that the thing has worked honestly and well.

The Record says: "Of course there are many who are disappointed at the outcome of the convention," but "the personnel of the ticket presented by it is unexceptionable and must command the united and hearty support of the Democratic masses."

THE PEACH SEASON OF 1883 PROFITABLE TO THE GROWERS.

A despatch from Wilmington, Del., to the Philadelphia Ledger of Monday says: The peach season of 1883 is now practically ended, only a few car-loads a day passing over the Delaware Railroad, and most of these to supply the canneries. Before the peaches were fully grown Mr. Mills, the Superintendent of the road, estimated that the peaches likely to pass over the road would amount to about 3,000,000 baskets, but so far the number carried will reach 3,250,000 baskets, and of these the canneries and evaporating establishments along the line of the Delaware road purchased about 1,000,000 baskets, and paid for them a higher price than ever before. This was owing to the fact of the extra quality and dryness of the fruit. Last year but three pounds of evaporated fruit could be obtained from a basket, but during the present season the average was from 5½ to 6 pounds. The evaporators were, therefore, enabled to pay sixty cents per basket, and make a larger profit than when they paid only from twenty to thirty cents in 1882, and at the same time furnishing a better article.—During the season just closed the peach trains, during August and part of September, aggregated from 100 to 175 cars per day, each car holding over 500 baskets. The business this year was also somewhat different from previous years, and the fact that most of the peaches were purchased at the station, at prices that afforded the growers, a larger profit than has been realized for many years. There were also purchasers from the West as far as Chicago and Indianapolis, and from these two points peaches were sent to places that have not heretofore been reached. The same was the case in the shipments made East. The prices obtained were unusually high, but few selling at the shipping stations for less than sixty cents per basket, while some of Reeves' Favorite brought $1.50 per basket, and which were on several occasions sold as high as $5.00 per basket in Boston. The shipment of berries over the Delaware road, early in the season, was also very large, in one day 127 car loads of strawberries having been sent to various parts of the country.

GEN. BRADLEY T. JOHNSON, the noted Maryland reformer, made a great speech in Annapolis last Wednesday. His opening sentence was as follows:

"I believe that no greater disaster can befall the people of this State than for it to pass into the control of the Republican party, therefore I am here to do what I can to prevent such a calamity."

And his closing thus:

"Mr. McLane's public service and great experience, and his pride of character and his ability, all give assurance that he will be a true leader of the party, for the good of the people and the preservation of the power of the Democracy in Maryland.

RAPE.—On Tuesday week a negro named Robt. Wisher committed a rape upon a white woman named Evaline Adkins, aged 50 years. Mrs. Adkins lives with Edward Pleasanton, on the White Oak farm, about four miles northeast of Dover, and Wisher, who is a married man and lives with his family in a tenant house near by, went to the farm house, the family all being away but Mrs. Adkins, and told her that the dogs were killing the turkeys down in the woods. She went to the woods followed by Wisher, where he accomplished his purpose. Wisher is from Maryland and about 28 years old. The Sheriff went to arrest him, but he ran, and although several shots were fired at him he still remains at large.—State Sentinel.

JOHN B. DEPUTY, living a few miles southeast of town, picked 14½ baskets of peaches from one tree and 13½ baskets from another. They sold at 50 cents per basket.—Milford News.

BALTIMORE MARKET.—The Baltimore papers of Friday quote as follows:

WHEAT—Longberry $1 10@1 15; Fultz $1 13@1 13 for fair to good. CORN—White, prime 60@62; yellow, 63@64. OATS, Maryland, 37.

BUY THE

CHAPMAN & LAMBERT

Iron Frame Cultivator,

For putting CORN GROUND in order for Wheat.

We made great improvements in our Cultivators for this Fall's trade. Every tooth is adjustable and guaranteed not to choke in any filth or corn stubs.

We have the finest lot of best Cultivator TEETH we ever had. We made some this fall that are stronger than any made before by us.

CHAPMAN & LAMBERT.

The "Splendid"

FIRE PLACE HEATER

is one of the handsomest, heaviest and most complete Heaters ever offered to the trade. The Fire and Feed Pots are put together in sections and when any part wears out it can be replaced by even a child, without moving stove or taking out a bolt, thus saving considerable expense. It is altogether practical in construction, and beautiful in design and finish.

We take great pleasure in offering this Heater to our customers feeling confident of the genuine comfort it will afford them. Mr. R. J. Foard has used two of the above heaters for several years and will recommend them to any one. Call and examine them at

HINES & CLEMENTS',
Sept. 8-tf. adjoining Kent Nat. Bank.

SAVE THE EXPENSE OF BUILDING A BRICK CHIMNEY

Our Fire Clay Chimney Pipe does not rust nor crack by heat nor crumble from frost. It has been used ten years for dwellings, schools, churches, &c. No danger from fire, as it does not communicate heat to wood. Insurance companies have decided it to be a safer chimney than brick. Any one can put it up. A complete chimney costs from $5 to $10, according to height of building. This is no experiment. Thousands are now in use all through the South. Bases supplied for use with fire places. ☞ Send for descriptive circular with full information.
