In Memoriam

THOMPSON—In loving remembrance of my dear husband, son and brother Herman who departed this life one year ago, October 1st, 1935.

More and more each day we miss him
Friends may think the wound is healed
But they little know the sorrow
Lies within our hearts concealed.

Loving and kind in all his ways,
Upright and just to the end of his days,
Sincere and true in his heart and mind,
Beautiful memories he left behind.

By His Wife and Father.

When a brother breathes his last farewell
The stroke means more than tongue can tell,
The world seems quite another place
Without the smile of brother's face.

There is some one who misses you sadly,
And finds the time long since you went,
There is some one who thinks of you always
And tries to be brave and content.

By His Sisters Agnes and Myrtle.
