ESCALLOPED POTATOES

6 medium -sized potatoes
2 tablespoons flour
4 tablespoons butter
Milk
Salt and pepper

Pare raw potatoes and cut them into thin slices. Place in a baking-dish a layer of the potato one inch deep, season with salt and pepper, sprinkle with a portion of the flour over each layer, add a part of the butter in bits. Then add another layer of the potato and seasoning, as before, and continue until the required amount is used. It is advisable not to have more than two or three layers because of difficulty in cooking. Add milk until it can be seen between the slices of potato, cover and bake one and one-fourth hour, or until potatoes are tender when pierced with a fork, removing the cover during the last fifteen minutes to brown the top. Serve from the baking dish.

ITALIAN BEEF HASH

2 cups cold roast beef
¼ cup macaroni
¾ cup grated cheese
2 tablespoons flour
2 tablespoons butter
1 cup meat stock or water
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
Salt and pepper

Cut cold roast beef into dice. Cook macaroni in boiling salted water until tender. Place macaroni in a baking dish, pushing it to the sides. Fill the center with diced beef. Sprinkle with grated cheese. Brown the flour by stirring over a hot fire in a dry skillet. Add the melted butter. Add meat stock, salt and pepper and Worcestershire sauce. Pour over meat and macaroni in casserole dish and bake for thirty minutes in a moderate oven (350° F.)
