CHESTERTOWN:

SATURDAY..... OCT. 22, 1887.

A SPLENDID MEETING

THE DEMOCRATIC RALLY A GRAND SUCCESS!

LARGE ATTENDANCE—BRILLIANT SPEAKERS—GREAT ENTHUSIASM!

The Democratic mass-meeting in Chestertown last Thursday was everything the most zealous Democrat could have desired—except in the weather. The people came from far and near, and every promise made by the State central committee was fulfilled. JACKSON, the noble standard-bearer of the Democracy, for Governor, was here! WHYTE, the man whom every true Democrat admires, and who is so valiantly carrying aloft the old flag, was here! and BAUGHMAN, the third on the State ticket, and a regular "little giant" of Democratic strength—and one of the most popular men in Western Maryland, was also here! GORMAN, the great leader himself, promised to be here, but people said he would not come and the doubters questioned the certainty of his presence, but he too was here! And, to cap this sheaf of splendid oratorical talent—of political and personal worth and statesmanlike ability—came also WEEKS—Thomas C. Weeks, the honored representative of the workingmen of Maryland!

These names included an array of talent seldom surpassed at a political meeting anywhere in Maryland and not often equalled in Kent, and their presence here and the speeches they delivered will long be remembered.

The heavy rain prevented an outdoor meeting and at noon the preparations therefor were suspended, and the court-room used, though it was not near large enough for the occasion.

Senator Jackson and Col. Baughman came over from Centreville on Wednesday evening, and their headquarters in the Voshell House parlors were thronged with Democrats until a late hour. Next morning the two distinguished visitors spent several hours in the clerk's office, and were greatly gratified in shaking hands with so many of our citizens both from town and country.

Senator Gorman and Mr. Weeks came over from Baltimore by way of Buck Neck, reaching here at 2.30 on Thursday just before the meeting was called to order. They were accompanied by Hon. J. K. Hines.

Dr. S. Beck, chairman of the State central committee for the county, called the meeting to order and announced the following officers:

President—James Alfred Pearce. Vice-Presidents—1st district, Col. R. C. Johnson, Stephen Boyer, C. J. Scott. Second district, Jas. W. Hurtt, John F. Beeks, Alday Clements. Third district, W. W. Stephens, Lucas Alrich, Capt. Ed. D. Crew. Fourth district, Harrison W. Vickers, J. W. Loud, Henry T. Massey. Fifth district, R. Bennett Willson, Capt. Isaac S. Rogers, Samuel Burgess. Secretaries—Benj. M. Hazel, T. E. Hayes, W. W. Duyer, T. S. Bordley and George L. Maslin.

Mr. Pearce accepted the position of presiding officer in a short but earnest and eloquent speech, in which he eulogised the distinguished candidates on the State ticket and pressed their claims to the support of every true Democrat. He also referred in burning words to the fact that there was a time when he with hosts of others in this county were denied their rights as American citizens—when they were degraded and humiliated. And this same Republican party which is striving for the ascendancy in Maryland and in Kent, is the party which perpetrated those crimes and disgraced our whole commonwealth.

the candidate for comptroller, was then introduced by Mr. Pearce. The gallant colonel has always been a great favorite with the people, and is more popular now than ever. He was received by a hearty round of applause, and made a most eloquent and telling speech.

During the colonel's speech Gorman and Jackson entered the room and the audience received them with a great outburst of applause. "Three cheers for Arthur P. Gorman," were given with a will, and then three more just as hearty followed for "Elihu E. Jackson, the next governor of Maryland!"

Colonel Baughman said "That sounds like a regular old Federick county yell!" He then proceeded with his speech and kept up the enthusiasm to the close.

was then introduced. Another round of applause greeted him. He said from no county in Maryland had he received more consideration and favor than from Kent, and this was the first opportunity he had ever had to address her people in a public meeting. He came not to make an eloquent speech, but to have a plain business talk. His life had been a laborious one; he had not been one of those selected to do the talking on the hustings; the wisdom of party management, at least according to some of our leaders, had consigned him to other duties, for Irishman like, if he opened his mouth he might put his foot in it. He said he believed in politicians, and he belonged to the ring—had joined the ring when 21 years of age, had been a member ever since and hoped he ever should be. That Ring is the great Democratic party. He can't be swayed from the high purpose in view by this clap-trap talk of ring. This Democratic party, or ring, if you please so to call it, is aiming to strike down the infamous conspirators against our people's best interests. What these conspirators did not charge him with would be easier told than the many pleasant things they did say about him. The question—the simple question—now is whether you will reinstate the Republican party, not only in Maryland, but in the nation. Hampered as the Democratic party has been it has recovered from the greedy corporations millions of acres of lands squandered under Republican administrations. Twenty years Republican legislation has placed the very liberties of the people in the hands of corporate monopoly and the Democratic party has since its accession to power been engaged in a conflict to rescue and make secure the people's rights. The New York World is engaged with Gould in this great conspiracy against the people. They must first beat Cleveland and the party before they can succeed, and they are giving their best efforts in this direction. The late telegraph deal was brought about in a way that will—when the light is turned on—brand John Cowen with infamy. Maryland has lost a half million dollars and Baltimore city more than two millions by this man's recent railroad doings!

Senator Gorman referred to the "Keyhole Knights" and [illegible] doubtless heard much more than [illegible] The audacity and the desperation of Cowen is manifest in his reckless vilification of trusted Democratic leaders. Even Henry D. Fernandis is not spared. If these slanderers did not follow him with their abuse—if he could not each day read in the morning papers some line of unfavorable criticism he would think he had done something wrong!

Senator Gorman dwelt at some length upon the advantages to be gained by a constitutional convention, and claimed that more than two millions of dollars would be saved to the people by such a convention at this time. He spoke for a full hour in an earnest, impassioned strain and was listened to with breathless interest by the crowded audience. At its close was introduced and made a model speech. He said, in his plain, matter-of-fact, business-like way: If I am elected Governor I will execute to the best of my ability all the duties of the office, honorably and equally to all sections and individuals.

The meeting then adjourned for supper.

NIGHT MEETING.

At 7½ o'clock the court-house was again crowded notwithstanding the heavy rain.

HON. WM. PINKNEY WHYTE was the first speaker. He too received a perfect ovation, and his speech was just such as only Pinkney Whyte can make. For nearly two hours he kept his audience in wrapt attention to his eloquent utterances or convulsed with laughter by his inimitable wit. We regret very much our want of space to give fuller extracts from his splendid speech. Twelve years ago he spoke from this same stand, and he looked even younger, happier and more vigorous on this occasion than then. He said he had never been inoculated with "independentism"—never been so disappointed as to scratch a Democratic ticket; he went the whole hog, bristles and all! He had for a time lost somewhat the run of politics—had been consigned to a political tomb and some affecting epitaphs had been inscribed thereon! He was not ashamed of the circumstances under which this retirement came. A glorious cause resurrected him. The New York World and certain other Northern and Western journals take more interest in us than in their own affairs. The World thought it all right to charge that Maryland was being governed by the "criminal classes" but when a contemporary charged that very same World with being run by a murderer it cried out in horror!

Judge Black used to say a man's party is like his mother. The mother is sometimes a little cross and will switch us but she is the same dear old mother yet! He had received no consideration whatever by the present administration. He couldn't get from it as much as a cut to catch a Republican mouse. And Gorman knows it. But I'm as good a Democrat as he is for all that! We intend to stand by Jackson and the hickory tree, with the harp thrown in. The other side can have the lyre! I want to see Cleveland renominated and re-elected if I have to sit on icebergs for four years more!

Senator Whyte referred to the dark days and the outrages of '63, and said whenever he did this the "independents" would plead the baby act! But he could not forget it. And knew that some of the best citizens of this town and county were dragged from their homes and sent off to Baltimore in the night. You know the men that did it. [A voice—It was Gen. Fish.] Mr. Whyte—It was more like a whale! All were required to vote the Union League ticket or none. The colored man was given the ballot to serve the Republican party; they were so much chattel, and these people have found it out at last—at least in Baltimore—and begin to kick, and when they do kick they kick hard—they kick like a mule. They will no longer allow the Hunnicut bosses there to use them. They want to know how many will be made policemen, how many registers of voters, &c. Brooks hadn't time to answer—he had to attend the Pimlico races, and Bartlett referred them to his letter, which had nothing in it!

It was late when Governor Whyte closed and we were very apprehensive for the next speaker. It would take most extraordinary gifts to hold the audience so late upon such an inclement night and after such a speaker as Whyte.

THOMAS C. WEEKS

was equal to the emergency. The people wanted to hear this champion of the laboring masses, and all hung upon his eloquent words with continued and unabated interest from his commencement to his close. His perorations were really sublime and his appeal to the people to support the Democratic ticket as the only safeguard to the laborer cannot but be effective of good.

The meeting closed and the people dispersed in the very highest spirits. The Kent Cornet Band rendered excellent music between the speeches.

WORK has been commenced in the north Mount Vernon Place Square, on Charles street, Baltimore, for the foundation of a pedestal for a statue of Chief Justice Taney, the gift of Mr. William T. Walters. The statue is a duplicate of the famous bronze Taney statue by Rinehart in the State Capitol grounds at Annapolis. It was cast at Munich from the same models and at the same establishment that did the original, and it has arrived from Europe.

THE trial of Walter L. Kilton, charged with felonious assault on Miss Henrietta S. Powell, July 4, 1887, at Locust Point, took place in the criminal court of Baltimore last week and resulted in a disagreement of the jury, seven for conviction and five for acquittal. The vote did not change from the first ballot. The jury was out nearly forty hours. Kilton was taken to jail, where he will remain until the case is tried again or otherwise disposed of.

JOSIAH A. SMACK was instantly killed and James Cummings, colored, seriously injured on the Delaware, Maryland and Virginia Railroad, near Showell's Station in Worcester county, Md., on the 14th inst. They were returning home on a railroad velocipede and were run into by a special train running at a high rate of speed.

THE advisory board of Plymouth Church has selected Rev. Dr. Lyman Abbott to serve as pastor until a permanent successor to Rev. Henry Ward Beecher is chosen. Mr. Abbott was Mr. Beecher's friend, and had been intimately identified with the great divine's intellectual work for nearly thirty years.

STEPHEN W. RAWSON, president of the Chicago Union Trust and Savings Bank, was shot as he was leaving a church in that city last Sunday by Wm. Lee, his stepson, aged seventeen. It is said that the boy's mother had been charged by her millionaire husband with unfaithfulness to her marriage vows.

THE trial of Dow Mister for the murder of Elijah H. Sterling was ended at Princess Anne, Md., Saturday afternoon and resulted in the acquittal of the prisoner. The jury were out only a few minutes before they agreed upon their verdict. The verdict is almost universally thought to be just.

TRAIN robbers are not having it all their own way in Texas just now. In an attack on an express messenger and clerk on the Galveston, Harrisburg and San Antonio express, near El Paso, on the 14th, two of a gang were killed outright and the others fled.

THE Baltimore and Ohio Telegraph Company, as an independent, competing concern, formally ceased to exist on Saturday last, and its affairs are now under the management of the Western Union.

THE trial of Mrs. Emma Farlow, indicted at Princess Anne, Md., for the murder of her husband, Jonathan J. Farlow, has been postponed until next April term of court.

Is there a city in this country where the church attendance is more general than it is in Baltimore? We think not, and yet there are a great many people here who ought to go to church, and who don't go.—American

Is the fact that they "don't go" attributable to that other fact that the city is "ruled by the criminal classes?"

The Gunning Season.

The game law for Kent county passed at the last session of the Legislature provides: "It shall not be lawful for any person or persons in Kent county to shoot, kill or catch, or in any way entrap any partridges or quail in said county between the 24th day of December and the 1st day of November in each year; nor any woodcock between the 1st day of February and the 4th day of July in each and every year; nor any rabbits between the 24th day of December and the 1st day of November in each and every year."

Non-residents of the county are required to procure a license from the clerk of the circuit court, for which the sum of $4 is charged, and no person is allowed to sell or ship game outside of the county without a license to do so.

Any person found trespassing upon lands whose occupants or owners have advertised against trespassers may be arrested by any officer and be fined the sum of five dollars, and sent to jail for failure to pay.

Just here it may not be out of place to offer a word of caution to sportsmen. A great many farmers object to gunners going upon their lands to hunt; they have been annoyed and injured by such trespass, and beside that they count the sporting privileges of their farms as of value to themselves, just as their fruit and their grain, poultry or stock, are their own, and no one has a right to disturb them in the enjoyment of the one any more than in the other. A number have already published notices cautioning gunners from trespassing upon them, and those who disregard such notice do it at their peril. The law is ample and stringent for the protection of farmers against all trespassers. Therefore gunners will only be on the safe side by obtaining permission from the owners or occupants of lands to hunt thereon.

No Separate Ballot.

The Democratic State Executive Committee has revised its original recommendation as to the manner of voting on the question of a new constitution and now advise, as the law is of doubtful construction, that the words "For a Convention" and "Against a Convention" should be printed on the ballots containing the names of the State and local candidates and that only one ballot-box should be used.

Three Queer Acts.

The temperance convention last week did three peculiar things:

1—They asked for the appointment of Temperance and Republican judges of election.

2—Made certain nominations, and

3—Then declared they would vote as they pleased!

The Republicans Not So Generous.

The Republicans were not as liberal toward the temperance people in making their request for judges as the latter were for them. They only asked for the appointment of Republican judges. Possibly they did not see the propriety of extending their request further. But one good turn deserved another. The temperance convention asked for the appointment of Republican as well as Temperance judges. Why should not the Republicans have been equally interested for them?

The Contest in Baltimore.

The election in Baltimore takes place next Wednesday. The contest is one of the warmest for years and both sides express confidence of success. We believe the Democracy will win. They ought to. The city's best interest will be served thereby. Latrobe has been tried and no man can say he was not true to every official trust. Turn the city over to the Cowen crowd and her business prosperity will not be as well assured.

"They Cawnt Do It, You Know!"

Leading colored voters of Baltimore have been moving for THEIR RIGHTS and RECOGNITION in future political favors. We publish an interesting article in another column from the city dailies. Messrs. Bartlett and Brooks, the candidates for Mayor and Governor, were asked by these colored voters what their attitude toward them would be if elected. Bartlett replied that he could not make any promise, and Brooks put them off with a promise of a future hearing. And this is the last of it with him, also. They can't afford to publicly promise to make policemen and road supervisors out of their colored supporters. These votes can be held without it, and after the election the poor colored voter will sing as usual to the Republican boss:

He sif' de meal—he gimmy de hus';
He baked de bread—he gimmy de crus';
He bile de meat—he gimmy de skin,
An' dat's de way he tuck me in.

THE Baltimore Sun in closing an article on "the political situation" says: "The democrats of this city and State will never willingly surrender its authority into the hands of those who have never failed to abuse power when confided to them. The train of evils which has always followed in the wake of republican rule will again darken our lives if by our own fatuity we call it back. The necromancer who summoned an unclean spirit to his aid could neither banish nor control it afterwards, and it is not at all likely that the party which in order to retain power in 1876 brought us to the very verge of another civil war will surrender the State in 1888 if they secure it now."

THE presidential party reached Atlanta on Monday and received an enthusiastic reception. On Tuesday the President was escorted to the Governor's room at the Capitol, where Governor Gordon received him and presented to him the visiting Governors of various Southern States, the Supreme Court of Georgia, the Governor's staff, the members of the Legislature, the municipal authorities and the resident federal officials. This ceremonial having been concluded, Gov. Gordon, accompanied by Senators Brown and Colquitt, conducted the President to the exposition grounds, where a speech of welcome was made, to which the President made a fitting reply. The warmth and loyalty of the reception given to the President of the United States by the Southern people are beyond question.

SANITARY CONFERENCE.—A sanitary conference under the auspices of the Maryland State Board of Health will be held in the hall of the Medical and Chirurgical Faculty, northwest corner St. Paul and Saratoga streets, Baltimore, on Wednesday and Thursday, November 16 and 17. The object of this conference is to awaken an interest in sanitary matters throughout the State, by bringing together for consultation all who feel an interest in public and personal hygiene, and who desire to diffuse among the people such information as may secure exemption from avoidable causes of diseases and local epidemics. The authorities of towns, villages and counties, and citizens generally, especially physicians and clergymen, are cordially invited to attend and take part in the deliberations.

THE new M. P. Church in Centreville will be dedicated to-morrow. Rev. J. J. Murray, D. D., will preach in the morning and Rev. D. L. Greenfield at night.

PREACHERS' MEETING.—The M. E. ministers of this section of Easton district met in the M. E. Church, Chestertown, on Wednesday afternoon. Sessions were also held on Wednesday evening and Thursday morning. There were present during the meeting J. France, P. E.; J. D. Rigg, of Sudlersville; J. A. Arters, Church Hill; J. W. Poole, Queenstown; J. B. Merritt, Crumpton; C. A. Hill, Centreville; R. K. Stephenson, Millington; E. C. Macnichol, Still Pond; N. McQuay, Rock Hall; J. M. Lindale, Pomona, and J. D. Kemp, Chestertown. The sessions were private except that at night, when the best manner of promoting and conducting revivals was discussed.

DEATH FROM PARALYSIS.—Mr. John W. Carroll, one of the bailiffs of the Kent county court, was stricken with paralysis while attending to his duties in the court-room between one and two o clock on Monday last. He walked across to Mr. John H. Greenwood, another bailiff, to ask a question, and while conversing with him was observed to be agitated and tremulous. He made his way back to his seat and went into the petit jury room, followed by Mr. Greenwood, and in attempting to sit down fell to the floor. Dr. Beck, the clerk to the court, was hastily summoned and at once pronounced it a case of paralysis. Mr. Carroll was conveyed to his home in a carriage and medical aid summoned, but he soon became speechless and unconscious, and remained in that condition until six o'clock Thursday morning, when he expired. He was within a few days of completing his 75th year. The deceased in early life carried on the tailoring business in Chestertown, and afterwards became constable and auctioneer, and has perhaps called more sales than any other man that ever lived in the county. For thirty years or more he has been a bailiff to the Kent county court. He was a member of the Methodist Protestant Church and enjoyed thoroughly the respect and confidence of the community in which he had so long lived.

SALES OF PERSONAL PROPERTY.—Wm. N. E. Wickes, Esq., will sell at Buck Neck on Wednesday, Nov. 2, the personalty of Jas. G. Herberd, consisting of valuable stock and farm implements.

THE administrators of the late John W. Ireland will sell on Wednesday, November 16, at the late home of the deceased, the personal property belonging to the estate. There will be offered a splendid lot of horses and cattle, beside the usual large collection of farm machinery used on a large farm.

THE festival and supper by the "Young People's Association" at Stam's Hall this week has been a most pleasant affair. The supper on Thursday evening was very fine and reflects credit upon the ladies in charge.

MR. WALTER S. HILL, of this county, who is in the commission business in New York, has purchased a large lot of apples in Connecticut and is engaged in packing and shipping them to market. He has with him in the apple packing George Gill and John E. Willis. Mr. Hill's venture so far has been a successful one, the apples bringing good prices.

ON account of rain on Thursday the Union festival at the fair grounds will be continued this (Saturday) afternoon and night.

Personal Mention.

The circuit court opened with a full bench Wednesday morning. Hon. John M. Robinson, chief judge, came up on the "Ford" Tuesday and Judge Stump arrived Monday evening, both looking well.

Albert Constable, Esq., of the Cecil bar, was in attendance upon our court this week. You may bet there's a railroad case on hand when you see Constable around.

Rev. S. B. Tredway, of St. James', preached the dedicatory sermons last Sunday morning and evening, at the Ashland M. P. Church in Queen Anne's county.

In coming down the court-house steps on Thursday night Sheriff Hatcherson fell and broke the small bone of his left leg. He will probably be confined to the house for a week or more.

Clinton Cook, Esq., of Caroline, with his wife and two children, are guests of Mr. T. W. Russell, in Chestertown, this week.

Mr. D. U. Dewees, of Kennedyville, has been confined to his house for two weeks past by sickness.

Dr. Boone will speak next Sunday at Shrewsbury Church at 11 A. M., and at St. Andrew's Chapel, Galena, at 7 P. M. on Medical missions in China.

Rev. L. E. Barrett, of Port Deposit, has accepted a call to the Odessa M. E. Church.

A Brilliant Wedding.

HURTT—DERINGER.

Miss Alice Hurtt, daughter of James W. Hurtt, Esq., of Locust Grove, this county, was married on Wednesday at 11.30 A. M. to H. Clay Deringer, of Phillipsburg, Pa., formerly of Philadelphia. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Walker at Shrewsbury P. E. Church, and was a brilliant social event. The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, and was met at the altar by the groom, who was accompanied by W. F. Childs, of Philadelphia. Preceding the bride and her father were three small girls dressed in white and three bridesmaids and groomsmen—Julian Hurtt, Locust Grove, and Miss Rena Hurtt, of St. George's, Del.; Woodland Deringer, Phillipsburg, and Miss Florence Hurtt, of Locust Grove; Chas. O. Cacy, of Millington, and Miss Kate Kennard, of Baltimore. The ushers were Messrs. Woodland Hurtt, of Kent county, and Everett Wallis, of Baltimore. The organist was Master Romie McCulley. The bride wore a white silk, en train, tulle veil and flowers. The bridesmaids wore white silk dresses and carried bouquets of dahlias. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Many valuable presents were received. At five o'clock the bride and groom took the train at Masseys for a trip to Buffalo and Niagara Falls, N. Y., and will return via Rochester, N. Y., to Phillipsburg, Pa., where they are to reside.

THE two cells in the county jail from which prisoners have escaped have recently undergone a thorough ironing. The ceiling and sides have been lined with boiler iron; the windows grated; and the doors and jams changed to iron, so that now they will be as secure as the iron cells on the lower floor. The county commissioners think this will do away with the necessity for a wall around the building which would entail a much heavier cost.

THE thirteenth annual convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Maryland will be held in the hall of the Y. M. C. Association, Baltimore, on Thursday and Friday, October 27 and 28, 1887. The address of welcome will be made by Mrs. Baker, of Baltimore, and the response by Mrs. A. C. Jewell, of Cecil county.

THE prohibitionists in Queen Anne's county have nominated the following ticket:

House of Delegates—James R. Dill, Jas. T. Anthony, Walter F. Harman.

Clerk—James E. Bailey.

Levy Court—Richard J. Carter, Joseph H. Richardson, James Clay Stevens.

Orphans' Court—Robert E. Cahall, Isaac Winchester, Washington W. Nelson.

Sheriff—William H. Hopkins.

THE Second District Democratic Club will meet at the Town Hall in Kennedyville on THURSDAY evening of next week instead of Tuesday evening. An eloquent speaker will address the meeting. Every one interested in the success of the Democratic party is invited to attend.

If you want to see a fine selection of Carpets call to see Crane Bros., 423 E. Baltimore street, near Gay, for goods are very cheap and pretty this fall. See adv. *
