CHESTERTOWN - NOV. 5, 1887

Letter from Fairlee.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Rev. Bro. Lindale delivered a practical and excellent sermon on last Sunday at Salem Church on the greatness of the work of the church, Nehemiah 7, 3. The attendance was not large, the attention was close and the result should be good. It is surprising how small a matter will detain some folks from the house of God. A little fleecy cloud, a casual visitor, a little pain in the toe nail, a slight ache in one eyebrow, any trivial excuse is sufficient, yet none of them would be thought of in a money making or pleasure seeking. Bro. Tredway is in the midst of a protracted meeting now at St. James'. There was a full attendance on Sabbath night at the commencement service. This brother is indefatigable in his work and needs more help, I judge, than he gets. One week's labor was devoted to Worton Chapel, resulting in two additions to the church. Another week was given to Lynch's, with what result we do not know. This week is appropriated (not limited) to St. James', to be extended to many weeks if necessity shall require.

Are the old landmarks of Methodism passing away? In many localities the class and experience meetings have disappeared, while the old rousing camp has flitted to seaside and other fashionable pleasure resorts quite out of the reach of the poor sinner. Truly the world passes away and the fashions thereof. Will the church festival go also? Perhaps it ought. The Great Teacher wanted money once; he got it from one fish and did not eat it either. The temperance meeting at Salem on Monday evening was well-attended and many names were added to the union. Mrs. Black was peculiarly happy in her address, and the music was fine—particularly touching was the solo, "Where is my boy to-night?" sung by Mrs. Agnes Kendall and a full chorus in which the voice of C. H. Hurlock could be distinctly heard. We are justly proud of our Charlie. Mrs. A. S. Skirven presided at the organ. Mrs. B. L. Legg presided over the meeting with grace and dignity. Mrs. Black, at the request of the presiding sister, explained after her admirable address the object of the organization, more especially in relation to the department of juvenile work, stating that children too young to comprehend the full extent of the pledge were admitted to membership and instructed in the nature of the obligation and the effect of stimulants and narcotics and claimed that there could be no reasonable objection to such instruction.

Oct. 25. SIMON SHARP.

THURMAN ON THE STUMP.—Ten thousand people assembled at Kenton, Ohio, Saturday last, to hear a speech from ex-Senator Allen G. Thurman on the political issues of the day. The venerable statesman was in excellent condition, and spoke with remarkable vigor for one of his years. In discussing national issues Mr. Thurman said: "I tell you one thing. If the government does not quit piling up money at the rate of $100,000,000 per year, we will soon have to be trading coon skins to get our bread. And there is nothing more corrupting than this condition of affairs. It leads to all sorts of schemes in Congress for its expenditure." In referring to President Cleveland, Mr. Thurman said: "Now, my friends, I have seen a great many Presidents in my day and have read the history of all of them, and on my honor as a man, bound to tell the truth, a more honest, braver, truer, man never filled the presidential chair. It was said that if he was elected the country would be ruined, but even John Sherman must say that the sun still shines, the rains still falls and the corn still grows. He possesses in a marked degree that superior faculty of common sense and gains every day in the estimation of the people; so much so that when his first four years are up the people will say, 'You have done well with the trusts placed in your hands. You have acted wisely, and now you can take your seat for four years more.'"

CHAIRMAN JONES' HOPES.—Mr. B. F. Jones of Pittsburg, chairman of the republican national committee, was interviewed on Saturday on the general political outlook by a correspondent of the Philadelphia Press, a recognized republican organ. Mr. Jones anticipates a break in the solid South during the approaching presidential campaign. He said, according to the correspondent of the Press: "We have hopes of five States, the two Virginias, Maryland, Tennessee and Florida. The present defection of the respectable element of the democratic party of Maryland will, I think, result in a republican victory, and I can see no reason why there should not be a similar result one year later." Defection of the "respectable element" is good. Mr. Jones undoubtedly voices the expectations of the republican party of the country, however, on Maryland going republican in the presidential contest should it go republican this fall. But there is not much comfort in this for those so-called independent democrats who are now flying as the tail of the republican kite, and who protest they will be for Cleveland in 1888. Mr. Jones' declarations demonstrate the folly of their course.—Balt. Sun.

A BARBER asked Bill Nye what caused his baldness. He replied that the top of his head grew faster than the hair.

We also have a Kid-top Shoe for Ladies at $1.25 a pair, but please bear in mind that when you buy a pair of $1.25 kid-top shoes of us you will not get our $1.75 shoe, as we only advertise what we can and will do and nothing more.

LIME, HAIR, WHITEWASH BRUSHES, &c. We are selling the W. J. Lime, which is said by both carpenters and masons to slack at least one-fourth more than other lime, and having made a special contract for same would like builder as well as whitewasher to call and get prices.

We also have Wm. Lea & Sons, C. A. Gambrill's, and other brands of FLOUR, which we are selling by the Pound, Bag or Barrel as cheap as it can be bought in the city for the cash, as we sell Flour by the barrel for the CASH ONLY.

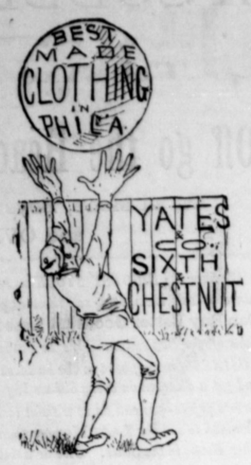
May 7, 1887. W. C. A. THOMPSON.



Coal, Coal.

TO OUR FRIENDS AND PUBLIC.

THINKING that our brother Coal merchant might put some false impressions into your minds in reference to having the best coal sold in this market, we must state that we don't agree with him. While we don't claim to have better than our competitor, we do claim to have as GOOD COAL AS IS SOLD ON THIS OR ANY MARKET. There is no Coal that is better adapted to ALL USES than the SCHUYLKILL COAL, operated by the largest coal operators in the country. We also claim that we have prices to meet the lowest coal quotations. Hoping to be favored with your order, we remain, very respectfully,

A REMEDY FOUND AT LAST TO CURE

HOG CHOLERA!

LIEBERMAN'S
Hog Cholera Remedy
WILL POSITIVELY CURE AND PREVENT HOG CHOLERA!

IT is not a new remedy, but has been tried and experimented with for two years and found that if used when the hogs are first attacked that it will cure the Diseased Hogs and prevent the contagion from spreading to the others in the same pen.

SYMPTOMS OF HOG CHOLERA:

It is essentially a malarial fever. The animal however fierce and obstinate formerly is found more gentle and tractable; it shows decided signs of fever, elevated temperature alternating with cold shivers; the ears are more or less loped; hindquarters weak and the hog shows a strong tendency to lie down on the least provocation and hide in the litter, rising only when wanting to drink; no appetite but great thirst. It often stands drawn together, with arched back and tucked-up abdomen. Its gait is staggering and its grunt weak. Its cough is weak and has a peculiar hollow sound, not easy to describe. It breathes hard, with pumping flanks and soon loses flesh. The skin is harsh and scaly and soon becomes discolored with purplish patches around the snout, between the forelegs and inside the thighs.

A Card of Explanation to the People of Kent County—The Credit System a Great Humbug in Every Respect.

I DESIRE through the columns of this paper to say that on and after SEPTEMBER 1ST my business will be conducted on the CASH SYSTEM, and in order to sell Clothing and Underwear cheaper than it has ever been offered in this market, I must have the cash for everything purchased from my store. If I were to continue the credit business, I would be compelled to add largely to my capital, carry a much larger stock of goods, which would mean heavier taxes and insurance, besides paying out many dollars for postage and stationery to send bills and statements, and occasionally trust a party who would never pay, and the account would be lost. By doing a cash business all this is saved and I will be better able to give better goods and better styles than I otherwise could for the same money.

I have studied the question carefully and fail to find a single advantage in the credit system, either to my customers or myself. You run no risk when you pay the cash, as the money in every case will be refunded where goods are unsatisfactory. In conclusion I would say to the CASH CUSTOMERS of this county I want your trade, and in exchange for your cash I will give you Clothing and Underwear this fall and winter cheaper than you ever bought it before. My old books will be closed up at once and never again will I credit any one from my store. The price will be the same to all, as the cash must accompany every purchase.

Respectfully, &c.,
