Your RED CROSS

The Red Cross carries on for service men and veterans

Chartered by Congress as the Volunteer Relief Agency of the United States to Save Lives, Give Relief in Disaster, Fight Epidemics, Aid Veterans and Service Men, and serve the nation in all Emergencies

Sign of safety on the beach—a million life savers protect the public

Junior Red Cross members maintain friendly interest in children of other nations

A right start in life—thousands of pre-school children examined by Red Cross nurses under doctors' supervision

Families prepared against sickness through home nursing instruction by Red Cross nurses

Where Red Cross is the only help—homes swept away by disaster are replaced for the needy by Red Cross. Scene of New England hurricane of 1938

Sign of help on the highway—two million are trained to give first aid to the injured

A Year's Red Cross Work

100,000 persons, who suffered loss in 148 disasters, aided

116,000 families, victims of economic distress, given help

165,000 war veterans or their families assisted

40,000 men of Army, Navy, and Coast Guard given service

100,000 Life Savers trained; 313,000 First Aiders trained

2,757 Emergency First Aid Stations operated on highways to aid injured

2,467 Mobile Units, drivers of trucks, State Police, ready to give First Aid

2,126 Red Cross Chapters campaigned for safety against home and farm accidents

1,000,000 visits made to the sick and thousands of children examined by Red Cross Public Health Nurses

50,000 women and girls trained in home nursing of the sick

9,000,000 children members of Junior Red Cross trained in community interests and international understanding

150,000 uniformed Volunteers produce surgical dressings, braille books for the blind, garments for the needy and perform many community services

These services, reaching millions of people annually, are supported by men and women who join as members of the Red Cross in the annual Roll Call from Armistice Day to Thanksgiving Day—November 11 to 30. Renew your membership in your local Chapter or be one of the million new members of the Red Cross, to prepare this organization against emergency.

Sign of the Volunteer—Thousands of women wear uniforms designating service they are trained to give for the Red Cross