Sale by Auction.

ON THURSDAY,

The 10th March, at 12 o'clock, at Yates's vendue warehouse, the following valuable property will be offered at auction, if not previously disposed of by private contract:

UNION Mill, situated on the banks of Jones's falls, about two miles from this city; the mill house is stone, upwards of 40 feet square, two and an half stories high, neatly plaistered inside, one water wheel 29 feet high, which turns a pair of burs, one pair 6 feet, the other 4½, with all the necessary machinery, nearly new and in good repair. The mill is now able to manufacture upwards of 30,000 bushels of wheat per annum, and the great fall in the stream will admit of being occupied again with another wheel of nearly equal force. There are belonging to said mill about 32 acres of land, part of which is exceedingly rich bottom, the residue in wood. Joseph Scott, at E. Tyson's mill, will shew the property; or Samuel Byrnes, on Bowly's wharf, will give information of the same. The terms of sale are, one thousand dollars cash; one other thousand in 4 months; and the residue in three annual payments, with interest—notes with approved indorsers will be required. A bond with approved security will be given for the conveyance of the property.

Valuable Lands for Sale.

THE Subscriber offers for sale the following eleven tracts of valuable well timbered patented LANDS, situated in Washington and Allegany counties, to wit:

No. 1. One tract of land called Gibraltar, situated on King's creek, adjoining the lands of Thomas Hampton, containing acres, more or less.

No. 2. One tract of land known by the name of Syracuse, situated on King's creek, adjoining the lands of Hugh Miller, containing acres, more or less.

No. 3. One tract of land called Helicon, situated on King's creek, adjoining the lands of Francis Combs, containing acres, more or less.

No. 4. One tract of land called Peak of Ree, situated on Racoon creek, adjoining the lands of Thomas Armour, containing acres, more or less.

No. 5. One tract of land called Hampton, situated on King's creek, adjoining the lands of Francis Combs, containing acres, more or less.

No. 6. One tract of land called the Square, situated on Racoon creek, adjoining the lands of Joseph Hampton, containing acres, more or less.

No. 7. One tract of land called Unity, situated on King's creek, adjoining the lands of John Wright, containing acres 47 perches, more or less.

No. 8. One tract of land called Peak of Pico, situated also on King's creek, adjoining the lands of Joseph Lawreys.

No. 9. One tract of land called Pear Point, situated on Racoon creek, adjoining the lands of Cook and Pink, containing acres, more or less.

No. 10. One tract of land called Swancy, situated on Racoon creek, adjoining the lands of Isaac Blackburn, containing acres, more or less.

No. 11. One tract of land called Morefields, situated on Racoon creek, adjoining the lands of William Redick, containing acres, more or less.

All those valuable tracts of land abound each of them with quantities of sugar maple and stone coal, and so well situated on the two creeks, that forges and mills of any description may be erected thereon at a very small expence.

Also, in Harford county.

One tract of superior well timbered land, situated in Harford county, about 4 miles from Bush-town, 26 from Baltimore, and about 3 miles from navigable water, containing acres, more or less.

One tract do. do. situated on the post road, about 2 miles from Bush-town, and two miles from navigable water, containing acres.

One tract do. do. situated on Swan creek, near the post road, and about 4 miles from Havre de Grace, containing acres.

Also, a fine grass lot of ten acres, situated on the run passing through Bush-town, with a mill seat thereon—would be a complete situation for a tanner or a slitting mill.

Also, a small farm situated on Winter's run, about one mile and an half from the post road, and 5 from Bush-town.

The property in Washington and Allegany counties will be shewn by Jacob Hanson, living in Washington county, adjoining the said lands; and those in Harford county by myself. Indisputable titles to all of the above tracts of land can be given, and terms of sale made easy. For further particulars please to apply to

ON the 18th instant, a person who calls himself WILLIAM RODMAN, put into my hands, for sale, a dark brown HORSE, about 14½ hands high, supposed to be 8 or 9 years old, and is a natural pacer—which horse I sold at auction; but from the conduct of the said Rodman since, a suspicion is entertained that the horse was stolen, and in consequence he has been committed to Baltimore county jail. Rodman says he formerly lived in the state of Pennsylvania, but now resides with his father up the North river, 20 miles above the city of New-York. He is of a slender make, dark complexion, dark eyes, black hair, appears to be five feet nine or ten inches high, and 25 or 26 years old; his cloathing indifferent.—The object of this advertisement is, that if the horse should be stolen the owner may obtain him again, and the thief be brought to justice.

Stone-Ware Manufactory.

THOS. & JOEL MORGAN

TAKE this method to inform their friends in particular and the public in general, that they still continue the manufactory of Stone Ware, at their old stand corner of Pitt and Green-streets, Old-Town, where they have on hand, a large quantity at present of the best kind, and well assorted; and as they have lately enlarged their works, so as to make double the quantity they have usually done, they expect to be able to supply any demand they may be favored with, at the shortest notice. They likewise return their thanks for former favors, and hope a continuance thereof, as they shall make it their constant study to merit it. July 2. 1aw

Notice.

THE subscriber respectfully informs all persons indebted to the estate of John Lee Webster, late of Harford, deceased, that having extended indulgence as long as he can, consistent with a proper regard to the interest of the heirs, all of whom are now of age to receive their respective portions, he is prompted by a sense of duty to close the settlement of said estate. As it is inconvenient to make personal application to all, he takes this method earnestly to request those indebted to the estate, to make immediate payment, otherwise suits will be instituted without respect to persons, and no further notice given.

Seventy Dollars Reward.

RAN-AWAY from the subscriber, ten or 12 miles from Hancock-town, on the Potomak, on the night of the 14th of December last, two negro men, slaves: SAUL is about 5 feet 5 inches high, of a yellow negro or a dark mulatto complexion, about nineteen years of age, bad countenance, heavy eye-brows; some marks about his mouth resembling a burn; has bushy hair; is artful and talkative; calls himself Saul Cornish; purchased by me from doctor Daniel Sullivan, of New-Market, Dorset county, Eastern Shore, Maryland. Had on a drab colored great coat, a blue top jacket, and blue trousers.

BEN is about five feet six inches high; has a good countenance, and is a bright mulatto; about twenty years of age: stout made; has worked at the carpenter's business—purchased for me on the 2d December last, by John Enser, from Barnett Johnson, near Peach Bottom Ferry, not far from Baltimore; where, probably, he will lurk. Ben had on a blue top jacket and trousers.

Forty dollars reward for Ben, and thirty dollars for Saul, will be given by my attornies, Messrs. Macdonald and Ridgely, of Baltimore, on the said slaves being lodged in Annapolis or Baltimore jail, or otherwise secured, so that my attornies can sell or dispose of them.
