THE HYNSON FAMILY.

son, of Pengethley, in the county or Hereford; yet he retains his paternal coat-of-arms, viz.: Azure, a chevron between three sons or, and a bordure ermine, which bordure was granted to Thomas Hinson, Father of the said Sir William, in 1644, by Ulster, King-at-Arms in Ireland, for service done in that Kingdom, which patent is registered in the herald's office in London.

All of Thomas Hinson's sons were worthy successors of their father in place of trust and distinction. Thomas settled in Talbot county on the estate which he called "Hynson's Town"—the spelling of the name with the letter y, instead of I, wss purely a maryland method, as the Fordham family and the emigrant spelled the name Hinson. Thomas Hynson became High Sheriff of Talbot County, and was one of the most influential men of his day. He died in the year 1679. Col. John Hynson, the second son of Lieut. Thomas Hinson, remained in Kent county, where in the year 1678 he was High Sheriff of Kent, as his father had been before him, and in which office of power and dignity his brother, Thomas Hynson, was honored in Talbot county. The third brother, Col. Charles Hynson, was a leader in the military affairs of his community. Col. John Hynson, who died in 1705, left a wife Ann, and children—Colonel John, Colonel Nathaniel and daughters Sarah, Elizabeth, Jane, Mary and Anna. Col. John Hinson, son of Thomas Hinson, High Sheriff of Kent, married Anna Francesca Vanderneyden, widow of Edward Shippen, of Philadelphia, and granddaughter of Augustine Herman, the Lord of Bohemia Manor, one of the most interesting notables of colonial Maryland.

Col. Hinson was a burgess for Kent from the year 1681 till 1688. He was a vestryman of St. Paul's parish and was not only High Sheriff, but justice of the peace as well, and was Military Commander of the County of Kent.

Col. Chas. Hinson, who died in 1711, married Margaret Harris and left two sons and five daughters. The Hinson family is not only one of the largest and most distinguished of the Eastern Shore, but without exception the intermarriages have been with representatives of equally distinguished families. Among these we find Col. Thomas Hinson claiming for his bride wealthy Ann Tylden, a daughter of Marmaduke Tylden, of Great Oak Manor, and his wife, Rebecca Wilmer.

There were at least two marriages of the Hynsons with the distinguished Hanson family of Kent county, and one with the Thomas family, both George Hanson and Hans Hanson finding their wives in the Hynson family. The earliest Col. Nathaniel Hynson, who was a member of the Assembly for 1716-1729, married twice; his first wife was Hannah, and the second was Mary Kelley. Another Nathaniel, probably son of Thomas Hynson, of Talbot county, married Mary Richardson, of the distinguished Quaker family on Wye river, who married secondly Charles Tylden, descendant of Marmaduke Tylden, lord of Great Oak Manor; Charles Hynson the grandson of the first Colonel Chas. married Phoebe Carvell, whose patronymic has become famous as one typical of Maryland's early aristocracy. Col. Thomas Hynson, the son of Colonel John and his wife Mary Storp, married Isabella Pearce, daughter of another distinguished Kent family. The marriages of the daughters of the Hynson family were not less interesting than those of the sons. Mary Hynson first married Major Joseph Wickes. Anna Hynson, the daughter of Col. John Hynson, became the bride of the Rev. Stephen Bordley, and not long after the arrival of Rev. Alexander Williamson in the province, we find the young widow of Stephen Bordley administering on his estate as "Mrs. Anna Williamson." The descendants of this charming Colonial dame are almost, if not quite, as numerous as those of Mme. Henrietta Marsa Lloyd.

Sarah Hynson, sister of Anna Bordley Williamson, married Capt. James Smith, a gentleman of distinguished station, and their daughter Hannah was wooed and won by the dashing Col. Joseph Nicholson, ancestor of Judge Joseph Hopper Nicholson, of Baltimore.

Simon Wilmer, another representative of the Colonial gentry of Kent county, married Dorcas Hynson. Martha Hynson became the wife of Dr. Jacob Ringgold, another intermarriage between these families being that of Nathaniel Hynson, the fourth, to Sophia Ringgold. Other alliances of the Hynsons were with the Kings, Keenes, Morgans, Moores, Rolphs, Stevens, Wilsons, Rogers, Maslins, Westcotts and others not already mentioned.

The descendants of Thomas Hynson, High Sheriff of Kent County, are to be found in all sections of this country, and only the best known can be included at this time. Among these are Mrs. Edward Shipwen and her sons, Mr. John Eager Howard Post and Mr. Lloyd Parker Shippen, Mrs. Thomas Hill, Mrs. George A. Kirby, Mrs. George W. Teackle, Mrs. Alexander Fowler, Mr. Wm. R. Hodges, Mr. William H. Hodges, Mr. Robert B. Hodges, Miss Cora Hodges, Mr. Neale Hodges, Mrs. Geo. R. A. Hiss, nee Kirby, Miss Mary Hanson Kirby, Mr. William Geo. Kirby, of New York, Mrs. Wm. R. Constable, Miss Roberto Constable, Mr. Harry Constable, Mr. Charles Constable, Mr. Wm. Constable, Mrs. Troxall, Mrs. Jos. Ridgely, Mr. St. George W. Teackle, Miss Josephine A. Teackle, and Mrs. Alfred D. Bernard, nee Constable; Mr. James Pryor Williamson, of Pennsylvania; Mrs. Graham Gordon, Miss Isabelle Earle, Miss Rose Earle, Mr. Herbert B. Steinson, Mrs. J. Alfred Merritt Tying, W. A. Merritt, Dr. Simon Wickes Merritt, Mrs. Thomas Linsey Craven, Mrs. Frederick S. Tyson, Mr. Malcolm V. Tyson, Mrs. John Read Magruder, nee Nicholson, of Annapolis, Mr. Peter Hagner Magruder, Miss Elizabeth Hagner Magruder. Dr. Joseph Nicholson Henry, of New York. The descendants of Com. James Nicholson, United States Navy, and of Com. Samuel Nicholson, the descendants of Capt. Benjamin Nicholson and of Capt. John Nicholson, United States Navy. The descendants of Com. James Nicholson are Mr. Bryan K. Stevens, Miss Josephine Stevens, Mr. Albert Gallatin Stevens and all the other descendants of the great Albert Gallatin, who married the daughter of Com. James Nicholson, all of New York.
