Proposals

FOR PUBLISHING BY SUBSCRIPTION,

That rare and celebrated work,

The Life of Lorenzo De' Medici,

CALLED THE MAGNIFICENT.

By WILLIAM ROSCOE.

CONDITIONS.

The work will be elegantly printed on a handsome type and superfine paper, and will be comprised in three octavo volumes, of about 450 pages each.

It shall be embellished with seventeen handsome engravings, one of which is an elegant likeness of Lorenzo.

The price to subscribers will be two dollars and twenty-five cents a volume, in boards, to be paid on delivery. The London octavo edition sells for twelve dollars, and can scarcely be procured in this country.

The first volume will be put to press as soon as two hundred and fifty subscribers are obtained, and will be finished with all possible dispatch. The other volumes will be finished at intervals of one month.

Subscriptions will be received at the office of the Gazette of the United States, and at the principal book-stores in the United States.

N. B. This edition will be printed from the fourth and last London edition, corrected.

Character of the work, extracted from the Pursuits of Literature, dialogue 3, line 257, and the note.

"But hark what solemn strains from Arno's vales
Breathe raptures wafted on the Tuscan gales!
Lorenzo rears again his awful head,
And feels his ancient glories round him spread;
The Muses starting from their trance revive,
And at their Roscoe's bidding wake and live."

Note. "See 'The life of Lorenzo de' Medici, called the Magnificent, by William Roscoe,' I cannot but congratulate the public upon this great and important addition to classical history, which I regard as a phenomenon in literature in every point of view. For my own part, I have not terms sufficient to express my admiration of this author's genius and erudition, or my gratitude for the amusement and information I have received. I shall not violate the dignity of the work by slight objections to some modes of expression, or to a few words, or to some occasional sentiments in the Historian of a Republic. But I recommend it to our country as a work of unquestionable genius and of uncommon merit. It adds the name of Roscoe to the very first rank of Historians."
