ESTABLISHED 1841.

FRED. G. USILTON. WM. B. USILTON, JR

WM. B. USILTON'S SONS,

PUBLISHERS.

SATURDAY, - - - APRIL 1, 1905

THE appointment of Prof. Milton Melvin as School Examiner for Kent County meets with general approval. He is thoroughly fitted for the position and will make an efficient official.

THE Delaware Legislature adjourned Thursday without electing a United States Senator and the vacancy in the Senate from Delaware will continue until the next session of the Legislature, which convenes in January, 1907, unless there is an election by an extra session.

W. H. KELLEY has decided to withdraw as candidate for Sheriff in Kennedyville district leaving the field to Mr. Albert Medders. Messrs. John Comegys and Biddle Hossinger are being spoken of as Legislative candidates from the second district.

CONFINEMENT for life should be the portion of incurable victims of the drink habit, say the Supervisors of City Charities in their annual report, and habitual drunkards should be confined indefinitely until cured.

DEMOCRATIC city organization people will support the constitutional amendment. All of the ward leaders favor its adoption and when the fall campaign begins expect to render the party every assistance.

Mr. I. Freeman Rasin takes this view of it. Said he: "The Democratic party made this question the issue in the last State campaign. It engrafted it in its platform and promised the people to secure its adoption. With that understanding all of our candidates were nominated and elected. Every Democratic representative in the General Assembly voted for this amendment and made it a party measure. Under the circumstances it is entitled to the support of every Democrat in the city and State."

THE GREAT ISSUE.

The Suffrage Amendment Explained By Chairman Vandiver.

We shall publish in full at the first opportunity the provisions of the suffrage amendment to the constitution, which the Court of Appeals has decided must go upon the ballot next fall and which will undoubtedly be the paramount issue in the fall campaign.

Mr. Vandiver declares that the amendment was passed in avowed redemption of the letter and spirit of the platform upon which the Democratic Senate and House of Delegates, as well as the Governor, Comptroller and attorney General were elected, and maintains that an examination of its terms will abundantly show that it obeys the popular mandate as expressed in their election. He asserts that it is designed to give the people an opportunity to rescue the State from a great evil and is a full, complete and effective remedy. Mr. Vandiver says:

"In full view of these most abundant safeguards against error, injustice and injury, we are called on to meet an argument that these registration officers will wickedly, corruptly or ignorantly register illiterate foreigners or negroes who ought not to be registered, or will refuse to register literate foreigners or negroes who ought to be registered, and because of the possibility of such misconduct we must continue to bear political evils which an overwhelming majority of our people have declared to be intolerable.

"There would be no force in the argument now being considered, even if there were no right of appeal from the registration officers, for the obvious reasons that the equal political division of the registration officers is the amplest protection against error and injustice and that consequently partisan injustice is practically next to impossible. But when we bear in mind that there is the fullest, speediest right of appeal, even to our highest court, the argument needs only to be stated to be rejected. In truth, when analyzed, it means that our election officials cannot be trusted with duties, powers and responsibilities, even when they act subject to the absolute supervision and control of our Court of Appeals, and applies with equal force to the performance by the registration officers of their functions in the work of registration."

The address of Mr. Vandiver marks the beginning of the campaign of education which it is proposed to wage throughout the months intervening before the election in November, and those who favor the measure express confidence that when once people get to thoroughly understand the amendment and to realize that it has been misrepresented, there will be a tremendous change of sentiment in its favor.

Heartily for It!

Ex-Gov. E. E. Jackson has declared his purpose to do all in his power to win the suffrage amendment, and the Democracy of Wicomico will line up solidly for it.

CAROLINE county has purchased six mules to be used in working the public roads.

SIMPERS GUILTY!

Jno M. Simpers, who shot Albert Constable on the evening of August 18, 1904 near Elkton, was Thursday evening found guilty of murder in the first degree and sentenced to be hanged. It took three-quarters of an hour for the jury in the case to decide the fate of the traverser.

MAN ABOUT TOWN.

Messrs. Graham & Smith are removing their place of business from the Eliason Building to the room vacated by Mr. Bartley on corner of High and Queen street. This room is to be improved with a glass front, bay windows, &c., by Mr. Walter T. Pippin and this hustling firm better able to serve their customers.

Charles E. Kirby is snugly fixed up in the corner store.

Capt. Pheffer is building a new house, F. E. Duyer builder.

The young men of Chestertown are organizing a brass band. Prof. Robert Godwin is instructor and Stam's Hal the meeting place. We wish them success.

Contractor Culp has begun work on the new Emmanuel Sunday School. Messrs. Jackson and James Coleman are laying the brick.

Contractor Duyer has engaged Harry W. and F. C. Sparks to lay the brick on Jefferson's new store. It will take from 85,000 to 100,000 bricks.

W. T. Pippin is building a double house on Cannon street for J. B. Sappington.

Md. Conference At Salisbury.

The seventy-seventh session of the Maryland Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church will meet in Salisbury, Md., on Wednesday morning April 5. It will be the first meeting of the conference in Salisbury since 1854. The conference has a membership of 140 ministers and 140 delegates.

Ex postmaster E. S. Adkins, of Salisbury, will preside, and the address of welcome will be made by Mayor Harper, Rev. J. S. Smith, pastor of the church. Rev. F. T. Little, president of the conference will respond.

The conference sermon will be preached on Wednesday morning, by Rev. J. W. Balderson, of Seaford, Del. and Dr. D. L. Greenfield is expected to preach the ordination sermon. Rev. Francis T. Little, is closing his third year in the presidency. He can be elected for two more years, and it is thought he will serve out the full term, as he has made a popular and successful officer.

One of the important matters to come before the conference will be to elect a commissioner to meet in joint convention with delegates from the Congregational and United brethern churches to consider terms of union with these denominations. The time and place of this convention is hereafter to be determined upon.

Rev. F. H. Lewis, pastor of North Baltimore, will ask to be transferred to Pittsburg so that he may serve the First church of that city. Rev. F. C. Klein, of Newark, has asked to be relieved of his charge. It is thought he will be appointed to North Baltimore.

Rev. G. J. Hooker will not return to Payson street. Rev Dorsey Blake will move from Belair. Union Chapel on the Belair charge, will ask to be set off and supplied by a single man.

Rev. S. A. Hoblitzell, of Lisbon, who has been in traveling connection forty-eight years, will retire this spring and settle in Belair, where he has a son in business. It is also reported that Rev. R. S. Rowe, of Kent county, will locate, as he is the oldest member of the conference in the traveling connection. Rev. T. H. Wright has served notice that he will move from Burrisville, and Rev. F. H. Mullineaux will not return to Kent Island.

Forecast For April.—A marked change to warmer will pass over the country during the first two or three days of April. The tendency to hail storms will be greatly increased at this time. The period will probably end with cool frosty nights up to about the 6th. The 7 and 8 are central dates, on and touching which reactionary changes to storm conditions will take place. Venus storms until past the middle of April, should be warning of sudden change to cooler with frost.

From the 13th to the 15th, rain with thunder and storminess will touch numerous localities The next storm period includes the 17th to the 20th inclusive. The Easter full Moon on the celestial equator and in perigree are embraced in the 17th to the 19th. Late sleet storms will visit many sections on and touching the 18 and 19. The next storm period is central on the 24th, coveriig the 23rd to the 27th. Change to fair and cooler will follow this period, up to the 29th. On the 29th and 30th reactionary storm conditions will return. April will end with much warmer weather, and thunder storms passing eastwardly across the country.

Collided.—Mr. M. A. Toulson and daughter drove up to the baseball game Tuesday in their runabout. During the game the horse driven by Miss Anna B. Smith became unmanageable and collided with Mr. Toulson's team crushing both wheels to the ground. No one was hurt.

CASTORIA.

"The Banker" Sold.—The skip-jack boat known in Chestertown as the "Banker" was sold this week to Mr. Charles Thomas, of Rock Hall. He hauled the boat to the bay and will put a 3-horse power gasoline engine in her. Mr. Thomas was unfortunate in having purchased a skiff that was stolen from Havre de Grace parties and after placing an engine etc., in her, the owner claimed her. Mr. Thomas was perfectly ignorant that she had been stolen. The party charged with stealing the boat isin the Chestertown jail to await action of the Kent Court.

Pleasant Party.—Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Rash gave a party in honor of their daughter, Mabrey and Miss Alice Wood of Still Pond, Wednesday evening, those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Joe Atwell and son, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Turner and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Turner and daughter, Mrs. Armelia Joiner, Mrs. Eliza Walbert, Mr. Charles H. Hurlock, Misses Alice Wood, Mabrey Rash, Bessie Cooper, Mary Cooper, Isabelle Vandyke, Mary Bacon, Nellie Ivens, Eunice Cooper and Ethel Rash; Messrs. Walter Moffett, Ernest Briscoe, William Holmes, Edgar Rice, Carl T. Norris, Claude Hacket, Franklin Benton, Marion Rash, Ralph Vandyke, John Dwyer, and Albert Bacon. Refreshments were served at 10.30 o'clock.

Base Ball Season Opens—The base ball season in Kent opened this week with two games on the Washington College campus. The visiting team was the strong Villanova College club, of near Philadelphia and the article of ball they put up was first class. On Tuesday they defeated the Washington College team by a score of 9 to 0. On Wednesday the same teams played and the visitors won by a score of 7 to 1. The Washington College pitchers were White and Wilson and they both did very well for the first games. From the way the young W. C. players did in the first games the prospect is for a good team and before the season ends they will give a good account of themselves.

A good schedule has been arranged for the season and some fine teams will be seen on the college campus. Kennedyville is anxious to try the college boys and a game has been arranged for today.

THE annual supper and awarding of medals of the Pine Tree Fox Hunting Club will take place in Chestertown one evening next week.

THE BEST TO BE HAD.

EDITORS KENT NEWS:—There is but little being done in politics here in the first district, and aside from our candidate for Sheriff, but little being talked. There are certain interests, however of our town and district that render an energetic, capable and efficient representative an absolute necessity at the coming session of the legislature. And it is no disparagement of anyone to say, as many conservative and thoughtful people are saying, that Mr. John P. Ahern is the man for the place.

It is true that Mr. Ahern is not seeking that place; but it is equally true the best man, as a rule, do not seek office. And this is one reason why, other things being equal, he should take it. When his friends mention public office to him Mr. Ahern cites his business engagements as a reason for not considering the matter. As is well-known he is the senior partner in a large and flourishing lumber business, president of the loan association, cashier of the bank and engaged in numerous minor matters additional to his agency for the Q. A. & K. R. R. Co.; but so far from these being excused for not taking an important public office they are the very proofs of ability and capacity that give the people confidence and which should lead him to accept.

I do not claim to be a prophet but I do predict that the best delegation you can select in the First District is Mr. Ahern's this year, first, last and all the time.
