VOL. 67. CHESTERTOWN, MD., SATURDAY, AUGUST 5, 1905. NO. 9.

DOWN WE COME

Our half yearly reduction sale of Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing begins today.

In it we offer you a fairly good selection of thoroughly dependable merchandise—Suits that are made to fit, and put together, not for this special sale, but are goods left from our season's selling, made up in the most approved manner—best trimmings and best workmanship.

You will find them all marked in plain figures, and every penny reduction you receive from the original price, is that much taken from an honest and legitimate profit. No marking up and then marking down prices, but what's the use using all this ink to tell you that the word CLEARANCE SALE with our name beneath it ought to be sufficient, for they have been too well established in the past years for there to be any doubt as to the genuineness of our offers.

In this sale we have Men's Suits low as $2.50 the whole suit. Boys' Suits at prices calculated to interest any mother who has a boy to don them. Straw hats are also included in this sale. We're going to let 'em go.

Yours for business,

J. D. LUCAS.

LOCAL NEWS.

CAPT. BILLY KING, of Chestertown, in diving off Betterton wharf yesterday met with a serious if not fatal accident. He was carried to Baltimore but the local physicians have but little hope of his recovery.

WHEAT was quoted at 83 cents in Baltimore yesterday.

MR. IVANHOE WILLIS has purchased a lot on Cannon street of Mr. George C. Adkinson on which he contemplates building a home. He will sell his stock and remove to Chestertown. Mr. Wm. Duyer has also bought a lot in the same neighborhood.

THE barn and stable on Mrs. Mary Miller's farm, in Worton, tenated by Mr. Walter Fowler was struck by lightning Saturday night and totally destroyed. The contents were also burned, but fortunately no live stock. There was $387 insurance in the Kent Mutual.

THE new schooner "Kent" was launched Monday afternoon off Mr. C. Walter Fletcher's shore in Broad Neck in the presence of a number of interested witnesses. The "Kent" was built by her owner, Capt. John E Vickers, and measures 54 feet with a 12-foot beam; 18½ tonnage with a grain capacity of 1800 bushels. She is a fine model and reflects credit on her designers.

THE Chestertown High School grounds are well kept by Janitor White but the chickens play havoc occasionally. Owners of these fowls should keep them at home.

J. H. SIDES received a curiosity in the shape of pieces of stone from his southern home a few days ago. These stone are flexible and may be shaken like a twig. They are sold all over the world as curiosities. Call and see them

T. B. ELLIOTT is painting the bridge at Topping's mill.

W. S. & A. M. CULP's workmen are at work building depots in Delaware for the Pennsylvania railroad.

MASSEY cornfields will yield one hundred bushels to the acre this year!

FIFTH DISTRICT farmers have to start 3 A. M. to bring stock to Chestertown for shipment on train.

H. F. JEFFERSON will have one of the finest store rooms on the Peninsula. His stock will be ready for inspection early next month. Mr. A. W. Carmine will be head salesman, Miss Kate Wheatley will have charge of the millinery department while Mrs. J. Lane Finley and Miss Emma Knight will assist behind the counter.

THE town sprinkler has only been operated twelve days this year!

THE threshing machine of Mr. Walter Fowler, near Worton, was badly damaged last week by a large iron bolt being run through it.

ONE gentleman, Mr. Oliver Miller, on the Wilkins farm near Tolchester, takes the NEWS to task upon its prophecy that 5,000 baskets will count the peaches that Kent will send to market this year. He says that he expects to ship at least 1600 baskets himself.

ONE of the best yields of wheat this year was that of Mr. Wm. T. Brown, of Quaker Neck. He raised 27 bushels per acre on corn ground and 33½ on fallow. Trew's Improved Fultz is a winner.

IT is said that the Chestertown persons who went on the excursion Thursday were the best dressed colored people ever seen in Annapolis.

B. J. MCCAULEY, near Galena, has lost seven horses recently from unknown causes. State Veterinarian Jarman visited the farm Tuesday and said the disease was not contageous.

THERE is more wheat stacked in Kent county this year than ever before.

THE long promised all night service by the Diamond State Telephone Co. was commenced Tuesday with Mr. J. H. Nichols in charge.

"ISLAND LAD," the fine stepper of Rev. A. H. Covey, was purchased Thursday by Mr. Austin of Wilmington. This horse has high action and has shown spurts of speed that go down in the twenties. The price is said to have been $400.

BETTERTON was in gala attire Thursday evening. The fancy German given by Mr. Howard Turner at the Casino was a grand success and hundreds enjoyed it from the surrounding country.

THE Chestertown souvenir postal cards are all the rage. They are for sale by J. H. Sides and are equal to any in the country.

DOGS invaded J. W. Boggs' sheep fold this week and killed several.

TOLCHESTER is having one of the most successful seasons in its long history. Every room in the hotel and annex have been filled for the first time. Supt. Noland knows how to please the public.

ONE of Kent's oldest residents Mrs. Caroline Christian died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. Atkinson, near St. Paul's on Monday, July 31st, at 4 o'clock P. M. She leaves three daughters and nine grandchildren and one great grand-child Mrs. Wm. Redmile, of Wilmington, Del., and Mrs. Wm. Atkinson, of Kent and Mrs. William Clark, deceased, and two brothers and sister Mr. Ellick Wheler, of Chestertown, Captain Ben Wheller, of Betterton and Mrs. Mills, of Baltimore. The deceased was a widow of the late Hance Caster Christian, deceased, and in her 87 year. Funeral services were held at her late home, Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock interment at St. Paul cemetery, Rev C.T. Denroach officiating. Paul bearers were C. M. Brown, Arthur Kendall, S. C. Lecompt, Jacob Shriley, W. Jones and W. Smith. Undertaker Fergurson had charge of the funeral arrangements.

REV. HENRY K. MILLER has sold the "Thomas" farm, near Chestertown, to Mr. James F. French for $5,000. The farm contains 140 acres and is now tenanted by Mr. Lewis F. Newsome. Mr. French will occupy the farm next year.

MEDFORD BROOKS, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. M. Brooks, is devoting considerable attentoin to raising poultry on "Brooklyn Heights." He has nearly a thousand chicks. Mr. Henry Brown, Quaker Neck, has over 800 fine broilers. He lost about 150 by rats.

SEVERAL Hereford heifers arrived by boat several days ago for H. B. Nicholson, of Chestertown, and they have been roaming about cornfields ever since as wild as deers. Mr. N. was compelled to shoot one which he found in Mr. W. T. Nicholson's field and he hopes to get near enough to the others to treat likewise.

New Professors At Washington College.

At the recent meeting of the Visitors and Governors three new appointments were made for the teaching staff of Washington College for next year. Dr. Robert H. Gault was elected Professor of Pedagogy, George W. Hau, Professor of Modern Languages, and S. Jennie Townsend, instructor in music.

Dr. Gault is a graduate of the State Normal School, of Ohio, and also of Cornell University. During 1901 he was an instructor in the State Normal School at Potsdam N. Y., and in the following year was elected a Fellow in Clark University. In June 1905 he received the degree of Doctor of Philosophy at the University of Pennsylvania. In addition to his high academic training, Dr. Gault has had wide experience as a teacher in all grades of school work, and comes recommended by many of the best educators of the country. Prof. Hau is a graduate of a German Gymnasium. Immediately after his graduation he came to this country, and later took a degree at the Ohio Northern University. Miss Townsend is a graduate of the Normal School at Albany, and of the New England Conservatory of Music, Boston. She will take up the work in vocal music as required by the curriculum recently adopted for the Normal Schools of the State.

EXCURSION AGROUND.

Colored Excursion Aground at Mouth of Still Pond Creek—Had 900 on Board—"Scraps" on the Boat.

After having been hard aground for more than nine hours on a sand reef off the mouth of Still Pond creek, between Poole's island and the Kent county shore, the excursion steamer Jane Mosley, in command of Capt. Sprigg Simmons, came up to her pier at the foot of York street, at 8.45 Tuesday morning, with 900 sleepy and very much disgusted colored passengers on board. The Moseley was returning from an excursion to Chesapeake City, and, it is said, as the result of a miscalculation, landed hard aground at 9 o'clock night in Kent County.

After repeated efforts, Captain Simmons got his boat off under her own steam about 6 o'clock in the morning and continued the trip to Baltimore.

Eight of the passengers—seven men and one woman—spent most of the trip in the dark hold. This fact gave rise to rumors to the affect that between thirty and fifty men were locked up in the hold and that one man's hand had been cut off with a razor.

"Good-by Janey, you'll neber git dis nigger on board no more." "Tank de Lawd, we is olmos' home." "Jake how's de chilluns an' de old man?" "Dis is de mos' I ever gits fer my money," were some of the expressions of the belated passengers as they filed off the boat after having a twenty-one hours' water trip on a twenty-five cent ticket.

"Home again fum er foreign lan," was sung to the echo as the boat tied up at its wharf.

"Well, sir, you never see sech a time as we had," said an old negro, "We had plenty of grub, thank de Lawd, an' er few uv'm had too much ter drink. It was de sleepin' wat got to us. De men, women an' chilluns jes' tumbled ober everywhere. De boat was goin' er purty good lick an' purty near knocked de women and chilluns down wen she struck, but dey was no 'fusion er prayin'."

Feed Everything.—A Kent county young lady who was going away on a short trip left these directions for her mother: "Make boy feed the old hens evenings, bran and meat meal; meal is in meat house. Young chickens to be fed morning and night. Small chickens three times a day, little ducks three times a day and give them water, the ducks have bran and meal mixed with milk whenever there is any. Hen in sleigh to hatch Saturday, one duck in hen house is to hatch August 3. One duck under chicken coop, August 5. Duck in hen house to be put down in yard in coop with all the little ducks. Hen that hatches in sleigh, put her chickens under porch with the hen there."

This must be a good, careful business lady.
