for the use of the city; provided nothing in the above section shall be so construed as to prevent persons from selling wood by the armfull, or loads of chips, or brush.

Section 2. And be it enacted and ordained, that it shall not be lawful for any person or persons to adulterate milk offered for sale or sold within the limits of the city of Baltimore, by mixing therewith water, chalk, or any drug or other articles whatsoever, under a penalty of not less than twenty dollars for each and every offence, one-half to go to the informer, and the other for the use of the city.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted and ordained, that any person or persons who shall sell or offer for sale, any milk from diseased or maimed cow within the limits of the city of Baltimore, shall pay a fine of twenty dollars for each and every offence, one-half to go to the informer, and the balance for the use of the city.

Mr. Cranford moved to amend the bill by striking out the words "or maimed," in the 2d and 3d lines of section 3, which was adopted.

Mr. Thompson moved to amend the bill by adding thereto the following section, which was adopted:

Section 4. And be it enacted and ordained, that any person bringing loose hay or straw to the city for sale, in wagon, cart, or other carriage, and having sold the same, shall on delivery thereof, return to the State scale, and have the empty vehicle weighed, and obtain from the weigh master a receipt of the net weight thereof, and give the same to the purchaser of his hay or straw; and any person delivering any parcel of hay or straw, to a purchaser, of less weight than charged for, shall be fined twenty dollars for each and every offence, one-half to the informer, and the other to the Register for the use of the city.

Mr. Thompson moved further to amend the bill, by adding thereto the following section, which was adopted:

Section 5. And be it enacted and ordained, that it shall not be lawful for any person to have unpressed bundle or loose hay or straw for sale, stored or kept in any house or cellar, other than carriage house or stable; and any person violating this section, shall be fined ten dollars, one half to the informer, and the other to the Register for the use of the

On motion of Mr. Lepson, the bill was further amended, by adding to the end thereof, the following section:

Section 6. And be it enacted and ordained, that all ordinances, or parts of ordinances, inconsistent with this supplement, be and the same are hereby repealed.

The bill, as amended, was then passed.

Mr. J. N. Boyd called up bill No. 56, an ordinance to open and condemn Fort street, from William street westwardly to the Middle Branch of the Patapsco river, which was read and passed.

Mr. Lepson called up bill No. 93, a supplement to an ordinance to provide for the construction of a draw-bridge to connect West Falls avenue with Block street, which was read.

Mr. Suter moved to amend the first section by striking out all after the word "bridge," in the 6th line, to the word "Sundays," in the 8th line, and inserting the words "from sunrise to sunset," which was rejected.

On motion of Mr. Quail, the first section was amended, by striking out all after the word "from," in the 6th line, to the words "from the," in the same line, and inserting the words "sunrise to sunset."

On motion of Mr. Quail, the first section was further amended, by striking out all after the word "from," in the 6th line, to the word "Sundays," in the same line, and inserting the words "sunrise to sunset."

Mr. Suter moved further to amend the first section by inserting the word "other," after the word "such," in the 18th line, which was not agreed to.

Mr. J. N. Boyd moved to amend the second section by striking out the words "four hundred and fifty," in the 2d line, and inserting the words "six hundred," which was rejected.

Mr. Mullen moved to amend the second section by striking out the words "four hundred and fifty," in the second